SOCIAL and PERSONAL

DAUGHTERS OF 1812 HOLD ANNUAL MEETING TO-DAY

Two "Real Daughters" of Lebanon Apply for Membership—J. Clarence Funk Talks on Women's Rights—Charitable Work Discussed

The annual meeting of the Keystone Chapter, United States Daughters of 1812, was held this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. H. H. Froeburn, 1408 North Second street. There was a large attendance and the program was one of great interest. The regent, Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones, presided. Among the features were the vocal solos by Miss Katherine Heicher and Miss Mary Seaman which delighted every one. The treasurer, Mrs. J. Edward Dickinson, presented her annual report, which showed no outstanding debts and a balance in the treasury of $70, despite the heavy drains upon the chapter for its part in the memorial tablets at Silver Spring cemetery and other unusual expenses of the last year.

Miss Catherine Irwin Eggle gave her report as registrar showing that the chapter has at present an active enrollment of 60; two have been admitted during the last fortnight and several other application papers are being filed out. The local membership of the chapter is limited to 50, but there are some out of town members, bringing the total to 60. Two Real Daughters in Lebanon have asked for application blanks.

Christmas philanthropic work was planned as usual by the chapter, and it is hoped that all who will contribute to this beneficent work will send their money, or donations of food, clothing, toys or undergarments at once to Mrs. James Barr Mersereau, 1904 North Second street. One of the Real Daughters whom the chapter will aid this month is in very poor health and the cheer of her Christmas season depends entirely upon the generosity of the chapter. It is hoped that every member will contribute something to this particular box.

J. Clarence Funk Gives Talk

The principal feature of the afternoon was an informal talk given by J. Clarence Funk, a lawyer, on "Women Under the Law." He traced the development of law from the early days down to the present time. While the legal status of woman has improved considerably in the centuries, he said, there are some inequalities of law not generally understood and even Pennsylvania, which claims to be so just to its women, allows a man to mortgage the home which his wife may have helped to purchase by her economy. "In fact," said Mr. Funk, "while the husband cannot sell the house without his wife's signature he can mortgage it for as large a sum as he can get without even her knowledge."

A number of other laws were also instant showing that while great progress has been made along the line of legal equity for women, much still remains to be done.

The regent, Mrs. Jones, gave her usual talk on current events, touching upon some of the "side lights" of the great war, and emphasizing the fact that while the Sultan has called the Moslems to a Holy War, Aga Khan, who claims to be the religious head of the Mohammedan church, has issued a proclamation urging Moslems to be faithful to Britain and saying that a Holy War is an impossibility since Germany herself is not a Mohammedan Nation.

Other points referred to were the development of Ugarit; the new areas thrown open for settlement by Argentina and Chile; microphotography; map making of the bottom of the ocean; and various other points of interest including new inventions. Letters were read from the State president of Illinois asking the chapter to support Mrs. Robert Hall Wiles, of Chicago, as President National of the U. S. D. 1812.

The National paper of the society was distributed to the members and as the issue contained an account of the gateway at Silver Spring, it had more than ordinary interest for the members.

Nominations for Officers

Mrs. Charles S. Rebeck acted as chairman of tellers, and the chapter voted by ballot, the following being the list of officers suggested by the nominating committee at the October meeting:

Regent, Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones, who has held the office for the last fourteen years and who protested vigorously against a renomination; first vice regent, Mrs. Charles J. Wood, Jr.; second vice regent, Mrs. Sarah Kistler, of Carlisle; registrar, Miss Catherine Irwin Eggle; treasurer, Mrs. James Edward Dickinson; recording secretary, Miss Matilda W. Hiestler; historian, Mrs. James Barr Mersereau.

After the adjournment of the business meeting the members spent a pleasant social hour with the hostesses of the day: Mrs. H. H. Froeburn, Miss May Fox and Mrs. B. F. Blough.

Mrs. J. Edward Dickinson will be chairman of hostesses for the February meeting.

BIRTHDAY PARTY GIVEN

FOR KATHRYNE MAE FRICK

Strange Celebration of Birthday Anniversary Held at Mt. Airy Institution For Deaf and Dumb For State's Ward

A strange birthday party was given yesterday afternoon at the Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, at Mt. Airy. The party had all the requisites of a real birthday party, the cake with lighted candles, pretty flowers and softly shaded candelabra.

At the head of the table was seated the hostess, Kathryn Mae Frick, the deaf, dumb and blind ward of the State, sweetly and shyly presiding over the feast. Each guest had received a typewritten invitation, neatly written by the hostess who received them as they entered, talking in their own peculiar language about the party and the pretty gifts.

The fifteenth birthday anniversary of Kathryn Frick was in reality her fifth birthday anniversary. In the last five years the child has learned to read and write in Braille, to speak the sign language and has even developed the power of speech to a limited degree. Before that time she was a flighty, nervous child, who could scarcely walk, whose mind was undeveloped, who uttered strange sounds that were hardly human and who seemed to have no connecting link with life. Yesterday she presided over her party a self-possessed young woman who may have before her a future as remarkable and useful as that of Helen Keller.

Kathryn's latest achievement is the mastery of the sewing machine and she can run up a seam as quickly and as well as the average seeing person.

English Beauty Tells

Complexion Secrets

Through a fortunate meeting with an English lady, noted for her dazzling complexion, I recently learned the full meaning of that adage, "Beauty is but skin deep." She taught me how to remove my muddy old skin, revealing the young and beautiful skin underneath. The process is so simple, harmless and inexpensive, I'm sure you'll be glad to know about it. Just get an ounce of ordinary mercurized wax at any drug store and apply nightly like cold cream, for a week or so. Every once in a while wash off the wax, and the particles of worn-out cuticle come off too. The action is so gentle and gradual, there's no discomfort. It's a wonderful treatment, as it not only peels off the faded or discolored skin, but all of its defects, as chaps, roughness, freckles, pimples, blotches.

"The subjunctive mood is used in a doubtful manner."

"Rapids are pieces of water which run with great force down the middle of rivers."

"Excommunication means that no one is to speak to some one."—Christian Register.
