James Wilson, of Iowa. Mr. L. Bourgeois, seniormember of the Wav land mercantile firm of Bourgeois Bros., was a welcome ca ler to The Echo | Evans office vesterday. As will be seen in our advertising columns, the recent destruct i :n by fire of this firm's establishment will not interrupt their business. The origin of the tire is unknown. The loss, at lowest estimate, amounts to $7,500; insurance only $4,500. Messrs. Bourgeois are progressive and active business men and we predict that they will soon build up their flourishing business again in short order.

The Echo takes pleasure in presenting this week to the voters of Hancock county the name of Ferdinand H, Egloff for the office of treasurer, the announcement appearing on this page. Mr. Egloff is a young man whose high integrity and lofty character personally and politically would justify the saying of anything in this candidate's favor that otherwise might appear extravagant. LOGTOWN HIGH SCHOOL,

An Institute For Both Sexes. Non-Sectarian.

It is the purpose of this school to educate boys and girls for usefulness; to lay a solid foundation tion for practical life; to teach self-reliance; to qualify young teachers for their profession. This school offers advantages equal to any school on the coast. Your boy will be removed from the experience of the school of the effects of cities and railroad towns. This being strictly a manufacturing center, no encouragement. There are no wild-cat or floating saloons, in fact nothing of a nature to at tract the minds of young people from their studies. Church facilities are good and Sunday School unsurpassed. Good moral principles must be observed. Strict discipline will be maintained throughout the term: Pupils will not be allowed to loaf at night or be permitted to be absent from school without good cause. Your child will be carefully looked after at all times by the teachers. By our methods of teaching study is a pleasure and not a task. We teach pupils how to think and act for themselves. Our methods are natural methods and, therefore quickes chended. Dilligent application and thoroughness of work, is our motto. ecial advatages to those expecting to teach.
