Belle Prairie Prognostications

Miss Martha Hilliard is suffering from an attack of typhoid fever.

A reception was given Worth Vanderhoef and bride at the home of Walter Vanderhoef, brother of the groom, on Friday evening, July 17th. About 40 friends and relatives were present. The evening was spent in congratulating the newly wed and dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Faust and sister-in-law of Glendive were callers Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Mead and nieces of Glendive were callers with C. E. Griffin Sunday at the Homestake Ranch.

Everybody is busy haying now. The crop is nothing extra as the grass is short and thin.

Miss Martha and Raymond Eisenbart and J. McGuire were visitors Sunday with C. E. Griffin.

Charlie Arnold had a very bad runaway Saturday and one of the horses was cut all to pieces about the neck and shoulders in the wire fence. It cannot be worked again this summer.

The baby of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Griffin of Glendive was bitten by a dog last week at the home of its grandmother, Mrs. Ward. At last reports no danger was anticipated.

The measles and mumps have been going the rounds lately in this vicinity.

About 65 friends and neighbors gathered at the Richardson ranch Sunday and enjoyed an old-fashioned picnic. Everybody reported a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Vanderhoef and Worth Vanderhoef and bride were Sunday evening callers at the home of their uncle, Mason Vanderhoef.

C. E. Griffin improved his ranch this season by setting out five or six hundred more trees, which are growing nicely and bid fair to be a fine grove some day.

Brief and Breezy

Mr. Bryan's assertion that the Republican platform repudiates Rooseveltism will mildly surprise the people who thought Mr. Roosevelt wrote it.

No doubt the colored brethren in Granddeltexas appreciated the distinguished honor of being lynched in bunches of nine.

"What will Roosevelt do after March 4 next?" inquired a contemporary. A number of people in this country have long wondered if there is anything he won't do provided the notion to do it strikes him.

Luke Wright the new Sec. of War belongs to that wing of the Democratic party which has contracted the habit of voting the Republican ticket.

The "Life of Taft" published, will probably look like a greatly enlarged edition of "Around the World in Eighty Days."

That Chicago woman who died after fasting forty days must have saved enough on her meat bill to pay her funeral expenses.

One can have very little sympathy for that Indiana banker who was sent to jail for stealing a horse when automobiles are so plentiful now.

The Fourth of July is the one day when the President of the United States is not regarded the big noise.

According to the packers, beef has gone up because of the scarcity of cattle. A good many of us thought it was because money is becoming too plentiful.

Capt. Hobson's 1912 Presidential boom appears to have collapsed entirely. However the captain has plenty of time and plenty of room to grow.

It is reported that wives may be purchased for $5 each in certain parts of Asia. The first cost of a wife, however is usually a relatively unimportant matter.

Some of the Johnson boomers think their man is certain of the nomination in 1912. That conviction takes no account of one William J. Bryan, whose candidacy, time cannot wither, custom stale or defeat discourage.

A Niagara Falls man has announced that he will shoot the whirlpool rapids in canoe. If he wants to commit suicide he will find shooting the rapids just as effective as shooting himself.

What is the best fiction? asks a journal devoted to literary uplift. Well, the kind some men hand their wives in the wee sma' hours of the morning commands our admiration all right.

What is more delightful than a cool spell between hot waves?

In due time Mr. Bryan will learn that the Republicans do not admire his platform a bit more than he does Mr. Taft's.

Mr. Bryan may find consolation in the thought that he does not have to run on the Chicago platform.

The near-prominent citizen, who has voted his party ticket all his life, but is going to switch this year and support Taft or Bryan, as the case may be is already getting his name in the papers, just as he does every four years.

About To Enter Frozen North.

New York, July 19.—The Arctic-bound steamer Roosevelt has crossed the Gulf of St. Lawrence and was about to enter the Straits of Belle Isle at 6:00 o'clock tonight. This report was contained in a message to the Associated press from Commander Peary, which read: "Point Amour, via Cape Race, N. F., July 19.—Arrived Point Amour light at 6:00 p. m., Sunday. Fine weather. Good run across gulf. Prospects of a clear night through the straits. All well.—Peary."

Point Amour upon which is located the lighthouse to which Commander Peary refers, is a headland on the southeast side of Forteau bay, Labrador.

Can't Drink Out Of Own Flask.

New Orleans, July 20.—Drinking, even out of one's own flask, in passenger trains in Louisiana constitutes a misdemeanor punishable by a fine or imprisonment, or both, according to a new state law which went into effect today.

After a hard fight a section was added making the law inapplicable to stimulants taken with meals in regular dining car.

Trainmen are vested with the authority of officers.

The Wylie Permanent Camping Company.

Trips Through Yellowstone Park Until Sept. 15th.

What some of our 1907 tourists thought of the trip:

"Delightful and jolly yerowds."

"All formality disappeared."

"Courteous, careful and thoughtful service."

"I have never dealt with a company that was more universally considerate and courteous in every respect."

"The service was all that the most fastidious could desire."

"All the attractions of camp life with none of its drawbacks."

"The matrons of the different camps vied with each other in their hospitality."

"Drivers were so polite and painstaking to point out the special objects of interest."

"They do not rush through, but take pains to show and explain."

"The Wylie people furnish such good meals, comfortable, clean beds, sanitary tents."

"A system without red tape."

"If a person really wants to have an 'outing,' meet nice people and come back home feeling ten years younger, why, join the Wylie party."

If you want to read the letters from which these expressions are taken, see some of the pictures of the Park, and learn all about the way to make the trip, call on or write to our Agent, Miss Mary Osborne, Glendive, Montana, who will give you a handsome illustrated folder and arrange reservations.

Perfect Malt Extract

Digesto is a combination of the highest grade imported hops, the choicest selections of barley, and pure artesian water.

Digesto

MALT EXTRACT

is not only a most efficient vitalizer and producer of new blood and tissue but the absence of that sweet taste, common to most Malt Extracts, makes it extremely palatable as well. It is invaluable to convalescents, nursing mothers, business men, tired out women, and workers of all kinds.

The continued use of Digesto is productive of the best results.
