POETRY.

MAITING. BY JULIA WARD HOWE.

Sweet Lucy planting 't the most artless, winning maid in all the world to me, I loved her, sweetly, dearly. She was like a young sunbird, and her disposition was that of an angel, and I had pledged my vows to her.

opened the sealed door. The bank notes lay where I had flung them. I took them up with the pride of a conqueror, and placing them in my hands, exclaimed:

"They are no longer my masters; you are my men."

Now I am a man—redeemed from the thralldom of covetousness. I have three blooming children. Lucy is an angel of goodness, and I write myself as I did at the beginning—"By the grace of God I am what I am."

Morrill of Vermont, Gerrit of Ohio, Westcott of Illinois, Hoar of Massachusetts, Banks of New York, Calkins of New York, Moorhead of Pennsylvania, Allen of Texas, and Rogers of Missouri.

THE MAYORALTY.—City election closed two weeks from Tuesday, and in view of the understood unwillingness of Mayor Callin to hold his office for another year, some interest is naturally felt in the subject of candidates for the Mayorship.

It is not alleged that small ship loads can carry full of merchandise as crews at a single time, but slight loads and small bulk and lesser quantities are constantly crossing in one or another way. If you make inquiry of any wholesale dealer within a hundred miles of the frontier, you will learn that he does not sell a barrel now, where he formerly sold a hundred; and if you make inquiry of your city wholesale dealer, you will learn that the consumption of many articles has apparently ceased in this district bordering the sea.

Under the circumstances, several weekly publications have suggested, among them, the New York Herald, Boston Herald, and the Boston Herald, that they will hold a meeting of the citizens of the city, to be held on the 23rd inst., for the purpose of electing a Mayor.

The Convention last Tuesday, Mr. Phillips was unfortunate in his evening lecture. A disorganizer of all things to Government, one of two "New School" men, and the usual Thursday evening religious meetings of some of the churches, conspired to interfere with the attendance at his lecture, and in consequence the lecture was a failure.
