Dr. W. S. Vincent received Tuesday a rubber electric vibrator, the first received of the kind to be used in Burlington. It has a French battery of thirty-six cells, can run fifty miles without recharging, and will climb any hill that a horse can climb. Dr. Vincent has taken the agency for the Babcock vehicles and has built a garage in the rear of his residence on Main street where he can charge the batteries of those which he sells. Dr. Vincent is a pioneer in the way of things electrical in Burlington, having introduced the telephone here, installed the first electric motor in this city and has now brought the first electric carriage to the city.

Harry W. Chase, who was seriously injured in an automobile accident on North avenue, is still at the Mary Fletcher hospital and during the past few days it has been generally reported that his injuries are of a much more serious nature than was at first supposed. When Mr. Chase was injured it was feared that his back had been broken but it has only been within the past few days that this has been known for a certainty. There now seems to be but little question but that such is the case and if his condition will permit he will be placed in a plaster of paris cast today and it is hoped that he may be able to be taken home. Mr. Chase has been doing as well as could be expected up to the present time but his injuries are of such a serious nature that his complete recovery will probably be a matter of many months.

The death of Mrs. Sarah R. (Stedman) Connor, wife of the Rev. C. C. Connor, pastor of the Universalist Church of Barre, occurred in this city Monday morning at 5 o'clock. Mrs. Connor was born in Aurora, Ind., February 2, 1840, and was the oldest child of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Stedman. She is survived by her husband and two daughters, Mrs. E. C. Gould of Palmer, Mass., and Miss Ruth Connor, who is now in her second year in Goddard Seminary. Mrs. Connor was prominent in church and social matters and had a wide circle of friends. The body has been taken for burial to her old home in Aurora, accompanied by her husband and daughter, Ruth.

George Thompson, an elderly man, supposed to be of New York, is in Chittenden county jail in an action for a week's board, brought by Mrs. Dell Withersell of this city, it being alleged that Thompson intended to skip out. Thompson has been in these parts for some time, negotiating for real estate and other things. One day last week he shipped from Richmond to the treasury department at Washington, a package, which he said contained bonds to the amount of $20,000. The express charges were not paid by Mr. Thompson and at New York an assessment was made on the Richmond agent for $15. It is not known yet whether the package in question was as valuable as the sender claimed. There have been things in Mr. Thompson's actions and conversation indicating that he is unbalanced mentally.

The death of Mrs. Emma Steady, wife of Louis M. Steady, occurred at her home at Appleton Point Thursday morning at two o'clock, following a shock of paralysis. Mrs. Steady was born in Constable, N. Y., in 1835 and was 72 years of age. She was the daughter of Henry San Antonio and Adeline Premeo and had resided at Appleton Point about eight years. She is survived by her husband and mother and also by one daughter, Cora E. Bouquet. Other relatives who survive her are Edward Bouquet, a son-in-law; Mrs. Beatty Steady, a daughter-in-law; Miss Emma Steady and Henry Bouquet, granddaughters and grandson. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon when a prayer service was held at the home at two o'clock, followed by a service at the Methodist Church in this city at three o'clock. The Rev. George W. Brown officiated and burial was in Lake View cemetery.

RAILROAD CHANGES.

F. L. Roberts to Succeed J. I. O'Donnell—W. W. Rodgers Going.

J. I. O'Donnell, traveling passenger agent of the Rutland railroad, with headquarters at the city ticket office, 127 St. Paulin street, will finish his duties in that capacity at the end of the month and will be succeeded by Frank L. Roberts, the present day ticket agent for the Central Vermont railway. W. W. Rodgers, the present night ticket agent for the Central Vermont, will sever his connection there at the end of this month. The two men who will succeed Mr. Roberts and Mr. Rodgers at the local railroad station have not yet been announced by the railroad company.

Mr. O'Donnell has been traveling passenger agent for the Rutland railroad for about two years, coming to Burlington from Pellet's Falls. He succeeded Norman W. Bringle, who asked yesterday whether he was to continue in the employ of the Rutland railroad at some other point. Mr. O'Donnell stated that he was unable to say just at present what his plans would be.

Frank L. Roberts, who succeeds Mr. O'Donnell as passenger agent, has been in the employ of the Central Vermont railway for twelve years. He was night ticket agent for five years and has been day agent for the past seven years. Mr. Roberts is considered by the company as one of their most reliable and capable men, and his general disposition has made him a host of friends among Burlington people and the traveling public in general, who will wish him the best possible success in his new position. He expects to enter upon his new duties about the first of next month or as soon afterwards as he is relieved, and will make his headquarters in Burlington.

W. W. Rodgers, who leaves the last of the month, came here from Barre and succeeded William McNeilly as night ticket agent. He has held that position since January 1.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S RALLY

Baptist Societies of Lamoille Association in Session Here.

Delegates from All the Unions Discuss Missions and Other Topics of Religious Work and Elect Officers.

The eighth annual rally of the Baptist Young People's societies of the Lamoille association was held in the parlors of the Burlington Baptist Church yesterday. All the sessions were well attended, about 100 members being present, including delegates from the seven different unions in the association, St. Albans, Richford, Jericho, Essex Junction, Colchester, Fairfax and Burlington. The sessions were presided over by Frank W. Woods of Essex Junction, president of the association.

MORNING SESSION.

The morning session opened in the church parlors at ten o'clock, with devotional services led by W. A. Davison, D. D., of Burlington. Words of welcome to the visiting delegates were given by R. A. Dyke, president of the Burlington association, and a response was made by President F. W. Woods of Essex Junction. The first address of the morning was delivered by the Rev. N. A. Wood of Essex Junction, who took for his topic, "What the Young Christian Should Be Taught."

The next speaker was G. H. Bennett of Vergennes, who, in the absence of the Rev. E. D. Penney, spoke on "Our Mission Studies." This was followed by an address on "The Problems of the Young People in Our Rural Churches," by the Rev. George H. Chambers of Westford. Discussion of the above subjects was led by the Rev. W. A. Davison of Burlington. Adjournment was then taken for dinner.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The afternoon program opened with a meeting of the board of managers, consisting of the officers of the Lamoille association and the president of each local society. Following this a prayer service was led by Perry Severance of Colchester and a reception to fraternal delegates from the Epworth League and Young People's societies of Christian Endeavor of the city.

The work of the Green Mountain Missionary Institute was presented by the Rev. J. S. Brown of St. Albans, followed by an address on "The Pledge, Its Use and Abuse," by the Rev. A. F. Clifford of Fairfax. After a vocal solo by Miss Mary Clark of Essex Junction, a paper was presented by R. S. Curtis of Jericho on "How Shall Our Members and Leaders Prepare for the Meeting Hereafter?"

This was followed by a paper on "Methods of Conducting a Successful Devotional Meeting and the Results," by Mrs. C. H. Aiken of Richford. This paper was followed in turn by a paper on "How to Conduct a Successful Mission Study Class," by Miss Clara Leach of Essex Junction.

The last address of the afternoon was delivered by the Rev. Frederick Emerson of Jericho on "How to Create a Personal and Individual Responsibility among the Members." The discussion of the afternoon topics was led by the Rev. G. A. Williams of Johnson. The meeting was then given up to the reports of officers and committees and the discussion of new business.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

At the close of the business session the following officers were elected to serve during the ensuing year: President, the Rev. George H. Chambers of Westford; vice-president, J. Earl Johnson of Burlington; secretary, Miss Elsie H. Leach of Essex Junction; treasurer, M. E. Thompson of Colchester. President George H. Chambers was appointed delegate to the Chittenden County Christian Endeavor convention, to be held at North Hero the last of June. A committee was also appointed on place of meeting of the next annual meeting of the Lamoille association, but their report will not be given until a future date. Following the election of officers the afternoon meeting adjourned until evening.

Evening Session.

The evening service began in the church at 7:30 o'clock and was opened with a prayer service, led by Gardner Brown of Essex Junction. After the roll call of the societies the address of the evening was given by the Rev. H. A. Fuzzell of Montpelier, who spoke on "Our Young People as an Evangelistic Force." Following the address the committees on resolutions presented suitable resolutions on the recent death of the Rev. F. D. Penney's mother, Mrs. Helen A. Penney, a resolution extending thanks to the retiring officers and one endorsing the Green Mountain Institute, to be held at North Hero August 2 to 8. The convention was brought to a close with a consecration service.

HUSBAND SUES NOW.

H. E. Spear Claims Damages of $3,000 from Physician.

Papers have been served by Sheriff James H. Allen in a suit brought by Henry E. Spear against Dr. H. E. Colvin to recover damages of $3,000. This suit will be entered shortly in Chittenden county court and is returnable in the September term. It is a companion suit to the one brought last week against Dr. Colvin by Mr. Spear's wife, Mrs. Margaret Spear, to recover $10,000 for alleged malpractice.

In the declaration in the latter action, the plaintiff seeks to recover $3,000 for money expended in doctors' bills, medicine, nursing, etc., as well as the loss of his wife's services. The declaration in the suit brought last week sets forth that Dr. Colvin received treatment from Dr. Colvin from January 25, 1906, to March 28, 1906, and that by reason of his "ignorant, unskillful, improper and negligent diagnosis and treatment" of her case, her right hip became paralyzed and deformed and that she was unable to stand or work and is still suffering from the injured member, that her right leg has become shorter than the left one and is permanently crippled for life. This has caused her pain and anguish and made necessary large expenditures for care, treatment, nursing, etc.

The plaintiff's attorneys, in both of these actions are J. J. Enright and Brown & Hopkins.
