THE NEW ORLEANS BULLETIN.

ON INT.

The United States mail, Count Crespi left last evening for New Orleans, in the steamer "St. Francis," four important, almost impossible.

Our new car of cotton was being prepared for shipment when the "St. Francis" left the wharf.

The "St. Francis," the vessel intended for New Orleans, was soon in sight of the city. A large number of people boarded the steamer and seemed to be aspiring to the beautiful city on the Mississippi.

The proprietors of the Venice Garden, the most popular resort on the line, were seen entering the steamer with the usual parade of carriages and horse cars. The ladies were dressed in their best attire, and the gentlemen in their usual gay dress.

A meeting of the Kiskakie Club was held at the Hotel Galvez. The meetings are to be continued during the week. The members were present and the business of the club was transacted. A resolution was passed, recommending the formation of a new club. The resolutions were also read and adopted. The club is to be held in high esteem.

There will be a reball entertainment on Sunday, in the Hotel Galvez. The members of the club and their friends are invited to attend.

The "St. Francis" left for New Orleans early in the morning. The steamer was seen to pass by the beautiful city on the Mississippi. The members of the club were present and the business of the club was transacted. A resolution was passed, recommending the formation of a new club. The resolutions were also read and adopted. The club is to be held in high esteem.

I have written a long letter, when I sat down to write, I thought of you. I wish you would write to me.

The "St. Francis" has left for New Orleans. The steamer was seen to pass by the beautiful city on the Mississippi. The members of the club were present and the business of the club was transacted. A resolution was passed, recommending the formation of a new club. The resolutions were also read and adopted. The club is to be held in high esteem.

The "St. Francis" has left for New Orleans. The steamer was seen to pass by the beautiful city on the Mississippi. The members of the club were present and the business of the club was transacted. A resolution was passed, recommending the formation of a new club. The resolutions were also read and adopted. The club is to be held in high esteem.

Missouri.