

TARS RUN AMUCK

Sailors of Pacific Fleet Mob
"Red Flag" Offices.

TWO PARTIES OF RIOTERS

Secretary of Navy Daniels Assails Socialism at a Banquet Given in His Honor at the Rainier Club—Sailors Assaulted by Industrial Workers of the World.

At Seattle, Wash., United States marines from the Pacific reserve fleet, most of the sailors wearing the name bands of the cruisers Colorado and California, started to "clean up the town," as they expressed it, by attacking the headquarters of the Socialists and the Industrial Workers of the World.

After destroying the Moderate Socialists' headquarters at Seventh and Olive the sailors demolished a meeting room of the Salvation Army, which somebody had said was an Industrial Workers' meeting place. A provost guard of fifty men of the fleet was hurried ashore in cutters to arrest all the rioters, who caused much damage.

Secretary of the Navy Daniels was dining on the cruiser West Virginia, the guest of Admiral Reynolds, when the rioting began. The rioting was ascribed to a speech he had made in denunciation of the red flag.

Two Parties of Rioters.

There were two parties of rioters. The first wrecking party to get under way was composed of twelve men of the navy, several members of the Washington naval reserve and 100 young civilians.

The mob rushed to Socialist headquarters on Fifth avenue, smashed the plate glass window and nailed American flags to the front of the building.

Sack Socialist Quarters.

Meanwhile a second party of men from the fleet attacked the big Industrial Workers' headquarters on Washington street, in the southern part of the city. The contents of the building were dragged into the street and a bonfire made of them.

The mob reformed in the north part of the city after it had been dispersed and went back to the Socialist headquarters and sacked the place, destroying furniture and a large quantity of literature.

Daniels Assails Red Flag.

Shortly before midnight Secretary Daniels, addressing a banquet at the Rainier club in his honor, praised the attitude of the mayor of Boston, who stopped a red flag parade.

"The red flag has no place in this country," he said, "and believers in it have no place in this country. A mayor who does not enforce the law against the red flag is not fit to hold office, and people who believe in the red flag should be driven from the country."

During the administration of Mayor Coterill Industrial Workers and Socialists have been given license to speak in the streets as long and as loudly as they chose, provided they did not block traffic or display the red flag. Mayor Coterill has been assailed for permitting such speaking.

It is said the riot was caused primarily by the fact that several sailors got into a fight with Industrial Workers at a street meeting during the city's potlatch.

BURNED TO DEATH IN PRISON CAGE

Thirty-Five Convicts Lose Their Lives in Fire.

Thirty-five convicts are dead at Jackson, Mich., as the result of being caught and burned in a fire which destroyed the prison cage at the Oakley state convict farm.

Officials of the prison are at a loss to explain the cause of the fire. One report was circulated that it resulted from a daring plot of some of the convicts to escape.

The prison cage served as a trap. The men were locked up and when the fire broke out were unable to escape through the iron doors. Pitiful stories are told of the screams and cries which broke from the men as the flames reached them.

From the outbreak of the fire the men were doomed. Loud calls were made for help, but the few guards and other persons without the cells were powerless to stop the fire. Bodies brought from the ruins were burned to a crisp.

A. B. PARKER'S SON KILLED

Nineteen-Year-Old Youth Accidentally Shot by Companion.

Word has been received at Montreal, Que., from Ayer's Cliff, Que., near North Halloway, told of the sudden death there of the nineteen-year-old son of former Chief Justice Alton B. Parker of the New York court of appeals.

The young man died from a bullet wound in the abdomen accidentally inflicted by a companion, the message said.

JEFFERS-WICK
CHAUTAUQUA SYSTEM

Dixieland Orator Big Attraction At the Chautauqua Here.

FAMOUS as an orator of wonderful eloquence and as a reformer who reforms, Governor J. Y. Sanders of Louisiana will be one of the best attractions of the local Chautauqua. He will lecture on the subject, "A Southerner's Estimate of Abraham Lincoln," on the fourth afternoon of the Chautauqua.

Governor Sanders is a man who is well along on the highway to national fame and who is often mentioned in the south as the choice of the southland for the presidency. His brilliant career has been the result of splendid service to his state. He was an anti-lottery man in 1892 and fought his way to a seat in the state legislature on that issue. He soon was speaker of the house and served as a solon for his state until 1900, when he was elected governor. Next the honor of election as United States senator came to him. He resigned that office because he believed he could serve Louisiana best by remaining as governor. While governor he secured reform legislation that put race track gamblers out of business in Louisiana and that brought about regulation and control of the liquor traffic in that state.

Governor Sanders is the Bryan of the south. His fame as an orator has spread through all of Dixie and with it a deep admiration of the good he has done for Louisiana. He will lecture on a subject of absorbing interest to people of the north. He will speak from the standpoint of the men of the south. He will bring a message to the north from the new south, the land that has arisen like magic from the barren waste left by four years of civil strife, the land of fair women and chivalrous men who are noted for their fiery eloquence and whole hearted patriotism.

Mr. Sanders gives but one lecture, afternoon of the fourth day of the Chautauqua.

BUSINESS MEN MAY HAVE SEATS RESERVED FOR CHAUTAUQUA

In order to accommodate business men and others who are unable to reach the Chautauqua pavilion until time for the program to begin, there will be a small section of seats reserved, at a cost of 5 cents per seat for one session, or 50 cents for the entire Chautauqua. It is not necessary, however, to buy reserved seats in order to secure a good place, as the tent will seat nearly 2,000, so there will be plenty of seats for all. This reservation is made simply to accommodate those who find it impossible to reach the Chautauqua grounds early, and who desire a good seat reserved for them.

Ancient Mussels.

There are gigantic mussels whose age is assumed to be comparable only with that of the Cape Verde baobab tree and the big trees of California, which live for 5,000 years. Indeed, there appears no particular reason why mussels should ever die, though it is also true that, considering the sort of life a mussel leads, there seems no particular reason why it should ever have lived.—London Express.

All His Fault.

Mr. Binks (with an invalid wife)—Look here, now! This paper says nothing will improve a woman's health like sweeping, baking, bedmaking, dishwashing and polishing the silver. Mrs. Binks—Huh! You know very well you never gave me any silver to polish. No wonder I'm ill!—London Mail.

A Model of Politeness.

"Mrs. X. is as polite as an echo."
"As an echo? What do you mean by that?"
"She never fails to return one's call."
—Boston Transcript.

When we read, we fancy we could be martyrs; when we come to act we cannot bear a provoking word.—Hannah More.

The Apparently Drowned.

The frequent occurrence of drowning accidents serves to emphasize the need of a thorough understanding of the principles underlying resuscitation and particularly the fact that success ultimately depends on preventing permanent injury from lack of blood to the brain. "Efforts at resuscitation should be used for at least two hours after apparent death," says Dr. F. W. Hitchens of Cleveland in the Journal of the American Medical Association. The heart may continue to beat for as long a time as five minutes after cessation of respiration, although it usually stops in two or three minutes. Add to a possible five minutes the seven minutes during which the brain may be completely resuscitated after total cessation of the heart beat, a possible maximum of twelve minutes of relative death may be undergone with recovery.

Respected His Scruples.

In the mathematics class one day at Williams college Professor S., who was rarely made the subject of college jests, was excessively annoyed by some man "squeaking" a small rubber bladder. The noise seemed to come from near a certain Jack Hollis, and after querying each of his neighbors and receiving a negative answer Professor S. said sternly:

"Hollis, do you know who is making that unbearable noise?"
Hollis, who had been the guilty person all along, assumed an air of stoical bravery and said calmly, "I know, sir, but I prefer not to tell."

Professor S.'s angry face grew calmer, and with evident pleasure he replied: "I respect your scruples, Hollis. They do you credit and should shame the guilty man, sir."

You Should Buy Your Chautauqua Season Ticket Now, because Chautauqua provides the time and place for those social gatherings that you have planned so long and never held.

Unfortunately True.

The industrious man has his points, but he seldom is as good company as the loafer.

GEORGE B. COX

Judge Dismisses Case Against Former Politician and Banker.

Judge Caldwell in the common pleas court at Cincinnati, O., dismissed the case against George B. Cox, the former political leader. Cox was on trial on a charge of misapplying $115,000 of the funds of the Cincinnati Trust company. The trial had been in progress three weeks when, at the conclusion of the state's testimony, Attorney Dinsmore for Cox asked for an instructed verdict of not guilty.

CRIMES AND CASUALTIES.

ANDERSON, IND.—Nicholas Collins, aged sixty-four years, is dead here as a result of having been run over by a motorcycle, driven by Christis Beck. It is said by witnesses that Beck made a desperate effort to turn his machine when he saw the aged man before him, but that he was unable to do so. He stopped and picked the man up and asked him if he was hurt. Collins said, "Yes," and immediately lapsed into unconsciousness from which he never recovered. Beck was immediately arrested and an inquiry made by Coroner Albright. Later Beck was exonerated of all blame and released from jail.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y.—A stick of dynamite carried in the hip pocket of Martin Funk exploded and blew him to pieces when he fell during a playful wrestling match with his brother, Rowland Funk. The brother's left hand was blown off. Martin was eighteen years old. Both boys resided in Hudson. The accident occurred in a tent where the Funks were camping near Germantown.

CLEVELAND, OHIO—Big Four passenger train No. 11 plowed into the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern passenger train due in Cleveland at 4:25 a. m., between Perry and Madison, east of here, while the Lake Shore train was held up by a freight stalled ahead of it. It splintered the dining car to pieces and telescoped the next car, a sleeper, injuring twelve persons.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL.—Frank Rulla and Hulla Damorta were murdered at their little grocery store just north of the city. It is said two negroes on horseback rode up to the store, proceeded to rob it and when the two men who owned the store resisted they were shot down.

BLOOMINGTON, ILL.—Edward Dodge, a veteran circus man of Providence, R. I., for many years with Ringling Brothers, fell under the wheels of a wagon while the circus was loading here and was killed.

SPORTING AFFAIRS.

WAKEFIELD, MASS.—All records for consecutive bulls' eyes at 800 yards were broken in the ninth annual meeting of the New England Military Rifleman's Association, when Captain Stuart W. Wise of the Bay State team made 103 perfect shots. The previous record for consecutive bulls' eyes at 800 yards was 57, made by J. W. Heslian of New York, at Sea Girt last year.

TACOMA, WASH.—Walter M. Thornton, some years ago a twirler for the Chicago National league, was placed in the padded cell of the county jail at Everett, to be held for examination by the county board. While pitching for Chicago he was struck on the head by a batted ball. He has never been quite the same since.

COLUMBUS, OHIO—"Jiggs" Donohue, star first baseman for the Chicago White Sox in 1906, when they defeated the Chicago Cubs in the world series, died at the Columbus state hospital. The direct cause of his death was paresis. Burial will be at Springfield, O., his home town.

SELL THE

Brazil Vitrified Tile Silos.

Fireproof, Frostproof, Windproof, Indestructible, Everlasting

B. V. T. Silos represent the perfect and ideal method of keeping silage. If you need a silo at all, you need the best. The B. V. T. is the best and also the cheapest, as it requires no further expenditure for up-keep or repairs.

B. V. T. Silos are constructed of hollow tile blocks, made of the famous Brazil clay, hard burned, highly vitrified and salt glazed.

B. V. T. Silos have been subjected to every conceivable test and have proven to be superior to any silo offered to the public. They are amply strong at all points to withstand strains and pressures of every sort.

B. V. T. Silos are absolutely fireproof. Fire cannot harm silo or contents. Double air space in tile makes them wind and frost proof and impervious to moisture. Indestructible, as there is nothing to burn, rot or decay.

Will last for generations as by Frost, nor Fire, nor Flood, nor even Time are B. V. T. Silos destroyed. Investigate the merits of this Silo and you will specify the B. V. T.
