

Local Happenings

The steamship Alameda will sail from Seattle tomorrow and the Admiral Watson next Thursday.

The steamship Northwestern will arrive from Seward at 4 o'clock tomorrow morning and remain in port taking on a cargo of copper ore until tomorrow night, when she will sail for Seattle.

The Cordova Athletic Club is holding an open dance at their hall on Saturday night. The ladies are requested to wear aprons or house dresses while the men may dance in their shirt sleeves.

A regular old-time January blow and snow storm started last night and has been raging in all its fury today. As we have had exceptionally fine weather thus far this winter the change was not unexpected.

Don't miss the basketball game tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Cordova Athletic Club between the Ladies' and High School Girls' teams. This will be the last game before the series, which will commence next week.

M. W. Parker, who has been connected with the mechanical department of the Daily Times for the past three months will leave tomorrow for his home in Bellingham. Jules Dalagher, who has been on a visit to his family at Vashon, Wash., will return to Cordova on one of the next boats to resume his old position as foreman of the Times office. Mr. Dalagher will bring his family here to live.

WEATHER REPORT

	Temp.	Precip.	Vel.
Cordova	25	Snow	25
Camp 30	28	Snow	10
Camp 52	18	Snow	10
Bremner	8	Snow	05
Tiekel	2	Snow	10
Strelina	-4	Cloudy	00
Chitina	-6	Cloudy	00
Kennecott	-10	Cloudy	00

Patronize home merchants.

CLOSED SEASON REGULATION BLUE FOXES

A change in fur regulations prohibits the killing of blue foxes, in Southwestern Alaska and portion of the Westward region, except by fur farmers or their authorized agents on their own land, according to telegraphic advices received from Washington by E. P. Walker, chief of the Biological Survey in Alaska. This regulation closes the open season for blue foxes in these regions.

Mr. Walker is not able at this time to state exactly which portions of the Westward region are included in the regulation as the advice was not clearly defined. He expects to receive a written confirmation as to the regulation, on one of the next boats, when he will make known the exact regulation.

The regulation has been made as a protection to the fox farmers from poachers, Mr. Walker said, and eliminated any excuse that foxes caught are taken from lands outside of reserves.

There are few blue fox running wild in these districts, Mr. Walker said.

STEAMER MOVEMENTS

8 P. M., JANUARY 11

SS. President Jefferson, Yokohama for Seattle, 1792 miles from Seattle.

SS. President McKinley, Seattle for Yokohama, 1260 miles from Yokohama.

SS. Edmore, Vancouver for Yokohama, 2135 miles from Vancouver.

SS. Elridge, Seattle for Yokohama, 188 miles from Seattle.

JANUARY 12

SS. President Jefferson, Seattle for Yokohama, 850 miles from Yokohama.

SS. Skagway, discharging at Juneau.

NO CHOIR PRACTICE

Owing to the storm there will be no choir practice at St. George's Episcopal Church tonight, as had been scheduled.

MINING STOCKS

THURSDAY, JANUARY 11

Kennecott Copper Corporation	36 1/2
Mother Lode Coalition	11 1/4
Anaconda Copper	48 1/2
Utah Copper	64 1/2

FRIDAY, JANUARY 12

Kennecott Copper Corporation	36 1/2
Mother Lode Coalition	11 1/4
Anaconda Copper	48 1/2
Utah Copper	62 1/2

ALASKA IS INVITED PARTICIPATE BIG FAIR

An invitation to participate in the National Travel and Outdoor Life Exposition, to be staged in Chicago early next spring, has been extended to the Territory, according to an announcement by Gov. Scott C. Bone. It is suggested that Alaska arrange for an exhibit representative of the fishing, game, scenic and other attractions for persons desiring to spend their summer vacations in the outdoor world.

All sections of the country, it was stated, in a letter received by Governor Bone, from Maine to California, and from Washington state to Florida, will be represented in the exhibits. The big show will be held in the famous Chicago Coliseum from May 7 to 12.

The purpose of the exposition is to further the campaign of inducing American tourists to "See America First." Many new tourist regions have been opened up through publicity gained in former similar shows, it is claimed.

If necessary financial arrangements can be made, it is possible that an Alaskan exhibit will be sent, the Governor intimated. The Territory has no fund for such purposes and Alaska participation is largely dependent on financial and other assistance from independent sources. The Governor now has the matter under consideration and hopes to find a way in which to take advantage of the opportunity thus offered to advertise Alaska's outdoor life and tourist possibilities.

Keep the public informed by advertising regularly in the Cordova Daily Times.

FAKE CONCERNS REAP HARVEST COLD BAY OIL

SEATTLE, Jan. 12.—Oil in Alaska was fully discussed the other evening at a dinner given at the Rainier Club by Chairman A. S. Kerry to the other 34 members of the Alaska department of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce. There has been some delay in the operations of the two big oil companies now preparing to sink wells in the Cold Bay district, and it is not expected that actual drilling for oil will start until the fore part of February. On the question of fake oil companies now selling thousands of dollars worth of stock in this city, Mr. Kerry said:

"While the strongly financed and dominating oil companies in this country today expect to discover oil in commercial quantities in Alaska, no other small fry oil company is in the field spending a dollar in development, nor do any of them expect to do so. Yet the circulars of fake Alaska oil companies are flooding the local market, and their stock will never be worth a dollar."

Mr. Kerry's Westward Development Company's interest in Alaska oil lands has been manifested in inducing the Standard Oil and the Associated Oil Companies to get into Alaska and drill. His company's objects having been accomplished, have ended there.

ADMITS LOVE FOR SLAIN CHUM'S WIFE

BAY CITY, Mich., Jan. 13.—Admitting his love for the wife of the man he is alleged to have murdered, Harold H. Mendell declares he will seek out the young woman, of whose whereabouts he is now unaware, as soon as he is free.

Mendell was charged with slaying his chum, Rollin Morgan, after the latter's body was retrieved from the Kawkawlin River, buried, then disinterred and re-examined.

"I loved Patty the first time I saw her; then my wife put me up to kissing her," Mendell declares.

Expects Release
The accused man confidently expects to be released.

"I'll see Patty again," Mendell declared recently. "If she does not come to me I'll go to her some way." Mrs. Morgan is reported to be in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Mendell blames his wife for getting him into his present predicament.

"She got me into it first, even though unintentionally," he said. Discussing his love for Patty, he said: "When you have lost your heart to a girl, when she has taken possession of your soul, you love her so much you would die for her, yet find the holding arm of the conventions—the desire to kiss her is in you, oh, so much!—then she up and kisses you it's all over!"

Blames Husband
Morgan encouraged him to be friendly with Mrs. Morgan, Mendell declares.

"He was a person who liked to have one admire and be chummy with his wife," he said. "Then he would tease her about whoever happened to be their mutual friend. But Patty was always true and faithful to Rollin. Oh, how I wish I could see her!"

There are many obstacles in the way of Mendell's anticipated release, however. First, there is an investigation into Mendell's sanity by a commission of two physicians, and if he is found sane there will be a murder charge.

Mendell appeared greatly agitated when told that his sanity was to be tested. He said that his memory, save for some minor occurrences since the arrest, was clear and well defined.

"My trouble shows to what length a woman will go in her efforts to get revenge," he said. "I have been married 14 years, but I would not care to predict what my own wife might do on impulse. This charge against me looks like the work of a jealous woman. Yet I do not honestly believe my wife is responsible for it."

MASONIC MEETING

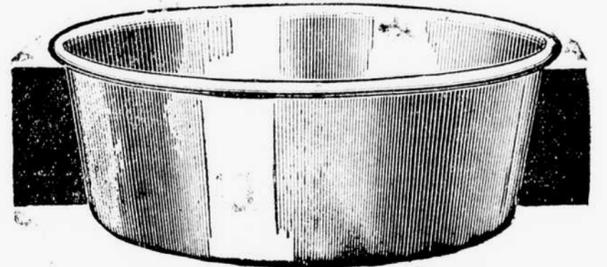

There will be a special communication of Mt. McKinley Lodge, No. 183, F. & A. M., Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Work in first and third degrees.

H. W. ACHISON, Secy.

Send the Daily Times to your friends outside.

SPECIAL SALE

WEAR-EVER ALUMINUM PUDDING PANS

50 Cents Each WHILE THEY LAST

Finkelstein & Sapiro

"The Store That Satisfies"

Grocery 21

—PHONES—

Office 74

Beginning Monday Jan. 8

We are offering all of our odd suits at 20% reduction, sizes 36 to 42.

Also all of our odd overcoats at the same reduction.

Every one of these suits and overcoats are good patterns and very serviceable.

Seeing is believing—come.

The Blum-O'Neill Co.

The House of Kuppenheimer Good Clothes
Note—There is none of the Kuppenheimer suits and overcoats in these lots.

YOU'LL KNOW YOUR CLOTHES ARE RIGHT WHEN YOUR FRIENDS INQUIRE

Who's Your Tailor?

Copyright 1921 by Ed. V. Price & Co.

As Individual as you are

From the bolt of cloth to the finished suit, we tailor your clothes perfectly to the contour of your form. Every suit and overcoat tailored to your individual measurements.

Only through such service can you receive such fine quality for so little cost.

E. V. Price & Co.

Tailoring for Men

Laurie Bros.

The Home of Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes