Secret of a Fair Face.

OR, THE

An Item of Interest to Every Lady who Desires to be More Beautiful than she now is.

Unfortunately not one woman in a hundred, sub-jected to the widnes of an American climate possess-es that besis and starting point of real beauty—a pure and clear complexion. What nature has thus denied, art must be called upon to furnish. It can be done; it is done daily. Prof. W. E. Hagan placed leauty within the reach of every unblessed daughter of Eve when he discovered that surprising article known in fashionable circles as the secret of beauty, and called a pure and blooming complexion. It conceals all natural blemishes in the most surprising and effective manner. It removes all roughness, eruptions, redness, blotches, freekles, and ian with magical power. It drives away all evidences of fatigue and ex-

The Magnotia Balm is a sure device for creating

It gives the complexion a dazzling purity and makes the neck, face, and arms appear graceful, rotund, and plump. It makes a matron of 35 or 40 look not more the 20 years old, and changes the rustic maiden cultivated city belle.

It makes the plainest face beautiful.

The Magnulia Baim removes all blemishes and con-ceals every drawback to beauty; and, while it is as horaless as water, it is so life-tike in its effects that the closest observer cannot detect its use. Ludies who want to make themselves attractive all things considered, and may be had at any drug
