

HAPPENINGS IN VERMONT (Continued from page 4.)

The Union Congregational Church will hold a meeting Thursday evening at the home of A. E. Wilson to decide whether they will accept the loan of $1,000 from the Congregational Church Building Society.

LAMOILLE COUNTY

JOHNSON.

A telephone has been placed in the Sherwin farm house and one in H. H. Bang's residence. Mrs. William Tracy and Mrs. George Atwell are ill. Thermometers registered 29 to 35 below here Monday morning.

WATERVILLE.

Town officers elected Tuesday are: Moderator, H. L. Beard; town clerk, Harold F. Beard; treasurer, W. H. Mann; selectmen, H. L. Beard, O. G. Houghton, T. E. Potter, school directors, G. B. Maurice, E. D. Leach, S. H. Housenway, Hester, W. F. Smille, E. C. Wells, H. J. Beard, overseer, H. A. Jackson, constable, George R. Brown; trustee of public money, W. F. Smille, auditors, A. L. Laraway, G. B. Maurice, W. T. Smille; grand jurors, H. B. Hill, B. E. Beard, M. L. Davis; town agent, H. A. Jackson; road commissioner, E. D. Leach; tag raised, 15 cents on the dollar; license vote, Yes 16, no 4.

HYDE PARK.

The Hyde Park town meeting has been adjourned two weeks, until Tuesday, March 12. W. D. Jefferys of East Burke was in town yesterday. R. S. Page is in Boston. W. D. Strong is in Burlington.

WOLCOTT.

Mr. and Mrs. William Thibault of Burlington were the guests of his mother over Sunday. L. Valley was in Morrisville Monday. Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Brown visited Frank Willis at East Hardwick over Sunday. C. E. Duff is in Bakerfield. H. H. Farber is in St. Johnsbury. Mrs. Kate McKinstry is ill with pneumonia.

EDEN.

Bert Parkhurst has purchased of R. B. Blake the home on the branch road occupied by Mr. Boyes. Mr. Dubois, who has carried on Mr. Blake's farm the past year, is to move back to Lowell. Mrs. Powell has returned from her visit with her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Emery. Myrtle Baker has finished work at Morrisville and is now at home. Mrs. Russell has moved to Morrisville. Jack Adams is visiting at Wolcott. Joseph Madgett from North Hyde Park is with her sister, Mrs. Henry Emery. The Dorcas society resolved $16 for the dinner to be meeting day. Town officers elected Tuesday are: Moderator, F. L. Whittemore; clerk, W. J. Atwell; selectman for three years, C. B. Whittemore; hater for three years, F. L. Whittemore; road commissioner, A. E. Sargent; school director for three years, Fred Bates; treasurer, H. W. Shattuck; overseer of roads, H. B. Fletcher; first constable, W. H. Emery; second constable and collector, Henry W. Emery; auditors, B. H. Blake, Cassius Gray and L. Campbell; tag, $2; license, 25 per cent.

CAMBRIDGE.

Mrs. E. H. Hinds of Huntington has been spending several days with her sister, Mrs. C. F. Bixby. J. J. Gates has returned from Burlington, where he has been attending court. Mrs. E. A. Gaines has come to her home in Essexburg, after spending several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Linn Leavens. Mrs. Jane Chase of North Champlain is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. C. Emery. Miss Carrie Chubb visited Sunday at her home in Essex Center. Misses Marjorie and Marion Newton of People's academy spent Sunday at their home here.

JEFFERSONVILLE.

Mrs. Pearl Shaver and son have returned to Benvers, Mass.—Miss Edith Marsh and nephew, Herbert Gaultin of Highgate, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Watkins. Mrs. John Martin, who has been seriously ill, is improving.—A. A. Hawley is also much improved.—Miss Nay of Lynn, Mass., is visiting here.—Mr. and Mrs. Edward of Rochester, N. Y., parents of the Rev. H. E. Harned, have come to make their home with him at his parsonage. At the town meeting Tuesday arrangements were made for the entertainment of the lecture course to be held at the town hall Friday evening, March 15th. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gale will present songs and recitations of the pen man, Mr. Gale has worked among the Indians and has secured a beautiful collection of the singing of these people and playing of their instruments.—A St. Patrick's social will be given by the ladies of the cemetery association in connection with the annual business meeting on Tuesday, March 12, at Washington's hall. The business meeting will be held at 7 o'clock, followed by dinner from 7:30 to 8:30. In the evening an entertainment will be given consisting of readings and music. An address will be given by the Rev. H. E. Harned.

MORRISVILLE.

The United Workers of the Congregational Church served a supper Friday after their regular business meeting. Following the supper a play was given. The short pantomime "Wanted a Wife" and annual merrymade dance given Friday evening under the auspices of the local N. E. O. P. lodge was largely attended. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Chapman, who have passed the winter at Fort Ann, N. Y., where Mr. Chapman is employed, returned Friday. Mr. Baker of Waterbury has returned and moved to the Wesley Spencer house on Congress street. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Torrey returned Saturday from Hardwick, where they have been guests for several days of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. and Mrs. A. H. Bentley, who have arrived at the boarding house at Mount Holly from the past year, have moved to Stowe. Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Nelson have moved from Elmira to the

CHAS. E. PEASE & CO. SALE

IS A SACRIFICE OF HIGH-GRADE, HIGH-PRICED CLOTHING The Clothing which tailors don't make for less than $50 to $100 per Suit or Overcoat. Clothing that no other firm in town has for sale and that is sold but by few clothiers in America, excepting the occasional one "Best Store" of the largest cities.

THE ROGERS PEET & CO. CLOTHING

Magnificent Foreign Fabrics 14.85 Exclusive Patterns 17.85 New York City Styles 19.36 O'COATS

We are very desirous to convert all on hand into money. The above prices really represent a great loss on their cost to us. All who try these will pronounce them

The Greatest Clothing Bargains of Their Lives

$7.79 Suits, Overcoats, Raincoats. $8.89 Highest grade Ready-to-Wear. $9.89 the very latest and most select models and patterns. $10.89 Sizes to fit every form. $12.85 Large, Stout, Slim.

HUNDREDS OF BARGAINS IN HATS AND FURNISHINGS SCATTERED ABOUT HERE IN BARGAIN DISPLAYS PEASE'S DAYLIGHT CORNER

OUR FUR COATS and Fur Lined Coats are now down to one or two of a kind—but you can have one now of a quality, you may not feel you can afford next winter, because of the big price savings.

Jackson house on Summer street, which they recently purchased. Mrs. Frank Turner of Barre and daughter, Mrs. Edward G. Crum of Hartford, Conn., called here by the death of the former's sister, Mrs. J. L. Billings, returned to Barre Saturday. Mrs. E. B. Honesford, formerly of Hardwick, who has been with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Alms, was left Saturday to join Mr. Honeyford at their new home at Mount Airy, N. C.—District Deputy A. V. Heald made his official visit to the local grange at Cambridge Friday evening. Belle Hill Craft and Mrs. Daniel Donaldson of St. Albans were married at four o'clock Wednesday at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Ophelia Hill, the Rev. Walter B. Baker officiating. Mrs. Kittle Draper Cook is in Hardwick, where her husband is employed. Miss Florence Chaffee, a teacher in the school at Barre, is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Gile while recovering from a short illness. Mrs. Alan Parker of Montreal was a guest Thursday and Friday of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur White. George Terrill of Chazy, N. Y., came Thursday for a week here, the guest of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Brown. George Gide, who has had charge of the Peritt farm for the past year, completes his engagement this spring and will be succeeded by W. C. Warren, who recently moved to Jeffersonville. Mr. and Mrs. George Blaylock returned from Burlington Thursday. Mr. Blaylock will be employed in the Smith & Livera tanning factory. Mrs. E. R. Johnson of White River Junction visited her mother, Mrs. Cole, arrived Friday morning. Mrs. Johnson will be a guest for a few days of her sister, Mrs. H. J. Blodgett. Mrs. W. M. Strong of Hardwick came Friday for a few days' visit to the family of the noble families of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Marshall. Mrs. L. B. Boynton went Friday to Burlington to visit Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Boynton till Monday, when she accompanied her daughter, Miss Kittle Boynton, to New York for a week. She will then go to Ossining, Conn., to visit her sister, Mrs. Boynton, for a week. Mrs. John Meritt passed Sunday in Hardwick, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alec Parks. J. A. Bundy returned from North Hero Saturday evening, where he had been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Knight. George Tift returned Saturday evening from Burlington, where he visited Mrs. Tift, who is at the Mary Fletcher hospital. Mrs. Tift is not making the rapid recovery from her operation that was expected. Mrs. Joseph Weather joined Mr. Weather in Barre Monday after passing some weeks here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Weather.

Officers elected at the annual meeting of Morrisville Tuesday were: Moderator, T. C. Cheney; clerk, A. A. Niles; selectmen, C. L. Gates, three years, R. J. Caswell, two years, O. W. Chaffee; treasurer, A. A. Niles; overseer of poor, J. A. Bundy; first constable, A. J. Smith; second constable, H. L. Stevens; collector, J. R. Parker; hater, J. R. Parker, three years; auditors, M. P. Maurice, L. M. Munson, C. H. Raymond; trustee public money, W. M. Sargent; grand jurors, J. Liberty, T. C. Cheney; road commissioner, George Currier; legal agent, E. G. Placwood; school director, three years, A. L. Cheney; county commissioner, G. M. Powers, five years. Reports of officers were accepted except that of health officer and school director, which were referred to the next board of auditors to file a report in town clerk's office in 20 days. Voted $50 for Memorial day, $50 for Centennial library, $20 for fire department, $20 for Morrisville band, $50 for permanent roads, $20 for Pleasant View cemetery. Medical inspection of schools was left with the selectmen. A vote of thanks was given George W. Clark for the gift of Public Rock park to the town. The tax voted was $150. People's Academy basketball team will play Burlington high school here Friday evening. C. F. Smith, I. N. LaBran, Alfred Dodge, Mrs. Ella Sillouway, Mrs. J. R. Parker, Mrs. Simon Burke, Mrs. A. N. Boynton, Mrs. C. J. Story and Chaucer Story went to Jeffersonville Wednesday to attend a meeting of Harmony Pomona Grange. O. M. Westerman went to Williams-town Wednesday to visit relatives. Mrs. E. A. Dodge was called by Hyde Park Wednesday to care for Mrs. V. B. Pitt, who is ill.—H. H. Olmstead completed his engagement with the citizen's telephone company Saturday.—H. B. Huntley and family of Jeffersonville have moved to the C. F. Jefferys dairy farm and will have charge of the boarding house.—J. A. Burdick, a juror in the United States court, returned to Burlington Monday.—Miss Alice Smith has been confined at home by illness, her sister, Miss Blanch Smith, caring for her. Miss Blanche Smith is taking the place of Miss Alice Smith in the depot restaurant.—Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Hallis are entertaining his sister, Mrs. A. Potter, and Mrs. Chase of Dexter. Mrs. W. M. Jones and child left Wednesday for East Berkshire to join Mr. Jones in their new home.—Hon. C. F. Smith expects to leave Tuesday for Washington, D. C., to represent the Vermont State Grange in a hearing before a committee on bills relating to "marginating"—A fire alarm at about 7:20 Wednesday morning was for a fire at the residence of James Kealey, which started from bedding coming in too close contact to a hot stove pipe in the chamber. The fire company was unable to get water from the fire hydrant tested. A hydrant lower down Main street was found to be all right, but was not used as the fire was controlled with extinguishers and buckets. At the meeting of the Woman's club, held at the library Monday evening, the topic for discussion was conservation. Mrs. A. R. Campbell was in charge of the program and read a paper on general conservation. Mrs. H. J. Edmonds read a paper on the conservation of land, Mrs. E. S. Robinson upon minerals, Mrs. N. G. Plach Grant upon forests and Mrs. Clara B. Niles upon mankind.—The W. C. T. U. attended the town meeting Tuesday in a body. Sylvester Whittier, who suffered a shock some days ago, is falling the normal school at Pittsburg, Mass., for a short vacation.—Mrs. L. C. Ames and son, Charles, of East Barre, who have visited their daughter and sister, Mrs. James Hamadell, returned Monday.—Rufus Atchison is confined at his home by illness and substitute Clarence Day is carrying his note. Mrs. Henry Puffer of Richmond came Monday evening to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Camp.—Mrs. E. P. Madgett of Cambridge is visiting her daughter and husband, Professor and Mrs. W. A. Beebe.—Frank Allen has been confined to the house for several days by illness. Mrs. Agnes Woodward Moore, who has passed the winter at Switzerland, expects to sail for New York March 21, remaining there April 2. She will go to Boston to visit the home of Mr. Moore and then visit her mother, Mrs. Deane Woodward, before going to St. Louis, Mo.—Victor Heath was given a surprise birthday party Monday evening by his neighbors on Maple street and others. Refreshments were served. Mr. Heath was presented with a purse of money. Mrs. C. L. Shaw went to Essex Junction Tuesday, where she will visit Mrs. Ellen Childs. She will then go to Burlington, where she will be the guest for several days of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Himesdale.

STOWE. The Rev. F. T. Crane entered upon his second year as pastor of Unity Church Sunday. His work has been much appreciated and the church is pleased to retain his services for another year. Through his efforts the pipe organ in the church has been moved to the floor of the audience room, electric lights have been installed and other improvements carried out.—A son, Gerald Morgan, born on March 3 to Mr. and Mrs. Winifred W. Houston at their home in Cleveland, Ohio, is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Houston and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Watts of Stowe. The boy weighed seven pounds and half, for and Mrs. Houston are doing well. The Rev. W. E. Henry of Morrisville preached an interesting sermon Sunday afternoon at the Congregational Church. He was accompanied from Morrisville by H. P. Munson. Thermometers registered from 25 to 32 below here Monday morning. Two years ago farmers were banking sugar at this time.—Miss Gaultin, who has visited Miss Edith Robinson, returned Monday to Richmond. Mrs. McMahon and Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Luce are in Cambridge, Mass., to attend the funeral Tuesday morning of their sister, Mrs. Mary A. McMahon Doherty, who died at her home there on Sunday from the effects of pneumonia. Mrs. Doherty passed her early life in Stowe and was always a frequent visitor here. She was the widow of John Doherty and leaves two daughters and four sons, Mrs. Kate Murphy, Miss Mary Doherty, John Doherty, Thomas Doherty and Charles Doherty of Washington, D. C. She also leaves two sisters and four brothers, Mrs. E. E. McSweeney and Mrs. M. D. McMahon of Burlington, Patrick McMahon of Dover, Colo., L. McMahon and Mrs. O. E. Luce of Stowe and H. C. McMahon of Minneapolis, Minn. Mrs. Luce has been with Mrs. Doherty for several weeks. C. M. Watts is confined to the home by the grip.—A. H. Strick is recovering from his illness. The condition of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Straw continues favorable. Mrs. Irving M. Parker gave a pleasant party Saturday evening to the members of the Stowe high school basketball team and ladies in honor of her son, Carl M. Parker, captain of the team. There were 23 present. Refreshments were served and carols were played.—Mrs. M. A. Jenner entertained a number of relatives with supper on snow Sunday evening in honor of the birthday of her sister, Miss Rosa D. Straw. There will be a meeting of the Congregational Missionary society with Mrs. Alice A. Raymond at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Subject, "Work Among Women." The Methodist Episcopal Missionary society is invited to join.—Miss Grace Bigelow has returned to Springfield, Mass., after 10 days with her parents at the Lodge.—Roy M. Ladd went Monday to visit his sister, Mrs. Clayton Reed, in Rockville, Conn., where he hopes to obtain employment.—Howard Smith of Morrisville passed Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Smith.

There was a large attendance at the town meeting Tuesday. The officers elected were: Chairman, C. F. Eddy; clerk, Mrs. Alice A. Raymond; selectman for three years, George Clayton; school director for three years, Dr. J. C. Morgan; hater for three years, Frank A. Strong; treasurer, Mrs. Alice A. Raymond; road commissioner, William W. Ayers; library commissioner, Dr. H. W. Barrows; cemetery commissioner, A. H. Cheney; overseer of poor, L. L. Himesdale; collector, C. M. Watts; trustee of public money, O. E. Luce; auditors, J. B. Ayers, O. E. Luce, C. A. Riley; grand jurors, E. K. Hall, E. E. Straw, first constable, G. A. Sanborn; second constable, W. T. Burr; tag raised, 25 cents on the dollar; license, 25 per cent. and defend suits, P. D. Pike;