The D. C. H. S. football team defeated the Sidney High School team at Sidney last Saturday by a score of 46 to 6. Dougherty at left half played a star game. The trip to Sidney was made by automobiles, the team returning after the game.

A new refrigerator for the kitchen in the domestic science room was received from the Enterprise Furniture Co., last week.

The Mechanical Drawing class is using a different course of study this year from the one used last year. Tracing paper and blue print paper have been ordered. After these supplies arrive the pupils will be given some practical work in blue print making which will help them in their shop work.

DAWSON HIGH SCHOOL WINS AT SIDNEY

In the first game of the season away from home the D. C. H. S. football team gave a good account of themselves at Sidney last Saturday.

46 to 6 was the final score and indicates quite clearly that the local school is developing something of a team. The Glendive boys made the trip by auto, leaving here at about 8:30 A. M. and reached Sidney in about two hours.

The game was hard fought and desperate from start to finish and although the Glendive boys showed the advantage of a little experience, Sidney was game and contested every play desperately. Indeed we may feel regret that the score was as large as it was if we consider the long, tire-some ride and the extreme and even unjust partisanship of the Sidney crowd. Sidney surely turned out in force to see the game and cheer their boys on, the gate receipts being over $75.

The Sidney boys averaged about the same as the locals in size and some of their men showed up strongly. Sieg and Harry Johnson also smashed the Sidney line and got around the ends for gains. Cavanaugh at center for Glendive played a star game both offensively and defensively and gave Sidney plenty of cause to remember him. Volse at end and Kinney and Ebenhart at guards also played the game every minute. On the whole great improvement was shown over last Saturday's game at Wibaux and with another week's practice the boys feel confident of beating Miles City, which game will be played at the local ball park on Saturday.

Miles City has a fast, strong and experienced team and a great game is sure to be staged. The local boys are putting in a hard week's practice and feel hopeful of winning. Come out and help Glendive keep up her "rep." in beating Miles.

CONGRESSMAN EVANS REPLIES TO BRINSON

The following is a copy of a letter written by Congressman John M. Evans to James M. Brinson, under date of October 8th, which will be of particular interest to the voters of the state. It plainly shows how utterly impossible it is for our congressmen to do any personal campaigning in view of the demand for their services in Washington:

Hon. James M. Brinson, Butte, Montana.
My dear Sir: I beg to acknowledge receipt of your favor of September 30th, suggesting the advisability of a series of joint debates between us during the present campaign, and in reply I will say that it appeals to me that such a proceeding might be a source of some enlightenment to the voters of Montana, but at the present time the situation is such that I could give you no encouragement on the subject.

Congress is still in session, and it is my judgment there will be no adjournment before the 20th of the month and possibly later. That being the case it would be rather late to arrange such a series of discussions. I have no doubt your own discussion of the political issues of the day will be illuminating to the people of the state, and I regret that I cannot enjoy the privilege of joining with you. I feel, however, that so long as Congress remains in session it is my duty to stay here and uphold the hands of the President and assist in the administration which is now so successfully guiding the country, and up to date at least has kept it from entanglement or the possibility of complications in the greatest war the world has ever seen. Aside from my larger duties which require a goodly portion of my time on the floor of the House, I have voluntarily assumed the obligation of assisting several thousands of homesteaders in Montana in their land matters. In response to personal letters sent to these people I am daily in receipt of from fifty to one hundred appeals for my cooperation, and under all the circumstances I feel that I can best serve the people of my State by remaining at my post at least until Congress has adjourned, even should such a procedure militate against my political fortunes.

I beg to assure you that if the people should choose you to succeed me that you will receive a cordial welcome at my hands when you come here next March, and I shall turn over to you all the records and papers and all unfinished matters, and I indulge in the belief that you will find yourself very busy during the ensuing two years.

With assurances of my high esteem, I am

Very respectfully,
JOHN M. EVANS

COLONEL HULL OPTIMISTIC.

In an interview which the Monitor man had on Tuesday with Colonel Hull, the Great Northern R. R. right of way man, the position of that great railroad system in extending their construction work at this time was plainly shown.

From Col. Hull's remarks it would seem that the people of Montana are indeed fortunate in having such a great transportation system as the Great Northern traverse its territory, inasmuch as it seems to hold, in concurrence with the N. P. Ry., the optimistic idea that now is the best time to extend its lines and branches instead of waiting for the cessation of the European war.

The idea of the Great Northern system in pushing their construction work at this time, as plainly expressed by Col. Hull, seems to be the necessity of moving the immense crops that Montana will have to raise its share of for foreign consumption within the coming year.

The European war has resulted in a complete cessation of all agricultural pursuits on a large scale, which condition will result in an extraordinary demand for American wheat, rye, corn and other small grains, and it is in anticipation of this demand that the Great Northern railroad is pushing its Montana railroad work to early completion, especially the line from New Rockford to Lewistown, which will open up some of the finest agricultural land in the country.

Clerk of School District No. 18, Dawson County, Montana. 36-4t.

COMPENSATION AND THE FARMER

Union Workingmen and Agriculturists Always Stand Economically Opposed to Each Other.

Some of the labor unions of Montana are endeavoring to hoodwink the farmers of the state into supporting the compensation bill, Initiative Measure No. 7, by representing the worker and the farmer as in a united attitude against the manufacturing and industrial enterprises of the state.

The farmer produces what the nation eats and wears. He wants to get as much for these things as he can. The workingman and all other classes consume what the farmer produces. They want to get these things as cheap as they can. We submit that the interests of the farmer and the workingman lie along paths, which run in exactly opposite direction.

The farmer who casts a vote for the compensation bill is voting for the man who would rather see him get ten cents a bushel less for his wheat, than five cents a bushel more, and he is also voting to increase his own taxes and cost of living.
