

THE WEEKLY FREE PRESS, three cents per copy, 75 cents for six months, $1.50 per year, postage paid.

TERMS: $1.50 a year in advance. WEEKLY RATE IN CANADA: $2.00 a year in advance.

BURLINGTON, VT., JULY 22, 1920.

WANTED: When you want anything, advertise in the special column of this paper.

HARTNESS STRENGTH: The keynote to the campaign methods of the Hon. James Hartness for the governorship was sounded by him when he said that he did not propose to criticize the plans of other candidates.

THE AMERICA'S CUP STAYS HERE: The Resolute won the final and rubber race out of five tests over the Shamrock IV. The America's cup stays in the hands of Uncle Sam.

THE AMERICA'S CUP STAYS HERE (continued): The races for the America's cup from year to year have intense interest for sportsmen, but as a practical influence in yachting they long since ceased to have material significance.

ON WHAT DOES MR. HARTNESS PUT EMPHASIS: He puts first the young men and young women of Vermont and their education because he realizes as every one of us knows that they are the hope of a greater Vermont.

ON WHAT DOES MR. HARTNESS PUT EMPHASIS (continued): There are not the words of a mere industrialist. They constitute the slogan of a man who as head of the State Board of Education saw all conditions and handicaps of education in our rural communities and sympathized with the aspiration of their people for better things.

ON WHAT DOES MR. HARTNESS PUT EMPHASIS (continued): The Hartness plan for the development of Vermont is so broad you can not condense it into a few paragraphs, but he squares much into a few sentences following his plea for the utilizing of Vermont's water power for the development of electricity for use in the shop and factory as well as on the farm.

ON WHAT DOES MR. HARTNESS PUT EMPHASIS (continued): "I believe that millions of dollars of our savings institutions will find their way back into Vermont when we have demonstrated the safety of Vermont investments."

ON WHAT DOES MR. HARTNESS PUT EMPHASIS (continued): "The plan is in harmony with the prime need of agriculture, for it draws a greater population into the State and increases the home market."

ON WHAT DOES MR. HARTNESS PUT EMPHASIS (continued): "It balances the State's activities to the benefit of all Vermonters who have been migrating to other States because our State has not offered good opportunities. It is not proposed to neglect the immediate needs of our State while setting in motion the big plan."

ON WHAT DOES MR. HARTNESS PUT EMPHASIS (continued): "The plan is in harmony with the prime need of agriculture, for it draws a greater population into the State and increases the home market."

ON WHAT DOES MR. HARTNESS PUT EMPHASIS (continued): "It balances the State's activities to the benefit of all Vermonters who have been migrating to other States because our State has not offered good opportunities. It is not proposed to neglect the immediate needs of our State while setting in motion the big plan."

ON WHAT DOES MR. HARTNESS PUT EMPHASIS (continued): "The plan is in harmony with the prime need of agriculture, for it draws a greater population into the State and increases the home market."

ON WHAT DOES MR. HARTNESS PUT EMPHASIS (continued): "It balances the State's activities to the benefit of all Vermonters who have been migrating to other States because our State has not offered good opportunities. It is not proposed to neglect the immediate needs of our State while setting in motion the big plan."

ON WHAT DOES MR. HARTNESS PUT EMPHASIS (continued): "The plan is in harmony with the prime need of agriculture, for it draws a greater population into the State and increases the home market."

and insist that they must have our chief thought at this time. He adds: "The defenders of our homes must rank first, but second only to the defenders come the producers of life and those who cooperate in some essential way as producers. First of these are the mothers who work in the care of the home, the mothers who always bear the hardest part of war and peace burdens."

We join with Mr. Hartness in saying that all of the candidates for the governorship are good citizens and likeable men. But we ask you in all candor and fairness, has any other one of them showed the thought and care for all the varied interests and the statemanship that Mr. Hartness sums up in the few sentences we have selected from others that deserve to be included?

Would not his policies carried into effect mean a different Vermont from that we now have? Is it not worth while to elect a governor and a State Legislature that will start this practical movement for the kind of Vermont all of us in our hearts long to see developed?

Burlington's well cared for lawn never presented a more beautiful appearance in July than now. On the other hand, the farmers are wondering when they will have a chance to cut and "cure" their grass.

THE AMERICA'S CUP STAYS HERE (continued): The Resolute won the final and rubber race out of five tests over the Shamrock IV. The America's cup stays in the hands of Uncle Sam.

THE AMERICA'S CUP STAYS HERE (continued): The races for the America's cup from year to year have intense interest for sportsmen, but as a practical influence in yachting they long since ceased to have material significance.

THE AMERICA'S CUP STAYS HERE (continued): On what does Mr. Hartness put emphasis? He puts first the young men and young women of Vermont and their education because he realizes as every one of us knows that they are the hope of a greater Vermont.

THE AMERICA'S CUP STAYS HERE (continued): There are not the words of a mere industrialist. They constitute the slogan of a man who as head of the State Board of Education saw all conditions and handicaps of education in our rural communities and sympathized with the aspiration of their people for better things.

THE AMERICA'S CUP STAYS HERE (continued): The Hartness plan for the development of Vermont is so broad you can not condense it into a few paragraphs, but he squares much into a few sentences following his plea for the utilizing of Vermont's water power for the development of electricity for use in the shop and factory as well as on the farm.

THE AMERICA'S CUP STAYS HERE (continued): "I believe that millions of dollars of our savings institutions will find their way back into Vermont when we have demonstrated the safety of Vermont investments."

THE AMERICA'S CUP STAYS HERE (continued): "The plan is in harmony with the prime need of agriculture, for it draws a greater population into the State and increases the home market."

THE AMERICA'S CUP STAYS HERE (continued): "It balances the State's activities to the benefit of all Vermonters who have been migrating to other States because our State has not offered good opportunities. It is not proposed to neglect the immediate needs of our State while setting in motion the big plan."

THE AMERICA'S CUP STAYS HERE (continued): "The plan is in harmony with the prime need of agriculture, for it draws a greater population into the State and increases the home market."

THE AMERICA'S CUP STAYS HERE (continued): "It balances the State's activities to the benefit of all Vermonters who have been migrating to other States because our State has not offered good opportunities. It is not proposed to neglect the immediate needs of our State while setting in motion the big plan."

THE AMERICA'S CUP STAYS HERE (continued): "The plan is in harmony with the prime need of agriculture, for it draws a greater population into the State and increases the home market."

THE AMERICA'S CUP STAYS HERE (continued): "It balances the State's activities to the benefit of all Vermonters who have been migrating to other States because our State has not offered good opportunities. It is not proposed to neglect the immediate needs of our State while setting in motion the big plan."

THE AMERICA'S CUP STAYS HERE (continued): "The plan is in harmony with the prime need of agriculture, for it draws a greater population into the State and increases the home market."

THE AMERICA'S CUP STAYS HERE (continued): "It balances the State's activities to the benefit of all Vermonters who have been migrating to other States because our State has not offered good opportunities. It is not proposed to neglect the immediate needs of our State while setting in motion the big plan."

DECISIVE RACE FOR THE AMERICA'S CUP WON BY RESOLUTE

Defender Gives Challenger Worst Drubbing of the Series, Winning by 19 Minutes and 45 Seconds Including Her Handicap—'The Best Boat Won,' Says Sir Thomas Lipton—British Crew Gives Three Cheers for the Victor

Sandy Hook, N. J., July 21—Defender Resolute gave the British challenger Shamrock IV the worst drubbing of the 1920 regatta in the first race of the series to-day, winning boat for boat by 19 minutes and 45 seconds and the America's famous yachting cup remains American property.

Overcoming a 45-second lead and the advantage of a headwind which Shamrock IV had taken at the start, the fleet defender held a lead of four minutes and eight seconds at the half way stake of the 30 mile course, and crossed the finish line in 1 hour 19 minutes and 45 seconds, including her handicap of six minutes and 40 seconds which she did not need. Resolute won by 19 minutes and 45 seconds.

In capturing the series and retaining possession of the America's trophy, Resolute came from behind after Shamrock had taken two races and won out by registering three straight and impressive victories. Shamrock IV won the initial race when the defender was forced out by an accident to her rigging and captured the second in a fierce battle. Resolute, however, beat her by six minutes and 40 seconds when the third by her time allowance of seven minutes and one second, running a dead heat with the challenger. Her other two victories were won boat for boat.

Sir Thomas Lipton, owner of the green challenger, voiced what appeared to be the unanimous verdict of yachtsmen who had seen the five races when he declared to-night that "the best boat won."

Nature proved a rare setting for the day's historic finish. The sun shined brightly, but was dropping through a red and purple haze over the point of Sandy Hook, when Resolute, clipping swiftly through the deep green water, with billowy white sails, sailed against the haze, bore down on the mark.

A moment later, she flashed across the golden finish line that the setting sun had laid down on the rippling water between squat Ambrose Channel lightship and the committee boat. The Shamrock IV, a mile or more behind, her own great sails billowing broadly, Shamrock IV was coming about for the run to the mark after a reach out from the Jersey coast.

When the white signal ball of the British dropped and the shrieking of whistle and stent from the lips of spectators craft proclaimed Resolute's victory.

The beaten Challenger swept quickly down the course, striving to shorten the intervening gap and save as much as she could the bitterness of her defeat.

But as if to emphasize the great difference in time between the two finishes, the flaming sun dropped like a plummet into the deepening haze, and a pale moon, which had been visible in the distance, shone down on the water.

When Shamrock IV finally got over the line, the sun was but a shadowy circle on the horizon beyond the haze, and the shimmer on the water had turned from gold to silver.

Resolute by this time had described a great circle and had come back to the mark to see her rival finish. As the challenger crossed the mark her British crew let out three ringing cheers for the victor, and the committee responded with lusty cheers for Shamrock IV and her crew.

Sir Thomas Lipton, who built the challenger in his fourth effort to lift the honorless old pewee mug that is the America's cup, and take it back to its original home in England, turned away from his humble sailing beauty and sent his steam yacht Victoria full speed ahead to overtake and congratulate the Resolute's crew. He returned just in time to see Shamrock cross the line.

The aged sportsman's goodness as he drew away from his own sloop to congratulate the winner elicited a salvo of cheers from those on board the spectator craft. And Sir Thomas responded as he sailed, "I had not seen his own fondest hope once more fulfilled."

When the white signal ball of the British dropped and the shrieking of whistle and stent from the lips of spectators craft proclaimed Resolute's victory.

The beaten Challenger swept quickly down the course, striving to shorten the intervening gap and save as much as she could the bitterness of her defeat.

But as if to emphasize the great difference in time between the two finishes, the flaming sun dropped like a plummet into the deepening haze, and a pale moon, which had been visible in the distance, shone down on the water.

When Shamrock IV finally got over the line, the sun was but a shadowy circle on the horizon beyond the haze, and the shimmer on the water had turned from gold to silver.

Resolute by this time had described a great circle and had come back to the mark to see her rival finish. As the challenger crossed the mark her British crew let out three ringing cheers for the victor, and the committee responded with lusty cheers for Shamrock IV and her crew.

Sir Thomas Lipton, who built the challenger in his fourth effort to lift the honorless old pewee mug that is the America's cup, and take it back to its original home in England, turned away from his humble sailing beauty and sent his steam yacht Victoria full speed ahead to overtake and congratulate the Resolute's crew. He returned just in time to see Shamrock cross the line.

The aged sportsman's goodness as he drew away from his own sloop to congratulate the winner elicited a salvo of cheers from those on board the spectator craft. And Sir Thomas responded as he sailed, "I had not seen his own fondest hope once more fulfilled."

When the white signal ball of the British dropped and the shrieking of whistle and stent from the lips of spectators craft proclaimed Resolute's victory.

The beaten Challenger swept quickly down the course, striving to shorten the intervening gap and save as much as she could the bitterness of her defeat.

But as if to emphasize the great difference in time between the two finishes, the flaming sun dropped like a plummet into the deepening haze, and a pale moon, which had been visible in the distance, shone down on the water.

When Shamrock IV finally got over the line, the sun was but a shadowy circle on the horizon beyond the haze, and the shimmer on the water had turned from gold to silver.

Resolute by this time had described a great circle and had come back to the mark to see her rival finish. As the challenger crossed the mark her British crew let out three ringing cheers for the victor, and the committee responded with lusty cheers for Shamrock IV and her crew.

Sir Thomas Lipton, who built the challenger in his fourth effort to lift the honorless old pewee mug that is the America's cup, and take it back to its original home in England, turned away from his humble sailing beauty and sent his steam yacht Victoria full speed ahead to overtake and congratulate the Resolute's crew. He returned just in time to see Shamrock cross the line.

CHARGED WITH VIOLATING WHITE SLAVE ACT

Burlington, July 21—Earl J. Colby and Mrs. Mabel Johnson, both of Wilmington, who left the town last June on the night that Miss Johnson received her diploma at the graduation exercises of the Wilmington High School, returned to Burlington to-day with Attorney Edward S. Jones, who went to Detroit after them. Colby was brought to Burlington by United States Marshal Arthur P. Carpenter of this place who met the party at Bennington. Colby, who has a wife in Wilmington, pleaded not guilty when arraigned before United States Commissioner Clarence M. Miller on the charge of violating the Mann act. He was examined and as he could not furnish $2,000 bail Sheriff Frank L. Wellman took him to Newfane jail to be confined until the October term of court in Rutland. Colby served in the 101st Ammunition Train in France.

SERVICE COMMISSION HAS HEARINGS AT RUTLAND

Rutland, July 21—The Vermont Public Service Commission held two hearings at the Hotel Parkside here to-day. A petition from citizens of Rutland for the reorganization of the Vermont Hydro-Electric company was presented. The changes proposed consist in authorizing preferred stock to participate equally with common stock in respect to dividends declared on common stock in excess of 10 per cent per annum, in modification of voting power of preferred stockholders, in conditions upon which preferred stock in excess of 450,000 par value, can be issued.

HELD UP 71

Artists Ordered to Use Non-Flare Lenses—38 Made Immediate Change. Montpelier, July 21—Inspector Higgins and Pierce of the State automobile department were in Richford Saturday and Sunday with the result that 71 automobile drivers were ordered Saturday night to replace the lenses they were using on their lamps with non-flare lenses and of that number 38 made the change that night and returned to the inspectors, showing that they had complied with the laws.

CO. I NATIONAL GUARD

Burlington Organization Has Been Accepted in Federal Service. Montpelier, July 21—Adj. Gen. H. T. Johnson has received notice of the completion of the organization of Company I, National Guard, in Burlington and the company has been accepted in federal service. There was a little delay about the latter owing to the fact that a place for a storage of equipment had not been obtained. The officers are: Captain, Roy E. Miner; Lieutenants, Charles A. E. Goodwin and Edward C. Vail.

Brough-Prouty

Bellows Falls, July 20—George Francis Brough, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Brough of Winchester, Mass., and Miss Lillian H. Prouty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Prouty of 21 Center street, were united in marriage yesterday in Immanuel church by the Rev. J. G. Currier. The bride was attended by the parents of the bride. A reception was held after the ceremony at the bride's home on Center street. After a short trip through Massachusetts they will make their home for the present with Mrs. Brough's parents. The bride has lived for the past few years in this place and attended the local schools and has for two years been employed at the Model Press. The groom has lived in town for nearly eight years and is an overseas veteran and a member of Company I, National Guard. He is at present employed at the Fife & Son's garage. Those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. W. Ellory Taylor of Springfield, this State, Mrs. F. M. Prouty of Grafton, Mrs. G. E. Cook of Montpelier, and Mrs. M. E. Jones of North Westminster and Warden F. Hale of Rockingham.

52,000 TESTED

Over 30,000 Cattle Given Tuberculin Test at State and Fed. Gov't's Expense. Montpelier, July 21—The commissioner of agriculture is compiling the data for his regular report to the Legislature for the two years ending July 1, 1920. It shows that over 52,000 head of cattle have been tested for tuberculosis and of that number over 25,000 were tested on the co-operative plan between the State and federal government, while the rest were tested at private expense. This is about one-quarter of the number of head of cattle in the State subject to test.

REED COAL COMPANY

Fair Haven Concern Incorporates With Capital of $10,000. Montpelier, July 20—The Reed Coal company of Fair Haven has filed articles of association in the office of the Secretary of State for the purpose of selling coal in Fair Haven and adjacent towns. The capital stock is $10,000, while the subscribers are Mary Reed, B. Leslie Reed and A. D. Raymond of Fair Haven.

TO ISSUE STOCK

Burlington Firms to Put Out $75,000 and $20,000 Respectively. Montpelier, July 21—The Kolstad-Taylor company of Burlington has filed with the secretary of State the statement that the company expects to issue $75,000 worth of stock, while the White Manufacturing company of the same town has reported that it proposes to issue $20,000 worth of stock and that $12,500 has been paid up. The Monarch Manufacturing company of Bellows Falls proposes to issue $20,000 worth of stock and that E. W. Kelley takes 400 shares, H. T. Kelley 30, George Baker 100, F. C. Bromeau 10, while 1,240 will be in cash.

$20,000,000.00

The Burlington Savings Bank Passes the $20,000,000.00 Mark

Incorporated 1847
Deposits	Surplus	Assets
$3,710.18	1850 $5,334	$2,766.46
1860 1870	1880 1890	1900 1910
$28,750.25	$214.87	$28,964.83
$265,799.65	$9,412.96	$278,412.54
$1,187,609.36	$43,238.48	$1,230,847.79
1890	1900	1910
$2,121,207.11	$170,238.51	$2,291,445.62
1900	1910	1920
$7,000,561.09	$330,685.37	$7,331,246.46
1910	1920
$12,038,461.88	$832,876.95	$12,871,338.83

1847—Seventy-Three Years of Stability—1920
C. P. Smith, President F. W. Ward, Vice-President
F. W. Perry, Vice-President E. S. Isham, Treasurer
Levi P. Smith, Vice-President C. E. Beach, Assistant Treas.
$20,000,000.00

The Bank is the "Big Brother" of Business Men

Building a successful business requires more ready capital than it can produce. It is the business of the bank to secure the necessary funds with which to finance business institutions during their period of growth. It renders a very vital service to the community it serves.

Burlington Trust Company

162 College Street, Burlington, Vt.

4 1/4% 4 1/2% SINCE JAN. 1, 1914 the Winooski Savings Bank has paid interest for seven semi-annual periods at the rate of 4 per cent per annum, for four semi-annual periods at the rate of 4 1/4 per cent per annum and for two at 4 1/2 per cent per annum. Such other dividends will be paid from time to time as the law permits and the condition of the bank warrants.

Winooski Savings Bank

5 1/4 years of successful business. No. 11 Winooski Block, Winooski, Vt.

THE AVERAGE DEPOSIT

$75.00 THE AVERAGE DEPOSIT $75.00 $75.00 Of all depositors may not be large but such an amount to your credit would help to give you confidence that hard times with lower wages or even loss of your job would not make you go hungry. Many large deposits were first very small. The first deposits may come hard, the next will be easier. Save now. Bank open regular hours, also Monday nights from seven to eight.

Home Savings Bank, 190 Main Street, Burlington, Vt.

C. W. Brownell, Pres., Clarence P. Cowles, Vice-Pres., C. S. Brownell, Treas.

Chittenden County Trust Co. Burlington, Vermont.

A Steady Income

Your money deposited in our savings department will give you a steady income. Interest is paid twice a year at the highest rate allowed by law.

DIRECTORS: E. J. Booth, John J. Flynn, E. P. Woodbury, J. S. Patrick, R. A. Cooke, E. F. Gebhardt, J. H. Mecomber

PUNCTUALITY: An old Englishman, James Scott by name, traveled about on business until he was nearly eighty years of age. He became celebrated for his punctuality and methodical habits. Upon one occasion a gentleman stopped at an inn much frequented by Mr. Scott and saw a fine fowl cooking. "That is very good," said the hungry guest. "You may serve that for my dinner." "You cannot have that, sir," replied the landlord. "That is being cooked for Mr. Scott, the traveler." "I know Mr. Scott very well," said the gentleman. "Is he stopping here?" "Oh, no, sir," answered the landlord. "But six months ago he ordered a fowl to be ready for him at precisely 2 o'clock to-day, and we are expecting him every minute."—Youngtown Telegraph

CONFESSIONS: In the sweet silence of the twilight they hothoused upon the beach "Dear one," she murmured, trembling, "show me we are married, I—I have secret to tell you!" "What is it, sweetheart?" he asked, softly. "Can you ever forgive me for deceiving you?" she sobbed. "My—my left eye is made of glass!" "Never mind, my dear," he whispered, gently, "so long as the diamonds in your engagement ring!"—Tit Bits (London).

The really well dressed woman is up on the very latest store news. She knows all about the new importation of millinery all about the daintiest dress materials, and just where they can be procured to her greatest advantage.

SEEKS AUTO OWNER

Failure to Report Sale of Car Resulted in Needless Publicity for Wrong People. Montpelier, July 21—Harry A. Black, Secretary of State, is endeavoring to ascertain the new owner of the automobile in which it was reported to his office that the Rev. F. R. Gauthier of Highgate was riding at the time of a recent accident between Middlebury and Middlesex. Father Gauthier has written the office that he was not in the car nor did he own it. One of the inspectors was at the site that night and took the number of the car. It appears that those in the car were Hyde Park people, Mrs. Tremblay, who was injured, led the hospital here Monday for her home. Failure to report the sale of the car resulted in needless publicity for those not involved in the accident.

BLACK SEEKS RE-ELECTION

Secretary of State Candidate for Nomination—Not Like to Have Any Opposition. Montpelier, July 21—Harry A. Black, Secretary of State, this evening announced that he will be a candidate for nomination and re-election to the office. He is nominated for the wide State at large and it is a custom to allow the Secretary of State to have eight years, if he so desires, therefore it is not likely that Mr. Black will have any opposition. His record will compare favorably with any of the state officers of the incumbents. He is noted for his efficiency and attention to his departmental work.

MORE COLLISIONS

Reports Pouring in Secretary of State from All Directions. Montpelier, July 21—Among recent automobile accident reports to the State automobile department have been H. B. Hood of Hardwick and E. B. Jones of Montpelier, in a collision on the wide Barr road, W. A. Dutton of Hardwick reporting that his daughter, Alice, was driving their car when a horse owned by a man named Bolton of Cabot backed into the car. E. C. Colwell of Greensboro, who reported a minor accident that occurred in Grover, A. B. Evans of Randolph killed a dog while driving his automobile, J. S. L. Varney of Roxbury slipped over a bank, W. F. and M. D. Davis of Waterbury reported a collision with a car in Wolcott, the number of which he did not get.

Alex Blair of Barre reported that his automobile turned turtle on the East Montpelier road Sunday evening, resulting in a few bruises for the occupants, but no serious injuries to any of the party. Driving too close to the edge of the grass was given as the cause of the accident. Thomas Sheridan's car was hit by an electric car yesterday afternoon when it turned from Nelson to Barre street. No damage occurred.

STONE LECTURES AT RUTLAND

Rutland, July 21—Lieut. Gov. Mason S. Stone began a course of lectures to-day at the Vermont Summer School for Teachers in this city, about 120 pedagogues composing his audience. The general subject for the course is "Untold Events in Vermont History."

ROUGH ON THE OLD MAN

Poor father gets it from the most unexpected places, even from the cemetery. Certainly there is no taffy—no epitaph, so to speak—handed him in the following inscription on a tombstone in Birmingham, England: Here lies the mother of children seven, Four on earth and three in heaven; The three in heaven preferring rather To die with mother than live with father.—Boston Transcript.

GOING UP

Young Sailor—On my last voyage I saw waves forty feet high. Old Salt—Get out. I was at sea for fifty years and never saw 'em that height. Young Salt—Well, things are higher now than they used to be.—Arkright.

YOUNG SWIMMER DROWNS

Ralph Grimes, Nine, Loses Life in Otter Creek—Spending Vacation at Ferrisburg. Vergennes, July 21—Ralph Grimes, aged nine years, who made his home with Mrs. Doland Richards of Vergennes, was drowned while swimming alone in Otter Creek, Rock Landing, at Ferrisburg last evening.

He was passing his vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Almer Porter of Ferrisburg and was out after the cows about four o'clock. Falling to return at the expected time he was searched for and his clothes found in a boat at the landing. Search was made for the body which was found in 32 feet of water about 12 feet from shore. A fisherman, Chester J. Hawkins of Ferrisburg, was notified and viewed the body, after which it was taken to Ketcham's undertaking rooms in Vergennes to await orders from the boy's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Grimes, of Ferrisburg, Mass., who have been notified of his death. The parents of the lad are living, but their residence is unknown.

CLEMENT STANDS PAT

(From the New York Tribune) There is precious little logic in Governor Clement's reasons for refusing to call his Legislature in special session to ratify the suffrage amendment. He talks of the Constitution, the freedom of Vermont and the right of self-government and seeks to reverse the Supreme Court of the United States in its decision rejecting the amendment. The amendment is a literal application of the Federal Constitution, and the freedom of Vermont who fought under Ethan Allen made no objection to this clause when their State entered the Union in 1791. The amendment is a literal application. The language of the Federal Constitution declares that an amendment shall be valid "when ratified by the Legislatures of three-fourths of the several States." Governor Clement's kick is not against the Supreme Court, but against General Washington, James Madison and the others who drafted the Federal Constitution.

As a matter of fact, Governor Clement is simply saying some very poor reasons for saying "no." He is not an individual, but he is entirely within his rights, and the principle of State independence involved is a very important one. We gladly agree with Governor Clement that more party expediency should not control. Vermont is perhaps the most democratic of all the New England States. It found a lone hand in the Revolution and fought it very well. It is certainly entitled to its own opinion upon the ratification of the federal amendment.

The state is that a Governor who has no authority whatever to vote or pass upon such a federal amendment should happen to be in a strategic position which prevents the ratifying authority, the Legislature, from assembling before the appointed date for this purpose. The Legislature declared to be overwhelmingly in due course of time it will ratify the amendment and Governor Clement cannot lift a finger to stop it. He can only delay ratification. He cannot utilize the veto.

The Tribune greatly regrets Governor Clement's decision, which seems to be founded on bad logic and a serious conception of a Governor's responsibility in respect to federal constitutional amendments. There remain Tennessee and North Carolina, and we hope greatly that the Democratic leaders of these States will show more open-mindedness than the Republican Governor of Vermont. Meantime how about the Republican Governor of Connecticut?

FIGHT PINE BLISTER RUST

Washington, D. C., July 21—S. B. Dewiler of Washington, D. C., is in conference with John Riley, Jr., relative to the white pine blister rust in Vermont. He has charge of a campaign against it and they have decided to use chemicals of the gossyperry and currant bushes in Sharon, where the rust has been giving them trouble. Riley is in charge of the University of Michigan and Dr. Cooper, both of whom are making a study of the rust, are spending some time in the State.

GAVE IT TO CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN

Mrs. V. M. Katz, 92 Amundson St., N. S. Pittsburg, Pa., writes: "I gave Foley's Honey and Tar to my little grandson when he had a bad cold and it did him good. I used a lot of it when my own children were small. It must have merit to hold the leadership generation after generation. J. W. O'Sullivan, 30 Church St., Adv.

A classified ad will settle a multitude of