COULDN'T OBLIGE

Mother—Johnny, did you go and ask Mrs. Naylor for the loan of her washtub? Johnny—Yes, mother. She said she is very sorry, but the bands of the tub are loose and the bottom is out and it is full of soapy water.—Boston Transcript.

THE CENSUS MAN

The seventh day of Uncle Sam's census taking went forward unhindered by drizzle and cold. Workers in some of the districts reported to their inspectors a complete clean-up of their allotment of names, though the time is only half over. On the whole, reports indicate that citizens generally are disposed to facilitate this work, which they recognize as necessary and important, but there has been a difficulty in securing accurate ages, sufficiently widespread to attract comment.

EXTINCT BIG GAME

Hunting Used to Be Worth While in Alberta. Speaking of the brontosaurus, if any one ever did, one might paraphrase Gelett Burgess: "I never saw a dinosaur. I never heard of this creature, but I have read in the National Geographic Society by Barnum Brown: 'To-day we must go to Africa for the biggest game; but there was a time in the dim distant past when America produced animals larger than any now living.' That was so long ago that nothing remains of these creatures except their bones, and they are turned to stone.

ROCHESTER

The Rev. Mr. Frayer of Wells River was in town Monday evening to give a lecture before the Men's Community Club. The basketball team of the high school went to Forestdale Friday to play the team of Forestdale.—The W. C. P. M. held a card party at the Methodist Episcopal Church Thursday evening. There will be good singing and recitations.—The H. M. S. and F. M. S. societies of the Methodist Episcopal Church will meet with Mrs. C. Kinman Friday afternoon.—Mrs. H. A.
