HOTEL ARRIVALS.

ORMSBY HOUSE, SHARP BROTHERS PROPS.—N. P. Mattingly, Rosedale; W. L. Davis, J. Brown, J. Englebrecht, Virginia; S. B. Riffin, H. Brannschweig, San Francisco; G. O. Mains Sacramento, P. E. Davis, Oakland.

GOOD NEWS FOR THE LIBRARY FUND.—Deacon Parkinson has been away for some time in Bodie, and writes that he has extended the circulation of the Tribune, 200 in that section of the country. This is good news for the Ladies' Union, for whom the Deacon sold four tickets at four bits a piece for the benefit of the library fund. It will probably come along by express in a few days with the charges paid.

A HAPPY FAMILY.—Yesterday morning officers Hawthorne and Duncan, surprised ten tramps, who were lodged in some straw sheds near the old race track. They were rolled up in the straw and seemed as well contented as if they were wrapped up in Mission blankets on a feather bed. They were marched to Justice Cary's court where five being quite young were discharged, and the rest were sent to jail.

OUR DOLLY VARDEN AGAIN.

HE VENTILATES HIS IDEAS THROUGH THE APPEAL—A WORD FOR WARREN WASSON.

MR. EDITOR: I would like to know what has become of our Dolly Varden-Railroad-Blaine Club. I begin to fear that something is wrong. I am losing my faith in our organ, the Tribune and in the other leaders of our organization. Here is another primary election fight on hand and we as a club don't seem to be paying any attention to it, although primaries are our stronghold. I see in the APPEAL an advertisement signed by our Dolly Varden Central Committee Chairman, Warren Wasson, and it calls for the Democratic primaries this Saturday to elect delegates to the Winnemucca Convention. I blame the Chairman of our club for not having called us together to prepare for it. There are only 28 of us that ever voted to stand pat for the Chicago nominees anyhow, and we could easily fire them out and put ourselves in shape as a body to assist the Democrats just as we did the Republicans a few days ago. We could have easily resolved to use all honorable means to secure the nomination of Tilden at Cincinnati and the thing would have been fixed. We have got a good efficient vigilance committee already deputed by our club to keep Democrats from voting at the primaries this Summer, and Saturday would present an occasion for stiller work than they had when we captured the Republican primaries in April. Anybody can see that we have the balance of power in this county, and now that we hold the handle of the political whip we ought not to miss any chance of putting the string to party shriekers whenever they show their heads. I supposed our club was organized for an all-Summer fight at the numerous primaries that are to be held.

It is really shameful that we have paid no attention to Warren Wasson's call. He led us to victory two years ago and can do it again. His yoke is easy and his burden light. His attractive test or pledge is the softest thing out. It makes a Dolly Varden's month water for a bite at it. It was evidently constructed for our kind of political thinkers. One of our Blaine club orators was invited to be present when the pledge was incubated by our C. M. committee, and I presume he was there with valuable suggestions and assistance. Why has this been kept so quiet? I am afraid there are back-room performances going on among the Democrats, and that even Mr. Yerington is being kept in the dark. There is one thing sure that our club proposes to do at all hazards, and that is to protect the interests of Mr. Yerington and our local railroad against the nefarious scheming of the stalwarts and unwashed.

Let us rally at the polls on Saturday and teach the Democrats who their masters are. Let our vigilance committee put on suitable badges, a railway turn table for instance, take hold with a will and the day is ours. This is due to ourselves, to the local road, and Mr. Wasson, and is but just to the benighted Democracy.

I believe that if Deacon Parkinson had stayed at home as he ought to I shouldn't have been under the necessity of writing this communication. Ed. is of no account to us. He don't seem to know how to handle the matter, although he is a good, willing young man. It is so late in the day that I am afraid we can capture the Democratic Primaries only by the skin of our teeth. If General Edwards means business, let him be on hand, or else let him resign.

I think if the Tribune had intended to be square with us and keep us posted, Ed. could have got George Lyons to help out in the absence of the Deacon. He hasn't done it and so I write this for the APPEAL; and if you will publish it, I will be thankful to you on behalf both of myself and those of our club that think as I do, and don't you forget it. I am yours in haste.

A CONSISTENT DOLLY VARDEN.

THE STORRY COUNTY TOLLRoads.—The Commissioners of Storey county have been investigating the tollroads of the county—those roads which Mark Twain said "ran all over the county and hung over the edge like a fringe"—and they find that the toll keepers on the Gould and Curry road have been collecting toll for five years without legal right. The Dayton collector has had no right to collect since March last. No charter for the Ophir tollroad could be found. The tollroads which hedge Storey and Lincoln counties like the divinity which hedges kings, ought all to be abolished as a general nuisance. The keepers of these roads have fattened off them for years, and the man who travels much over them with a team will soon pay the gate keepers as much as his team is worth. Col. James Fair, one of the Bonanza Kings, keeps one of the toll-gates and exacts four bits for every team that passes Devil's Gate. One would suppose that the family pride of the millionaire would deter him from engaging in so picaresque a business.

A CAUTIOUS BODILITE.—A man in Bodie who heard that Deacon Parkinson had arrived immediately built a rousing fire in his stove although the day was an exceptionally warm one. When asked why this extravagance in coal at $36 a ton, he replied that he had read somewhere that the Deacon would not steal a red hot stove, and hearing of his arrival had concluded to surround the stove with all the necessary protection which the exigencies of the case demanded.

BRIEF MENTION.

Mr. Levi Dague, Corner of the Mint, is again indisposed.

Clem Berry thin's he is the "dark horse" of our local politics.

Judge B. C. Whitman goes East this evening for a two-months visit.

The southern stage brought in four bars of Northern Belle bullion yesterday.

The contemplated improvements to the Arlington House were put under way yesterday.

A number of dove hunters went on a shooting expedition yesterday, but met with no success. Little too early.

Mr. John Scott, Superintendent of the Leon Mill & Mining Co. Dayton, brought 15,000 ounces of bullion to the Mint yesterday.

Good ore is reported as having been struck in the 1600 level of the New York mine. Some assays go as high as $150. The general average is $30 per ton.

Mitchel Ciescovich still continues to increase the attractiveness of his restaurant and hints that when finished it will outshine any similar institution in Nevada.

The Cowing & Zabriskie mine is down nearly 260 feet, and within eight or ten feet from a ledge of good pay rock. There are now eleven miners at work on that property.

Mrs. P. A. Wagner is quite ill, resulting from grief at the loss of her two children. The remaining two children who are also down with the diphtheria, are reported out of danger.

The people who travel in the big fast freight wagons to Bodie assert that they beat a Pullman car for comfort, and there is no colored porter who wants four bits for dusting off your boots.

The cause of the advance in Sierra Nevada yesterday is attributed to a rumor that a bonanza had been struck there as big as Geo. Tully. If the report is confirmed the stock is good for a thousand.

The members of the U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey, who have been quartered here all Winter, will not go into the field until July 1st, unless Congress passes a deficiency appropriation for the survey.

Some months ago the Tribune remarked, "When it comes to a newspaper controversy the Times is the paper to bet on." In the controversy the Times has just inaugurated the betting is about ten to one in its favor.

New that Spring has opened nothing remains to complete the happiness of the boy but the colored circus porters displaying the death struggle between the jobberwork and the rhinosceros in the jungles of Missouri.

R. D. Ferguson, surnamed "The Frail," is stopping at the Arlington House. He thinks that a week's sojourn at that resort will put enough flesh on his bones to enable him to shake his fist in the face of death and defy the newspapers.

An Eastern paper tells of a diamond which exploded in the sun. It is supposed that the sun's rays expanded the air in the cells of the stone and caused it to burst. We have been out in the hot sun for years and never had a diamond explode on us yet.

The ghost supposed to haunt the Capitol square and push a lawn mower about on the grass, turns out to be nothing more than an open faucet, and the running waters sounded so much like a lawn mower in motion that people who pass the place at midnight, stopped and peered into the darkness to ascertain who was out working at an unreasonable hour.

BLACKSMITH.—When a printer is a poor workman and slow type setter he is called a blacksmith by comrades as a term of reproach. Perhaps this is the reason why the Tribune kept the advertisement of the "Blacksmith's Dream" in several weeks after it was dead matter, as they did the Thanksgiving Proclamation. Speaking of typographical blacksmiths reminds one of the time when the Chronicle office boasted of an excellent quarter, and on being asked to sing at a public performance asked Denis McCarthy what selection they should render—"something appropriate to the craft, you know."

"The Anvil Chorus," suggested Mac, without a motion of his face.

The typos gradually saw the point and melted back into the composing room, whistling softly as they went.

DECORATION DAY BENEFIT.—There will be a benefit on Saturday evening, May 29, to raise funds for Decoration Day. At the request of a number of our citizens the play of Dora will be repeated, with the original cast except the part of "Luke Blomfield," which will be played by a gentleman every way competent to take that or any other part in the piece. Our people will have an opportunity to show that the soldiers who stood between the Flag and ruin are remembered by them. This is a more manly way of raising funds than begging.

PIANO TUNING.—Jacob Zech, the piano manufacturer and tuner of San Francisco, Cal., will arrive at Carson City on or about the 17th of May. Leave orders for tuning or repairing with A. F. Hentchell, J. P. Meder or C. W. Friend.

TIMES MATERIAL.—The type material and press, for the publication of the Times was received yesterday. As soon as it is possible to get the press in order, the Times will enlarge and be published as an evening paper. There is an excellent field for a good evening paper in Carson, and Mr. Niles with his energy and enterprise, is likely to fill the vacancy satisfactorily.

THE EPISCOPAL SOCIAL.—The Episcopal festival and ball which is to come off on the 21st promises to be one of those affairs where the surroundings are so pleasant that those who attend will not feel as if they had lost money on the goods. Some novel features will be introduced and Professor Langer's band has been engaged for the music.

THE BALL LAST NIGHT.—The ball masque given at the Opera House last night was turned into an ordinary dance by inviting the spectators in the gallery to join without extra charge. Owing to a misunderstanding regarding the tickets but few masquers appeared. The social dance however was a pleasant affair and well attended.

DEPARTURES.—The following passengers departed per southern stage yesterday morning: W. H. Smith, John Kelley, J. J. Currie, G. W. Spratt, Thos. McHugh, G. Conner, R. Wiley, John Gray, B. King, D. Walker, one Chinaman.

ARRIVALS.—The following passengers arrived per southern stage yesterday afternoon: F. J. Putnam, E. P. Foster.

A FINE THING FOR THE TEETH.

Fragrant SOZODONT is a composition of the purest and choicest ingredients of the Oriental vegetable kingdom. Every ingredient is well known to have a beneficial effect on the teeth and gums. Its embalming or antiseptic property and aromatic fragrance makes it a toilet luxury. SOZODONT removes all disagreeable odors from the breath caused by catarrh, bad breath, etc. It is entirely free from the injurious and acrid properties of tooth pastes and powders which destroy the enamel. One bottle will last six months.

M. COHN TO THE FRONT.—The popularity of the dry goods store of M. Cohn is not only a household word in Carson, but it extends all over Ormsby and the adjoining counties. His Spring stock, purchased in the East, is the best selected one ever brought to Nevada's Capital. It embraces everything rare and beautiful in the way of Spring and Summer fabrics, and in the language of the showman, "must be seen to be appreciated." Mr. Cohn is a judicious buyer, and such men are always prepared to undersell their neighbors. Give him a call and be convinced that we are stating facts.

ATTENTION!—The greatest wonder yet discovered in medicine is Mrs. Dr. Howe's celebrated rheumatism, neuralgia and toothache cures. Would you rather suffer the pain of having a tooth drawn than buy a bottle of Mrs. Dr. Howe's toothache medicine? Mothers should not be without it for their infants. A few drops in a little sweetened water to swab a teething baby's mouth will instantly relieve the little sufferer. The medicine does not cauterize, and is very pleasant. Sold by all druggists. mh7
