Rules Governing the Contest

Anyone is eligible provided conditions set forth below are complied with, but the right is reserved to reject any objectional nominations.

No votes can be transfered from one candidate to another after once registered.

Every candidate should be regularly nominated on the blank printed in this paper. Ballots sent in for names not so nominated will be destroyed uncounted.

Two coupons will be printed in The Record every week while the contest is on. These will be dated and must be received at The Record office on or before the expiration of the date thereon to be good. Coupons must be sent to the Contest Manager of The Roundup Record, or deposited in the ballot box in front of The Record office.

No employe of The Record office will be eligible as a candidate.

Any questions or controversies that may arise are to be decided by the Contest Manager.

The highest vote cast will have first choice of prizes, the next highest has second choice and so on down the list.

In case of a tie for any one of the prizes the contestants so tied must draw lots to decide the matter. The loosing candidate in such drawing shall be declared the winner of the next lowest prize.

The Record reserves the right to make any changes or additions to the above conditions as may be deemed necessary in the interests of the contestants.

In entering the contest, all candidates must accept and agree to abide by the above rules.
