on the lower than hallbeet inveded by wraps, shows and retreatments, but the duncing was reserved for the upper floor or court room, still metalshed. Floors, arriptions had its large walls, but the coat of arms of the State arrows placed over the indges date with its illimitable golden anised, its triumphant godiess, and its impactable grantly some to figuratively scriptions. The result was close and crowded. The flickering candles in the sender against the wall or depending in rule changeless of bard books from the celling, it up the most actuading diverceiling, It in the most a sity of female costum-over scon. Clowns of I creased and statued with creased and staned with passing and dis-ule, todays of fargorean festivity revised with modern additions; garments in and get of season, a fur-triumed jacket and a thile skirt a velvet out of senson, a for this confidence of this skirt, a velvet robe under a pique sacque; fresh young faces beneath faded heat-dresses, and mature and buxon entries in virgin white. The ansatispace cleared for the dancers was continually invided by the fookeroon, who in these of the day limit the page.

three duce liked the toom.

As the master pushed his way to the front, a young girl, who had been standing in the sides of a quartille suddenly darted with a nymph-like quickness gmong the crowd and was for an instant hidden. Without distinguishing either guiong the crowd and was for an instant hidden. Without distinguishing either face or figure, Mr. Ford rescontized in the quick, impetuous action a characteristic movement of Cressy's twith an embarrassing instinct that he could not account for he knew whe had seen him, and that for some fluxiplicable reason he was the cause of her sudden disappearance.

But it was only for a manent. Eyen while he was vaguely searched the crowd she rappeared and took her plans bossile her mystified partner—the faconating stranger of Johnny's devotion and Himpett's distince. She was pairs he had never seen her so beautiful. All that he had thought distracteful and incongruous in her were but accessories of her lovelle. which her fair young shoulder alped as which her fair young shoulder alped as from a sunset cloud seemed only the per-tection of virginal simplicity; her girl-ish length of limb and the long curves of of thorough breeding. The absence of to a singular indication. "Why hadn't color in her usually fresh face had been this great fool vented his jealousy on the

THE BURLINGTON VT. PREE PRESS, FRIDAY. NOVEMBER 30, 1555.

CORESSY

A Story of Western Pronece

Indian Annual Property of Western Property

The level 1 saw him a moment again process. The level 1 saw him a moment again process of the saw him and the level 1 saw him a moment again process. The level 1 saw him a moment again process of the level 1 saw him a moment again process of the level 1 saw him a moment again process of the level 1 saw him a moment again process of the level 1 saw him a moment again process of the level 1 saw him a moment again process of the level 1 saw him a moment again process of the level 1 saw him a moment again process of the level 1 saw him a moment again process of the level 1 saw him a moment again process of the level 1 saw him a moment again by the level 1 saw him a moment again process of the level 1 saw hi into his; closer and closer till their hearts stop beating and their lips have met in a first kiss. Faster. O little feet! swing clear, O Cressy's skirt and keep the harrowing circle back! They are again alone; the judges data and the emblaconing of the State caught in a single whirling flash of consciousness are changes to an altar, seen dially through the bridal yell that covers her fair head. There is the marmur of voices mingling two lives in one. They turn and pass promitly down between the aisles of wondering festal faces. Ah! the circle is frawing closer. One more quick whirl to keep them back, O flying skirt and dainty-winged feet! Too late! The music stops. winged feet! Too sate! The music stops.

The tawdry walls shut in again, the vulgir crowds return, they stand pale and quiet, the centre of a ring of breathless, admiring, frightened, or forbidding faces, ifer arms fold like wings at her side. The walls is over waltz is over.

A shrill fentinine oborus assall her with A shrill feminine chorus assail her with praises, strick here and there with a metallic ring of envy; a dozen all-daring cavallers, made rackless by her grace and hanty, clamor for her hand in the next walk. She replies, not to them, but to tim. "Not again," and slips away in the rowd with that strange new shyness that of all her transformations seems the most delicious. Yet so conscious are they of their mutual possion that they do not miss each other, and he turns away as if their next meeting were already an appointed tryat. A few congratulate him on his skill. Johnny's paragon looks after him curroutsly; certain eiders shake hands with him perplexedly, as if not quite sure with him perplexedly, as if not quite sure of the professional consistency of his per-tormance. Those charming tide waiters on social success, the fair, artfully ming-ling expectation with compliment, only extract from him the langhing statement that this one waits was the single excepextract from him the tanguage excep-that this one waitz was the single excep-tion allowed him from the rule of his protion allowed han from the rate of his pro-tessional conduct, and he refers them to his elder critics. A single face, loutish, looming, and vindletive, stands out among the crowd—the face of Scin Davis. He in her were but accessories of her loyell-cess at that moment, in that light, in that throughers, in that strongs assembly been her full pink gaze dress from the had not seen him since he left the school: he had forgotten his excessor, Joe he only remembered his successor, Joe he only remembered his successor. Joe he had forgotten his existence; even now he only remembered his successor. Joe Masters, and he looked carriously around to see if that later sultor of Cressy's was present. It was not until he reached the door that the begin to think seriously of Seth Davis's jealous face, and was roused to a singular indignation. "Why hadis't this great fool vented his jealousy on the gether. He even turned to look back on the lighted ball-room, as if she might have been looking out too. But he knew he should see her again to morrow, and he hurriedly put aside all reserve, all thought of the future, all examination of his con-duct, to walk home enwrapped in the vaguer pleasure of the past. Rupert Filgee, to whom he had never given a second thought, now peacefully slumbering be-side his baby brother, had not gone home more foolish or more dangerous comny. When he reached the hotel, he was sur prised to find it only it o'clock. No one had returned, the building was deserted by all but the bar-keeper and a firting chambermaid, who regarded him with ag-grieved astonishment. He began to feet grieved astonishment. He began to feet very toolish, and baif regretted that he had not stayed to dance with Mrs. Tripp, or, at least, remained as a quiet onlooker apart from the others. With a hasty excuse about returning to write letters for the morning's post, he took a candle and slowly remounted the stairs to his room. But on entering he found himself uppre-pared for that singular lack of sympathy which familiar haunts always greet our new experiences; he could hardly believe that he had left that room only two hours before; it seemed so uncongenial and etrange to the sensation that was still pos-sessing him. Yet there was his table, his books, his armchair, his bed as he had left them t even a sticky fragment of gin gerbread that had fallen from Johnny's pocket. He had not yet reached that stage of absorbing passion where he was able to put the loved one in his own surround-ings; she as yet had no place in this quiet room; he could scarcely think of her here, and he must think of her, if he had to go elsewhere. An extravagant idea of walking the street until his restless dream was over seized him, but even in his folly the lackadaisical, moonstruck quality of such a performance was too obvious. The school house! He would go there; it was

"Was it this?" he whispered, taking the myrtile from his breast. She seized it with a light cry, putting it first to her lips and then to his. Then clasping his face again between her soft palms, she turned it to the window and said: "Look at them and not at me."

He did so—seeing the two figures slowly walking in the trail. And holding her there firmly against his breast, it seemed a blasphemy is ask the question that had been upon his lips.

"That's not all," she murmured, moving his face backward and forward to her lips

"That's not all," she murmured, moving his face backward and forward to her lips as if it were something to which she was giving breath. "When we came to the woods I felt that you would be here."

"And feeling that, you brought him?" said Ford, drawing back.

"Why not?" she replied indolently. "Even if he had seen you, I could have managed to have you walk home with me."

But do you think it's quite fair? Would he like it / she echoed lazily. "Would be like it ?" she echoed lazily.

"Would he like it?" she echoed lazily,
"Cressy," said the young man earnestly gazing into her shadowed face. "Have you given him any right to object? Do you understand me?"
She stopped as if thinking, "Do you want me to call him in?" she said quietly, but without the least trace of archives or coquetry, "Would you rather he were here—or shall we go out now and meet him? I'll say you just came as I was going out."

What should be say? "Cressy!" be be asked almost curtly. "Do you love It seemed such a ridiculous thing to ask holding her thus in his arms, if it were true; it seemed such a villatious question if it were not.

"I think I loved you when you first came," she said slowly. "It must have been that that made me engage myself to been that that made me engage myself to be "she added simply. "I knew I loved was him, 'she added simply. 'I knew I you and thought only of you when I away. I came back because I loved away. I came back because t loved you lloved you the day you came to se Maw-even when I thought you came to tell her of Masters, and to say that you couldn't "But you don't ask me if I love you?"

"But you do—you couldn't help it now," she said confidently.
What could be do but reply as illogically with a closer embrace, aibeit a slight tremor as if a cold wind had blown across the open window, passed over him. She may have felt it too, for she presently said,

"kiss me and let me go."
"But we must have a longer talk, dar-ling—when—when—others are not wait-Do you know the far barn near the boundary ?" she asked.

noons to-to-be with you," she whis- ach, gree, and Green Mountain lodge, No. 1, of Burlington worked the third degree. This lodge does not belong to the 4th district, but was present by invitation, and its exemplification of the 2d degree was particularly interesting to all present.

When the work was completed, the Odd Fellows adjourned to the American house, where they "exemplified" a good supper as provided by land ord Stroud.

The Grand officers present at the meetings were Grand Master H. W. Hall and Grand Representatives Henry and Wison. Visitors were also present from Northheid, St. Johns and other lodges. Mr. J. E. Fox of Burlington served most acceptably as organist. After the banquet at team of the St. Albans lodge conterred the Oriental degree upon seven ferred the Oriental degree upon seven Odd Fellows from St. Junus, in a manner highly creditable to the team and to the amusement of the onlooking brothers.

ELECTION ECHOES.

The Official Figures on the Electoral Ticket in New York State.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 23.—The electoral vote of New York State as canvassed by the State board is as follows, the highest and lowest number of votes being given Republican, highest 650,337, lowest 648;democrat, highest 435,965, lowest 61 500; prohibition, righest 30.231, lowest 30, 270; socialist, highest 238, lowest 2021; union labor, highest 626, lowest 581; united labor, electors at large, Redpath 2008 Wilder 2447.

Harrison's Plurality in Kansas. TOPERA, Ran., 23 -- Official figures today show Harrison's plurality in Kansas

South Carolina's Official Vote. COLUMBIA, Nov. 23.-The official canvass of the South Carolina vote shows: Cleveland 65,825, Harrison 13,740, democratic majority 52,085. Democratic congressmen

Democratic congressmen are elected in all the districts. General Ramsay Honorably Discharged. JERSEY CITY, Nov. 23.-General John Ramsay, manager of the New Jersey State republican general committee, charged with having induced a man to falsely register in the place of a sick voter, was accordably discharged to-day in the

S upreme Court. Horsford's Acid Phosphate Recommended by Physicians "Yes."
"I used to take your books there, after- of all schools, for the brain, nerves and stom-

Compared with 1887 the revenues were Start greater, and the expenditures to the property of th and box cars.

At a point about a mile above or east of Waterbury station, the grade is slightly descending. As Eddy's train was passing this point which is near Stephen Grover's house, he was seen by Mr. N. B. Lamonda, who was plowing within a few rods of him, as he was in the act of climbing down from a high box cartoa platform car in front. As he came near the base of the ladder on the box car he turned and undertook to step forward and down to the floor of the platform car before him, but made too short a reach, and, instead of landing on the car floor, fall between the cars and was instantily killed. Mr. Landing the chicago convention, and its to toke support of Gen. Harrison in the Chicago convention, and its to votes were cast solidity for him through many ballots preceding the nomination. It was largely through the nomination. It

FIGHTING FOR VIRGINIA.

The Right of the Electors to Vote in the Electoral College Questioned,

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22 .- As a result of the recent conference between General Mahone and Senator Quay It Is announced proceedings will be begun in the Virginia State Court and the United States District Court for attacking the right of the dem-ocratic electors of that State to cast votes for president in the electoral college. Official Returns, Officers Present and Degrees Worked.

[From the Messenger.]

The Odd Feilows of the 4th district held a meeting with the St. Albans lodge, No. 31, Wednesday, and exemplified various phases of the work. The meeting was called to order at 250 p. m. by H. C. Sperry, D. D. G. M., and the afternoon was taken up by the St. Albans lodge in the exemplification of the initiatory and first degrees. At the evening session Richford lodge, No. 17, exemplified the second degree, and Green Messenger.]

I meed no revention to believe.

Ladies suffering from any of the weaking according to the close or aliments peculiar to their sex, and wh will use Dr. Parce's Favorite Prescription according to directions, will experience genuine revolution in the bunefit they will regret. It is possible out the most complicated and obstinate cases of leucorraes, excessively wing, paintul meastration, unon the womb, weak back, "female weakings, or failure of the womb, weak back, "female weakings, or failure of the womb, many differences of the control of the womb, and the second according to directions, will experience genuine revolution in the bunefit they will region. The most complicated and obstinate cases of leucorraes, excessive I wing, paintul meastration, unon the womb, weak back, "female weakings, and the preserve, and will use Dr. Parce's Favorite Prescription according to directions, will experience genuine revolution in the bunefit they will reserve. It is possible on the most complicated and obstinate cases of leucorraes, excessive I wing, paintul meastration, unon the womb, and the second according to directions, will experience genuine revolution in the bunefit they will reserve. It is possible can be according to directions, will experience genuine revolution in the bunefit they will reserve. It is possible can be according to the construction of the most complete the most complete the most complete the womb, according to the construction.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

MRS. Winslow's Southing Syarp should always be used for children teething. It southes the child, southes the sums, allays a pain, cures wind cone, and is the lest refined of the darkhow. Twenty-five cents

Dr. South Armoid a COUGH KILLER. MRS. SUSAN ABBOTT. FARILEE, VE Se, Me, and $1.00

I Cannot Find

YOUNG MEN ir relative to WINCHESTER'S SPIRITY PIL 2 Prompt and permanent circ for Servine Delin Weakinss, &c. Price 2 nor fact. WINCHESTER & CO. Chemisis. WINCHESTER & CO. Chemisis.

WANTED! Good responsible men to solicit for our pub-lications; guaranteed saury of from two to three dollars per day; goods shipped on cred-it; exclusive right of territory allowed. To first-class men we offer permanent positions. Applicant must be able to deposit cash for amples. For fall particulars address

263,d&w3m ALDANY, N. V. Per Cen PER ANNUM, net, to investors. Guaranteed

The Ross Publishing House,

W. RODMAN WINSLOW, 132 Nassau St., (Vanderbilt Building.) Established Feb. 1, 1877. Enquestionable Lyman & Allen.

"I mentioners formy practice, and got a

STATE OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF THE PA

Silk.

BURLINGTON, Nov. 20, '88, Nearly All About Ribbons:

Just now while everyone is DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 22.—The official doing all they can to push their canvass of Michigan gives Harrison a regular goods, ourselves among RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 22.—The official offer as a ount gives Cleveland 15,118 plurality in flyer on Wednesday morning, "Then let the moon usurp the rule of day. And winking tapers show the son his way: November 21st, at 9 o'clock, For what my senses can perceive, I need no reveition to believe."

The finest, handsomest, most the finest, handsomest, most fashionable and most desirable lot of Ribbons ever put on our counters. They would be good value at 50 cents a vard. We bought a lot large enough to make a noise with them and propose to do so by selling them at a vard. We joined with a large retail house in New York in buying these goods. Letters received state that sales from their table of this ribbon, first day of sale $358. second day of sale $400. This is an opportunity to buy ribbons for making up holiday pretty things never before offered in Burlington, Our lines of regular ribbons are complete. We have put in during the past week more than one thousand pieces.

Do not for one moment think that we are neglecting the other branches of our business for this ribbon sale.

Our Dress Goods, Silks, Fancy Goods, Hosiery, Glove, and Underwear Departments are full of good things. Our Cloak Department is the busiest in the store. Ladies of taste and judgment say our line is by far the largest and handsomest in the city. We buy no job lots in cloaks.

Respectfully,