was called to Boston last week, returned Saturday night. News has been received here of the death of the Rev. William C. Smith of Boston, who in former years was pastor of the Congregational Church in this place. He was instrumental in securing a village library for Derby, which was later turned over to Derby Academy. Since leaving Derby he had devoted his time mainly to literary work.

RUTLAND COUNTY.

BRANDON.

Company C, 1st Inf., V. N. G., held a campfire and smoke talk at its camp on Friday night. The C. J. O'Brien Post, U. S. A. R., was present. Friends of the company and several prominent citizens of Brandon were invited. A fine snowdrift supper was served after which cigars were passed and then the talking began. Commander E. N. Miller, acted as toastmaster. Remarks were made by Ex-Gov. E. J. Ormish, Senior Vice Department Commander H. W. Flint of the G. A. R. Post, E. H. Farrington, the Rev. F. L. Davidson, Capt. E. C. Smith of Company C, L. J. Cabot, Jr., A. Carr, captain of the company during the Spanish War, and others. The long and honorable history of Company C was traced from the time of the organization of the noted Allen Greys, the first permanent militia company in Vermont, to the present. Its deeds of valor in the Civil War were told, and interspersed with the story were recollections by members of the G. A. R. Post of the great work of the Union troops in the days of '65. The efficiency of Company C was complimented and its members urged by the civilians to constant, serious-minded endeavor toward improvement and were assured of continued public cooperation if it was done.

Mrs. Helen Merriam, widow of Charles Merriam, died of pneumonia Tuesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. N. Miller. She was 62 years of age and besides her daughter is survived by one sister, Mrs. Caroline Merrill, of this town. The funeral will be held this evening at eight o'clock at the home. The interment will be Friday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Tower and daughter, Barbara, of Concord, Mass., are visiting Mrs. Tower's mother, Mrs. J. N. Bishop.
