ASTROLOGY. THE WORLD ASTONISHED. MADE BY THE GREAT ASTR. LOGIST. MADAME H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doubtful events, cast doubts, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you your true character, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the mystic stars that overcome or prolong in the course of our life—from the secrets and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the horoscope—the sign of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Mail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you with a trifle, you may never again have a factor like an opportunity. Consultation fee, with friends and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. Her chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and responses enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order, and without those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair. Address: MADAME H. A. PERRIGO, P. O. Drawer 293, Buffalo, N. Y. Feb 15, '97-ly

REPARATOR CAPILLI. Throw away your false frizzes, your switches, your wig. Destructive of color, and not worth a fig. Come and consult the highest, come and get your hair and rejoice in your own luxurious hair.

REPARATOR CAPILLI. For restoring hair upon bald heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the beard to grow, it will force the hair upon bald heads, it will force the hair upon bald heads, it will force the hair upon bald heads. A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as the thousands of their witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say, how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It certainly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different preparations advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such we would say, try the Reparator Capilli. It will cost you nothing unless it fully comes up to our representations. If you do not, we will refund the money, which will be returned you on application, providing entire satisfaction is not given. Address: W. L. CLARK & CO., Chemists, No. 3 West Fayette St., Syracuse, N. Y. Feb 15, '97-ly

FELLOWS' WORM LOZENGES! ARE WITHOUT EXCEPTION, THE most extraordinary medicine of the age. Comprising, as they do, Remarkable Power in expelling worms, with pleasant taste and perfect safety. They contain no Mercury, no Mineral, no Turpentine, no Oil of Wormseed, no Poison, nothing injurious. They are entirely Vegetable.

Symptoms of Worms:—Itching of the nose, feverishness, twitching or starting suddenly during sleep, pain in the stomach, loss of flesh, paleness with hectic, appetite sometimes voracious, but others less, dullness of the eyes, drowsiness, a swelled upper lip, tongue white, furred and studded with red spots, sleep or sensation of lodgment in the throat, an unnatural craving for dirt, chalk or clay, fretfulness and irritability of temper, choleric fits and palsy. Intestinal Worms are among the first to undermine the constitution in the list of diseases. They often occasion severe diseases, ending sometimes fatally, particularly when they ascend to the stomach. Their presence in their most ordinary situation is attended with unfavorable effects upon the general health. Eminent men assert that all are more or less troubled with worms, and that many die annually from the cause, who, by the timely administration of a proper remedy would be saved. AS FELLOWS' WORM LOZENGES may be taken without any unpleasant results, and as most children are fond of them, their use is recommended to those apparently healthy, and thus dispel the cause of what would produce suffering.

Be careful what you use. Various remedies have from time to time been recommended, such as Calomel, Oil of Wormseed, Turpentine, &c., so that dangerous and even fatal consequences are produced. The necessity of a safe and sure remedy has caused much research and study by the proprietors of FELLOWS' WORM LOZENGES. They are positively safe, pleasant and effectual. They do not kill worms, but act by making their dwelling place disagreeable to them. In order, however, to guard consumers against deception by a base compound, the analysis of Dr. A. A. HAYES, State Assayer, proving the above statement, is annexed.

"I have analyzed the WORM LOZENGES prepared by Messrs. FELLOWS & CO., and find that they are free from Mercury and other metallic or mineral matters. The Lozenges are skillfully compounded, pleasant to taste, safe, yet sure and effectual in their action." Respectfully, A. A. HAYES, M. D. Assayer of the State of Mass.

Please remember that Fellows' Worm Lozenges are prepared with great care from the concentrated extracts of two plants. They do not act as a purgative or emetic, but do not deplete the patient, are so simple an infant may devour a whole box without harm, and will at the same time expel the worms in an extraordinary manner.

Fellows' Worm Lozenges is the only Worm Remedy in existence combining harmless qualities with delicate taste and amazing power. Price Twenty-five cents per Box. Five boxes for a dollar. The signature of FELLOWS & CO. is attached to each genuine box. Sold by Medicine Dealers generally. Prepared at the New England Balm Depot, for the Proprietor, J. C. THE LAST MAN IN A BARBER SHOP. We have seen many illustrations of misery—many that would move the hardest heart to pity—but nothing can be more touching to an observer, nothing better defines misery, than a man in a barber shop, with a dozen or so ahead of him waiting to be shaved. It is impossible for any one who has never experienced it, to know how much nerve is required to pass successfully through this ordeal. Different natures, of course, experience different degrees of misery as they wait. The poor but virtuous young man, struggling with a mustache, (the fading hue of which has brought him again to the tonsorial artist,) having an engagement with 'Susan'—who has told him anything but a faller as isn't on time—can probably be put down as a subject of the most abject wretchedness and despair, as he enters and looks around upon 'the miserable' who are ahead of him, the last of whom mingles with his misery a grim satisfaction that some one comes after him.

The man would rather die at once than be subjected to the suspense he must endure. Talk of ambition; of fame, as she beckons from afar to the midnight porter over volumes filled with learning and wisdom, or to the warrior as he cuts his way with his sword and wades through seas of blood to her shining goal. The scholar's ambition fades to insignificance, and the soldier's dream of glory vanishes before the yearning of his last man in the barber shop, waiting for his turn. No goal but the cushioned chair does he see, 'no near and yet so far off.'

There is music to him in the barber's low 'next,' as it lessens the distance between him and his ambition's goal; and when it finally appeals to him, he experiences a joy that the honied words of flattery fail to bring to him who has found fame. Enforce the Maine law, prohibit titting hoops, make dry street crossings, &c., &c., and we will submit, but 'deliver us, good Lord,' from being the last man in the barber shop.

A WOMAN says what she pleases without being knocked down for it. She can take a snooze after dinner, while her husband goes to work. She can go into the street without being asked to stand 'treat' at every saloon. She can stay at home in time of war, and get married again if her husband gets killed. She can wear corsets if too thick, and other things if too thin. She can get divorced from her husband whenever she sees one she likes better. She can get her husband in debt all over, until he warns the public not to trust her on his account. But all these advantages are balanced by the great fact that she cannot sing bass, go sparring, or climb a tree with any degree of proficiency.

The Hopkinsville, Kentucky, Constitution of the 29th inst. has the following: 'On respectful authority we state that a lady residing at Fairview, in this county, gave birth, some six weeks ago, to a child that was a most singular compound of man and reptile. The lower portions of the child are natural in their formation and partake of the characteristics of the genus homo, but the body and the head are similar to the body and the head of the rattlesnake. The mother, every time she is compelled to give nourishment to the child, is thrown into convulsions.'

George Francis Train says our modern marriage service should be read thus:—Clergyman—Will you take this brown stone, this carriage and span, these diamonds, for thy wedded husband? Yes. Will you take this unpaid milliner's bill; this high waterfall of foreign hair; these affectionate accomplishments, and feeble constitution for thy wedded wife? Yes. Then, what man has joined together let the next divorce court may tear them asunder.'

The following is an extract from a colored man's speech at Jacksonville, Fla: 'Be de man nehah poor, if him hab no coat, no hat, no shoes, no bread, he must not sell his vote—not for five dollar, nor fifty thousand. If he do, we will spurn him from us forever and forever, for wid a great price obtained we dis freedom.'

A long time ago, a little boy twelve years old, on his way to Vermont, stopped at a country tavern, and paid for his lodging and breakfast by sawing wood instead of asking it as a gift. Fifty years later the same boy passed the same little inn as George Peabody, the banker.

As GOOD AS WHEAT.—Babies resemble wheat in many respects. Firstly—neither are good for much until they arrive at maturity. Secondly—both are bred in the house, and also the flower of the family. Thirdly—both are to be cradled. Fourthly—both are generally well thrashed before they are done with.

Is it possible, Miss, that you don't know the names of some of your best friends? Inquired a gentleman of a lady. 'Certainly,' she replied, 'I don't even know what my own may be a year hence.'

At a Fourth of July celebration in Marion county, Illinois, a young lady offered the following toast: 'The young men of America—their arms our support; our arms their reward.'

Fall in, men—fall in! A GENTLEMAN of Pittsburg has papered his room with certificates of oil stock. The novel papering cost originally over fifty-three thousand dollars.

AN INVALUABLE MEDICINE FOR THE PURIFYING OF THE BLOOD. DR. J. W. POLAND'S HUMOR DOCTOR. A Positive Remedy for all kinds of Nettle Rash, Salt Rheum, Scrofula, Carbuncles, Boils and Piles. It is very gratifying to any of this or any other medicine, for it is the very best remedy known. It is not always so easy to prove it. It is, however, exceedingly gratifying to the proprietor of this medicine, that, while he declares to the public that this is a most wonderful and effective specific for Humors, as stated above, he has abundant proof at hand to sustain his statement.

For sixteen years the Humor Doctor has been manufactured and sold, and every year has increased the value of its reputation, and the amount of its sales. In New Hampshire, where it originated, no remedy for humors is so highly prized. An eminent physician (now an army surgeon) when practicing in New Hampshire, purchased from fifty or sixty gallons of the Humor Doctor, and used it in his practice. He has since then ordered it for the hospital where he was stationed. Other physicians have purchased it, and have used it in practice with great success. When the proprietor first came to New Hampshire, at Goff's Tavern, for the purpose of thirty or forty miles around, and in Manchester particularly, the Humor Doctor was well known and highly valued for the numerous and wonderful cures which it effected. Though manufactured in large quantities, the supply was frequently exhausted, and purchasers had to wait for more to be made. In that region some very severe cases of Erysipelas were treated with—and they were cured. Erysipelas sores or carbuncles, these ugly, painful sores, were entirely removed wherever this medicine was faithfully used. So it was with Scrofula and Salt Rheum. The Humor Doctor cured them.

For the sake of brevity it will be thought of it, a few testimonials are here inserted. MILTON GALE, Esq., Boston. I hereby certify that I was sorely afflicted with Boils for two years, developing themselves upon my limbs and other parts of my body. The sufferings which I endured from them are indescribable. Suffice it to say that I had almost tried every of the most popular humors remedies, but without removing the affliction. At length, by the earnest request of an intimate friend, I was induced to try Dr. J. W. Poland's Humor Doctor, and am very happy to attest that all my Boils were removed, and my health was restored by using Dr. Poland's HUMOR DOCTOR. Boston, Jan. 14, 1855. MILTON GALE, Esq., Manchester, N. H.

A. C. WALLACE, Esq., Manchester, N. H. Dr. J. W. Poland—Dear Sir: I very cheerfully testify in favor of your Humor Doctor as an excellent remedy for humors. My numerous acquaintances, who with Boils and know how perfectly good my health is at present. Your Humor Doctor cured me. Please refer to me for particulars in my case. June 11, 1856. A. C. WALLACE, Mrs. PORTER, Dover, N. H.

Dr. Poland: I received your letter inquiring as to the effects of your medicine on sea-sickness. I am happy to say that I think it is a most valuable medicine for sea-sickness. I tried various prescriptions, but found none that settled the stomach and cleared the head like the Humor Doctor. I felt as though I could hardly wait to get ashore, to entrust you to introduce it into ship chandlery stores. That it may do good to those who suffer upon the mighty deep from sea-sickness. It captivates who like their families with them, or carry passengers, should try it once, they would never be willing to voyage without it.

I have used it for my family since its introduction to the public for bills of habits, head-aches and humors about my children, and have always found it a sure cure. I am not fond of having my name appear in public, and would not consent to do so on any other account but to relieve the suffering; but if the foregoing will be of any service to you or the public, you can make use of it.

Yours, HARRIET M. PORTER. Each more might be stated in relation to this medicine, as contained in testimonials, but it is needless. Ask Manchester druggists about it, especially E. W. Blake, at Barr's. Inquire of Mr. Henry Plummer, of Bedford, whose wife was cured by it of Salt Rheum. Ask almost any person in Goff's Tavern, and they will declare its value as a remedy, as used in their own cases or by their friends.

The Humor Doctor was formerly sold at fifty cents per bottle; but the cost of every ingredient component it has gone up so enormously, that the price has been raised to seventy-five cents only, and that by compulsion. The Humor Doctor is prepared at the New England Balm Depot, for the Proprietor, J. C. FRENCH, Sold by Medicine Dealers everywhere. DEMAS BARNES & CO., General Agents, New York. 4:24-6m
