NO MISUSE OF FUNDS AT THE UNIVERSITY

Chief Justice Powers Refutes Charges of the Car-, negie Foundation—Senator Morrill's Conceptions of the Land-Grant College.

The following address was delivered by | dustries of life, and to facilities for such Chief Justice George M. Powers of the instruction." Vermont Supreme Court at a discussion rille Sunday evening:

Vermont and State Agricultural College Leconomic science, and English am the "prisoner at the bar." At least,

John Converse, Governor McCol- second Morrill acts. Kingsley, Senator Dillingham, Senator Page, Governor F. D. Prohave, at different times, served our State

the indictment to the jury, that they may report. know of what the respondent stands acville Messenger, and in this editorial lan-

State Agricultural College.

"Those of our readers who have careful other State papers furnish my excuse for taking part in this discussion at Burlington have nothing to do with the expenditure of the funds referred to. The mit that neighbor Thayer finds therein act was passed. On page 7 of this comn page 169 of the report, appears this language; statement:

printions on subjects other than agricult to find these doubts and suspicions return may or may not be strictly legal." moved. And in conclusion, we all unite pression that, in the minds of the Carnegle sons and daughters of Vermont who deexperts, the expenditure is illegal.

But this is not all, nor is it the worst, business of life, and commend the instituin his letter of February 7, 1914, pres tion to the confidence and fostering care pared for publication by Mr. Clyde of the State." mmarizing the report, it is said that; the committee, I submit. hows that the University of liture for the support of our medical de- acts. artment. So interpreted, the statement ressly appropriated for that purpose and

1. The act of Congress of 1862, known iral experiment station, which was esent station funds have been diverted. I iich was sold and the funds received the work of these institutions, and it is * to the endowment, support, their steadfast friends. * * * in order to promote the lib. has been faithfully complied with.

with no less a man than Justin 8.

ches of mathematical, physical, nat-and economic science, with special net." Two of these reports have been

It may be admitted that this language is of the Carnegle Foundation report be- first act, but I submit that it is comprethe Young Men's improvement hensive enough to cover everything held in the Universalist Church in Morris- and moral sciences, and, of course, medicine, law, theology and the like. Th negle report shows on page 168 that we fend another charged with an effence, but have used this money to teach engineer-I come to defend myself. For, as I have ing, natural and physical science botany en to be a trustee of the University of and zoology, agriculture, mathematics,

The Nelson amendment, which carries an additional $25,000 per year, specifics dock with me are M. H. Buckham, E. J. that this sum shall be "applied only for the dps. Senator Proctor, Senator Morrill, the purposes of the Agricultural Colleges Judge Wales, G. G. Benedlet, H. H. Pow- as defined and limited in' the first and

I need not stop to enquire whether or ter, and the long line of illustrious and or all of this appropriation to the teachpatriotic Vermonters, living and dead, who ing of foreign languages, ancient or mod-simplicity and purity of character endear- though Senator Morrill's idea was to as- next Friday and spend the week-end as trustees of its highest institution of for we have not, and do not intend, thus tunate chough to come into personal concused. So I will read the charge which I in the acts. And this seems so plain to active trustee as his high attendance in the field should be practically tangent, health am here to reflute. It appeared, a few me, that I suspect the honesty of him record amply proves. He was born in a say more than that the mechanical trade. The It is a matter of common knowledge, however, that from time to time a suspicion has existed, mostly among read and considered these reports (the political agriculturists, that the institu-Installments of the Carnegle Foundation tion at Burlington was misusing these report) as printed in this paper, can judge federal funds. Such a suspicion was emselves. One thing is certain; the spread abroad in 1874, nine years after the justices of the Supreme Court of the Uni-U. V. M. faculty has made no attempt to passage of the act uniting the Agricultural ted States; the general of the army and dwarfed training, such as might be had confer with Representative Underwood explain why State and federal funds in- College with the University of Vermont. It his staff; representatives of foreign gov- at an industrial school, nor a mere man- and other House leaders during the pressended for the Agricultural College have resulted in the appointment by the Legis- ernments; senators and representatives und training such as might be supplied but week. been used otherwise. An institution that lature of a joint special committee to instands convicted by its own books of mis- vestigate and report "whether the act inappointing the University of Vermont and friend. This man is my witness. This false and libelious statement, and State Agricultural College has been prop-This take and morning statement, and series complied with by the officers of said Morrill as saying that his motive in in- something other than a college, they I may say at the outset, that the faculty expended in accordance with the act of So it was; but not in the narrow sense rill says; "The furnismental idea was to consibility is wholly with the board of D. S. Storrs, and Edward D. Dans, on the ly solicitous for the artisan and mechanic, numbers, not merely those destined to Francis Howes and Dr. Cary T. Grayson, Nor is any question raised in part of the House, and E. P. Walton and His purpose was, not to educate the boys the Carnegle report or elsewhere regard- Simeon Allen, on the part of the Senate, of our State in agricultural lines alone, needing higher justruction for the world's ing our expenditure of the State appropri- On Nov. is, 1874, this committee filed its but to give them that liberal education husiness, for the industrial pursuits and due in Washington at 7.25 a. m. to-moration. So I treat the references to these report completely vindicating the institut which would be of larger benefit to them, professions of life. tion. The committee reported that it had and fit them for greater service. When I called the editor's attention to fully complled with the terms of its charthe faisehood of his comment, he referred ter, and that it had expended the federa ne to the published utterances of the funds in accordance with the act of Con-Poundation and its officers, and insisted gress. This, of course, related only to the that his statement was thereby warrant- funds received under the first Morrill act. Turning to these I am obliged to ad- as it was long before the second Morrill some justification for his charges. For, mittee's report, we find this significant "Some of your committee entered upon this investigation with doubt-secretary of the Foundation, in Not a very had endorsement for a hosthe institution was again inves-

its appropriation for a medical school acquitted and commended. And several that neighbor and 1890, visited the institution, and in hayer accuses us of the misuse of funds; every case commended it. And in the he was justified in understanding that year last named, the biennial report to the retary Furst was charging us with Legislature showed in unmistakable terms sing an appropriation intended for agri- just how we were interpreting the Morrill

This was the year (1850) in which o as wholly and absolutely false. The the legislative fight, led in the House by cak and unsatisfactory explanation made our Morristown representative. Fred B. the secretary himself, makes the state. Livingston, to separate the Agricultural cent wholly unnecessary and meaning. College from the University and establish for everybody knows that the State it elsewhere. Whatever the fact had previously been, the expenditure of the federal funds wa, then thoroughly brought other. Not a penny of federal funds home and explained to every member of well remember. No similar attempt has since been made Nothing has occurred in legislative halls. and little outside, indicative of distrust the action of 1890, together with the naction of the succeeding 23 years, may be safely interpreted as an unmistakable ap-The act of Congress of 1907, known as proval of our interpretation of the sev-

James Monroe, a professor in Oberlin College and a member of the House, introduced a resolution, which was adopted. instructing the committee agriculture makes an annual visitation and inbor "to enquire into the condition the benefit of the individual, but for the birth, with his entire approbation withamination of all the expenditures from and management of the agricultural and benefit of the State. If good citizenship out money or price, * * * Asking peramination of all the exponentials from the colleges which have received grants depends upon education in any appreciable sonally for nathing, and yet not so old as which is conducted," and that "only from the United States under the act of degree, the best is none to good for the to "dream dreams." I must it may be beter approval of these financial reports July 2, 1862. Mr. Monroe was opposed to Vermont bern boy. the payment of funds to the station these colleges, and the move was dis surprisingly favorable to them. This was o per year. This sum represents the the first and last movement in Congress refor turned over to the State as trus. pleasure to add that Mr. Monroe himself all be inviolably appropriated by each became and remained ever after one of > rill act (1890) required an annual report containing statistical information concern ing the receipts and expenditures. This ensive. It is frequently and correctly funds, unless the college administration chensive. It is frequently and correctly funds, unless the college administration persistent was no in this view. that in the fittle of a bill introduced by him in far-sighted wisdom gave us the landare sent to the treasurer of the intaught under this grant. The Foundaare sent to the treasurer of the intaught under this grant. The Foundaare sent to the treasurer of the intotal colleges as "national colleges for the advancement of in spite of expert criticism from within or the legality of our disposition of this great detail is recorded the expenditures of the federal funds. Indeed, of the federal money. One of these is befurther and convincing evidence fore me. Every penny is accounted for scope and in such a clear and understandable the instruction permissable under the form that the federal authorities cannot oral law of 1862, it may be found in the fall to see every particular of the expenstees of the Vermont Agricultural Col- these reports is both intelligent and thorough is shown by the fact that in 1910, hairman, set forth the proposed course allowed as outside the acts of Congress. study for the college founded under the One of these was a charge in connection to Morrill act. This course includes with the "Better Farming Special Greek, moral and intellectual sci- Train," and the others covered several small items for equipment which second Morrill act, which provides thought came under the head of "facilities a year, also specifies the purposes for such instruction." but which the govwhich the money therein appropriated ernment thought did not. The reports for These are "instruction in 1912 and for 1913 were "examined and found ulture and the mechanic arts. the satisfactory" By a ruling made in 191 language, and the various we are now required "to make full repor-ares "may or may not" be legal.

royal of the legislative department of than 20 years.

nost remarkable man our State has ever exclude even the classics. of any man of his time. A man whose bitely as the "green." Does this look as official. little inland town in Vermont, amid the of a carpenter or blacksmith should be Washington. Upper most in his mind at wife here in court were the following. entage. He died in Washington, and tion that was proposed. Classical studies and the anti-trust program. there gathered around his casket all the were not to be excluded, and therefore confident that the exemption clause will notables of the nation; the president of must be included. The act of 1862 pro- be repealed without amendment in the estitution, and whether the funds here- troducing the land-grant bills was a de- would not play the national law." tofore paid to the institution have been sire "to do something for the farmer." again in the same address, Senator Mor-Congress which created the fund." This of the Carnegle report. Senator Morrill offer an opportunity in every State for a night were Secretary McAdoo and his committee consisted of James K. Tobey, took a much broader view, and was equal- liberal and larger education to larger figurese. Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson, was passed Senator Morrill did not have ment exercises in 1807. the congressional debates from 185s to little else. sire the best education for the practical the times, that "there is no logical stoped that will canble a boy born on "White loges should not, like timid horses, have ing of delegates to the democratic has

This conception is neither new nor or-

It may have been noticed that I have whole economic of these colleges as land-grant served." colleges. This is the name which Senafor Morrill used in referring to them. He Agricultural Colleges." In his address be-premonition of the Carnegie criticism. the Agricultural Colleges." And then he rill and his associates were in a posi-went on to say: "I may say that the in- tion to better judge the requirements of d and practical education of the induselse of an enquiring turn of mind ought is grave them that title, and it has seem to understand that with this requirement of the second and the second and eral pursuits and professions of life. The time with his approval. He never have been of first consideration with most of it. His long, useful and active service of the members, it was well understood as trustee sufficiently attests these facts that the funds appropriated would be if anyone is "convicted of the misuse of tion of the Carnegie report that the term offender. 'mechanic arts' was originally intended o cover only those immediately associated with agriculture is wholly unwarranted, and, coming from a less conspicuous what Congress meant, why did not Con-

There has never been any change in the clear and Incid expression. Let me quote their intelligence: to say otherwise haracter of these expenditures. Yet, in his own words, taken from the address impeach their integrity. the face of the foregoing facts, all of already referred to: "The object of the, It is much to be deplored that these the lace of the foregoing facts and of introduction of the bill of 1862 was to gentlemen could not have taken a mor Foundation or should have been give a chance to the industrial classes hopeful view of our State and our pe known if their investigation was any- of the country to obtain a liberal educa- pie. It is much to be regretted that the thing more than superficial, they are so tion, something more than was bestowed did not take the time for an attentive ingracious as to say that these expendi- by our universities and colleges in gen- reading of Senator Morrill's public extereral." And further on, in speaking of the ances regarding our land-grant colleg-The fact is, they are legal by the plain, attempt to separate the College of Ag- it is a fair assumption that if they had inequivocal terms of the acts of Con- riculture from the university, he said; they would have acquired some of his cress; they are legal by the repeated ap- "Now it seems that under the late act splendid optimism, his inspiring enthu or State; they are legal by congressional dowment to these colleges, it is proposed I make bold to say, however, that the approval, and by the annual approval of to establish something that will amount State of Vermont will continue to adthe government at Washington for more to nothing more than an agricultural minister the affairs of its university ac-This ought to be sufficient evidence to that as a revolution, and subversive of gressional purposes and the needs of her convince the most skeptical. But we lawthe whole idea of the land-grant act of people-undismayed, as were her pioneers, yers like to have a corroborating witness. 1862, which was of a much broader kind, by criticism or insult from New York. somewhat loss liberal than that of the So I propose to call one, and I may be it included to be sure, the idea that as- And her College of Agriculture, and the permitted to proceed after the manner of riculture and the mechanic arts were to others of its class, will, if I may borrow he profession, and introduce my witness have a leading or first position, but it the words of President Atherton, class of the Methodist Church and the usually taught in American colleges, ex- by showing who he is and where he comes also included much more, it was for the crease in wealth, and influence, and pul> attended school after he was 15. A man effect on the pending controversy. For founder, Justin S. Morrill." whose public service did not begin until in 1988 in an address delivered in the hall was 44. A man whose brilliant garser of the House of Representatives at Montin both branches of Congress, and par- peller, he said: "Only the interest from ularly in the Senate, is a proud recol- the land-grant fund can be expended, and etion of all Vermonters and lovers of that must be expended, first-without ex-Vermont wherever located. A man whose cluding other scientific and classical broad, constructive statesmanship con-studies-for teaching such branches of modest surroundings of his humble par- taught. Secondly, it was a liberal educa- present are the Panama tolls controversy the United States and his cabinet; the posed a system of broad education by cal. Senate as it was in the House. With rein Congress-all to give stlent expression by a foreman of a workshop, or by a would have only a school with equal The Carnegic report quotes Senator scraps of taker and of instruction, or sedentary professions, but to those much it S. N. The party went aboard the pri-

That these views were not born of . The Foundation further intimates on temporary enthusiasm appears from Senpage 170 that when the first Morrill act ator Morrill's address at the commence any clear idea of what sort of institu- he says, "there may have been establishtion was to be developed for the benefit ed colleges, soscilled, where instruction The record in agriculture is provided for, with very 1862 does not seem to bear out this state- as it would be a non-compliance with seemed to measure the fundamental conditions of the act of hound which arrived "This expenditure of the federal aparo- and suspicions; they have been gratified the sort of service they would render. 1862 * * * All farmers and their sons Bloodhound passed a large quantity Surely no one who ever exchanged a word should properly resent the false imputa- of wreckage Saturday afternoon about with him on this subject, which was the tion that it is with their approval that 100 miles southeast of this port. It The natural, and no doubt intended, ef- in asking for the Vermont University and one nearest his heart and one of which some newspaper writers propose to have had apparently been washed from he most delighted to speak, will give the national land-grant funds so expended scaler's deck, but as the crew of the slightest credence to the Foundation's as to wholly exclude from its benefits all Bloodhound had not heard of the loss . statement. No man ever had a clearer other pursuits and professions but that of the Southern Cross, no effort was have it done I shall let it go dirty. I have church," she added, "has a minister who Morrill had of what a land-grant college orously protest against the mockery and ought to be. Indeed, it was given him protense of substituting for a liberal ed- scarching in the vicinity of Cape Race, away yesterday because the balance of speaker, began running his fingers gently to see, a full half century in advance of heation, instruction solely related to ag- was notified by wireless to-day of the $15 was not paid as promised. The iceman over the keys. Miss Est then elementary education and a public sup-port of the highest university education." institution having less equipment than a college of even the lowest grade. Claim-Heying-the Carnegie Foundation to the ture, yet they know, as subjects of im contrary notwithstanding-that Vermont portance, to borrow the language of the will never have an ideal nor adequate turf, that there are many 'good seconds' whools, and thence on through college to One further quotation from Senator pealing the clause of the canal act she once was a chorus girl in the exempting American coastwise shipping Florodora company. Burbank adsupported at public expense and without witness stand: "May I not be pardoned," from tolls, we against repeal and II nonthe expenditure of a penny for tuition, he says, "for exhibiting some personal rer went to the support of the medical the House and Senate. The attempted iginal, Jefferson conceived and advocated enduring success of the land-grant col- policy has centered largely upon the separation failed, as some now present it years ago; Senator Morrill hoped to leges throughout the Union, and especially declaration of the Baltimore platform in live long enough to see it accomplished. of that of my native State? As estab- favor of free tells, and two weeks ag-It is a gratuitous and undeserved insult lished under the acts of 186; and 1800. Senator Gore addressed personal letters to the youth of our State to insinuate they were the best thoughts I was able to each of the thousand-odd delegates to that they do not deserve this, I insist to formulate-good enough to be adopted the convention asking for an expression by Congress-and the first approved by of opinion on the issue. and it is from just such places that we get some of our most virile manhood- man doubtless might have constructed a tounding to the champions and opponshould, so far as educational possibilities different and better measure, but doubtents of the repeal, said the announcement stand on a level with the less he did not think of it is years ago. In 1874 Congress investigated the Agriboy whose father pays an income tax, and, unfortunately, may now be too late cultural Colleges, ours with the rest. Mr. The chances are that he will deserve and for anything except to decorate with the repeal, notably Texas and Pennsyl-The chances are that he will deserve and tor any time chances are that he will deserve and for any time chances are that he will deserve and for any time chances are that he will deserve and for any time chances are that he will deserve and for any time chances are that he will deserve and for any time chances are that he will deserve and for any time chances are that he will deserve and for any time chances are that he will deserve and for any time chances are that he will deserve and for any time chances are that he will deserve and for any time chances are that he will deserve and for any time chances are that he will deserve and for any time chances are that he will deserve and for any time chances are that he will deserve and time chances are that he will deserve and time chances are that he will deserve and time chances are that he will deserve any time chances are that he will deserve any time chances are that he will deserve any time chances are the will deserve any time chances and the will deserve any time chances and the will deserve any time chances are the will deserve any time chances are the will deserve any time chances are the will deserve any time chances and the will deserve any time chances are the will deserve any time chances and the will deserve any time chances are the will deserve any time chances are the will deserve any time chances are the will deserve any time chances and the will deserve any time chances and the will deserve any time chances are the will deserve any time chances are the will deserve any time chances and the will deserve any time chances are the will deserve any time chances and the will deser latter. The mere accident of birth should now have and cover the scheme of a 2 in favor of repeal was adopted, not be an educational handlean. Education proposed substitute, in whatever time, on education tion at public cost is not undertaken for place or shape it may have an unimply

Compare this language, if you please, ecasionally referred to the "so-called most seems that Senator Morrill had a during the contest already referred to, the experts may be in a better position taches that kept brushing my complexion e spoke of "what are ordinary called to judge; but I submit that Senator Morgeneral scientific and industrial educa- without, will continue that the Burlington institution was always Senator Morrill's see the man that I'd promise to love. It is idle to say that they were to be ideal of what a land grant college ought honor and obey! Agricultural Colleges, exclusively. As we to be. It was so from the beginning. have already seen they were to promote Its courses were arranged with his asdebates in Congress show that while ag- of praising it. He loved it with all the fculture was most talked of and may ardor of his gentle nature. He was proud available for other purposes. The asser- funds," Senator Morrill was the chief Inuendo is often more damaging than direct accusation. Its polson is frequently Use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound more insidious. To say that the gentle- for influend throats and coughing. Mrs. men of the Foundation really feit the 1 C. Hostler, Grand Island, Nebr., says: face of his captor in a ratirond testagrant doubt implied in the statement "this ex- "My three children had severe attacks of at bittsburg.

(Second Morrill Act) giving further en- slasm, his contagious mental exuberance school for our State. I should regard cording to her own conception of con- Her Chief Aim in Life to Bleach a week, was carried into the supreme industrial clauses, to promote their in- the favor; but their most precious pos-Justin S. Morrill, in many respects the struction generally, and it was not to session and their perennial source of power over the young munhood and woproduced. The son and grandson of a This idea was not new to Senator Mor- manhood of America will be found in the country blacksmith. A man who never rill, or expressed for the purpose of its example of the life and character of their

IS BACK IN HARNESS.

President Returns to Washington Mrs. Wilson Gains.

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., April tributed more to the happiness and pros- learning as are related to agriculture and 12.-President Wilson left here at 11:12 not, under this act, we could apply any perity of the American people than that the mechanic acts the latter as abso- o'clock to-night for Washington. Should ern, or to intellectual or moral science; ed him to every person who was for- sist the farmer sione? I see it sound as with Mrs. Wilson, who remained behind are settled, though the act of tell was to be limited to to-night with her two daughters, Mrs. learning.—the University of Vermont and to use it. This money has been expended tact with him The father of the land, such me lune are related to ag- Francis Bowes Sayre and Miss Margaret as I can judge is to keep her hair for teaching the subjects coumerated, as grant colleges A trustee of the Univer- Sculture? The schuter then goes on: Wilson has improved in It is customary in criminal liais to read is shown by the table on page 168 of the sity of Vermont and State Agricultural "Obviously, not manual but intellectual health since sice has been here and an-College from 185 to the date of his death, instruction was the paramount object. It other week in the mountain air is ex- Burbank. Every dollar of this expenditure is with- December 28, 1898-a period of 33 years, -an was not proceed that agricultural labor period to bring back her strength and

The President has transacted no official to genuine grief at the loss of a personal foreman of an experimental farm. If any business here. He has enjoyed a quiet rest and his own health has benefited lily, with the exception of Mrs. Wilson, attended services at the Episcopalian Church to-day; in the afternoon they went driving and then took a long walk ate car which was attached to a train

WRECKAGE IS FOUND.

Pleating Debris Believed to Be from Lost Senler Southern Cross.

St. Johns, N. P., April 12.-Floating wreckage believed to have come from time If so, it is to be regretted, the missing scaler Southern Cross was reported by the scaling steamer Blood-

DELEGATES FOR REPEAL MEASURE

Rocks Farm," well up on the side of blinders to hinder them from seeing any-sterling Mountain, beginning with the thing on either side of them, while men tolls issue were announced toprimary schools, to pass along up through everywhere are reaching out in all direct night by the democratic national com-

HALF-MILLION FOR NEW YORK CATHEDRAL

Bourne, a wealthy manufacturer and capt mote the greatest good to the greatest tallst, once a choir boy in Trinity Episcocumstances will not allow us to adopt number, and to construe the college act such a system as I have suggested. Indeed, we are altogether too page and to which only can its greatest negligibles.

The greatest good to the greatest per deal of the given $500.00 to the Cathedral of the choir school. The gift was Mr. Bourne's only condition was that he whole country be fully developed and pre- ne elected a member of the Cathedral visu't Doeds, the lawyer, a rather exravagant man?" 'By no means. I've known him to make tired They say she has bad taste, and it's as plain as plain can be. I know that she is gilty for she wears fake fewelry.

Branklin Life

Measies and scarlet fever almost as bad penditure of the federal appropriations on whooping cough, and a very few doses of subjects other than agriculture may or Foley's Honey and Tar gave great relief."

BURBANK SAYS HIS WIFE'S KICKS MADE Alleged Burglar on Hunger HIM THROW UP JOB

Hair and Doll Up, Says Ex-Manager of Hotel Vermont.

Buffalo, N. Y., April 12 .- Abraham and who married in Burlington an following her divorce from Warren trial," Clark, gave important testimony here Friday in reply to his wife's suit the fact that Miller has two teeth out against him for a separation. After in front he would have been worse of hearing the various witnesses Justice than he is Every time forcible feed-Wheeler here in special term of su-Wheeler here in special term of su-preme court ordered Burbank to pay by the missing teeth made it possibly his wife $150 alimony fees, the rent by the missing teeth made it p for the flat Mrs. Burbank occupies here to force a tube down his throat. business permit he will return at 208 Connecticut street and $12 every week until the separation proceedings

"Her principal object in life se far Despondent Rochester Man Jumps 212 properly bleached, adorn herself with lewelry and fine clothes" declared Mr. be constantly on the move, but away from her home." Some of the more important points the The President faces a busy week at former hotel proprieter save against his old, walked out upon the driving paris

> KEPT LIQUOR IN BATH ROOM. She kicked so much about little things e was compelled to give up his position at the water's edge. Every bone in as manager of the Hotel Vermont in his body was broken and death was Burlington and come to Buffalo. She kept an ice-box in her bath-room ontaining beer and whiskey. detures and a note which read: "I wish runk belonging to me and put them in tened the rope and tied the body his box." The following day there was Newman in a secure manner. our trunk as I am going away."

ils wife one tallored black gown, $50; same manner. one-piece dress, $28; purple gown, $28; ermine furs, $110; three hats, $35; spectacular incident. morning dress, $12; and $25 for repairing furs, and in addition to this GIRL ASSAILS REV. vardrobe, he says, she had a set of mink furs purchased in New York city for $229.50.

large amount of from ten to twenty ents a day and you drawing two hundred article in this paper." she said. The steamer Kyle which has been The furs you told me to get were taken. The organist, cate

P. S .- I hardly think it necessary for Burbank claims the matrimonial ac or pecuniary gain after she loarned estate in Pittsfield, Mass. He says her former occupation was manicurmits his wife is attractive.

"She is a strong, healthy woman and as well as I am." concludes Burbank.

SAGAMORE HOTEL BURNS.

George summer hotels, was destroyed by the course from Nome to Candle and reference this morning. The fire was discovered by a man at 2340 o'cleck. He notified the return, a distance of 412 miles. For 75 hours or more, with brief stops for rest normal at reporting stations, the dogs moned help, but there was no means of and food at reporting stations, the dogs fighting the flames and the structure and drivers will press on. Zero weather which was of wood, was burned to the of the last few days hardened the snow ground in an hour and a half. The many end conditions are ideal for fast time

Loops Loop 8 Times.

Lloyd Thompson "looped the loop" that the following happened. eight times here to-day, breaking Lincoln Beachey's previous American record at San Francisco of seven loops. dent to a small boy "Isn't that fine? Do Thompson was less than 2,000 feet you like her?" above the ground when he started his downward flight, and made his last loop when within 500 feet of the earth. had a brother, so I could play ball with

PRISONER MAKES

Altoona, Pa., April 12.-Frank G. Hohl. allas Frank Wilson, the confessed robber of the Union bank of this city and who was confined in the Holldaysburg jail awaiting sentence which was to have been pronounced upon him to-morrow. made his escape some time after one o'clock this morning. An employe at the made from a mattress dangling from the poof to the sidewalk in front of the jail. The crime for which Hohl was awaiting trial was sensational. The Union bank, situated in the heart of the business section of the city was entered during the noon hour on March 23 by a masked bandit, who drove the cashier and paying teller from their cages at the point of a revolver and alog the cashier in the leg. He then filled a bug with nearly $5,000 in bills from the bank's counter. A depositor who was entering sighed latter was leaving.

He then terrorized a crowd on the street by driving a fushade of shots from his

Ohio, where he had taken his wife to her father's home. He made several desperveyed here by the detactives in one of which he threw a cup of hos coffee in the light it is alleged, confessed to prevent

MISSING TEETH AID IN FEEDING

Strike Is Carried into Court on Stretcher.

Buffalo, N. Y., April 10. Sam Miller, an alleged burglar, who has been a hunger strike at the county jail for ourt to-day on a stretcher by eight deputies. He refused to answer ouestions put to him by the court and the district attorney, lying mute and motionless and with closed over all the time he was in the court room. "His eyelids move and I believe he understands what I say," the interpreter told Justice Herbert P. Bissell. "Enter a piea of not gailty," Burbank, formerly manager of the court ordered. "Pil not tolerate fakers Hotel Vermont in Burlington. Vt. in this court. In the meanwhile have doctors feed him through a tube until May 15, 1911. Mrs. Burbank two days he is strong enough to appear for

The jailer said that if it were not for

EVERY BONE BROKEN

Feet to Death on Boeks.

Rochester, N. Y., April 12.- Despoy cent because he had lost his position with a local dental menufacturing company, George Newman, 28 years avenue bridge this afternoon and sureyed the waters of the Genezee river feet below. Suddenly he leaped over the railing and fell upon the rocks instantaneous. Owing to the steep bank on either side of the river, morgue attaches In the summer of 1913 she stayed out pondered as to a method of recovering ate one night and they quarreled. The the remains. Fire Captain David Levi, next morning Burbank found on his bed of hose No. 10, fastened a rope about silverware, a cedar chest, a glove bex, his waist and a dozen muscular police men and firemen lowered him to the on would take the things out of your river's edge below. There he unfasthis note: "I want those things out of body was then hoisted to the bridge above, and afterward the fire captain purchased for was hauled back to the bridge in the Hundreds of people witnessed the

DR. PARKHURST

New York, April 12.-Jane Est, a your woman sympathizer with the doctrines of Mrs. Burbank took breakfast in her the Industrial Workers of the World, oom every morning about 10 o'clock day at the morning services of the Madiand dined with him only one-third the son Square Presbyterian Church inter rupted the service and was arrested. On Sunday, December 7, his wife left ing from a seat in the gallery of the for him a letter which read in part as church just over the chancel Miss Est started an attack on the Rev. Charles H "I wonder what you think I can do with Parkhurst, the pastor

"I want to call your attention to at nd sixty a month. I have done the wash- just as the prayer of consecration was ng and cleaning of this house long about to be offered. As she spoke she enough and unless you leave the money to waved a newspaper before her. "This

The organist, catching sight of the is paid. His bill is over a dollar and i don't blame him. You go around with a pocket full of money while I have two fairly shook the edifice with the sonorous vibrations of the big pipes. Only a syl-Miss Est was taken to a police station, where she was charged with dis-

desk sergeant: Nobody could be heard with that old

Dr. Parkhurst, who is ill, was not in the building when Miss Est began her She was arraigned and held in $500 bait for examination on Tuesday. She was tot able to furnish ball.

Dogs to Race 412 Miles.

The manager of an important depart-Los Angeles, Cal., April 12.—De ment in a downtown retail store swears "I hear that you have a little new sister at your house," said our correspon-

> "Yes. I like her." answered Willie, or whatever his name was, "but I druther > him an' wrastle with him an' teach him how to swim an' put up his dooks" "Weil, if you aren't satisfied, why don't you take her back and exchange her?" asked the shop man.

> "Aw, it's roo late now," answered Wilie, or whatever his name was. "We go her a week ago, and ahe's been laundered, a couple of times already. No store exchange her now!"-Cleveland to insured for several hundred dollars, died and left the money to his widow. She rate mourning suit. Showing her purchase to her friend, she was very partictiar in going into details as to prices and all incidental particulars. Her friend heaven, what is si' goin' to do wif all dis black underwear?" The bereaved one

"Chile, when I mourns, I mourns, stimulating effect on the stomach, liver and bewels is Foley Cathartic Tablets. Thoroughly cleansing in action, they keep you regular with no griping and no un-pleasant after effects. They remove that gassy distended feeling so uncomfortable to stout persons. J. W. O'Sullivan.

A store is a far more interesting pic