MORGAN'S WILL IS MADE PUBLIC

Specific Bequests Amount to Less Than $20,000,000-Son the Chief Heir.

DOCUMENT IS A PORTRAIT

Begins with Striking Confession of Financier's Religious Faith -Each Daughter Receives $3,000,000.

New York, April 20 .- "I commit my soul into the hands of my Saviour, in full confidence that, having redeemed it and washed it in His most precious blood, He will present if faultlessly before the throne of my Henvenly Father; and I entreat my children to maintain and defend, at all hazard and at any cost of personal sacrifice, the blensed doctrine of complete attonement for sin through the blood of Jesus Christ, once effered, and through ther

This is the extraordinary and sucking utterance which begins the last will and testament of John Plerpont Morgan, who died in Rome on March 31; whose body heaped over with flowers from the crowned heads of Europe, was, a forinight later, brought back to his own land, and last Monday was borne to its last resting place at Hartford.

Since the funeral the publication of the great financier's last will has been awalt ed with keen expectation, and it is sufto say that of all the interesting tests ments of eminent citizens of America, that of Mr. Morgan, to be offered for probat here to-morrow morning, is by far the

As to the amount of the estate, which is declare that no announcement will be procedure, made on this point until the appraisal has been made for determining the State in-

SON IS THE CHIEF HEIR.

The amount of bequests and trust named by specific sums, is under $20,000, 000, but the entire residue of the estate is left to J. P. Morgan, Jr., who is des helr, not only to his fortune, but to

As to the document itself, it is unusual in many of its features, and, a cording to those two or three Intimate friends who have already had a glimpse of it, it is a portrait of Mr. Morgan, himself, beginning with siriking confession of ing the following significant language: his religious faith ta side of his character which was known to life close associates but not to the world), and running through all its 37 articles, duly set forth in the same logical and orderly fashion which, hls friends say, marked all Mr. Morgan's

He apparently provided with painstaking care for every contingency that might affect his family or his banking firm, and

REST AND HEALTH TO MOTHER AND CHILD. Mis. Wisslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over SIXTY YEARS by MILLIONS of MOTHERS for their CHILDREN WEILE TEETHING, with PERFECT SUCCESS. It SOOTHES the CHILD. SOFTENS the GUMS ALLAYS all FAIN; CURES WINL ZOLIC, and is the best remedy for DIARRHGA. It is absolutely harmless. Be sure and ask for "Mis. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

CLUBBING LIST.

The Free Press and Other Periodicals at Low Rates to One Address.

The Weekly FREE PRESS can be of tained in combination with other leading I have thus cherished. periodica at low rates. To prevent unnecessary correspondence we will state that after the subscription has begun potice of a change of address, or any thing concerning the receipt of the other effectuate a part of this purpose, perfodicals, should be sent directly to the office of that periodical. The Weekly FREE PRESS and any one of the following periodicals will be sent to any one address in the United States for one year at the prices annexed: American Magazine $2.10 American Boy 1.75

Breeders' Gazette

Caledonian (St. Johnsbury) 2.06 Catholic News (New York) Cosmopolitan Congregationalist and Christian 3.90 Children's Magazine (new) 1.75 Country Life in America Delineator Farm and Firesida Fruitman and Gardener 1.45 Garden Magazine Good Houseksoping Harper's Hazar 155 Harper's Magazine Hoard's Dairyman Ladtes' World Livestock Journal (2 years) 1.75 Methodist Recorder McClure's Magazine Mirror and Farmer Modern Priscilla Munsey's Magazine National Grange National Magazine New York Tribune Farmer New York World (3 times a week) .. New England Farmer Outlook Poultry Husbandry Review of Reviews Rural New Yorker Scientific American

Table Talk Woman's Home Companion We furnish no publication except in

Scribner's

St. Nicholas

FREE PRESS. Our clubbing list includes all papers magazines published. Only those most frequently asked for are printed in our list, but others may be had on appli-connection with a subscription to the Subscribers may have more than one paper from this clubbing list. Always send a stamp for reply when asking about this as we do all this work at no profit in order to accommodate our sub-

BEQUESTS IN THE WILL OF J. PIERPONT MORGAN OF MANY MURDERS IN FIRE AT MALONE

Frances Louisa Tracy Morgan, widow, $1,000,000, the incom-'certain trust fund" created by Mr. Morgan's father in 1867, enough more to make her income amount to $100,000 a year; Cragston, the country home at Highlands, N. Y.: the town house at 213 Madison avenue, New York, and the use of their furnishings and appurtenances.

John Pierpont Morgan, Jr., $3,000,000. Louisa, wife of Herbert L. Satterlee, $3,000,000. Juliet, wife of William Pierson Hamilton, $3,000,000. Annie Tracy Morgan, $3,000,000

William Pierson Hamilton, $1,000,000. Herbert L. Satterlee, $1,000,000.

Jenny Elgelow Tracy, widow of Mr. Morgan's brother-in-law, Charles Edward Tracy, the income of $100,000.

Clara Tracy Hoppin, a sister-in-law, the income of $100,000. Julia N. Brown, a sister-in-law, the income of $100,000,

Lucy Eldredge Lee, the income of $100,000, Florence M. Rhell, the income of $10,000

Ethel Bangs Wallace, the income of $100,000. The trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan convention of New York," $500,000, the income to be used for the support of the ministry of St. George's Protestant Episcopal Church in New York, and $100,000, the income to be used for the support of missionary stations in the diocese

House of Rest for Consumptives, $100,000.

Each member of the Corsair club, a piece of silver to cost $1,000. Mary G. McHvaine, $25,000 annually. J. Beaver Webb, $250,000.

Mrs. Alice Mason, an income of £1,000.

br. James W. Markoe, $25,000 annually, and the same to Mrs. Markee if she survives her husband.

Miss Belle DaCosta Green (his librarian), $50.000

Miss Ada Thurston (assistant librarian), $10,000 Capt. W. E. Porter (his sailing master), $15,000. Charles W. King (his private secretary), $25,000.

Each employe of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. (except (1 W. King) and each person who was an employe of J. S. Morgan & Co., or London at the time of that firm's dissolution, one year's salary Edward Phillips (his valet), $15,000.

Each servant in his several homes continuously employed for five years, $1,000. All the residue to his son, Jehn Pierpont Morgan, Jr

A paragraph in the will states that it is from no lack of affection that the will contains no provisions for Mr. Morgan's sisters, Sarah Spencer Morgan, Mary Lyman Burns and Juliet Pierpont Morgan, but only "because the property which they already have makes the same seem

Mr. Morgan's art treasures are left to his son, with the suggestion that they be so disposed of as to make them permanently available "for the instruction and pleasure of the American people."

them full power to sell and convey all property, whether real or personal, belonging to his estate; to sell securities and re-which often hampers executors in the dis-

In making a bequest to Dr. James W.

"I make this provision for the benefit of Dr. Markoe and his wife in recognit tion of our long friendship and his de-

MRS. STORY IS ELECTED.

A. R. Comes to End.

conservative faction, into to-day was

John Swift, California; Mrs. Alien P.

Perley, Penasylvania; Mrs. Ren F. Gray.

Jr., Missouri; Miss Harrist I. Lake, Iowa

Mrs. John Lee Dinwiddle, Indiana. Three

vice-presidents-general were elected on the

The result of the third ballot was an cessful candidate was escorted to the platform. She was greeted by Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, retiring president-general and began her speech. She made a plea for harmony and urged all the new general officers to do their utmest to bring waged an almost continuous warfare for peace between the factions that have withdrew as a contestant to-day before officers, and all pledged their support to

The election resulted in a partial vic ear campaign. She was defeated by Mrs. Scott in the last two elections. The history of the society, and has been exceedingly expensive for the candidates

Several valuable gifts were given Mrs.

Scott, and there were a number of pre sentations to the national society. Mrs

Scott was elected honorary president-general, an honor held only by five former

At the session to-night there were sev eral committee reports. The congress adjourns to-morrow after the disposal of one important subject that was made a

When Mrs. Wm. Cumming Story

the newly elected president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, made her appearance upon the stage at to-night's meeting, she

During the evening Mrs. Scott was presented with a handsome silver bowl, the gift of the regents of the

D. A. R. chapters of the District was given a tremendous ovation.

presiding officers of the society.

nounced about 5:30 o'clock and the suc

first ballot.

the last five years.

ticket were successful.

and the society.

special order.

Mrs. Story.

Washington, April 18 -Mrs. William

Markoe, Mr. Morgan paid this tribute:

of the will, etc.

to his executors, who are his son, John widest latitude, directing that no security Plerpont Morgan, Jr., his two sons-in-law, shall be required of any of them, giving William Plerson Hamilton and H. L. Satone of the first questions the public is torice, and his friend, Lewis Cass Ledasking, there is nothing in the will to yard, he gives careful directions under give any accurate idea, and the executors many clauses as to alternative courses of invest the monies held under the trusts

DISPOSAL OF TREASURES.

It is to be noted also that his grandson, unius Spencer Morgan, Jr., now Il years old and a student at Harvard, is repeatedly nominated to take up important duties the event of the death of his father, John Plerpont Morgan, Jr.

In this city the question most frequent is left to J. P. Morgan, St., who is designated by his father to become the chief by asked by leading citizens and learned belong to his fortune, but to societies has been that as to the disposihis many charitable and artistic activities, flon of Mr. Morgan's wonderful collection of pictures and other art treasures. Mr. Morgan makes perfectly plain what his own hopes on this point have been, and yet leaves his son, who is his residuary legatee, entire freedom in the matter, us-'I have been greatly interested for many vars in gathering my collection of paintings, miniatures, porcelains and other works of art, and it had been my desire the clause which provides that there shall works of art, and it had been my desire and intention to make some suitable disposition of them or of such portions of them as I might determine, which would render them permanently available for the instruction and pleasure of the American people. Each of the necessary time to devote to it has as yet prevented we. levote to it has as yet prevented my carying this purpose into effect.

"Unless I shall accompilsh it, or make collections in my lifetime, they will pass to my son, John Expensive Five-Year Fight in the D. Pierpont Morgan, Jr., or to his son, Junius Spencer Morgan, Jr., under the foregoing houses of this will whereby I dispose of Comming Story of New York, head of the ny residuary estate,

"Should either my said son or my said grandson thus succeed to the ownership of these collections, I hope he will be Daughters of the American Revoluof these collections, I hope he will be did, in such manner as he shall think best to make a permanent disposition, or from time to time permanent dispositions of them or of such portions of them as he story, 60c; Mrs. Horton, 449.

Seven vice-presidents-general also were nem of of such portions of them as he may determine, which will be a substantial chartener out of the intentions which elected. They were: Mrs. Thomas Kite, in) carrying out of the intentions which Ohio; Mrs. Rhett Geode, Alabama; Mrs.

"It would be agreeable to me to have the 'Morgan Memorial,' which forms a portion of the property of the Wadsworth Atheneum at Hartford, Conn., utilized to

"I do not, however, by the expression of these wishes intend to impose upon my sald son, or my said grandson, any duty or obligation, legal or moral, nor to qualify, in any manner or in any degree, his absolute and unqualified ownership of said collections, should they pass to him under this will."

Boys' Magazine 1.75 PUBLIC CHARITABLE BEQUESTS. The public charitable bequests are, as was predicted by many of those conversant with his immense benefactions made in 2.16 his lifetime, comparatively small, and are in the direction of those objects to which Mr. Morgan's benefactions are already well 4.75 known.

For instance, in the case of the great lying-in hospital in New York, to which, years ago, Mr. Morgan gave more than 1.25 $1,256,900, he uses the following language: "Without imposing any duty, trust or obligation upon my residuary legatee, I re quest that he continue, so long as in his tory for the old administration in that judgment the same shall be necessary for more than half of the general officers its support, the same assistance which I and all of the new vice-presidents 4.45 have been in the habit of giving during general are known as supporters of Mrs. Hospital of the city of New York. This plete ticket of vice-presidents-general in annual gift here alluded to is known as the field and none of the four she put 1.49 having been $100,000.

It is worthy of note that the will was executed as late as January 4 last, and chosen on the first ballot while five of Mrs. Joseph Powers, neighbors, were shot doctor also declared that gentus and in-2.15 a codicil was attached January 6, the day Metropolitan Magazine 2.10 before Mr. Morgan took leave of America 1.40 on the trip abroad from which he never 1.75 returned.

When he was on the witness stand in Washington a few weeks before his death, Mr. Morgan made several expressions indicating his confidence in his business partners. This feeling is apparently reiterated in articles in the will.

"It has frequently happened that se curities, real estate and other property betonging to or connected with my business 3.01 firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., and my former 1.89 arm of J. S. Morgan & Co., have been taken or stood in my name. I therefore 3.75 direct and empower my said executers and 3.58 trustees to assign, convey and transfer to said firms respectively, or to their 2.20 respective nominee or nominees, any se-World's Work 2.75 curities, real estate or property standing in my name which all my partners of said firms respectively me surviving shall unite in declaring in writing to be the property of or connected with the business of said firms respectively, and I also direct my said executors and trustees to accept, without question, as evidence of my interest in either of said firms, and of the business profits and assets of the same, such written statements thereof as may be made to them from time to time by my said surviving partners."

> GIVES WIDEST LATITUDE. To his executors Mr. Morgan gives the for their homes to-night.

BOASTS IN COURT SEVEN LIVES LOST

Jennings Makes Confession after De Wilson Hotel, Three-Story Being Sentenced to Life Imprisonment.

Wooden Structure, Burned Like Paper.

BLAMES TROUBLES ON POLICE TWO INJURED BY JUMPING

Year's Eve-Declares No One Was Ever Hung for His Crimes.

Boston, April 17, --- I tilled Mildred Don-That was only one of many murders that I committed. That is wit I have to say. What do you trink of that?"

This confession was uttered from the dock in the superior criminal court today by William B. Jendings known in the prize ring as "Young Kid Cartar", Just after he had been found guitty of killing W.o. H. MarDherson, a bartender, enced to life immigrations.

experienced in evaning punishment for his Michael Cooney, Malone,

My pal, Herr Smith, was found culty or logs broke anarder in the second degree, but I got A. Martin, a va-out of it. Leave it to me. I was mixed and ankle broken p in lots of other morders, but they were there they have no electric chair and I many City hospital. an safely say that no man was hone | John Rhodes, a clerk in the office of for any of the releas I committed, with the police. When I was a little kid the fire started. He heard an explosio they locked me up many times without outside and running to the door saw th Young I would be all right to-day."

Mr. Morgan's forethought is again shown In a particular provision, the lack of me," met her death on New Yeur's it persons in the hotel. charge of their duties, and which, in this age. Jennings said to lay that he in- minutes the entire building was affame authorizes the Morgan executors vited her for a walk and, near a The work of the fremen was hampered within their discretion, to join in and curcometery, in Muldon, strangled her by a conting of sheet iron on the out ry out any plan of reorganization in Her body was found there the next side walls, put there six years ago whet which any of Mr Morgan's securities may day. "I killed her because I was the building was remodeled. With this of my crimes," Jennings declared.

MacPherson was shot by Jennings during a barroom brawl in a south end saloon in which the former was bartender. This happened on New votion for many years of almost his en Year's afternoon. MacPherson died tire time and energy to the service of a few days later, after saying he Mr. Morgan's scatiment for a few of his statement. "I just had murder in 1 possible his old and intimate friends is shown in my heart," he said.

and proceeded calmly with his confession. In the detention room he alked to reporters.

n the town clock on the square struck inc Newbold Lawrence of Michigan, ight o'clock five minutes after she

POINTS OUT BLOOD ON COAT.

to make my getaway. See this rain coats S. A. and Mrs. C. I bought it the next morning for a disguise. See this blood here, and here and here? I had this cont on when I shot aurder in my heart?"

District Attorney Higgins of Middlesex ounty in whose jurisdiction the Donovan murder occurred to-night said: "Jen-ning's confession is not news to us. The ing and Finishing company, with 100 or showed that Jennings was responsible for because of the strike of 25,000 men to statement from him." District Attorney Higgins said into to-night that he had a warrant for the arrest of Jennings on a charge of premeditated murder for the killing of Mrs. Donovan.

Before closing her remarks Mrs. Story When this fact was communicated to E. C. Menurd of Revers, father of the introduced Mrs. Charles B. Bryan, who murdered woman, he exclaimed: "That's right. He may try to sham the third ballot was begun. Mrs. Bryan Insunity, but I know that he is same. tad been known as an administration ympathizer, but she pledged loyalty and Menard said he felt certain Jenning had decided upon the murder of Mrs support to the incoming administration. Donovan when he ate dinner with the She was followed by the new general

> BURGLAR KILLS WOMAN. Neighbors Also Shot by Robber in

> Menard family at Revere New Year's

South Attleboro, Mass. Attleboro, Mass. April D -Mrs. James forward was elected. Of the general of-South Attichoro, was killed by a burglar ficers on her ticket only four were those on the Liorton or adminstration is believed to have figured in both affairs. The election of Mrs. Story ends a five-

To-night a poorly dressed man who was the London hospitals. unable to give a satisfactory account of his movements for the past II hours was taken into custody as a suspicious person, contest has been the most spirited in the Mrs. Colhert was awakened this morn husband

A short time later Mr. and Mrs. Powers were aroused by a neise in their foom, they said, and when they called out both were shot. They are expected

HEED THE COUGH THAT HANGS ON. The seeds of consumption may be the ause, and a cough that hance on weakns the system. Foley's Honey and Tar affamed membranes and strongthens the lungs, E. D. Rountree, Stillmore, "Lagripy left me a deep seated, hacking, painful cough which Fo Y's Honey and Tar completely and.

Columbia. A dinner was given Mrs That one of to-day's want advertis Story to-night by those who supporthose message is to you may be a relatied her in her candidacy for presidentor of yours or may live account he city general. Many of the daughters left from you. But, if his ad appeals to you,

Killed Mildred Donovan New Top Floor Pillar of Flame when Firemen Arrived-Work Hampered by Sheet

Iron Coating.

Malone, N. Y., April 17 .- Seven person were burned to douth in a spectacular fire which destroyed the De Wilson Hotel, an old three-story wooden structure of Catherine street early to-day The building burned like paper and the firemen had little time to effect resones

An explosion caused the fire. The known dead are Albert Robideau, Malone: John Tim mons, Malone: Fred Truechon, Malone on New Year's day and had been sens the hotel bartender: Tony - a travel In coasting of the second widely be bad ville. N. V.: John Moss, Albany, and "It was late in 1210 that I bent the constit from the third floor. They are: at their own game in Jackson, Mich. Mrs. Preme of Eiterburg, N. V., both Two person were injured by jumping A. Martin, a vaudeville actor, left arm

The injured were taken to the Ogdens

the American Express company, 156 feet "I place the blame for all my troubles away, was working over his books when any reason, but me is a cell and best me. Loret in flames. He turned in the alarm If I had been used all right when I was When the department reached the burning building the third story was a pillar FEARED WOMAN WOULD TILL of fire and rescues were impossible Mrs. Mildred Denovan of Hevere, the exception of the two who jumped whom Jennings described in a state- Those on the first and second floors ment made after court adjourned as awakened by the fire engines, field to "a pal who would do anothing feet safety in the streets. There were about afraid the would squeat about some exception the construction was woode

NEWS TOLD IN BRIEF.

naval wessels on netive duty, the secre the Lying in hospital, an institution in knew of no reason for the shooting, tary of the navy has decided to abolish which I have been greatly interested."

Jenning himself was no reason to the shooting tary of the navy has decided to abolish which I have been greatly interested." Jenning's himself gave no reason in all assignments to shore duty whenever it fluxing at the U. S. naval academy, An. Apple Pic I killed Mildred Donovan," he said. "I who persist in brutally treating nee nfess this to save any innocent parties, comers at the school will be imprisoned the died easy. I choked her for 18 min- for one year, if Secretary of the Navy tes, pressing both my thumbs into her Danleis has his way. Secretry Daniel mouth. Mildred died at exactly 7.55 Jus approved the dismissal of Midship-relock. I know that, secause the bells man James C. Cooke of Arkansas for haz-

Secretary of State Bryan is a grandfather for the ath time. "After her death I was getting ready baby belongs to Lieut, Reginald Owen, U o make my getaway. See this rain coat?" S. A. and Mrs. Owen, formerly Ruth

The American Manufacturers' Export as MacPherson. That is MacPherson's sociation claims that business between the blood. I was just about ready to get out. United States and Mexico has decreased I town when I shot him. But there was 80 per cent, because of chaotic conditions

Aronson & Bloom, a silk firm employ squest into the death of Mrs. Donovan Its pay roll, are leaving Paterson, N. J. her end. We have been waiting for a more pay and shorter hours. The first company goes to Bayonne, N. J., and the latter to Towanda, Pa.

> The Chinese government has appointed to all the Christian churches in China to fowl the Ralein cook has no superior set uside April 21 as a day of prayer that For, though he toasts or holls the galling the country may be guided to a wise so. In the usual manner, by adding certain lution of the critical problems besetting her. The appeal is regarded as striking evidence of the extraordinary changes that have taken place since the revolution.

> The New York Herald says many houghtful men believe that needless fears are being cutertained concerning the ef. Partnesan choese are placed in a stew-fect that the adoption of the new tariff pan. When the contents are well mixed, ill may have on American wages. It is sait and pepper are added, the whole be squally true that exuggerated hopes are ing poured over the fowl. In serving the being entertained as to the probable in bird, rice is also used in the following being entertained as to the probable inwence of the enactment of the bill on the manner: Having braised the fowl, pur

"Half the great presidents of the Unit Colbert of St. Jean Plat, a district in ed States were crazy," saldDr. F. W.Mott, who attended the opening of the Henry early to-day and an hour later Mr. and Phipps psychiatric clinic at Baltimore. The and severely wounded. The same rother sanity are closely related. Dr. Mott has charge of twenty thousand lunatics in

"You are traitors to your country if you do not do something to change the rotten procedure in our courts. In the ing by a strange man in her room. When name of God, do something to bring about she screamed the burgler shot her the administration of justice." This state-through the breast and escaped She died ment was made to 200 members of the soon after she had told her story to her Chicago Bar association by Father Maurice J. Dorney of St. Gabriel's Church.

> ing pictures, which show what the de-partment of commerce is doing for the people of the United States, would be of great value, both to the department and those interested in its work,

Secretary Redfield has decided that mov-

Mr. and Mrs. George Bendrick, newly weds, who are said to have cloped from Compound checks the cough, heats the their homes in Virginia, are living in a tent on the mountain side near Princeton. N. J., until the young husband can earn enough money to begin housekeeping.

patrol for its work from November 1 to April 1, reports these net results: hundred and twenty-five persons saved from drowning; 85 distressed vessels on which there were cargoes valued at $6,250,000 and 851 persons, assisted; 16 derelicts des

Women of Middle Age

From 40 to 50 Woman's Critical Period.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, severe headaches, melancholia, dread of impending evil, palpitation of the heart, irregularity, constipation and dizziness are promptly treated by intelligent women who are approaching the period of life.

This is the most critical period of woman's life and she who neglects the care of her health at this time invites in-curable disease and pain. Why not be guided by the ex-perience of others and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? It is an indisputable fact that this grand old remedy has helped thousands of women to pass through this trying period with comfort and safety. Thousands of genuine and honest testimonials support this fact.

From Mrs. HENRY HEAVILIN, Cadiz, Ohio.

Fort Worth, Texas. —"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and derived great benefit from its use. It carried me safely through the Change of Life when I was in bad health. I had that all gone feeling most of the time, and headache constantly, I was very nervous and the hot flashes were very bad. I had tried other remedies and doctors, but did not improve until I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has now been sometime since I took the Compound and I have had no return of my old complaints, I always praise your remedies to weak women."—Mrs. Henry Heavilin, R. F. D. No. 5, Cadiz, Ohio."

From Mrs. EDWARD B. HILBERT, Fleetwood, Pa. Fleetwood, Pa.—"During the Change of Life I was hardly able to be around at all. I always had a headache and I was so dizzy and nervous that I had no rest at night. The flashes of heat were so bad sometimes that I did not know what to do. "One day a friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made me a strong, well woman. I am very thankful that I followed my friend's advice, and I shall recommend it as long as I live. Before I took the Compound I was always sickly and now I have not had medicine from a doctor for years. You may publish my letter."—Mrs. EDWARD B. HILBERT, Fleetwood, Pa.

From Mrs. F. P. MULLENDORE, Munford, Ala. Munford, Ala.—"I was so weak and nervous while passing through the Change of Life that I could hardly live. My husband had to nail rubber on all the gates for I could not stand to have a gate slam.

"I also had backache and a fullness in my stomach. I noticed that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was advertised for such cases and I sent and got a bottle. It did me so much good that I kept on taking it and found it to be all you claim. I recommend it to all women afflicted as I was."—Mrs. F. P. MULLEN-DORE, Munford, Ala.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE

Cake

SUNDAY MENU.

BREAKFAST. Hot Biscuit serve very hot. Orange Marmalade

Cereal Coffee LUNCH Fresh Pork Salad

DINNER. Fow! Stew and Dumplings

> Fowl a Littlelienne Strawberry Shortrake Pudding MONDAY MENU.

BREAKFAST. Brown Bread with Cream Dip Hashed Raw Potatoes Coffee

Oyster Croquettes Cottage Cheese

> DINNER Fried Apples Pork Chops Hodled Potatoes That Biscu

Straw erry and Cream POWL A LITALIENNE.

It is claimed by some that in cooking : savory sauces and seasonings of his own concecting, he converts this most ordinary of hirds into a dish fit for a millionaire The following is said to be a favorite method with cooks from sunny Italy; Two handfuls of macaroni, a little white sauce. the whites of four eggs, and some grated into the stewpan a pound of rice and handful of parsley. As soon as the flesh is thoroughly tender, the parsley is re-moved, its place being taken by a little its purposes to-day on the lawn of butter, natures, salt and pepper. The savory mesh is then stirred until it is reduced to a pulp, and the fowl is imbedded Philippine Islands.

ITALIAN SAUCE.

in it and served.

An excellent and easily made Italian ped to Brownsville, Texas and two sauce is prepared as follows: Take a Oblate Fathers will take it through tablespoonful of kalad oil, a handful of the southwest for the next year. A finely chopped onions, stirring them in a huge tent, carried on its top, surstewpan over a slow fire, adding half a rounds the car when it is used as teaccupful of broth and eight tablespoon- church and scats 200 persons. fuls of demi-glaze. If, when the boiling process is completed, the sauce is found to be too thick, half a gill of water wil thin it. A little chopped parsley, a dash of cayenne pepper, and a teaspoonful of lemon juice complete the dish.

OYSTER CROQUETTES.

Cook a pint of oysters in their liquor gether over the fire two tablespoonfuls of mond, E. C. Kenyon; South Burlington fire and set aside to cool. When very a few changes from that of a year ago. cold form into croquettes, adding enough cracker dust to allow of forming easily if dust and lay in a cold place for several for you nours. Drop carefully in deep, boiling fat, and fry to a golden brown. Drain in a colunder lined with tissue paper and

GOLDEN PUDDING.

3-4 cup flour. 1 teaspoon baking powder.

Grated rind of 1 lemon.

1-4 tenspoon salt. Beat the butter and sugar together till light, add the eggs, well beaten, also the grated lemon rind, then the four, salt and taking powder sifted together. Beat well, turn into well greased cups and cover with greased paper. Steam three-quarters of an hour. Serve hot with a sauce. Do not fill the cups more than two-thirds full of the mixture, as it will rise during

APPLE AND TOAST PUDDING.

Tonat several slices of stale bread until it is brown and thoroughly dried through. Soak in cold water just enouto moisten them. Put a layer of all apples in a baking dish, season with tw tablespoons of sugar, one of cold tea. little cayenne and salt and bits of bi ter, using one teaspoon in all. Cover wit a layer of the slices of toast, repeat th layers and cover the top layer of tons with a thin sprinkling of buttered crack crumbs. Bake in a moderate oven until the apple is soft, about 40 nrinutes.

Take one quart of rich, sweet milk eat six eggs with two tablespoonfuls of ugor, and stir the whole together. But the crust on the plates, and let it hards a few minutes in the oven or near th fire; then pour in the custard and bak about 20 minutes. This is a recipe over 60 years old and we would now prefer it

FIRST MOTOR CAR CHURCH. It Carries a Tent That Will Seat

Chicago, April 20 .- The first motor car church to be used by a religious St. Xavier's Academy by the Rt. Rev. D. J. Dougherty, bishop of Jaro,

The car is called St. Peter's motor chapel and was donated by a Californis woman in memory of her husband. The equipment will be ship-

DEPUTY GAME WARDENS AP-

The following have been appointed deputy game wardens by Fish and Game Commissioner Titcomb for Chittenden county; Essex, H. W. Abbey, T. W. Hanley, David Demag and Hammond Sinciair; Hinesburg, O. A. Baldwin; Jericho, H. E. until they just begin to ruffle, remove Bates; Milton, H. G. Biake; Huntington, from the fire, drain (reserving half a cup Frank Brown; Shelburne, Albert Jacques, of the Hquor) and chop fine. Stir to- H. N. Rowley and W. M. Webster; Richflour and two of butter, and pour on them G. H. Calkins, F. E. Lord and L. M. Rava half cup of cream with a pinch of soda Hn; Bolton, H. E. Muzzy and L. J. Gile; in it, and the half cup of oyster liquor. Westford, A. G. Castle: Burlington, J. E. When beaten to a smooth sauce, add slow- Gutcheil; Colchester, H. S. White and ly two beaten eggs, then the chopped George A. Spaulding: Charlotte, A. H. oysters, sait and pepper and a pinch of Williams and G. E. Edgerton; Underhill, grated nutines. Remove at once from the Warren Woodruff. The list contains only

Not always-not invariably-but USneeded. Roll in beaten egg and cracker UALLY a want ad will find a tenant