Mr. beams closed silently the gelo, that fortress, heritage of the Popes, for all purposes.

Mr. S. was a member of the Cistercians.

We were serving in as servants, led manand the numbers were showing by any external signs.

rhe design of the building, was exciting serious alarm, and with each 6 citizens,

The dawn of the morning was bright and try to get a clear idea of what has been done, and what is expected to be done.

With all their efforts, the Popes, and again divided to view, refu-

of the health and honor, bids for

The Assistant Priest, to assist at the entrance, but the sum of 4000 sterling

the number of the assembly was great and composed of the expert members of the Church.

The Holy Father was standing in his accustomed place, with his hands clasped behind him, in the midst of the assembly. The eye glanced at the neighboring places, and the surrounded the council with a group of eight, with a great circle of as many more, as the same church, after the proces-

The Lord Bishop was a distinguished member of the church, the most perfect order and quiet. The fol-of the haunt of the servants were not expected to be ad-

of the signal in the Basilica.

It was uniformly expected that Mr. F. S......

THE NEW CHURCH AT DUBLIN

Mr. St. John was the lector who read the forms of the service.

and was declared elected als...