Let Your Idle Books Help Our Soldiers

Our young men are sacrificing their education, business, professional training and home life to serve their country.

They need books and current magazines for study, recreation and diversion in lonely moments. You can help them by donating books and magazines which will be forwarded to army camps, the front and the hospitals.

Books on the War, Popular Travel, History and Biography, as well as Short Stories, Detective Stories, Stories of the Sea and Adventure, are desired. Any readable book of general interest will appeal to the soldiers, as there are men of varying tastes among them.

"DO YOUR BIT"

by immediately bringing to the Public Library such books as you wish to donate.

Unclaimed Letters.

Letters remaining unclaimed for in the P. O. at Edgerton for the week ending Aug. 23, 1917:

Mr. Edward Harte
Charlotte Thompson

Persons calling for any of the above named letters please say "advertised."

WISCONSIN NEWS BRIEFS

A steer broke its neck by getting tangled in a field of alfalfa near Ashland.

Miss Anna Giddings and Captain Clarence W. Zachow were married beneath an American flag at the bride's home in Fond du Lac.

Quincy A. Matthews, sixty-nine years old, well known in furniture-manufacturing circles throughout the northwest, died at Milwaukee.

Hobart King of Woodstock, Ill., employed in a tire factory at Racine, had his left arm crushed to a pulp between the rollers of a colander.

John Latimer, formerly employed as an engineer at the school of the Blind at Janesville, has been ordered interned. He was arrested last April on the charge of being an alien enemy.

The nineteenth annual convention of the League of Wisconsin Municipalities, which was to have been held at Racine Aug. 16-17, was postponed until the last week in September.

After many hours' search by scores of farmers the two children of Alfred Yardy, a Rock county farmer, were found, one dead, locked in a cupboard in a deserted house near their home.

Lena Letteau, fourteen years old, of Marblehead, left home several days ago to walk to North Fond du Lac. She has not been seen since, and the sheriff has been unable to find any trace of her.

Guy D. Goff, Milwaukee, has been called to report at once in the office of General Crowder, judge advocate general of the United States army, at Washington. The appointment is for a "special duty."

The city of Racine has presented to The Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light company a claim for $4,000, the cost of repairing the motorized fire truck which was wrecked July 18 in a collision with a street car.

Caught with a heavy grip containing paris green, a poison sprayer and dynamite sticks near Almond by several farmers, a stranger was taken to Stevens Point for arraignment on a charge of attempting to poison cows.

That an attempt has been made to have Governor Philipp include in the call for the special session of the legislature a modification of the anti-trust law passed by the last legislature is one of the discoveries made.

Insulting remarks against the American flag at Kaukauna resulted in John Collins and Leo Madigan being led to a conspicuous place in front of the public library by a crowd, where they were forced to kneel and kiss the flag ten times.

Twenty-six thousand dollars for public purposes, in addition to the sums distributed to employees, was left by the late Andrew Week, head of the John Week Lumber company of Stevens Point, who died while visiting in California.

A state convention of delegates elected by authorized county organizations, for the purpose of meeting and defeating an alleged pro-German conspiracy in Wisconsin, will be held in Milwaukee, probably in state fair week, September 11-15.

One hundred and fifty prominent business and professional men, who conducted a successful Red Cross fund drive in June at Oshkosh, have effected a permanent organization to act as "minute men" under the direction of the state and county council of defense.

Charges have been filed with the Antigo fire and police commission against Chief of Police William Coblenz and Patrolman Warren Hill, alleged to have received money unlawfully in the form of fines which were not reported to the judge of the municipal court.

Resolutions pledging loyalty and pleading that President Wilson be given divine strength that his efforts with regard to the war may be conducive of service to humanity were adopted at the convention of the International Women's Catholic Order of Foresters at Milwaukee.

The Kenosha exemption board certified to the district board and the department of justice in Milwaukee the names of twenty-four "shirkers," who failed to appear for examination following the draft call. The men are mostly foreign born, and only two of them are well known in Kenosha.

Two men were killed and three others were injured in an automobile accident on the Calumet road between Manitowoc and Silver Lake, when the car, going at high speed, skidded and overturned. The dead are Melvin Krause, thirty-three years old, and Herman Kumerow, fifty, of Two Rivers.

Provision for a permanent organization of the Wisconsin State Council of Defense was made at the conference of 100 representatives from all parts of the state. A state convention will be held in Milwaukee, preferably during state fair week. The permanent organization will carry on its present work on a larger scale.

The Wisconsin infantry companies of the Second regiment, selected as part of the national army division to be sent across the seas, are looked upon in Camp Douglas as the chosen few. The men in Company E, Fond du Lac; Company F, Oshkosh, and Company G, Appleton, are glad to go, and every other last man in camp is sorry that he is not going with them.

Fulton Community Picnic.

The third annual community picnic and field day of the Fulton Social Center and boys' Y. M. C. A. groups will be held at Frank Sayre's grove on August 29.

This will be a day of big events! Something doing every minute! Sports and games of all kinds! Prof. Holt will give the address! Let everybody take a pride in making this the biggest event of the year. Show your community spirit by boosting this in every way possible.
