

One Cent a Word

Advertising in this column one cent a word each insertion. Copy may be changed every week. Cash in advance required. No advertisement taken which is less than 12 words, two lines. Special terms to advertisers using from 250 to 1,000 lines within 12 consecutive months.

HELP WANTED.

A COOK wanted at the Home for Destitute Children. References required. 46.111.

MISCELLANEOUS WANTS.

FARM wanted, to be paid for by residence. In Lowell, Mass., taken in exchange. This city property is well located, in good neighborhood, large lot with garden and fruit trees. The house built 1883 has steam heat (new in 1912), bath, linen closet, storage for trunks, etc.; well built and in laundry, set in chambers, etc. The house would cost over $10,000 to build now. Mortgage now on property $4,000, at 4 1/2% per cent. This is ideal home for family wanting to retire from farm and live in city. Trolley line less than two blocks away. Address: Mr. A. Johnson, Merrimack St., Lowell, Mass. 60.291.w.t.

FOR SALE.

FINE SUMMER HOME or all-year residence for sale, furnace, bath, etc., sleeping porch, barn, henhouse, 20 acres good land, slightly elevated, river frontage, 1/2 mile to town; price right, cash down. Lock Box 138, Richmond, Vt. 75.61.w.t.

SILVER LAKE HOUSE for sale or to rent, with farm, located at Barnard, Vt. Address: C. E. Cady, 210 Farmington St., Hartford, Conn. 40.4.w.lmo.

FOR RENT.

FURNISHED THREE-ROOM FLAT to rent, steam heat, electric lights, private entrance and use of bath. Apply 83 North Union St. 73.d.w.t.

FARMS FOR SALE.

FARMING NEVER PAID BETTER than it does today. Would you like to own a farm and be independent? If so, see me Saturday and save the agent's commission. My farms are for sale by the acre, or a low figure and I will take your bank-book or house in this city in exchange. Don't write, but call on me at my business. W. V. Farr, 43 North Union St., Burlington, Vt. 45.8.w.t.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

PERFECTION MILKING MACHINE. Full line of supplies now carried by Strong Hardware Co., Burlington. The up-keep of the "Perfection" is very small; there is a reason for its small size, it has over 100 prominent Vermont dairymen for reference. If you have 15 cows or more you will pay your money for the "Perfection" milk-er—nature's way. H. G. Hawthorne, State agent, Burlington, Vt. 45.29.w.t.

HERMESHITTING, peat edging, covered nations in latest styles, dress patterns, box plated skirts, descriptive catalogue free. B. J. Bennett & Co., 64 1/2 Church St., Burlington, Vt. 39.w.t.

Burlington Veterinary Hospital 73 Pine St., Burlington, Vt. Veterinary Surgeon and Clinician. Graduate Grant Rapids Veterinary College, 1909. Latest equipment for all animal diseases, including X-ray and canine operating tables. Phone 104.

FRANK S. LANOU & SON Practical Plumbers and Steam Fitters 90 St. Paul Street

A 300 Acre Farm For Sale! In the town of Cambridge, 100-acre meadow, 100 acres pasture, bal. timber land, can sell the timber right where it is for $2,000; has a large modern barn and house, 35 head of cattle; will summer and winter 60 cows; has a pair of horses, 10 hogs, farming tools such as manure spreader, corn harrow, seeder, lime sower, gasoline engine and blower, sulky plow, everything a man wants on a farm. For sale by the A. E. DAY REAL ESTATE AGENCY, Cambridge, Vt.

HAPPENINGS IN VERMONT (Continued from page one.)

There is little doubt that it will prove an enjoyable success.—Mrs. J. B. Ingram of New Haven, Conn., is here to spend some weeks with her sister, Mrs. Walter J. Rose.—The ice has broken up in Otter Creek and has all got a good start on the way to Lake Champlain.—Leonard Zeeman has begun the making of extensive repairs amounting to some extent to rebuilding on the house on South Main street which he purchased last fall.—Mr. and Mrs. Karl Schermhorst and their two young children have returned to Brooklyn, N. Y., after a three weeks' visit here.—Stanley D. Rose, who for a year has acted as express delivery man in town, has left that position and intends to take a course in the Albany Business College. He is succeeding on the delivery wagon for the present by Mark Turner.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Foote, after living about a year in Wallingford, have returned to town and will make their home with Mr. Foote's father, Judge Abram W. Foote. Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Graves after spending a month in town with friends, have returned to Meriden, Conn.

The annual declamation contest for seniors of the Middlebury high school, which is usually held in June, will be held this year in April with ten contestants. The prizes will be, as usual, namely, $12 for the first prize, $8 second and $5 third. The following will appear: Elizabeth Wooster Wells, Janet Keach, Herbert John Dudley, St. Martin Smith, Christine Catherine Plue, Lena Marie Shaw, Wade Albert Walker, Isabelle A. Tulley, Guy Aiken and Beatrice F. Dumas.—Dr. Robert Flagg of Essex Junction has rented the Dr. E. H. Martin house on North Pleasant street and commenced the practice of medicine in this village Monday.—Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Pennington and daughter left Friday night on the sleeper for Athol, Mass., called by the sudden death of Mr. Pennington's brother.—The commencement honors of the senior class of the high school are awarded as follows: Valedictorian, Katherine Burrage, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. W. S. Burrage; salutatorian, Madeline Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wood.—Margaret Barrett has moved from the Halton house on Shannon street to the Fassett house on Cross street.—Donald Yates, a sailor on the U. S. transport Covington, who has been in town for a few days to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Yates, has returned to his boat.—Mrs. Ellen A. Fletcher announces the engagement of her granddaughter, Viola Merrill, to Private Reuben N. Foster of the 101st Ammunition Train, American expeditionary forces in France.—Miss Louise Willis has gone to Pittsford to spend the holiday season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Willis.—Miss Mildred Morse, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Morse of Rutland, returned home Saturday after a week here with her grandmother.—Miss Helen Cliff has gone to her home for her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Edward B. Cliff.—Messrs. Leo Towers and Frederick L. Jones have gone to Castleton for a visit to the homes of their respective parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Towers and Mr. and Mrs. John J. Jones.—Frank A. Farnsworth, the hardware man, who was confined to his home nearly all the winter by illness, is able to get about his business.—Mrs. Eugene Baker and children went Saturday to their new home in Sudbury.—Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Vassar and son of Burlington are in town to visit Mr. Vassar's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Vassar.—Mrs. C. H. Keese has returned from Groton, where she has spent a few months with her daughter, Mrs. N. R. Caldwell, who accompanied her home and will remain here with her while her husband, Dr. Caldwell, is at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., where he has received a commission as captain in the medical reserve corps.—Col. James M. Tracy is ill.—Michael Halpin of Rutherford, N. J., and Thomas Halpin of New York city, called here by the death of their uncle, Patrick Halpin, have returned to their respective homes.—Miss Letitia Calhoun, a teacher in the high school at Fair Haven, is in town to spend her Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Calhoun.—Mrs. Ira Bond and two children of Burlington are in town to visit Mrs. Bond's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phelps J. Coolhan.—James Dumas has returned from Burlington, where he went to spend Easter with his wife, who is at a hospital in New York city.

Miss Nora McMahon, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simon McMahon, was married to Mark Casey of Springfield, Mass., at noon Sunday in St. Mary's Catholic Church, the Rev. T. J. Leonard officiating. Elizabeth McMahon, sister of the bride, and Patrick Casey, brother of the groom, of Utica, N. Y., was the best man. The bride was gowned in blue traveling suit and hat to match, and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. After the ceremony there was a wedding dinner at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard. The following brothers, Knights of Columbus acted as bearers: P. E. Dillon, D. H. McHugh, I. Lavonche, Jr., E. P. Seymour, Roger Ryan and George Shambo; and the following Grand Army men acted as honorary bearers: Col. Charles E. Young, Ottis Abbey, W. L. Coker, Louis Goulette, R. H. Linsley, E. Jones and W. W. Martin. The burial was in the Catholic cemetery.—Mr. and Mrs. P. Forrest of Weybridge street are parents of a daughter.—Charles Delphia of Bridport, who recently underwent a grave operation at the Mary Fletcher hospital, died there Thursday evening at seven o'clock and the remains were brought here on their way to Bridport at noon Friday. His sister, Mrs. Frank A. Nison, who had been with him for several days at the hospital, returned Friday. Mr. Delphia was a farmer 46 years of age and leaves a widow and nine children, the youngest a baby, and the eldest a young man of 21. He leaves his mother and several brothers and sisters.

Formerly Ezra Brainerd of Middlebury College, who has been ill for ten days, is improving. His brother, Dr. John Brainerd of Boston, is here to visit him and his son, Ezra Brainerd, Jr., of Muskogee, Okla., who has been here for several days, has started on his return journey.—Miss Percilla Wood of Fair Haven, who has been visiting at her home there for a week, has returned.—There will be a dance for the benefit of the Red Cross in Masonic hall Friday evening. Light refreshments will be served. Sandwiches. Coffee will be served.—Benson O'Bryan is in Addison to visit his son, Charles O'Bryan.—The annual meeting of Union Lodge, No. 2, F. and A. M., was held in the Masonic Temple Tuesday evening and there was a good attendance. The following officers were elected: Worshipful master, Robert Easton; senior warden, Hurley C. Votter; junior warden, Arthur W. Eddy; secretary, William H. Brewster; treasurer, Charles E. Binney.—The members of the Women's club held a well-attended meeting Wednesday evening. Miss Emma Fuller, county demonstrator, addressed the club on "Practical Menus for the Home."—Edward S. Calvi, stationed at Buffalo, N. Y., who has been visiting his brother, Joseph Calvi, has returned to his duties again.—Robert Flagg and family have arrived from Essex Junction and are occupying the late Dr. H. Martin residence on North Pleasant street.—President John M. Thomas of Middlebury College has returned from Ludlow, where on Tuesday evening he delivered a lecture before the Otsego club in the hall of the Fletcher Memorial library on the subject of "The New Age in American Life."—Miss Doris Kendall has returned from Pittsford, where she has been spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Kendall.—Frank C. Partridge of Proctor, president of the Vermont Marble company, has returned after spending the Easter season with his mother, Mrs. C. F. Partridge, in East Middlebury.—Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Vogel of Tarrytown, N. Y., are here for a two weeks' visit in Middlebury.—Mrs. Joseph M. Burke, wife of Town Clerk Burke, is making a visit to her sister, Mrs. Wallace E. Foote, in Vergennes.—The mid-week prayer-meeting this evening will be held in the Memorial Baptist Church and the sermon will be given by the Rev. G. M. Moody, pastor of the Methodist Church. At the conclusion of the regular meeting Superintendent C. A. Boyd of Burlington will deliver an address before the Bible school institute.—Mrs. Margaret Atwater and daughter, Miss Marjorie Atwater, of Bellows Falls are here to visit relatives.—Charles Westall, Jr., clerk at the Wisconsin coal office, is confined to his home and bed with a severe case of neuritis of the face.

Mrs. F. E. Durant, who has been ill for some time, left Tuesday noon for the Mary Fletcher hospital to undergo treatment.—Leon Turner has returned from Burlington.—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Winnett have gone to Chester, where they will visit for a few days.—W. H. Haller has returned from a week's visit to friends and relatives in Springfield, Mass.—The Women's Foreign and Home Missionary society held a well-attended meeting at the home of Mrs. F. C. Smith Tuesday afternoon.—The meeting of the Ladies' Missionary society of the Congregational Church was held at the home of Mrs. A. J. Blackmer Tuesday afternoon. The subject discussed was "The Ranch, the Mine and the Lumber Camp." The leaders were Mrs. E. H. Rand, Mrs. G. W. Mead and Mrs. C. S. Russell.—Dr. Earl Cushman has returned to Brooklyn, N. Y., after a few days' visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cushman.—Charles Shackleton of Rutland is visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Frank Trudo.—Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Peacock of Rutland have moved to town and intend to make this their home.—Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Dayton and son have moved here from Bridport and are occupying the Pond house on South street.—Mrs. A. W. Woods is in Rutland.—The Junior League society of St. Stephen's Church held a well-attended ten-ten party at the home of Mrs. Grace A. Brown Tuesday afternoon.—Dr. John Brainerd of Brookline, Mass., is here to visit his brother, former President of the Vermont State College.—Frank C. Partridge of Proctor has returned to that place after spending a few days with his mother in East Middlebury.—Ezra Brainerd, Jr., who has been here to visit his father, the Rev. Ezra Brainerd, D. D., started Sunday on his return home to Muskogee, Okla.—Miss Lula Liberty is in Burlington.

VERGENNES. Miss Ruth Clark passed Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clark. The ice in the river above the falls has broken out Sunday. There is a decided improvement in the condition of Lowell Hammond, who is seriously ill with pneumonia.—R. S. Benedict has resigned his position at the State Industrial school and has accepted the position of chief clerk in the Bradstreet office at Burlington.—George and Mrs. Boston passed Easter with Mrs. Alice Dawson.—Wilfred Little of Swanton spent Easter with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Little.—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Deyoe of Burlington spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Deyoe.—Carl Benson of Los Angeles, Cal., is visiting in this vicinity.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Myers of Burlington visited Mr. Myers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Myers, and Mrs. Myers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morris, Sunday.—Miss Helen Lee went Sunday to West Fenton, where she has been engaged as teacher in the Lake Stebbins and William Yattaw, drafted men, left Monday for Camp Devens.—Miss Helen Thorne of the University of Vermont was a week-end guest of Miss Frances Wheeler.—The Easter offering at St. Paul's Church Sunday exceeded $300.

Rollin Kent has sold the Sherrill homestead, which he purchased about a year ago, to George B. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Kent have gone to Cornwall.—John Hudson, when Mr. Kent was in position, Miss Mary T. Alden of New Haven, Haven, Conn., is visiting Mrs. Mathew Daniels and other friends in town.—Dr. W. G. Watt spent the week-end with Percy E. Davis at the home of Mrs. Bevin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Bevin of Essex.—Mrs. Cyrus Horsford and son, William, of Charlotte spent Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Crosby.—Truman Carpenter has returned from a two weeks' business trip through Vermont.—Miss Helen Fisher of Hampshire.—A daughter was recently born to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Paine.—Miss Faustine Thomas of Middlebury College spent the week-end with her uncle, Dr. Frank Phelps.—The condition of Lowell Hammond, who is ill with pneumonia, remains about the same.—Mrs. R. D. Goodridge is ill with the measles.—Mrs. G. R. Lynch and daughter, Miss Catherine Lynch, of North Adams, Mass., are at the home of Mrs. Lynch's brother, Dr. E. C. Lynch.—Mrs. Mae McPhomery of West Rutland, a former teacher in the Vergennes school, was a week-end visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Grandev.—Miss Madeline Trede has gone to a sanitarium at Northampton, Mass., for a course of treatment.—Raymond H. Benedict of Burlington is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Benedict.—Miss Anna Fisher of Rutland is visiting her mother, Mrs. Helen Fisher, at her home.—The condition of Mrs. William Crosby, who is ill with the grip, is improving.—Mrs. Ella Meullier has returned from North Adams, Mass., where she went to care for Mrs. G. R. Lynch.—Archibald Young sold several acres of land to Oxford Downs, where William Atwood of Canton, N. Y., at $8.33 per acre.—Miss Marceline Laushway of the University of Vermont is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Thomas Agassiz Allen.—Edwin W. Field, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Harrington, a student at the University of Vermont, is spending the Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Harrington.

The condition of Lowell Hammond, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is much improved and he is now thought to be on the way to recovery.—The son of Mrs. Harry Adams, who has been at the Mary Fletcher hospital in Burlington for treatment of an eye, has returned.—Miss Frances C. Wheeler has gone on a visit to friends in Boston and will resume work at the office of Dean Alexander, Franklin, Mass., of which she is a graduate.—Samuel Cohen of New York city is visiting his cousin, Max Fishman and Abraham Cohen.—Mrs. Young of Bristol has taken the position of housekeeper at the home of C. T. S. Pierce.—Mrs. E. T. Field has returned to Burlington after a visit to her sister, Mrs. Charles Stebbins.—Mrs. Joseph M. Burke of Middlebury has been spending a few days here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Foote.—Mrs. M. French of Charlotte visited Miss Fannie M. Breckenridge Monday.—Mrs. Rosa A. Foote celebrated her 80th anniversary Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. A. Lee. In the afternoon she received her friends and in the evening she resumed work.—Mrs. E. T. Field is a member and participated in the regular meeting of the society. Mrs. Foote received numerous postal cards and also gifts of potted plants, etc.—The Rev. L. A. Vesina has returned from Rutland, where he has been spending the week-end at the Church of the Sacred Heart.—Christopher Yattaw, the oldest painter in town, who has been laid off by illness for the last year, has recovered and is able to resume work.—Fred Andrus has entered the employ of A. B. & C. Taber.—Mrs. Dennis Meader, who has been visiting at the home of C. T. S. Pierce, has returned to Bristol.—Frank Smith on his way from Albany, N. Y., to Burlington, visited his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Miner, Sunday.—The board of letters has organized with David E. Ryan as chairman, George E. Stone secretary, and George D. Middlebrook treasurer, and has commenced its work.—The Rev. J. Johnson spent last night with her parents in Burlington. Mr. Fred Austin, who has been living with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morris, has moved to the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Ladue.—George Austin has returned from a visit to his aunt, Mrs. Lena Reed of Ludlow.—Fred Andrus has returned from East Dorset, where he has been spending some time at his farm.—George Henry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Peters, has returned from the Mary Fletcher hospital, where he recently underwent an operation for appendicitis.—The special annual evangelistic meetings under the leadership of the Rev. Franklin W. Swift, D. D. of Chicago begin tonight at 7:30 in the Congregational Church and will continue until Sunday evening, April 13, inclusive. Dr. Swift, accompanied by Charles Shackleton of Rutland, will be in town today and are quartered at the Stevens House. Dr. Swift comes to Vergennes from Burlington, where he just concluded a successful campaign in the Baptist Church. One of the features of the meetings will be the singing and the music. There will be two choruses choir and two pianos and four players. Soloist will be in charge of the choir and will direct the music and singing in general. A most cordial invitation is extended to the public by the pastors of the Baptist, Congregational and Methodist Churches to attend these meetings.—Miss Helen Phelps, who has been spending the week-end with her father, Dr. Frank C. Phelps, has returned to Bridgewater, Mass., and resumed her studies in the Normal school.—Mrs. Annette Adams has returned to the home of her son, Friend Adams, after spending the winter with her daughters, the Misses Mary and Helen Adams, in New York city.

BRISTOL. Solomon D. Farr, aged 73 years, died at his home on North Street Monday evening of a complication of diseases. He had been in poor health for a long time, but had been confined to the house only three weeks. He was a prominent business man, having been engaged in the hardware business all his life. He took an active part in town affairs holding many offices. He was a member of the First Baptist Church. He is survived by a wife and three children, Mrs. M. E. George, who is engaged in business with him and Arland E. of Schenectady, N. Y.—The funeral of S. D. Farr will be held Thursday at 2:00 p. m. at his late home on North street.—David Howarth of the University of Vermont spent Easter with his grandparents, Mrs. C. M. Bosworth.—Miss Bernice Garrow of Bellows Falls, spent Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Garrow.—Miss Myrtle Hill is at home from her school at Lyndonville for a week's vacation.—Sheldon Ball of Westford, spent Easter with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hasseltine.—Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Gove went to Hartford, Conn., Saturday to see their grandson, Max Green, an officer in aviation corps stationed at Fort Worth, Texas. Before returning they will visit another grandson, Rex Green, and family.—Mrs. Almira L. Russell of East Middlebury is visiting her niece, Mrs. A. A. Hier, in North Bristol.—Martin Rider, George Corkins, William Roach and Orrin Plain went to Buffalo last week to drive the Rev. G. P. Parker and Mrs. L. V. London, who has been very ill with pneumonia, is considered out of danger.—Leon Cormier went to Burlington Monday to the hospital for an operation on his throat. Mrs. Cormier accompanied him.—Miss Inez Saratoga, is spending her Easter vacation with friends here.—Mrs. Ransome Purinton visited her uncle, Fred Brown, and family in Lincoln last week. Mr. Purinton spent Sunday there returning with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Eliehoer from "The Pine" at Thundersport, visited on Monday of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Trudeau.—Stella Tryon of the teacher-training class has returned from her home in Basin Harbor.—Mrs. Ford M. Thomas and Miss Ella Elms have returned from Camp Devens, where they spent the week-end.—Thomas—Miss Amelia Keeler, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Cornelia Gleason, returned to her home in Essex Monday.—Elmer Boynton is ill with the grip.

MONKTON RIDGE. The double barn on the farm of Mrs. Rebecca Tracy was burned Thursday. Mrs. Tracy and her son, Russell, who will be in town, had just finished dinner, and as the latter was coming from the house, a little before one o'clock, he discovered the inside of the barn to be all afire. How the blaze could have originated he has no idea whatever. It was extinguished by the fire department in saving one horse. Two valuable horses and a calf were burned, also the harness and farming tools, 20 bushels of seed oats and a quantity of hay. Fortunately the cows were not in the barn. The loss is estimated at $1,000 covered by insurance. Much sympathy is felt for Mrs. Tracy.

GRANVILLE. Charles Lawrence is home from Springfield for a few days.—William Stone is moving to Salisbury, where he has rented a farm.—Hiram Luce is to carry on the Stone farm the coming year.—School began at corner Monday with Ruth Douglis teacher, and Mamie Hubbard of Hancock will teach again at the lower village.—The Warren cream team made its last trip Friday.—The logs are all out of the pond here. All are in the White river.—Ralph Haximite is again at the Central House.—The little son of Lou Perry broke his leg while at play in the house last week.

NORTH FERRISBURG. The body of Arthur Williams was brought to this village Tuesday afternoon from Springfield, where he had been held in custody the past winter. His death was a great surprise to people in this town. The funeral services will be held this afternoon at the home of A. L. Williams.—Mrs. William Mudgett is in critical condition.—George James received serious injury by falling Tuesday. Mr. James is a veteran of the Civil war, having served four years. He is 82 years of age and was able to split and pile his own wood.—News has been received in town that the Wimbly family are quarantined for whooping cough.—Several people from here attended the annual meeting of Friendship Lodge Tuesday at Charlotte.—Mrs. P. F. White is in a hospital for treatment.—C. W. Henry and a hospital at Ogdensburg, N. Y., being treated by a specialist.—Mrs. Ralph Roby is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. C. C. Martin.

SHOREHAM. Dana Carlson, the son of our former pastor, passed the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Iona Birchard.—Miss Mabel Larrabee, who has a position in Burlington, passed Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Larrabee.—C. N. North, who has been housed by a severe cold, is gathering in town that the Wimbly family are quarantined for whooping cough.—Several people from here attended the annual meeting of Friendship Lodge Tuesday at Charlotte.—Mrs. P. F. White is in a hospital for treatment.—C. W. Henry and a hospital at Ogdensburg, N. Y., being treated by a specialist.—Mrs. Ralph Roby is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. C. C. Martin.

MISS JOSEPHINE KINGSLAND is passing the Easter vacation at her home.—Beth Martin passed the week-end in Burlington. Mr. E. Ball is confined to the house by liberty measles.—Those having books they wish to give to the war library will please leave them at Preston's store this week.

SHOREHAM. Dana Carlson, the son of our former pastor, passed the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Iona Birchard.—Miss Mabel Larrabee, who has a position in Burlington, passed Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Larrabee.—C. N. North, who has been housed by a severe cold, is gathering in town that the Wimbly family are quarantined for whooping cough.—Several people from here attended the annual meeting of Friendship Lodge Tuesday at Charlotte.—Mrs. P. F. White is in a hospital for treatment.—C. W. Henry and a hospital at Ogdensburg, N. Y., being treated by a specialist.—Mrs. Ralph Roby is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. C. C. Martin.

united with the Congregational Church on confession of faith and one by letter.—Mrs. M. P. Cook entertained the Moravian club very pleasantly Tuesday.

STARSBORO. Mrs. James E. Thompson is recovering from a severe attack of erysipelas.—The Dorcas society held a sugar social Saturday evening.—Mrs. F. S. Ferguson continues to improve.—Miss Mae Bostwick of Hinesburg is visiting at George O'Bryan's and D. Bostwick.—Mrs. F. J. Hanson attended the funeral of Nelson Purinton in Bristol Tuesday.—The students of Bristol and Burlington schools returned from their Easter vacations Monday.—Miss Ruby Smith and Miss Phyllis Norton of Bristol were the guests of Miss Ruth Carpenter last week.—The Rev. Mr. Abair of Lincoln was present at the supper given by the men's Bible class Tuesday and spoke to the young people.—A. L. White is ill.—Mrs. Maude S. Wade gave parties for the benefit of the Red Cross on Saturday and Tuesday.—The Baptist Church raised its full apportionment, which was $60, for the Baptist laymen's million-dollar drive.—Mrs. Hattie Sargent and Master Oswald Sargent visited at C. F. Clifford's last week.—The Misses Maude and Anna Casey are spending a few days with their mother, Mrs. Anna Casey.

HANCOCK. Charles Curtis is moving his family to Granville into Henry Jenett's house.—Miss Blanche Manning has finished her school in East Brattleboro and has returned home.—Mrs. Ross Goodyear is ill.—Mrs. Elmer Eaton is with her grandmother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh.—Fred Ahear has a slight attack of smallpox. His mother is caring for him.

CORNWALL. Next Friday evening the Weybridge people will present their drama, "A Crazy Idea," at the town hall in Cornwall. The proceeds will be divided between the Red Cross societies in each town.—C. L. Withersell went Monday to Lyndonville to visit the boys at the Valley Agricultural school the modern and approved methods of pruning, spraying and other things necessary in orcharding.—The maple sugar social held at the church parlors Monday evening was well attended, a good program rendered and a neat sum raised.—Mrs. M. L. Fisher are ill.—Percy Thompson was operated on at the Mary Fletcher hospital Saturday for appendicitis and is reported as doing well.—Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Foote, who have resided in Wallingford the last two years, have returned to town and will be at Mr. Foote's father, Judge A. W. Foote, this season.

Perry Thompson went Friday to the Fanny Allen hospital in Winoski. He was operated on Saturday for appendicitis and is reported as doing as well as could be expected. Mrs. Thompson and daughter, Enid, also George Thompson went to the hospital Saturday to be with him at the time of the operation.—The funeral of Charles Delphia was held at the Catholic Church in Middlebury Monday morning. Mr. Delphia has been a resident of this town for several years, living on the Carrol Meade farm. He died Thursday at the Mary Fletcher hospital in Burlington, after a very serious operation. He leaves a widow and several children, an aged mother and several sisters and brothers.

ADDISON. Mrs. Cary Marshall has returned from a trip to Washington, D. C., and to Whitehall, N. Y.—Miss Davidson died at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. S. Boardman, Wednesday evening of a complication of diseases, aged 50 years. She had been ill for several months. The remains were taken to Wardsboro on Friday accompanied by Mrs. Davidson and the Rev. and Mrs. Boardman.—Erwin Clark has spent a few days at home but on Monday returned to his studies at the Agricultural College at Canton, N. Y.—P. B. Norton has moved from the Crane house at the Corners to his farm in the south part of the town.—Ira Barber has moved from Fenton to the Crane house.—There was a special town meeting Saturday at which time Waldo Clark was elected town clerk and treasurer to fill the vacancy caused by the death of L. C. Seagar.—The schools opened Monday after a week's Easter vacation.—John Elmer was in Burlington Monday to attend a meeting of letters.—The letters started out on their duties Monday.—Arthur Adams has been ill.

BRIDPORT. Ruth Goodspeed went Saturday to Oxbridge, Mass., where she will visit relatives.—Leslie Packard has resigned his position at Fletcher's store and accepted a position in the West Salisbury.—C. J. Barbour and O. M. Sherburne were visitors in Burlington Wednesday.—O. E. Converse returned home Monday from South Carolina.—Mrs. Frank Nisen was called to Burlington by the illness and death of her brother, Charles Delphia, on Friday, after an operation at the Mary Fletcher hospital.

SOUTH STARSBORO. Jay Pierce died Friday evening after a brief illness with heart trouble and pneumonia in his 65 year. He leaves a widow and nine sons and two daughters all of whom were present at the funeral Sunday, which was held at Huntington.—Eastman Arnold is not as well.—Mr. and Mrs. David Follansbee attended the funeral of Nelson Purinton in Bristol, Tuesday.—Walter Kimball has blood poisoning in one hand.

LINCOLN. Calvin P. Murray died Saturday evening of pneumonia and heart disease, aged 69 years. Mr. Murray was born in this town, September 7, 1848, and was the son of John and Anice (Hewitt) Murray. He was married to a widow, who was Cynthia Stearns, to whom he was married 47 years ago, by two sons, Austin and Arland E., by two daughters, Mrs. M. E. Pierce of this town and Mrs. Elmore Smith of York, Me., three brothers, one of them, Albert of Warren, and three serious injuries by falling Tuesday. Mr. James is a veteran of the Civil war, having served four years. He is 82 years of age and was able to split and pile his own wood.—News has been received in town that the Wimbly family are quarantined for whooping cough.—Several people from here attended the annual meeting of Friendship Lodge Tuesday at Charlotte.—Mrs. P. F. White is in a hospital for treatment.—C. W. Henry and a hospital at Ogdensburg, N. Y., being treated by a specialist.—Mrs. Ralph Roby is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. C. C. Martin.

MISS JOSEPHINE KINGSLAND is passing the Easter vacation at her home.—Beth Martin passed the week-end in Burlington. Mr. E. Ball is confined to the house by liberty measles.—Those having books they wish to give to the war library will please leave them at Preston's store this week.

SHOREHAM. Dana Carlson, the son of our former pastor, passed the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Iona Birchard.—Miss Mabel Larrabee, who has a position in Burlington, passed Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Larrabee.—C. N. North, who has been housed by a severe cold, is gathering in town that the Wimbly family are quarantined for whooping cough.—Several people from here attended the annual meeting of Friendship Lodge Tuesday at Charlotte.—Mrs. P. F. White is in a hospital for treatment.—C. W. Henry and a hospital at Ogdensburg, N. Y., being treated by a specialist.—Mrs. Ralph Roby is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. C. C. Martin.

SHOREHAM. Dana Carlson, the son of our former pastor, passed the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Iona Birchard.—Miss Mabel Larrabee, who has a position in Burlington, passed Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Larrabee.—C. N. North, who has been housed by a severe cold, is gathering in town that the Wimbly family are quarantined for whooping cough.—Several people from here attended the annual meeting of Friendship Lodge Tuesday at Charlotte.—Mrs. P. F. White is in a hospital for treatment.—C. W. Henry and a hospital at Ogdensburg, N. Y., being treated by a specialist.—Mrs. Ralph Roby is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. C. C. Martin.

SHOREHAM. Dana Carlson, the son of our former pastor, passed the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Iona Birchard.—Miss Mabel Larrabee, who has a position in Burlington, passed Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Larrabee.—C. N. North, who has been housed by a severe cold, is gathering in town that the Wimbly family are quarantined for whooping cough.—Several people from here attended the annual meeting of Friendship Lodge Tuesday at Charlotte.—Mrs. P. F. White is in a hospital for treatment.—C. W. Henry and a hospital at Ogdensburg, N. Y., being treated by a specialist.—Mrs. Ralph Roby is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. C. C. Martin.

SHOREHAM. Dana Carlson, the son of our former pastor, passed the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Iona Birchard.—Miss Mabel Larrabee, who has a position in Burlington, passed Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Larrabee.—C. N. North, who has been housed by a severe cold, is gathering in town that the Wimbly family are quarantined for whooping cough.—Several people from here attended the annual meeting of Friendship Lodge Tuesday at Charlotte.—Mrs. P. F. White is in a hospital for treatment.—C. W. Henry and a hospital at Ogdensburg, N. Y., being treated by a specialist.—Mrs. Ralph Roby is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. C. C. Martin.

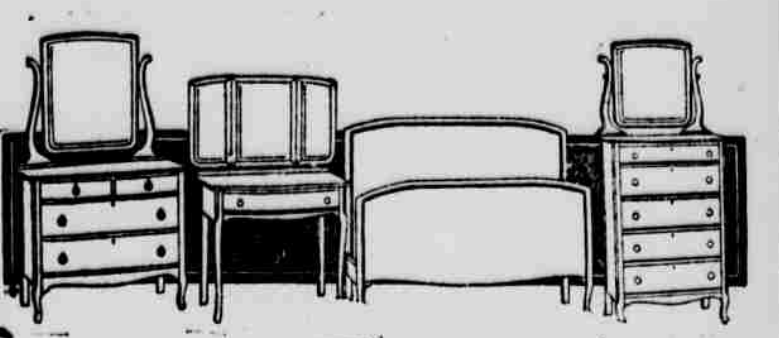

SHOREHAM. Dana Carlson, the son of our former pastor, passed the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Iona Birchard.—Miss Mabel Larrabee, who has a position in Burlington, passed Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Larrabee.—C. N. North, who has been housed by a severe cold, is gathering in town that the Wimbly family are quarantined for whooping cough.—Several people from here attended the annual meeting of Friendship Lodge Tuesday at Charlotte.—Mrs. P. F. White is in a hospital for treatment.—C. W. Henry and a hospital at Ogdensburg, N. Y., being treated by a specialist.—Mrs. Ralph Roby is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. C. C. Martin.

SHOREHAM. Dana Carlson, the son of our former pastor, passed the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Iona Birchard.—Miss Mabel Larrabee, who has a position in Burlington, passed Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Larrabee.—C. N. North, who has been housed by a severe cold, is gathering in town that the Wimbly family are quarantined for whooping cough.—Several people from here attended the annual meeting of Friendship Lodge Tuesday at Charlotte.—Mrs. P. F. White is in a hospital for treatment.—C. W. Henry and a hospital at Ogdensburg, N. Y., being treated by a specialist.—Mrs. Ralph Roby is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. C. C. Martin.

SHOREHAM. Dana Carlson, the son of our former pastor, passed the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Iona Birchard.—Miss Mabel Larrabee, who has a position in Burlington, passed Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Larrabee.—C. N. North, who has been housed by a severe cold, is gathering in town that the Wimbly family are quarantined for whooping cough.—Several people from here attended the annual meeting of Friendship Lodge Tuesday at Charlotte.—Mrs. P. F. White is in a hospital for treatment.—C. W. Henry and a hospital at Ogdensburg, N. Y., being treated by a specialist.—Mrs. Ralph Roby is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. C. C. Martin.

SHOREHAM. Dana Carlson, the son of our former pastor, passed the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Iona Birchard.—Miss Mabel Larrabee, who has a position in Burlington, passed Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Larrabee.—C. N. North, who has been housed by a severe cold, is gathering in town that the Wimbly family are quarantined for whooping cough.—Several people from here attended the annual meeting of Friendship Lodge Tuesday at Charlotte.—Mrs. P. F. White is in a hospital for treatment.—C. W. Henry and a hospital at Ogdensburg, N. Y., being treated by a specialist.—Mrs. Ralph Roby is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. C. C. Martin.

THE W. G. REYNOLDS CO Furniture For the Bed Room

- 5 PIECE ANTIQUE MAHOGANY SUIT—Decorated by hand with simple floral design. Bed, dresser with large plate mirror, chiffonier with portable mirror, stand, chair and rocker $200
4 PIECE GREY DECORATED SUIT, consisting of bed, dresser, chiffonier and dressing table. This is a very pleasing suit and designed especially for the guest room $130
3 PIECE BROWN MAHOGANY FOUR POST COLONIAL SUIT—Consists of bed, dresser, chiffonier, chair and rocker. An ideal bungalow suit $100
7 PIECE GREEN AND BLACK ENAMEL SET with hand painted decoration. One of the latest designs in decorated furniture. Bed, dresser, dressing table, night stand, chair, rocker and bench $175
3 PIECE WALNUT SUIT—Built of selected stock and designed by one of the foremost designers in the country. Bed, dresser and night stand $160
6 PIECE WALNUT SUIT of the Queen Ann Period—bed, dressing table, night stand, chair, rocker and bench $200
MANY OTHER COMPLETE MATCHED SUITS ranging in price from $50.00 to $350

Madras for Light Weight Draperies and Overcurtains

- has proven to be and will continue to be a most satisfactory fabric because of its decorative qualities. It hangs beautifully and gracefully, can be very easily laundered, is inexpensive and is guaranteed absolutely fast color.
Brown and green mixtures or solid colors of brown or green with self figure, 34 inches wide 40c yard
Brown and blue, green and rose, brown and green and many other shades with self figure woven all over, 36 inches wide 75c yard
Madras of plain colors, rose, green, tan and blue, 36 inches wide 75c yard
Madras with self figure, tan and blue combination, navy, light blue, rose and green, 50 inches wide $2.15 yard
Plain green, extra fine quality, especially good for living room overdrapes, can be cut in two, 50 inches wide, $1.50 yard

"George Washington" CHINTZ

Reproduction of a chintz, 140 years old, which formed a part of the drapery on the bed in which George Washington slept at the Van Cortlandt House during the war, 36 inches wide. Priced at 65c yard

Other chintzes, cretonnes, reversible tapestry effects for bags and cushion covers, 36 inches wide, priced at 25c to 75c yard.

Department Special Drop Side Couches National wire spring, value $7.50. $4.25 each

(Continued on page three.)