A Game of Base Ball to Be Played Here Next Saturday.

Some More Bicycle Accidents.

Gregg-Lounsberry Suptlal - Who I the Lady Alluded to !- Copper District Conference.

Calumet people will be treated to base ball game next Saturday which will probably be full of the old time enthusiasm. A club composed of members of the old Calumet and Hancock clubs will unite and, with the old favorite battery of Renwick and Soddy, attempt to defeat the Houghton club. Two games will be played, one in the Calumet base ball park on next Saturday, and one on the following day at Houghton. The battery for the Houghton club will be Haley and Haas, and the club is known as the colts. The game certainly should be an interesting one and cannot fail to draw a large attendance. The Min eral Range will sell round trip tickets for Sunday's game for 50 cents.

While on the baseball subject we might state that arrangements are being made with the Page Fence Giants, as they are called, a well-known team of colored base ball players, who are known as the champion independent ball players of America to play here. The team does not belong to any league, but travel about the country in their private car and arranges for games at different points. They have a national reputation and won 121 out of 150 games played last season. This year they have only lost one game and they have played nearly every day since the senson opened. The date for the game here has not been definitely settled as yet, but will propably be on Decoration day.

More Accidents.

Three more bicycle accidents have come under the notice of the NEWS since yesterday, one being of a serious nature. A man was going down Calumet avenue on his wheel at a very speedy rate, so fast, in fact, that when he turned the corner by the Calumet Congregational church and ran into a rock pile, he took a flying toss and was knocked senseless. Some passers-by picked the man up and carried him home. His wheel was almost a complete wreck.

Contractor N. S. Bray, of Laurium, was endeavoring to pass a dog on Fifth street, Red Jacket, last evening and ran into a buggy. The thill of the buggy ran into his side and he also hurt his wrist. Mr. Bray was at work this morning as usual, but will not ride again for some

A bicycle rider at Tamarack Junior ran over a dog yesterday afternoon and smashed the front wheel of his bike.

Will Dolan and another rider collided on Fifth street this noon and each rider took a toss, but no injury of any consequence was done either the wheels or the

Dr. W. T. S. Gregg, of the Tamarack mine medical force, was united in marriage to Miss Luia Lounsberry at Richland, Mich. The following is from the Kalamazoo Telegraph:

"The marriage of Miss Lula Louns-berry to Dr. W. T. S. Gregg was solemn-ized Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, in Richland, by Rev. John Gray, D. D. The house was beautifully decorated with bud and blossom The bride wore a very handsome gown of white brocaded satin. There was a large company present, including a number of friends from this city. The bride is a well-known young lady, and has many friends, who wish her all happiness. She recently resigned the position of book keeper for the C. H. Dutton boiler com pany. The groom is a Detroit gentle-man, who was for some time physical di-rector of the Y. M. C. A., of Kaiamazoo. He is now practicing medicine at Calu-

Announcement cards have been re ceived here by a number of friends and the happy couple will be at home at Tamarack after July 1.

CALUMET. May 19, 1896.

To the Editor-Permit me, through your valuable paper, which is ever ready to expose imposition on the public, to call attention to the following, which has just come under my observation: A widowlady, lately imported from Canada and owning property there, has been so liciting several of the well-to-do families for dreamabling representing that that CALUMET. She has all this time been caretaker of one of our public institutions, earning $20 a month, and at present doing a lively business at dressmaking.

Now, sir, we have plenty of widows in our town who ought to have the preference to these public situations, and not those who have a plenty and can earn a living at their callings as dressmakers. Trusting she may take this warning, and be content to live and let live, other wise the trustees, who are gentlemen and always striving to give this kind of employment to the most deserving, will be informed.

Slayton's Jubilee Singers.

"A large audience was present at the Richardson theatre last evening to lear Slayton's Jubilee singers. The opening chorus showed them what to expect and the development of the program brought no disappointment. The company is one of the finest ever before the publi and will do much to restore jubilee singing to its proper place in the estimation of musical people. There are several soloists in the organization, who sing other than jubilee music. The humorous specialties were immensely funny and nearly convulsed the audience in the rendering." -The Oswego (N. Y) Palladium, Febru ary 23, 1895.

At Red Jacket Opera House, May 22. The members of the "Crawford's Claim" ompany report a most pleasant time at Lake Linden, where they presented the play last evening. Before the entertainment the Lake Linden band rendered several selections on the street for which they wish to publicly thank them and to assure them that it was a kindness long to be remembered. After the play supper was served by a number of Lake Linden young people and an hour was spent in enjoying this hospitality. Dancing was afterward indulged in and it was early in the morning when they arrived home. All are loud in their praise of Lake Linden's hospitality.
