Partial Report on the Result of the K-C Fair.

It will interest every one who contributed to the K-C Fair Tickets for the distribution of the $100.00 Bond to Lucy School, learn that the Bond wa awarded to the purchaser ticket number 7032, which according to the stub was sold to Mr. W. D. Flanagar of New Orleans. This ticke was sold by Miss Louise Ge dron, who thus receives th $50.00 Bond for selling the winning ticket. Miss Gen dron, who was an energeti worker for the ticket contes is also awarded the prize o $50.00 for selling the larges number of tickets, having disposed of 2,600 tickets. The Fair Management takes thi occasion to compliment Mis Gendron for her fine show ing, and to thank her, as we as the other contestants fo their very successful effort in disposing of 5,389 tickets, netting the sum of $1,347.25.
Grateful thanks are also tendered to the troupe of Funny Men from Casey Land who, under the able direction of Mr. Henry E. Ulm, provided such enjoyable entertainment for the crowds during the Fair. Mr. Flanagan, who won the $100.00 is on time deposit at the Bank of St. John, as per receipt given Rev. Father Stenmans, and $1,852.85 on hand. There was also a donation of $100 made by the Holy Name Society, which was placed on time-deposit in the Bank of St. John and the receipt delivered to Rev. Father Stenmans. A Liquidating Account has been opened to dispose of the balance of the lumber, crockery, etc. remaining, and the returns for the sale of these articles will more than pay any outstanding bills yet to be settled. netting the sum of $1,347.25. one of the members of the
