DEMOCRATS IN COUNCIL.

They Nominates a Ticket and Adopt Resolutions.

The delegates to the democratic county convention assembled in the room of the Livingston democratic club Saturday morning. Sixteen of the twenty-one precincts were represented as shown by roll call in selection of committees.

The convention was called to order promptly at 10 a. m. by Judge J. A. Savage, chairman of the county central committee, who briefly stated the object for which the delegates were assembled. He urged the necessity of careful and deliberate action in the selection of candidates, cautioning them against permitting personal prejudices to actuate them in naming a ticket, which duty should be performed solely with a view to securing competency and availability. He believed that a better opportunity is presented for democratic success than ever before in the history of Park county, and to substantiate this belief reasserted the bewhiskered statement employed by the democratic minority almost from time immemorial, that the people are tired of the present management of county affairs and demand a change for the better.

The give club, composed of six republican voters and one democrat, was then called upon and responded by a song entitled "For or Grover," which was received with enthusiastic approval.

On Altimus' motion Harvey Bliss of Big Timber was chosen temporary chairman, and escorted to the chair by Messrs. Carey and Roth. He was introduced to the convention by Judge Savage, and upon assuming the duties of the position thanked the convention for the honor conferred, pledging his best efforts to preside in an impartial manner. The temporary organization was completed by the selection of D. O'Shea of Red Lodge as secretary and Daniel Short of Livingston as assistant secretary.

On motion of Roth the convention voted to proceed to the selection of a committee, consisting of one member from each precinct, on permanent organization and order of business. This brought W. T. Field to the floor with a protest that the convention was too previous in selecting such committee and moved that a committee on credentials be first appointed to determine the membership of the convention. The suggestion was accepted and a committee on credentials selected by the several delegations as follows:

Livingston, 1st precinct, H. McDonald; 2nd precinct, W. H. Duke; 3rd precinct, W. O. Malahan; Hunters Hot Springs, John Officer; Richmond, M. E. Wilson; Cascade, Jerome Cobb; Horr, H. C. Jewett; Cokedale, Charles Ackemire; Big Timber, O. M. Hatch; Sweetgrass, W. A. Harrison; Cooke, H. A. Kearns; Springdale, W. E. Fryer; Chico, Peter Baer; Red Lodge, S. E. Dullard; Meyersburg, C. M. Lovey; Fridley, Charles Turley.

It was then declared in order to proceed with the selection of a committee on permanent organization and order of business, and a roll call of the precincts resulted in the choice of the following: W. T. Field, J. W. Patton, M. Roth, John Officer, J. A. Lovely, Jerome Cobb, Paul Becker, H. V. DeHart, Frank Bliss, W. A. Harrison, H. A. Kearns, W. E. Fryer, S. T. Marchington, Charles Turley, I. P. McDonald, S. O. N. C. Brady.

On motion of W. T. Field the chair was instructed to appoint a committee of five on resolutions and platform. This proceeding was objected to by George L. Carey, who believed that the adoption of resolutions in advance of the state convention would be premature. He thought the convention should await the adoption of a state platform, which the party would be expected to endorse, and that such platform should not be anticipated by the county convention.

Judge Lee of Big Timber believed the delegates to the county convention were competent to formulate a platform upon which the fight should be made in Park county, especially at a time when prospects were favorable for electing at least a portion of the ticket. This view seemed to meet the almost unanimous approval of the convention, as there was not a dissenting vote upon Mr. Field's motion. The chair accordingly named the following a such committee: George L. Carey, Al. Harris, Thos. K. Lee, Thos. S. Ash and Joseph E. Swindlehurst.

Upon reassembling the convention was called to order at 2 p. m. by Chairman Bliss, who announced a song by the give club. "Three Black Crows" was rendered in a manner that elicited vociferous applause. The report of the committee on credentials was then called for, read and accepted.

In the absence of regularly accredited delegates, alternates were substituted as follows: Martin Wilson in Livingston first precinct, and J. A. Savage in Livingston second precinct.

On nomination of Field it was decided to let chairman of delegation cast full vote of precinct where any vacancies occurred in such delegation.

The committee on permanent organization and order of business reported, recommending that temporary officers be made permanent, and suggested the following order of business, which was accepted: First—nomination of state legislature; second—members of the state legislature; third—sheriff; fourth—treasurer; fifth—clerk and recorder; sixth—assessor; seventh—clerk of district court; eighth—attorney; ninth—three commissioners; tenth—superintendent of schools; eleventh—public administrator; twelfth—coroner; thirteenth—surveyor; fourteenth—selection county central committee; fifteenth—chairman of central committee; sixteenth—secretary of central committee.

The committee on resolutions reported as follows:

1. Be it Resolved, That we, the democrats of Park county in convention assembled, reaffirm our steadfast allegiance to the principles of the democratic party, and heartily endorse the platform adopted by the National democratic convention held at Chicago, and hold, in common with all democrats, that "a public office is a public trust."

2. Resolved, That we present the administration of Grover Cleveland as a sample of clean and honest government, and hail with gladness the reassuring prospects of a National democratic victory in 1892.

3. Resolved, That we point with pride to the splendid record and brilliant services of the Hon. W. W. Dixon, who has shown him-elf a congressman for the whole state and a man of the people.

4. Resolved, That we hereby express our disapproval of the inefficient, extravagant and wasteful administration of county affairs in Park county, which, while taxing the people to the limit of endurance, has further impoverished them with a debt of more than one hundred thousand dollars, for which the people have received nothing in return, except the continuing spectacle of two poor farms.

The reading of these resolutions was so pleasing to the convention, especially that portion that denoted further management of county affairs by republican officials, that it was deemed advisable to have the platform adopted by a rising vote, and on motion of Roth the delegates all promptly responded to this suggestion.

This composed the preliminary part of the proceedings and all that remained was to go through with the prearranged programme of naming the victims who, for most part, had been induced to imolate themselves upon the party altar after earnest solicitation of the chief fuglemen.

T. P. McDonald named Dr. J. M. Fox of Red Lodge as a proper person to don the senatorial toga, and there being no one else desirous of the empty honor of a nomination, his choice was, on motion of M. Roth, made unanimously by acclamation.

For members of the legislature J. A. Savage named Thomas S. Ash of Livingston, W. B. Altimus named W. T. Field of this city, and M. Roth placed before the convention the name of J. R. Hathorn of the upper Yellowstone.

The fact that for these positions more candidates were named than the offices to be filled presented a novel situation in a democratic convention in Park county, and a lively discussion ensued as to the method of procedure. Numerous motions were made, some of which were seconded and others not, until the convention had involved itself in a parliamentary snarl, in the midst of which an admirer of Paul Mahoney arose and suggested his availability as a candidate for the legislature. That gentleman accepted the suggestion with sufficient gravity to warrant his attention and promptly declined with thanks. This interruption apparently wiped out all previous motions, when S. T. Marchington moved that nominations be closed.

The motion was carried, and the convention, on motion of M. Roth, seconded by George L. Carey, proceeded to ballot for one candidate, it having been tacitly agreed that Livingston was entitled to one and the other precincts to the other. O. M. Hatch and John Lenihan were appointed tellers. A ballot resulted in Ash receiving 38 votes, Field 21 and Hathorn 2. Ash having received a majority of all the votes was declared a nominee of the convention, and upon motion of Field the nomination of J. R. Hathorn was made unanimously by acclamation as the candidate of the county precincts.

For sheriff, T. P. McDonald named J. M. Conrow of Missoula, and there being no other aspirants, on motion of M. Roth, he was nominated unanimously by acclamation.

County treasurer was the next office called, when D. Short named H. Dyer of Livingston. As there was no other nominations for the office the usual formality of placing Dyer upon the ticket by acclamation was gone through with, after which the chairman called the next order of business.

This was the nomination of a candidate for clerk and recorder, and it produced the first hitch in the otherwise harmoniously conducted programme. Roth named, and Peter Baer seconded, H. S. Potts for the position. Swindlehurst stated that Mr. Potts had changed his mind about being a candidate and authorized the speaker to decline the nomination for him. As no other available candidate was suggested this office was permitted temporarily to go by default, but before the convention finally adjourned W. T. Field of Livingston was induced to accept the empty honor.

For assessor George L. Carey nominated and O. M. Hatch seconded T. P. McDonald of Red Lodge. His nomination was made unanimous by acclamation.

For clerk of the district court M. Roth named J. A. Bailey of Livingston, seconded by O. M. Hatch and W. H. Duke. This nomination, on motion of J. E. Swindlehurst, was made unanimous by acclamation.

E. C. Day of Livingston was named by Dan O'Shea and seconded by W. B. Altimus for county attorney. This time it was upon motion of Dr. J. M. Fox that the nomination was made unanimous by acclamation.

Then came the selection of three candidates for county commissioner. T. K. Lee named Harvey Bliss of Big Timber, J. W. Patton wanted Ike W. Baker of Livingston, but Mr. Baker declined. W. T. Field named Charles Turley of Fridley, Dr. J. M. Fox placed in nomination M. Roth of Livingston, M. E. Wilson named I. E. Haines of the upper Yellowstone, and C. M. Lovey named J. H. Martin of Shields river. It was decided that Livingston should be accorded membership upon the county board and it was proposed to make Roth's nomination by acclamation. Several motions were made as to the manner of disposing of other candidates when it was finally decided to ballot for all candidates—each delegate to vote for three persons. A ballot was taken and resulted as follows: Bliss 60, Roth 52, Martin 25, Turley 38, Haines 11. As Messrs. Roth, Bliss and Turley received a majority of the vote of the convention they were duly declared the nominees.

For the office of school superintendent J. W. Patton named Mrs. Eva M. Hunter of Livingston. Al. Harris placed in nomination Miss Josie Duke, also of this city. A ballot was taken and resulted in the choice of Miss Duke by a vote of 46 to 14.

No available candidate could be found for the office of public administrator and that office was left for the central committee, who were empowered to name the candidate.

No better success seemed to await the convention in securing a candidate for the office of coroner, and it was likewise passed to the central committee. Later, however, F. A. Leopold of Livingston, consented to accept a place on the ticket and was unanimously and by acclamation permitted to lead this forlorn hope.

O. M. Hatch named George P. Urner of Big Timber, for the office of surveyor, and his nomination was made unanimously by acclamation.

The convention then proceeded to the selection of a county central committee, and on motion of M. Roth it was decided to call the roll of precincts and permit each delegation to name its own member. A roll call resulted in the choice of the following:

Livingston—1st precinct—F. Beley.
Livingston—2nd precinct—C. A. Crippen.
Livingston—3rd precinct—W. O. Malahan.

For chairman of the county central committee M. Roth placed in nomination J. E. Swindlehurst of Livingston, and W. B. Altimus named Frank Beley of this city. A ballot resulted in the choice of Swindlehurst by a vote of 40 to 18 for Beley.

On motion it was decided to permit the central committee to select its own secretary and appoint an advisory committee of three members to act in conjunction with that body, and a meeting of the committee for this object was called for Saturday night.

On motion of Roth a vote of thanks was tendered the chairman and secretary, and also the Livingston club for the use of its rooms, after which the convention adjourned.

Democratic State Convention.
The democratic state convention assembled at Great Falls Monday afternoon and was called to order by chairman T. E. Collins. Paul A. Fusz of Deer Lodge was chosen temporary chairman, and Edmond Norris of Beaverhead county, temporary secretary.

Committees on credentials, resolutions, and permanent organization and order of business were appointed, after which the convention adjourned until 10 a. m. The convention reassembled Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. The committee on permanent organization reported Joseph K. Toole for chairman, Ed. Norris of Beaverhead for secretary, and Frank Reter of Silver Bow assistant secretary. The committee on resolutions not being ready to report the convention proceeded with nominations, placing the following ticket in the field:

For congress, W. W. Dixon of Butte; governor, T. E. Collins of Great Falls; lieutenant-governor, Henry R. Milton of Beaverhead county; secretary of state, B. W. S. Folk of Missoula county; treasurer, Jesse Haston of Custer county; auditor, W. C. Whaley of Jefferson county; attorney general, E. C. Day of Park county; superintendent of public instruction, J. C. Mahoney of Madison county; chief justice, W. Y. Pemberton of Silver Bow county; clerk of the supreme court, John L. Sloan of Missoula county; presidential electors, A. W. Lyman of Lewis and Clarke county, Paul A. Fusz of Deer Lodge county and Walter Cooper of Gallatin county.

The Crow Commissioners.
The commissioners appointed to treat with the Crow Indians for the cession of that portion of the reserve lying west of the water shed between Pryor creek and Clark's Fork, met in this city Monday to formulate their report and forward it to the secretary of the interior. The commission consists of Hon. E. D. Weed of Helena, Major F. D. Pease of Livingston and Fred H. Foster of Billings. W. H. Schmitt of Helena is secretary of the commission.

The sessions of the commission were held in the court room until Tuesday evening when their labors were concluded and the report forwarded to the interior department. It is a voluminous document, but aside from the provisions of the treaty already made known contains little of interest to the public. The commissioners believe that no delay should now be experienced in opening up this portion of the reserve to settlement. Secretary Noble having pledged his personal attention to the matter upon his return to Washington, which will be some time during the coming week. The opinion is advanced that under favorable circumstances the president's proclamation throwing open this portion of the reserve will be issued not later than October 15th. Wednesday morning Messrs. Weed and Smith returned to Helena, while Major Pease and Mr. Foster remained until Tuesday evening to conclude matters pertaining to the commission outside of the report submitted to the interior department.

The commission was tendered a banquet at White's club rooms Monday evening by a number of the business men of the city.

The Emigrant District.
S. R. Hudson, writing to the Phillipsburg Mail, says: I sent you the result of the first assay ever made in Emigrant mining district from a piece of ore selected at random from a sack. It gave a result of 887 2-10 ounces silver per ton. I am driving a tunnel on the chloride location below to tap the same ore chute 25 feet deep. It will take 280 feet tunneling to reach the main chute. I will be on lode all the way, and of course taking out some ore all the time. I have several small seams of fine looking quartz in the face of the drift now, but the assays give rather light returns for handling such ore at the present price of silver. Ninety feet farther in the croppings show 246.50 gold and from $50 to $60 silver. A little farther up the mountain is the rich ore chute I am trying to reach with my tunnel. The course of this vein is northeast and southwest. The country rock is porphyry. I have four full locations which begin near the waters of Emigrant creek, and cross the summit of Mount Achrop, at an altitude of 3,200 feet above the creek; extending down the northeast slope to the Tulley creek there is a large dross on each side of the mountain. Following the vein at the foot of the mountain on the Emigrant side William McAdow has a big giant with 180 foot pressure tearing the clay bank down. This, I believe, is the best known placer ground in Emigrant. Besides the gold the bar also contains a vast amount of galena boulder, which, however, is a detriment to placer mining, as the mineral packs the riffles so full there is no room for the gold to lodge there.

The important strike for this section of country was recently made on Bismuth, or St. Julien property, by one of the owners, James Connell. They have six feet of beautiful gold quartz in the bottom of a new shaft that gives every indication of being one of the strongest fissure veins yet uncovered in eastern Montana.

Charles Buckle and Gus Romer have finished for the season on Mineral mountain, and are now taking out some very nice placer gold on their claim adjoining McAdow's.
