aid of gold. On the contrary, in the crisis of the greatest peril, it becomes an enemy more potent than the foe in the field; but when the battle is won and peace has been secured, gold reappears and claims the fruit of victory. In our own civil war it is doubtful if the gold of New York and London did not work us a greater injury than the powder and lead and iron of the rebels. It was the most invincible foe of the public credit. Gold paid no sailor. It was worth most when our fortunes were the lowest. Every defeat gave it increased value. It was in open alliance with our enemies the world over, and all its energies were evoked for our destruction. But as usual, when danger had been averted and victory secured, gold swaggered to the front and secured the supremacy."

THE CHAMPION DRILLERS. Return of Regan and Page from Denver to Butte.

Says the Inter-Mountain: The world's champions, Dennis Regan and William Page, who carried off everything in sight at the Denver rock drilling contest arrived home yesterday unheralded and unsung. Their comunheraided and unsung. Their coming was known only to a few, so that it was as innoticed as their departure to Denver. They got to Denver as best they could and landed there with very little money in their pockets. They were hardly noticed, while the contesting teams from the Lake Superior and Colorado mines entered Denver with flying colors in palace. Denver with flying colors in palace cars and a great flourish of trumpets, accompanied by enthusiastic delegations with their pockets filled with coin.

The Montana champions remained in the background until the great day, when they beat all competitors and claimed the trophies and honors for Montana. The prizes were a silver pick and hammer, and these are on exhibition at Miles Finer on exhibition at Miles Finer on exhibition at Miles Finer on Quartz street. The champions came home with only a few dollars in their pockets. They paid their own expenses to and from Denyer. Had the Leadville men won, Denver promised them a purse of $1,000. The friends of Regan and Page feel now that a testimonial fund ought to be raised for the champions in recognition for the honors they se cured for Butte in producing the champion rock drillers of the world. They are both men of family.

TIMBER LANDS.

More Trouble to Enjoy Legal Rights.

The laws of the land permit the use of timber in certain States and Territories for mining and domestic purposes. But the authorities at Washington never tire of imposing onerous conditions on the people for the enjoyment of a legal right. As for instance: Commissioner Carler of the General Land Office has issued a form of permit to be granted persons applying to cut timber from public lands. Among the stipulations is one forbidding the cutting of more than fifty per cent of timber of that class growing on an acre. A monthly statement under oath is required, giving descriptions of the tracts from which the timber is taken. No trees shall be cut or removed of less than a specified number of inches in diameter, except for a needed roadway through the timber. The person cutting the timber. The person cutting the timber is required to cut, remove, burn or otherwise dispose of the tops and brush of the trees, etc., to prevent forest fires, and will be held liable in damages for the surface of said county. But within the dissolved and that plaintiff and defendant be forever freed and absolutely released from all the obligations thereof and that plaintiff have the custody of the minor child, arthur Edward Fallon:

A Preventive for Cronp. We want every mother to know that croup can be prevented. True croup never appears without a warning. The first symptom is hoarseness; then the child appears to have taken a cold or a cold may have accompanied the hoarseness from the start. After that a peculiar rough cough is developed, which is followed by the croup. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse; a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will prevent the attack. Even after a rough cough has ap-peared the disease may be prevented by using this remedy as directed. It has never been known to fail. 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale by W. H. Stowell, Main street, Eureka, Nev.

The practically unanimous declaration of the Silver Congress in favor of the free and unlimited coinage, says the Denver Sun, cannot fail to exert much influence upon the decisions of the silver question. It will have a badly discouraging effect upon the movement for a compromise on the coinage of the American product. It is a pretty clear notifi-cation to the country that the silver men will take no backward step; that they will continue the fight for full remonetization ill they secure it.
