LAURIUM SIDEWALK BIDS TO BE OPENED

LAURIUM COUNCIL WILL HOLD SPECIAL MEETING THIS EVENING.

There will be a special meeting of the Laurium council this evening, at which time the bids for the sidewalk work to be done in the village this summer will be opened. Contracts probably will be awarded for the construction of 80,000 square yards of walk on Osceola, Iroquois, Tamarack, First and Kearsarge streets and Lake Linden avenue. The grades for these walks have been established by the village engineer and the old board walks removed.

Good progress is being made with the improvement work started on First street some time ago. The resurfacing of the street end to end will be completed by the latter part of this week or early next week. Contractor Roehm is making good headway with the sidewalk work on First street and it will be a comparatively short time before good walks are available on both sides of the street.

SELBERG-ENGEL NUPTIALS.

Pretty June Wedding Solemnized at Home of the Bride.

One of the prettiest weddings of the month of brides was solemnized last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Selberg, 240 Kearsarge street, when their daughter, Miss Lucille and Edward T. Engen were united in marriage. Rev. A. Bartling, pastor of the German Lutheran church of Laurium, officiated, and the ceremony was witnessed by a large party of friends and relatives of the young people.

The bride was becomingly attired in white messaline and carried a shower bouquet of white bridal roses. She was attended by Miss Carrie Klein as maid of honor and her sister, Miss Viola Selberg, as bridesmaid. Miss Klein wore lavender voile and carried white carnations and Miss Viola Selberg was gowned in white embroidered and carried white and pink carnations. The bride was given away by her father, Alfred Nicholls of Lake Linden attended the groom.

The Selberg home was prettily decorated for the occasion, yellow and white being the predominating colors. Daisies and ferns were used effectively. The wedding vows were taken beneath a canopy from which hung three immense bells of daisies and ferns. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Klein of Bemidji, Minn., Mrs. Charles Klein of Everett, Minn., O. T. Angvik of Superior, Mr. and Mrs. William O'Brien of Houghton, Arthur Rodd of Houghton and Miss Mary Leiblein of Hancock.

Both bride and groom are well known in Calumet, the former having

SHEPHERD PONY CONTEST.

Boys Are Working Hard and Several Are Making Big Gains.

The boys in the Shepherd pony contest, being held in connection with Laurium's carnival, are hustling these days. There is little change among the leaders in the contest, but some of the boys who have been down in the list, are coming up, and the wind-up should be exciting. Willie Cornow wishes to dispel the rumor that he has dropped out of the race. He is in it to stay, he says. Chester Charrier also denies the report he has dropped out.

ELEPHANT TO PUSH CAR.

Novel Stunt Is Arranged for by United Shows Company.

One of the novel stunts which is contemplated in connection with the carnival of the United Shows company in Laurium next week is that of an elephant pushing a street car the full length of Hecla street. The consent of the Houghton County Traction company has already been secured for this experiment and if the plans work out as arranged, the elephant will replace the trolley at the south end of Hecla street, near Lake Linden avenue and push the car loaded with passengers to the north end of the street at First. This novel feature will be provided every day of the carnival week, according to plans which have been prepared and should prove very interesting.

SPORTING EXTRA GAMES TO BE PLAYED HERE

IRON-COPPER COUNTRY LEAGUE CONTESTS FOR BENEFIT OF TREASURY.

The Negaunee team, of the Iron-Copper Country baseball league, will arrive in Calumet Saturday to play three games with the Calumet team, Saturday, Sunday and Monday, June 29, 30 and July 1. The Saturday and Monday games will be played in Red Jacket, commencing at 4:15 p. m., and the Sunday game, at the Laurium driving park, at 3 o'clock.

Next Monday's game is one of the mid-week games, the dates for which were not fixed at the opening of the season, but which were left in the hands of the Calumet management. The game will be a regular league game, and count in the percentage column, but the proceeds will be placed in the league treasury for traveling expenses.

Marquette will be in Calumet on July 3, and at 4:15 o'clock that afternoon will play Calumet in the Red Jacket park. The proceeds of this particular game also will go into the league treasury for traveling expenses. Marquette will play Calumet the morning of Fourth of July in Red Jacket, the game to be called at 10 o'clock, and in the afternoon the teams will meet at the Laurium driving park, commencing at 2:30 o'clock.

The Ishpeming team will come to Calumet on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, July 13, 14 and 15, for three games, playing at the C. & H. park in Red Jacket on July 13 and 14, and the Laurium driving park Sunday afternoon, July 14. The Monday's game for the benefit of the league treasury.

Manager George Herkins has received a communication from Becker, who has been released by Negaunee, asking for a place on the Calumet team. He is a good outfielder and infielder, but Manager Herkins cannot use him, as he is well satisfied with his team as it now stands, and will make no further changes.

A younger brother of Eddie Plank is making good in the boxing ring in Australia.

Peter Maher will follow his hat into the ring and meet Luther McCarthy in Brooklyn.

"Kid" Parker, the former Denver lightweight, is confined in an insane asylum in Nebraska.

It would be tough luck for St. Louis fans to have two teams in the cellar at the same time, so it is up to Roger Bresnahan to keep his Cardinals hanging on the ladder.

Detroit and Chicago fell down badly on their home grounds against the Eastern teams. The Tigers won six of the sixteen games played and the White Sox copped only five out of sixteen games.

TRACK EVENTS VERY POPULAR

MORE ENTRIES FOR OLYMPIC CONTESTS THAN EVER BEFORE. MANY PRELIMINARIES.

Stockholm, June 26.—The number of entries for the Olympic games is greater than on any previous occasion.

Seventeen heats and two qualifying rounds will be necessary to reduce the field of ninety-five entered for the 100-meter dash to the six men entitled to compete in the final. One hundred men are entered for the 200-meter dash; 28 will contest in the 400-meter event and 72 in the 800 meters. For the 1,500 meters eighty-eight men are entered and for the 2,000 meters eighty. The 10,000 meters run has attracted 82 and the high hurdles sixty competitors.

The Marathon will bring together seventy-two contenders. Nine nations will be represented in the 3,000 meters team race, while teams representing the United States, Russia, Italy, Hungary, England, Canada, Germany, France, Austria and Sweden will match speed and staying powers in the 1,800 meters relay.

The relay dash of 400 meters will have teams competing from the United States, Hungary, Austria, Germany, Bohemia, England, Russia, Norway, Canada, France, Italy and Sweden. The entries for the field events are not quite so large. Sixty-five men will compete in the running high jump and the standing high jump; fifty-seven in the hop, step and jump; fifty-seven in the pole vault. Throwing the javelin with the best hand will bring together sixty-five while thirty-two have entered for the same event using both hands. Seventy-one will throw the discus with the best hand, and fifty-six with both hands. The shot-put with the best hand has attracted sixty-two competitors and the same event with two hands, twenty-seven, only twenty-eight men will try the hammer throw, seven being members of the American team and twelve representing Sweden.

EDDIE PLANK RATED. SECOND ONLY TO THE PEERLESS MATHEWSON

New York, June 26.—With the single exception of Christy Mathewson, no pitcher now before the American public can be compared to Eddie Plank of the Athletics.

Mathewson is the living wonder among baseball pitchers. Radbourne, Clarkson, Tim Keefe, Charley Nichols, Amos Rusie and Charley Buffington were good, but Matty is the premier.

Mathewson is the one pitcher that tries to put every ball over the home plate for a strike. No other baseman ever adopted the same line of defense. Mathewson pitches every ball with the same preliminary motion, shortening up with men on bases, but pitching the different curves and shoots with the same swing.

Having perfect control and never wasting a ball, the batsman must guess the style of ball that Mathewson is about to deliver. If you guess right Mathewson's curves are not hard to find, as they are always over the plate. The trouble is that the batsman is forced to guess, and he will seldom get the same curve twice in succession. Catchers need no clues to catch Mathewson and signal timing before is a lost art with Matty in the box.

Eddie Plank, who has shown a remarkable form with the Athletics, is now on his 12th year with the Athletics. Plank is a left-hander, using a cross fire. He has excellent command and a fine knowledge of working his man. With a straight ball on the outside of the plate and a sweeping curve across the plate, he is effective against any club.

BYAPPY
Up from the smother and din of the street,
Drowning the trample of hurrying feet,
Rises a question that soars to the sky,
Voicing a multitude's hungering cry,
Ringing insistently now and anon,
Sharply re-echoing hither and yon,
Growing and swelling, it reaches a roar,
And this is its burden—
WHAT'S THE SCORE?

There are questions of policy, business and state,
Questions to worry us early and late;
Questions of finance and questions of fact,
Questions of labor to vex and distract,
Questions of ethics and morals and law,
Questions about which we don't care a straw,
But one burning question we cannot ignore,
The question of questions—
WHAT'S THE SCORE?

—APPYGRAMS—
There was a reformer named Brownson,
Who barred Sunday ban in Wisconsin.
They stood for his ban,
On player and fan,
But they balked when he tried to ban Johnson.

In office and market, in foyer and street
It bursts from the lips of each friend that we meet,
In workshop and factory, trolley and train,
The wheels seem to echo its eager refrain;
In senate and courtroom, and even in church
It silently speeds on its sibilant search;
From valley and mountain, from prairie and shore,
The query goes echoing—
WHAT'S THE SCORE?

It pops from each window, it bursts from each door,
It drips from the ceiling and springs from the floor,
From neighbor and stranger, from friend and from foe
It's fired upon us wherever we go,
And when we have passed from this valley of tears,
And up at the portal St. Peter appears,
We fully expect he will open the door
And cautiously whisper—
"WHAT WAS THE SCORE?"

CRICKET RACE INTERESTING.

Keen Contest Anticipated Three of the Teams Being Tied.

Three teams are tied for first place in the Copper Country Cricket League, and a keen struggle is expected during the remainder of the season. The teams that are tied are Wolverine, Tamarack and Mohawk.

Next Saturday on the Wolverine pitch, Tamarack line up against the locals. Another big match is scheduled for the Saturday following, Mohawk going to Tamarack.

The standings of the teams follow:

Wolverine	4	1	300
Tamarack	4	1	300
Mohawk	4	1	300
N. Kearsarge	2	3	400
Quincy	2	3	400
Calumet & Hecla	1	3	250

FAST MEN SLIP BY.

Some of Best Fail to Shine Under Some Conditions.

There are innumerable instances where good ball players have been let out by one major league club only to become stars for another after a little experience in a minor league. Eddie Foster is one of these. The question is often asked how Foster came to get away from New York. That club sent him to Rochester with the agreement that it would have the pick of the team in the fall.

It is said that John Gammel, the manager of that club, gave it as his opinion to the owner of the New York club that Foster would not be of any help to his team, and he then consented to the sale of Foster to Washington, a deal which he undoubtedly has had reason to regret.

Maurice Rath furnishes another instance of where a good ball player was allowed to slip through the hands of two major league clubs and is now making good for the White Sox with a vengeance. Philadelphia and Cleveland both had Rath, but he made good for neither because he was not played at the position where he belonged. They tried him at third and he failed, while he appears to be a wonderfully clever player at second.

Until Foster came to the Nationals, he was considered only a shortstop, yet he seems to have developed into one of the best third basemen in the league in a very short time.

FIGHTERS WORKING HARD.

Las Vegas, N. M., June 26.—With less than two weeks left in which to finish preparation for their championship match July 4, Jack Johnson and Jim Flynn are putting in the hardest kind of work. The negro titlholders is training in earnest, doing loads of work daily with his sparring partner and on the road. Flynn, too, is not losing any time to round into fighting trim.

SPORTING EDITOR'S NOTES.

The Philadelphia Nationals have landed Pitcher Rixey, the clever south paw of the University of Virginia baseball team.

They may say that Eddie Plank is going back, but when the veteran pitcher of the Athletics can wig eight out of nine games as he has done this season, mere "saying" doesn't count for much.

Some of the critics predicted the first of the season that the Cincinnati Reds would curl up and wither about July 4, and Hank O'Day will have to keep his hired men on their toes or the critics will win.

It is said that five clubs, Brooklyn, St. Louis, Chicago, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, are lined up solidly against President Linn of the National League. The chief count in the indictment against Mr. Linn is alleged poor work in handling his staff of umpires.

With only two veterans in the regular line-up, Milan and Melbirds, the Washington Senators have been standing the American league teams on their heads. McEller, Gandil, Foster, Shanks and Moran, the other stellar members of the Griffith aggregation, are youngsters.
