store and is ready for business in line.—Mrs. Etta Hogan and nephew, ard, and Warren Dalton is occupy- the home of Mrs. W. L. Roberts.— ard Varney and William Densmore at Shelburne Pond Sunday.—Hubert chinson was in Westford on business day.—Miss Emma Chamberlin of Bur- ton was a Sunday visitor at the home he Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Buzzell.—Mr. Mrs. Charles Cornell of Tennessee visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. man S. Brush.—Leo Glass, who has spending a few days at the home of and Mrs. John F. Krewet, returned is home in New York city Saturday. ymond Cook has been spending a days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. s Marsh.—Edward Woodruff, who been in Lowell, Mass., has returned e.—Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hutchin- have returned from a trip to Grand .—Miss Florence Day assisted in the ffice Saturday during the absence Mr and Mrs. Frank Percival, who e in Underhill to attend the funeral Mr. Percival's sister, Mrs. Mead.— ble Bossin of Westford was at the e of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stisdell day.—Mr. Swan has purchased a new d.—Miss Mary Teachout of Williston a visitor Saturday at the home of and Mrs. C. A. Barney.—Mrs. Sarah e of Burlington was a visitor from day until Sunday evening at the home Mr and Mrs. Leigton G. Rice.—Mrs. odruff is spending a few days at the e of Mrs. Nellie Goodwin and Madam ennes.—Miss Madge Hood and niece, bara Whitney, are visiting relatives Milton and Bakersfield.—Miss Dorothy Isalf, who has been spending several s at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wil- n Jackson, has returned to her home Brattleboro.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rix- and three children, Delbert, Helen Jona, of Richmond are spending a days with Mrs. Abbie Foster.— rles Rowell was a visitor of relatives Jeffersonville Sunday

JERICHO CENTER

rs. L. D. Moulton of Underhill was sent the past week of Mrs. Harriett ughes.—Mr and Mrs. Dan Healey of rlington were guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. Maloney last week.—Mrs. Martha ller is in Cabotville with her sister, s. H. J. Fuller.—Henry Ryder, who has n at the Fanny Allen Hospital the past o weeks, was able to return home Sun- y.—Miss Hattie Jobs and daughter were sts of Mrs. Frank Brown recently.— e Misses Madeline and Helen ardnick of Farringham are guests of rs. Mary Ransom.—Mrs Justin Wilmot Worcester, Mass. came Saturday to nd a few weeks with Mrs. A. C. Hos- s. Mrs. Trudeu accompanied her here.— yman Nash and Miss Lula Tomlinson Essex were married last week Wed- sday evening in Essex Junction.

WEST MILTON

Miss Madge Rood of Concord, N. H., d Barbara Whitney of Jericho visited r. and Mrs. H. D. Costello last week.— rs. Mildred Campbell and daughter, arbara Jean, left Monday morning for visit in Maine.—Miss Rosalie Granger ent the week-end in Colchester with and Mrs. N. H. Kenyon.—Mr. and rs. A. J. Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. A. Granger and son, Glenn, were in mp at South Hero Saturday and Sun- y.—Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Wyman of New rk have been occupying the Beeman ttage for some time.—Miss Florence auvais of St. Albans visited her par- ts recently.—Mrs. Jed Patterson and n, Henry, were at the McCauley resi- nce last week.

WESTFORD

Mr. and Mrs. Hiland Stone and son, obert, of Burlington have been visiting latives in town.—Mrs. Loula Macomber s returned from summer school in Rut- nd.—Mrs. Robinson of Malden, Mass., visiting her brother, Dr. F. A. Petty.— eorge Hall has returned to Boston after pending about three weeks with his rother, E. C. Hall.—Master Harry Crox rd of Middleton, Mass., came Saturday vening to spend some time with his ncle, Dr. F. A. Petty.—Mildred Irish re- rned to Boston with her cousin, William ose, for a two weeks' visit.—T. W. row has been appointed agent for the urlington Mutual Fire Insurance com- any of Burlington.

HUNTINGTON

The death of Justin Stokes occurred at he home of his daughter, Mrs. Edgar aft, the 20th and the funeral was held rom the house Thursday, with burial on Mason hill in the family lot. The deceased ad been ill but a few days and had reach- d the advanced age of 84 years and 10 onths. He had lived with his daughter rs. Taft the past 20 years.—The King's aughters were entertained Wednesday y Mrs. E. H. Hinds.—Hawley Collins and amily from Bradford, Mass., came to isit their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. eorge Warren. Mrs. Collins and children ill remain a few weeks.—Mr. and Mrs. awrence Swinyer went Sunday to their aughter, Mrs. Milo Billado, for a few eeks.—Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Carpenter and rs. Edith Mix were in Bristol Sunday. Miss Lottie Rogers of Panton has been isiting in town.—Morton Alger and fam- y of Jonesville were at Mark Alger's unday.—W. W. Higley and wife of ichmond were week-end visitors at Carl Higley's.

ESSEX CENTER

Mrs. Francis St. Amour and daughters, Priscella and Rosa, came Tuesday from Montreal, P. Q., to spend the rest of the summer with Mr. and Mrs. William St. Amour.

RIVERSIDE

Mrs. L. B. Moulton has been enjoying e weeks vacation at Jericho Center, re- rned Sunday.—Mrs. L. C. MacGibbon nd sons, Kenneth and Donald returned Friday after spending two weeks in outhern Vermont, visiting relatives.—Carl Moulton of Penn Grove, N. J., came Tuesday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Moulton.—Miss Ann Gurley of Washington, D. C., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Henry Dickerson.—Melbourne Gallop, who is working at Montgomery, was at home Sunday.—Francis Rice is home for the summer vacation from Mt. Hermans Mass.—Mrs John Campbell has returned from the Fanny Allen Hospital much im- proved in health.—Miss May Willard of Burlington and Miss Mary Plumb of Townshend were guests of Mrs. L. C. Mac- Gibbon Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Mead of Lancaster, Mass., are in town, called here by the illness and death of Mr. Mead's mother, Mrs. Cyrus Mead.—David Gallup took a load of young people to Montgomery Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. Clark Burns and daughter of Burlington were guests of his sister, Mrs. C. L. Bartlett, Saturday.—Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Burns and two sons and Floyd Flemming of Rich- mond visited friends in town Sunday.

ST. GEORGE

Mrs. Abbie Shea of Boston came Friday evening to pass the rest of the summer with her daughter, Mrs. George Hinsdale. —Mr. and Mrs. William Preston and son of Burlington were in town Sunday at the home of M. W. Hinsdale.—Miss Emily Ellwell was a guest at the home of R. E. Forbes the past week.—Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Pillsbury attended the funeral of their uncle, Mr. Wheeler, in Essex Junc- tion Friday.—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Agan, daughter, Dorothy, and son, Harold, spent Saturday in Burlington.—George Hinsdale of Boston has been passing a few days at his summer home.

HUNTINGTON CENTER

Miss Vera Bagley of Hudson, N. H., has been visiting Mrs. Elma Hauks the past week.—G. W. Brewster is at the Mary Fletcher hospital for treatment.—Mr. and Mrs. Alson Swinyer and daughter, Greta, and Elbert Rogers were over Sun- day guests of friends in Gaysville.—Clinton Conger of Woodbury returned home Monday after visiting his mother, Mrs. F. S. Conger.—Alfred Jimmo and daughter, Bertha, and Miss Jane Ring visited at Ira Rings Sunday.—The Hil' reunion will be held at N. A. Johns Wed- nesday, August 18.—The Sargent re- union will be held at Harley Sargents August 11.

SOUTH BURLINGTON

The Progressive Agricultural club will meet Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Newton on Spear street. Romeo's orchestra will furnish music for dancing.

JONESVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Lombard have been spending several days in Montpelier at Mr. Lombards home.—Miss Marietta York is enjoying a two weeks vacation from her duties in the telephone exchange.— Miss Whalen of Burlington is visiting her uncle, T. B. Whalen.—Miss Gladys Pecor of Winooski spent Wednesday at her home here.—The Misses Madeline and Helen Murdock are visiting friends in Jericho.— Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Chessmore were in Burlington Wednesday.— Several from here attended the circus either at Mont- pelier or Burlington.—Wilbur Shomon is spending the week at his cottage at Malletts Bay.

Franklin County

ST. ALBANS

News has been received in the city of the marriage engagement of Miss Austin Frances Brooks, daughter of Mrs. Mollie (Moore) Brooks of Louisville, Ky., to Arthur Hopkins Stevens of Washington, D. C., son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Stevens of this city. The wedding will take place in October.

News has been received of the death of Charles Greenleaf at the Old Soldiers' Home in Bennington. Mr. Greenleaf was a former resident of this city.

The annual convention of the salesmen and managers of retail stores and branches of the St Albans Grain company came to a close Sunday afternoon with a delightful automobile trip to Avery's Gore. During the trip, several places of interest were visited. Among them were Fairfax Falls where is located the plant of the Public Electric Light company and Johnson where is located, it is said the largest talc mines in this country and perhaps the world. The cars for the trip were donated by members of the St. Albans City club. Saturday after- noon the salesmen and managers and the wives of many, who accompanied their husbands here, went to Highgate Springs where they enjoyed an outing. Baseball games, dancing, boating and other games were indulged in. A visit was also made to the Champlain Country Club, Hatha- way's Point and Camp Kill Kare on Rocky Point. At the Tavern Friday night, a banquet was given, more than 100 peo- ple being present. This number included all employes, those living in this city, the visiting members and their wives, also members of the City Feed company. The banquet was followed by a dance in the new office building of the company on Lower Welden street.

Floyd Lothian of Highgate underwent an operation for appendicitis Monday at the Sherwood sanitarium. His condi- tion is favorable.

Mrs. Marshall Naylor, who has been re- ceiving treatment at the St. Albans Hos- pital, has returned home.

H. Reed of Sheldon was operated upon at the hospital Monday. His condition is favorable.

Plans are completed for the basket picnic and field day to be held at Enos- burg Falls August 12 under the aus- pices of the Franklin County Farm Bureau Grange, the New England Milk Producers' association. There will be many prominent speakers on the pro- gram, demonstrations of various farm implements and field sports.

News has been received of the birth of a son July 27 to Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Way of Chicago. Mrs. Way was formerly Miss Stella Wright.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Law- rence Barrett of Milton at the St. Albans Hospital Tuesday.

At a meeting of the entertainment com- mittee of Franklin Lodge, No. 4, held Tuesday evening it was decided to hold The Masonic Minstrels October 7 and 8.

Eleanor Wallace, who has been receiv- ing treatment at the St. Albans Hospital, has returned to Enosburg Falls.

The condition of Helen Prior, who un- derwent an operation yesterday at the Marvin sanitarium for the removal of her tonsils, is favorable.

The St. Albans public library will close Saturday for two weeks.

The condition of E. W. Foster, who has been ill for several weeks, is slightly improved.

Miss Annie Dewhirst of Scotland is vis- iting Mr. and Mrs. William Charles of the Bay.

Major Daniel H. Glenty, U. S. A., has been retired for disability with the rank of lieutenant-colonel. Colonel Glenty will be remembered as an occasional visitor at the home of the late Rev. D. J. O'Sulli- van. He was adjutant of the First New Hampshire volunteer infantry during the war with Spain and went into the regular army after that.

SWANTON

A special meeting of Swanton Six Lodge, F. and A. M., was held in Masonic hall Thursday evening.—Miss Adele Jones who recently returned from the Fanny Allen Hospital in Winooski, is much improved in health.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ranney and John Austin of Springfield, Mass., are guests at the Congregational parsonage.— Miss Abbie Hazen has returned to Swan- ton after passing several weeks at her home at Green's Corners.—The Community Chautauqua company gave a five day series of entertainments last week in a large tent on the school grounds. The program was of a high character and the attendance good.—Miss Grace Ranney of Springfield is visiting friends in town.— Mrs. Jennie Judd of Highgate Falls was a Swanton visitor Friday.—Mrs. D. C. Stone is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Smith of Farrar street.—Horace Cross of St. Albans was a business visi- tor Friday.—Ruth and Elizabeth Brown of St. Albans, have returned to their home in Sheldon after visiting relatives and friends in town.—Services will be suspend- ed in the Methodist Church until the first Sunday in September. During August the Methodist people will unite in worship with the Congregational Church.—The Rev. F. H. Wilson Day and family have returned from a month's vacation in Southern Vermont and Massachusetts.— The annual camping trip for the local Boy Scout organization will be held on the scout grounds at Lake Champlain the second week in August. The scout master will meet all those who are planning to attend at the library Tuesday evening when final arrangements will be made and a camp program agreed upon.—Walter Spear is spending a few days in Mont- real.—Horatio Hilliker, who died in New- port last week, was born in Swanton and made her home here until 40 years ago. He was 97 years old and the time of his death and the oldest man in Newport.— Cornelius W. James whose funeral servi- ces were held in Rutland last week was for many years a resident and respected citizen of Swanton.—An occasion of more than ordinary interest took place on the grounds of the Taquahauga club Tues- day afternoon, July 20, when congratula- tions were extended to Hiram A. Collins, who was 90 years old on that day and the oldest member of the club. After a beau- tiful lunch had been served, Dr. E. S. Stone in behalf of the club presented Mr. Collins with a silk umbrella. Mr. Collins feelingly responded and thanked his many friends for their interest in him. The whole affair was thoughtfully arranged and splendidly carried out.

RICHFORD

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Gilpin of Barton, and family, Mrs. M. M. Miller and chil- dren of New York and Miss Eva Gilpin of Barton were recent visitors at the home of Mr and Mrs. E. W. Gilpin.—Mrs. W. R. Eastman and two children of Melrose Highlands, Mass., visited at the home of Mrs. H. E. Rustedt, Friday.—Miss Alma Wilcox, of Tewksbury, Mass., is passing a two weeks' vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wilcox, of Province street.—Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Masse and Mrs. W. G. Scofield of Grand Ligne, Que., are at their home in this place for a few weeks' vacation.—Dr. and Mrs. Henry Wheeler, Dr. Isiah Wheeler, Mrs. L. M. Hoxie and Mrs. D. O. Sweeney of New York city are visiting among rel- atives and friends in this place where they formerly resided.—Miss Grace Goff of Washington, D. C., is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. H. M. Goff.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Lovelette went to North Troy Monday where they will visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Wilbur Richardson.—Mr. and Mrs. Leslie L. Combs and two children of Gary, Ind., who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Elias Combs of Farrar street, have gone to Sheldon, where they will be in camp at Riverside.—The fountain that is to ornament the park at the head of Main street arrived last week and the work of placing it will begin at once. The expense of this fountain will be defrayed by Frank W. Carlisle, of Omaha, Neb., a native of Richford, as a testimonial of good will to his native place.—Mr. and Mrs. S. Carl Carpenter and children ac- companied by Mrs. Lero P. Davis are in camp on the shore of Lake Memphre- magog.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Russel, who have been visiting at the home of their daugh- ter, Mrs. Charles Colby, of Troy street, have returned to their home in Mystic, Que.—Miss Ruth Bock of Newport is visiting at the home of her brother, R. M. Bock, of Center street.—Edward Pharoff, a sailor attached to the United States warship Pennsylvania, is taking a 15 day furlough and is visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Horace Phan- cuf, and other relatives.—Miss Elfin Har- mon of Boston is visiting her aunts, Mrs. C. Berard and Miss Virginie Liberty, and her uncle, Joseph Liberty, of Troy street.—Ernest Clark of New York city is passing a few days here.—Mrs. George Lafleur has gone to North Stratford, N. H., her former home, to visit relatives. —Mrs. L. E. Hanson has returned to her home in Newport after passing a few days with her son, Prin. H. N. Hanson. —Mrs. Stewart Connor and son, Kenneth, have returned from a two weeks' visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. F. E. Moran, in Boston.

EAST FRANKLIN

Mrs. Herbet Richmond of Shelburne Falls, Mass., is visiting in town.—Mrs. Ann Whitney and the Misses Nellie, Edith and Alice Whitney of Richford were at the home of G. H. Pomeroy Sun- day.—H. R. Olmstead, M. K. Judd, E. W. Olmstead and son were at Highgate Springs, Saturday.—Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Chamberlin were at East Berkshire, Saturday.—Mrs. E. H. Chamberlin is visiting at Richford.—E. S. Wright and daughters, Katharine, Dorothy and Gwendolyn, of Montgomery Center, were at the home of H. R. Olmstead, Sunday. Miss Dorothy remained for a week's visit.—Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Chamberlin were at Richford, Sunday.

ENOSBURG FALLS

A serious accident occurred Satur- day forenoon just outside the vil- lage, when a car, driven by Chester Clark, near South Franklin, got beyond con- trol and was thrown on its side and turn- ed completely around. Besides Mr. Clark, there were in the car, his wife and their three small children, Mrs. Clark's niece, Miss Lena Houghton, and two young men, Clarence and Theodore Machia. Mrs. Clark and Miss Houghton and the two youngest children escaped with scratches and a severe shaking up. Clarence Ma- chia suffered a broken shoulder blade. Mr. Clark was bruised about the head, but it is not thought seriously. Irene, four years old, is in a serious condition, not having fully recovered consciousness at this time. —Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Sturgis, who have been visiting Miss Eunice Hendricks, left Sunday for their home in Utica, N. Y.— The condition of Mrs. R. Carpenter, who has been ill for several weeks, does not improve. Miss Harbison, of Bedford, P. Q., is caring for her.—Prof. James Wilson, of the University of Wisconsin, is visit- ing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Abell. Professor Wilson was formerly principal of the local high schol, leaving to attend Oxford University as a Rhodes scholar.—Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Oben, of Nashua, N. H., are visiting their niece, Mrs. H. J. Ladue. With Mr. and Mrs. Ladue they spent Saturday in Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Croft, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Croft, Mrs. Ellen Croft and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Newton passed Sunday in Jericho.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Erwin and little daughter, Gwendolyn, left Mon- day for Hermon, N. Y., where they will reside. Miss Margaret Hadu accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Cramton of Med- ford, Mass., are visiting Mr. Cramton's sister, Mrs. Earl Cassidy.—Mrs. Ira Levick and infant son, Warren, of Hart- ford, Conn., are visiting relatives in town.—Mrs. A. Nutting and daughter, Carolins, of Bakersfield are visiting in the home of Mrs. A. A.-Aseltine.—Mrs. E. J. Irish who has been passing sev- eral weeks with her husband in Hart- ford, Conn., has returned to her family here.—Mrs. E. E. Scates and four chil- dren, who have been visiting in Mass- achusetts and New Hampshire for sev- eral weeks, have returned to their home. —H. B. Kimball of Boston passed the week-end in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kimball.—Mr. and Mrs. Leslie I. Coombs and two children of Gary, Ind., are in camp in the Bee- man cottage at Riverside camp ground. —Miss Eleanor Isham of Windsor is visiting in the home of her uncle, A. W. Isham.—The condition of C. H. Stratton, who was taken seriously ill a few days ago, is much improved.—Mrs. Spencer Perkins and son, Spencer, Jr., of Lynn, Mass., are visiting Mrs. Coan in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Stetson.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Newton and grandson, Wat- son Raad, of Nashua, N. H., are visiting in the home of A. P. Croft.—Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Reed and daughters, Florence and Katherine, returned Thursday from Newport, where they have been visiting for several days.—A party of about 50 Odd Fellows from Hartford, Conn., traveling with a dozen touring cars and one truck, passed through this place Friday on their way to Cowansville, P. Q., where they were to work a degree that night.—Miss Hildreth Tyler of this place, with her friends, the Misses Alene Crosby of Springfield and Katherine McSweeney of Burlington, passed the week-end by tak- ing a trip through Smugglers' Notch on horse back.—Hugh Derby went Monday to St. Albans, where he has employment. —Mr. and Mrs. Carmi L. King and F. O. King of Worcester, Mass., are visiting their brother, O. L. King.

J. H. Mears is passing two weeks in Boston, Providence and New York on business.—F. E. Lang of Chicago was a recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Parmelee.—Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Duffy are visiting in Sutton this week.—An 11-pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Greene of Highgate Saturday at the home of Mrs. Greene's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sayles.— A party of Campfire Girls are in camp at Lake Carmi with their leader and assistant, Miss Ella Fairbanks, and Miss Sadie Wilbur of Georgia.—Nathan Fisher of Springfield, Mass., is visiting at the home of L. I. Lafley.—Miss Eva Demar of Washington, D. C., and Miss Doro- thy Leavens of Cambridge are visiting in the home of their uncle, J. G. Gaines. —Eleanor Wallace, who was badly hurt by a fall several days ago, returned from the St. Albans hospital Tuesday.

FAIRFAX

Miss Carrie Bostwick of Boston is vis- iting at J. S. Howard's.—Dr. Frank Hunt and family who have been visiting his mother, Mrs. I. E. Hunt have returned to their home in Montgomery.—The Rev. Rolla Hunt of Forest Hill, L. I., is spend- ing his annual vacation on his farm in Huntville. His family and other friends are with him.—Miss Ruth Whytock of Los Angeles, Calif., is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. S. Kingsley.—Mrs. Bert Rich and four children are recovering from the measles.—Mrs. F. E. Grow entertained several little people Thursday afternoon in honor of the ninth birthday of her eldest daughter, Marolyn. Refreshments were served. Among the out of town guests were the Misses Andry, Floy and Marie Hewey of Springfield, Mass.—Mrs. H. O. Wilkins, son Asa Wilkins and daughter, Mrs. P. J. Hewey, spent Sun- day with relatives at Queen City Park. —Mr. and Mrs. W. S. White have sold their farm on North Main street to Joel Brown of Enosburg Falls. Possession is to be given September 1.—The Redcliffe Chautauqua company is to give its en- tertainments in town August 5, 6 and 7. —Mrs. Cleon Tinker and son, of Fletcher, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. White.—Mrs. Clora Orton of Burlington has been visiting her son, Cleon Orten and family.—David Laney has returned to his home in New York city after pass- ing a week with relatives. Wendell South- ard and Fernard Hicks accompanied him as far as Fort Ticonderoga.—The Ladies' Village Improvement society are to give their play "Aunt Jerusha's Quilting Party" at Georgia Center Thursday even- ing, July 29.

BAKERSFIELD

Dr. and Mrs. George Shattuck and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dean of Providence, R. I., are spending some time in town. —Mr. Aldrich and family of Lyndonville were Sunday guests of Mrs. Cora Fields. —Mrs. Matilda Simmons of Massachusetts is visiting relatives in town.—Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Field and little daughter of Wellsville, N. H., are visiting his mother, Mrs. Cora Field.—Richard Smith, who is working at Colchester this sum- mer was a Sunday visitor at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. W. Smith.— Mrs. Mary Starr and daughter, Ella, of Berlin, who have been visiting at W. O. Starr's returned to their home Mon- day.—Hiram Pearson of Essex Junction has returned home after visiting his niece, Mrs. Maude Pearson and Mrs. Frank Leach.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Powers and son Wendell, of Richford, visited at D. E. Cowan's last week.—Mrs. Byron Fay drove to Burlington Satur- day accompanied by Miss Marion Cowan and Miss Doris Pearson.—There will be a community social on the academy lawn Friday evening. All are cordially invited to attend.

HIGHGATE SPRINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Wilder and daughter, Annette, of Enosburg Falls are occupying the Gibson cottage for a month.

WEST BERKSHIRE

Mr. and Mrs Ashland, Mrs. Hannah Bullitt and Miss Lillie Bullitt of St. Albans were recent visitors at the home of R. D. Scott.—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Powers of Manchester, N. H., spent a few days recently at the home of Austin Sinclair.—Mr. and Mrs. Percy Swale of Montreal visited at the home of Charles Ewins recently.—Frank Newton of Nashua, N. H., visited a few days at B. J. Chaffee's.

EAST BERKSHIRE

The second annual carnival will be held on the Congregational Church lawn Fri- day evening. The Richford Juvenile band will furnish music and there will be sev- eral other attractions.—Miss K. Grace Wadleigh was in Burlington last week.— Mrs. Flora Rouse and daughter, Miss Grace, and Mrs. Harriet Ida and son, Richard, and the Misses Susie and Flor- ence Rouse of St. Johnsbury were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sykes Sunday.— Miss Ida M. Greenleaf was called to St. Albans Friday by the death of her father, Charles F. Greenleaf, who died Friday at the Soldiers' Home in Bennington. The funeral was held from the home of his niece, Miss Marion Curtis of St. Albans Sunday afternoon. Miss Greenleaf is re- maining for a few weeks with her cousin, Miss Marion Curtis.—Mrs. F. M. Stone and Miss Josie C. Stone, who went to St. Al- bans Saturday to attend the funeral on Sunday of Charles F. Greenleaf, returned home Tuesday.—Miss Melissa Perley vis- ited at the home of M. P. Perley of Enos- burg Falls last week.—Mrs. Raymond Hanley visited her mother, Mrs. S. P. Perley Friday.

FLETCHER

E. E. Tinker and family spent Sunday in Jericho.—Mrs. Albert Wood and little daughter of Cambridge spent Sunday at John Nolans.—A few of the farmers have finished haying. All report about a usual crop.—Walter Jones of Jeffersonville was in town Sunday.—Miss Elsie Tinker is spending a few days with friends in Burlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Seneca Haselton of St. Albans are spending their vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lamb.— Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lamb of Winooski were home Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Coleman have bought of W. S. Shepard- son the Clark house at the Center and have taken possession.—Miss Lucy Robin- son has returned from a few days visit at Highgate Springs.—Mr. and Mrs. Walton and Miss Edith Walten and Mr. and Mrs. Dayten LaPointe of Chatham, N. Y., were week-end visitors at Elden Lamb's.

MONTGOMERY

Roger Pratt passed Tuesday with his parents, Mr and Mrs. Frank Pratt.— Mrs. R. Mongo and son, Grandon, have returned from Newport. Miss Riddell of Montreal came back with them.—Miss McGowen of Fairfax is visiting her sister, Mrs. McNall.—The Rev. and Mrs. Allen were business visitors n Richford Mon- day.—Mrs. Patten and Mrs. and Miss Chandler of New York and Mrs. Horace Smith of Worcester, Mass., are staying at Black Falls.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Domina and son of New York are visit- ing with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darius Domina.—Mrs. W. S. Rubless of East Berkshire and Mrs Hanson and son of Middlebury are camping on the Wadleigh place, North Hill, for a month. —Edward Rushford, who has sold his farm to Mr. Vincent of East Berkshire, has bought the Ellis Rushford house.— Mrs. Dana Grow of Bethel is visiting her aunts, Mrs. Haile and Mrs. Mans- field.—Mrs. Harvey Dodge of Burlington, N. J., Mrs. Charles Woodworth of Newark, N. J., and Addison Smith and son, Frank, of Richford were recent visitors at Newton Farrers.—Mr. and Mrs. James Cheynoeth and daughters of St. Albans, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Janes of Brooklyn, N. Y., and J. Lee Anderson of Eborn, Ill., were Sunday visitors in town.—Miss Glenna Casavant of Burling- ton has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Dean Scott. Mrs. Scott has returned to Burlington with her.—Mr. and Mrs. Olin Miller and family of North Troy have returned home.—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Boiselle and daughter of Torrington, Conn., are visiting his father, Joseph Boiselle.—Oscar Smith of Worcester, Mass., is staying with his brother, George Smith.—Miss Lucille Pratt of Swanton is home for a vacation of two weks.—Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Shangraw and daughter of New York are visiting at Mrs. Ardan Lapiant's.—The remains of the late David Baker, who died at Hartford, Conn., were brought here for burial Thursday.

ENOSBURG

The Rev J. A. Wright of Minneapolis, Minn., and nephew, E. S. Wright, of Montgomery, spent the day recently at the Wright homestead.—Fred Darling of Adell, Iowa, visited at the home of F. M. Wright Monday.—The Rev. R. Burn and family were in Troy this week to attend the wedding of Mrs. Burn's sister. —Mr. and Mrs. John Luna and children of Troy visited the parents of Mrs. Lunna, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Chaffee, last week.—Miss Flora Chaffee of Burlington passed Saturday and Sunday with her parents.—Dr. N. J. Munroe and Mrs. Mrs. Munroe of Stockbridge, Mass., passed the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Gilbert.—The Gates families from the surrounding towns are to have a gathering at the home of S. B. Marvin, Wednesday.—Mrs. S. P. Stevens, who is at St. Albans hospital, is improving.

SHELDON

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Stephenson, who have been passing their vacation in Lowell, have returned.—The Misses Georgianna Maynard and Bertha Car- penter are in camp at "The Maples," Vale Perkins, Que.

Grand Isle County

SOUTH HERO

The body of Arthur Landon reached here Wednesday July 21, having been brought from France. Arthur was born in South Hero April 27, 1894, and lived there until the time of his enlistment. He was in the 26th Infantry, Third Division, en- listing February 19, 1913. He started over- seas May 27, 1918. He saw much fighting, endured many hardships, going over the top four times. On his way home he was taken ill with pneumonia at Brest, and died there February 24, 1919. The funeral was held at the church Sunday, July 25, at 2:00 p. m. with Masonic burial. He is survived by his mother and father, and many relatives and friends.

About 60 of the friends of Miss Hazel Duba gave her a shower July 23 in honor of her approaching marriage to Clyde Hutchinson. Miss Duba was the recipi- ent of many beautiful presents, such as cut glass, silver, linen, etc. Refreshments were served and a good time enjoyed.— The funeral of Arthur Landon, whose body was brought from France, was held Sunday at the church. The Rev. Mr. Wood officiated assisted by the Rev. A. E. Hoag and the Rev. George Wescot. There was a Masonic burial. There were many from out of town, among which was a firing squad from Fort Ethan Allen.—Dr. J. S. Shaw Webb was in town Friday.—The wedding of Miss Hazel Duba and Clyde Hutchinson took place Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock, only the immediate relatives being present. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Wood. Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson left on the evening train for points in New Hampshire. On their return they will reside in Burlington.

NORTH HERO

A chicken-pie supper will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Hazen to- night. A musical program has been ar- ranged, in which the boys of Camp Abnaki will take part. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the Methodist Episcopal Church.—News has been re- ceived of the death of M. H. Livingston in New York city. Mr. Livingston spent several summers at J. A. Tudhope's and will be greatly missed as a summer visi- tor.—Miss Vaughn Tatro is at home from the Mary Fletcher hospital, where she underwent a serious operation for the removal of a portion of the mastoid bone. —Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Way spent the week-end in Burlington.—Epworth League will be held on Sunday evenings during the rest of the summer.

GRAND ISLE

Mrs. Jennie Styles is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. J. Ladd.—Mrs. Sarah Kerr and two children of Brushton, N. Y., are visiting relatives here.—A number from this town attended the funeral of Arthur Landon Sunday.—The Ladies' Aid society will hold its annual sale of fancy and useful articles, August 5.—Quite a number from here attended the circus in Burlington Tuesday.

Lamoille County

STOWE

J. D. Santamore, buttermaker at the Gold Brook creamery, met with severe in- juries whe he was pinned beneath his car when it was overturned near E. D. Hilliker's residence on the main road to Morrisville Wednesday evening. The ac- cident occurred about 11 o'clock when Mr. Santamore and Albert Raymond were re- turning from Morrisville, and was caused by striking a piece of gravel in the road. H. A. Foster, who was returning from Morrisville with his family overtook the party soon after the accident happened and found Mr. Raymond in a somewhat dazed condition trying to get Santamore out from under the car. Help was also obtained from Mr. Hilliker's. Mr. Santa- more was unconscious when taken out and suffered from injuries on his head and shoulder. Mr. Raymond suffered slight injuries and both men were unable to work Thursday. The car was badly dam- aged.

Articles of association of the Com- munity Church of Stowe, Vt., Inc., were filed at the office of the Secretary of State last week.—Mr. and Mrs. A. P. George, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Alger and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Magoon attended the funeral of Stephen R. Brackett in Morrisville Friday. Mr. Brackett was a native of Stowe and resided here for many years.—Mrs. Henry Gornall and little son have returned to their home in Taunton, Mass., after several weeks with Mrs. Gornall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Magoon. Miss Alice Magoon accom- panied her sister to Montpelier, where they passed the week-end with their brother, Harold Magoon.—Miss Hazel Adams, who has had employment in the agricultural department in Washington, D. C., the past two years, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar J. Adams, at the lower village.—Walter K. Bigelow of the firm of Almy, Bigelow & Washburn of Salem, Mass., and his daughter, Mrs. Josephine Y. Sanborn, are guests of Mr. Bigelow's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Bigelow, at "The Ledges." Miss Mary J. Bigelow, a niece, who accom- panied them, is visiting her mother and sisters, Mrs. Louise Bigelow and daugh- ters. The trip was made by automobile. —Harold J. Sanborn, Carl M. Parker and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hennessey, who have motored here from Boston, are passing two weeks in Stowe.—Mr. and Mrs. R. H. May of Essex Junction and guest, Miss Madison, of Boston were visitors at F. S. Boardman's Friday.—Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Smith and son, Waite, and Mrs. H. W. McMahon motored to Burlington Friday.—There were about 50 couples in attendance at the ball given by the Donald McMahon Post, American Legion, at the Akeley Memorial building. Music was by Carroll's orchestra of Barre. Many of those present were from Mor- risville, Montpelier and other adjacent towns. The legion will give another ball on the evening of August 7.—Mr. Williams of Bennington, accompanied by Raeburn McMahon, visited Smugglers' Notch and Mt. Mansfield Friday, making the trip in Mr. Williams' automobile, leaving Stowe at 1:30 p. m., visiting the caves in Smugglers' Notch and making other stops on the trip and going to the sum- mit of Mt. Mansfield and returning to Stowe in less than two and one-half hours. The distance was about 30 miles, much of it mountain travel.

A meeting of the shareholders of the Mt. Mansfield Creamery and Grain as- sociation was held here Saturday evening to discuss the matter of equipping their grain warehouses with necessary milling machinery. It was decided to buy only the necessary machinery at this time, but to make their warehouse of such proportions as to provide for modern milling machin- ery in the near future. Frank Sears, pres- ident of the Farmers' Shipping association in Motley, Minn., addressed the meeting, telling of the co-operative work the far- mers are doing in that section. His far- mers have their own creamery, shipping organization, grain buying organization, co-operative store, their own bank and their own fire and hail insurance com- pany. A. B. Andre, manager of the Ad- dison County Farmers' Milk association, spoke on milk refrigeration. At his plant in Middlebury, a refrigerating system in- stalled a year ago has served half their ice bill.—Some of the Vermont creamery managers are placing contracts for but- ter tubs to be made up the coming winter to be in readiness for next season's re- quirements.—Some of the Vermont creamery managers are talking of or- ganizing a State Creamerymen's associa- tion. It has been suggested having this meeting at the State Dairymen's conven- tion in January.—L. G. Mulholland of Montpelier, field agent in marketing, and Miss Bissonette of Northfield, called on Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Lynch Sunday.—Mrs. Paul Raymond was in Elmore Saturday and Sunday to attend a family reunion.— The Rev. E. G. French of Johnson preach- ed acceptably at the Community Church Sunday service Sunday morning. A solo was rendered by Prin. C. J. Strand. A party of six motored here from Londonderry, a distance of 30 miles to hear the sermon, Mr. French being a former pas- tor.—The funeral of Fremont J. Stone was held at Unity Church Sunday afternoon. The Rev. W. T. Best of Morrisville of- ficiated. The bearers were Mr. Stone's son, Earl R. Stone, Cass