

SENATOR PAT HARRISON WINS PRAISE OF MANY EDITORS.

Mississippi's Junior Senator Continues in Limelight for Aggressiveness.

Jackson News says: "Senator Pat Harrison, of Mississippi remains in the limelight in the Northeast. Recently he was dubbed the 'Democratic Gadfly' by the Springfield, (Mass.) Republican, and later the 'Stonewall Jackson' of the Senator minority by Mark Sullivan of the New York Evening Post. Sullivan also referred to Pat Harrison as the 'light horse cavalry' of the Democratic senate. The Washington Star in a recent editorial carried on 'Harrison of Mississippi' the following: 'Keep your eye, suggest the politicians in the know, on the junior senator from Mississippi. 'The Honorable Pat Harrison is one of the young members of the Senate. He has just turned forty. 'He made his mark' in the House, where for several terms he displayed industry, shrewdness and audacity—three necessary qualities in politics. Promotion came in the form of his present office. He defeated Mr. Vardaman, at one time the most popular man in the Bayou state. 'In the Senate Mr. Harrison has come rapidly to the front. Not an orator, in the accepted sense of the word, he is yet a ready and effective speaker, which is more, in the general run of political activity. He catches and holds a crowd with ease, and secures with equal ease attention in the senate. 'Last year Mr. Harrison was prominent at San Francisco. Originally a McAdoo boomer, he turned to Governor Cox when McAdoo announced that he was not a candidate for the presidency, and was one of the Ohio man's most successful workers in the convention. He contributed largely toward putting the Buckeye over. 'This year Mr. Harrison is his party's stump speaker in the senatorial contest in New Mexico, and if the party wins he will be accorded much of the credit for the victory. 'Mr. Harrison does not, and will not, figure in any presidential gossip on his own account. The Democracy does not go South for its supreme leadership. But as he stands very near to Democrats of prominence in all sections and is particularly acceptable as an adviser to those now in charge of the party's national organization, there is well warranted speculation about the part he will be likely to play in organization work in 1924, when the best work will be in demand at the Democratic headquarters."

REFUSES TO BURY SON.

Father Keeps Remains of Boy Killed in France at Home.

STATESVILLE, N. C. Sept. 23.—With a casket draped in an American flag and resting on chairs in the little home, John P. Speaks, of Union Grove township, near here, refuses to bury the body of his son, Thomas B. Speaks, who was killed in action in France on October 4th, 1918, and whose body arrived here on the 1st day of August.

Following the arrival of the body the father, to satisfy himself that the casket contained the remains of his son, had the casket opened. Mr. Speaks identified the skeleton as that of his son by the shape of the teeth and dental work with which he was familiar.

The coffin was then sealed and placed in the little home.

When the county welfare office and the Sheriff of Iredell County visited the Speaks home to ascertain if it was insanitary to keep the casket in the house, Mr. Speaks told them he did not want to bury the body unless he had to do so.

"I prefer to fix a place in or near the house," Mr. Speaks is quoted as having said, "and keep him until I am dead, and have his bones buried with me."

"No action was taken by the county authorities to force Mr. Speaks to bury the body."

Native of Hancock County Dies at New Orleans.

Captain John Boardman, for more than half a century a familiar figure on the Mississippi and adjacent streams, died at New Orleans Monday in his eightieth year. He commanded a number of the best known boats in the river trade and was part owner of several boats. Recently he had been with the board of steam inspections. He was born in Gainesville, Miss., and had a gallant record as a Confederate veteran. Captain Boardman was well-known in the Pearl river section of this county, where he was born and lived for many years and his passing away will be read with concern.

CLEAN-UP SQUAD IS COMING TO BAY ST. LOUIS.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 19, 1921. Mr. C. G. Moreau, Editor, The Sea Coast Echo, Bay St. Louis, Miss.

Dear Sir: The Clean-up Squad of the Veterans' Bureau will be in your city on October 12 and 13. The object of the Squad's visit is to establish personal contact with as many ex-service men as possible who may have a disability as a result of their service in the World War, and to aid them in filing claims for Compensation and Vocational Training.

I will appreciate it very much if you will publish this article in your edition next Saturday, September 30 and October 8th.

We must depend largely upon the press in order to reach the disabled men. We feel sure that you are in sympathy with what we are trying to do and will be glad to aid by publishing the enclosed article.

Respectfully,
J. C. BARNES,

In charge of Publicity, Clean-up Drive, Veterans Bureau, 414 New Hibernia Bank Building.

The article referred to above follows:

"The following itinerary has been arranged for the Clean-up Squad in Mississippi:

Tylertown, September 22 and 23. Prentiss, September 24 and 25. Collins, September 27 and 28. Hattiesburg, September 29 and 30. Purvis, October 3 and 4.

Poplarville, October 5 and 6. Wiggins, October 7 and 8. Gulfport, October 10 and 12. Bay St. Louis, October 12 and 13.

Now is the time to notify all ex-service men in your locality who may have a disability as a result of their service in the World War to be present when the Squad arrives in order to have their claims properly filed.

The purpose of this drive is to fully advise all Ex-Service Men of their rights under the War Risk Act and the Rehabilitation Act.

Since the signing of the Sweet Bill on August 10th, the Bureau of War Risk Insurance and the Federal Board for Vocational Training have been merged into what will be known in the future as the Veterans Bureau.

The Clean-up Squad will fully advise all Ex-Service Men of their rights to Compensation, Hospitalization, Insurance and Training, and assist them in filing their claims for Compensation and Training. They will be fully advised as to what methods to pursue in order to secure medical treatment, provided they are suffering from a disability due to or traceable to their service in the World War. Men who are suffering to such an extent that they are in need of hospital treatment, and where it can be shown that the disability is due to their service, if they have not already filed a claim for compensation, the Squad will assist them in filing this claim. If the claimant is suffering from a disease or disability and is in need of hospital treatment, if he has not already filed a claim for compensation, he will be permitted to do so and transportation will be issued to him so that he may go to the nearest hospital for treatment.

Colonel Dallas B. Smith, District Manager of the Veterans' Bureau at New Orleans, is anxious to clean-up all outstanding cases. The Squad will be in the field approximately three months and it is the intention of Colonel Smith to visit every county in the states of Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana.

If you know a man who has a disability as a result of his service, you can assist him by telling him of the Squad, so that he may be present when they arrive in his town. Be sure to tell all men to bring their discharges, marriage certificates and birth certificates of their dependent children. This is very important.

Your American Legion Post, your Red Cross Chapter or your postmaster can give you information relative to this drive. Have a big crowd out when the Squad reaches your city. The Bureau is anxious to clean up all outstanding claims. Now is the opportunity to file your claim against the Government that you served.

Hymel is Star for St. Stanislaus.

The St. Stanislaus College baseball team of Bay St. Louis defeated the J. M. Parker team of New Orleans, last Sunday at the College campus by the score of 12 to 1. The game was never in doubt from the beginning to the last. Hymel, pitching for St. Stanislaus, struck out 17 men and walked but two during the contest. The first seven men who faced Hymel went back to the bench via the strike out route. Hymel also starred at bat, securing two triples out of four trips to the plate. The visitors secured but four hits while St. Stanislaus players hit for twelve.

Hymel, who is a Bay St. Louis boy, and who has already "made good" playing all summer through Louisiana, was given a rousing reception on his first appearance on the local diamond since quite a while. He is a wonderful pitcher and the spectator marvels at his work.

The Sea Coast Echo is in receipt of an official communication from the United States Civil Service at Washington, requesting that announcement be made to the effect that an open competitive examination will be held in Bay St. Louis on Saturday, October 8th, 1921 to fill the office of postmaster at Logtown, this county, salary $1200 per annum. This examination is to be held under a recent act, and further information may be had at the local post-office.

Teach Young Bull to Lead.

A bull that is to be kept for service should be taught to lead while he is a small calf. He can be halter broken at this time with a few minutes' effort. He should not only be taught to lead without a tight rope, but also should be taught to stand. If given this lesson while young, in after life, when he is led out for visitors to look over or to be photographed, he makes a much better appearance.

BETTER SCHOOL WEEK FOR MISSISSIPPI, OCTOBER 10-15.

Interesting Speakers Will Visit Every Town in State Urging Improvements in Schools.

The state department of education of which W. F. Bond, of Jackson, has charge, will send out speakers to all parts of the state during "Better School Week," when those in charge of the schools and do all in their power to improve the education of the children attending them.

Among the things to be urged will be better trained teachers, better buildings, a good library, a completion of studies, within a minimum school term of seven months. This has already been accomplished in the Biloxi schools under the direction of Superintendent Claude Bennett, and in the schools at Gulfport over which Prof. R. G. Butler has charge. In these two cities large sums of money have been expended in the improvement of the buildings and the teaching corps, all being done for the welfare of the children.

These speakers will come to the coast this week, however, when they will be received by large audiences, and shown about the different schools and will be the means of their making to Jackson an excellent report of their findings on the Mississippi coast separate school districts.

County Teachers' Association Holds First Meeting of 1921-22 Session.

One of the largest and most interesting teachers' meeting on record in Hancock County, was held at the Courthouse, in Bay St. Louis, on September 17, 1921.

Almost every teacher and trustee of the county was present.

During the business session many new resolutions were introduced and passed.

A step towards progressiveness was taken when the association was divided into Primary, Intermediate and High School departments, thereby offering a special interest for every teacher.

Mr. Chas. G. Moreau, editor of The Sea Coast Echo, has offered a page in his weekly paper to be used entirely for school work. This offer having been accepted every teacher in the county is asked to send in school notes, announcements, etc.

The officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: J. D. Everett, president. Mrs. W. Stockstill, vice president. T. E. Kellar, Treasurer. Rita Breath, Secretary.

A most enjoyable lunch was served to the members and guests of the association by Mesdames Eagan, Saucier, McMillan, Stevens and others.

The next meeting will take place at Kiln, Miss., on Saturday, October 15th, 1921.

All teachers and trustees of the County are urged to be present. RITA BREATH, Secretary.

Work on Local Highway Progressing.

According to information furnished by George P. Purcell, who is stationed at Rigolais, La., and who comes to Biloxi every week to visit with his wife and family, work upon the highway from the Chef Menteur to Slidell, La., in St. Tammany parish is progressing nicely under A. G. Thomas the contractor in charge. It will be a shelled road and will furnish a route in which automobilists may reach New Orleans in quicker time than now. It is expected that the construction work will be completed so that traffic may use it either by way of Bay St. Louis and Logtown or from Pass Christian and Poplarville by late fall months.
