THE YOUNG REFORMERS

MET LAST NIGHT IN THE CITY HALL.

A Small Attendance—Permanent Organization Effected—Resolutions Adopted—Much Speechifying Indulged In.

The Young Men's Reform club met last night in the city hall. The attendance was small but all present showed much enthusiasm in the movement.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. J. R. Downs, promptly at the appointed hour, who, in a short speech, stated the object of the meeting to be to organize into a local political club, with aims and objects the same as the old club, under the banner of which they had before marched to victory. He urged that in order to succeed it was necessary for every member to exert his every energy in the work, and in selecting their standard bearers to be conservative, discreet and cautious. He further stated that the organization would devote itself solely to city politics and in the interest of good local government to put in office the very best men; that the members were expected to pledge themselves to abide by the decisions of the majority of the club and to support every candidate thus selected. Temporary organization was then completed by the election of Mr. J. R. Downs as temporary chairman and Mr. Tom O. Plunkett temporary secretary.

A motion was made by Mr. J. E. Boynton, and carried, that a committee of three be appointed to draft resolutions setting forth the aims and objects of the organization. Messrs. J. E. Boynton, Stark West and Chas. Banister were appointed and a recess of fifteen minutes taken, during which time several enthusiastic speeches were made.

Upon the return of the committee the following resolution was reported, and after some discussion, adopted unanimously:

Whereas: We, the undersigned, citizens of Waco, believe it to be for the best interests and future welfare of the city that an organization be effected for the purpose of securing the election of good men to the city offices, to be filled at the coming April election; therefore be it

Resolved. That we organize ourselves into a club, to be known as the Young Men's Reform Club, of the city of Waco; that we invite all voters having the good of the city at heart to join us, and that the object of this club is solely to the accomplishment of this end.

STARK WEST. CHAS. BANISTER. J. E. BOYNTON.

The roll of membership was then opened for the names of those desiring to become members and the following gentlemen joined the club: W L Radway, J B Stone, C A Richardson, Bruce Gerald, Chas. Banister, T M McCulloch, R L Allen, J T Studer, J G Monroe, W E Hawkins, J E Boynton, C F Thomas, W B Morrison, C A Boynton, R H Kingsbury, Ewell Bassett, Wm J Talley, R W Joblonowski, Stark West, S J Quay, J R Downs, R H Rogers, Willie Sleeper, Pat Massey, N L Davis, Tom O Plunkett, H L Taylor, Willie Plunkett, C P Albea, R. B. Banton and J. B. Baker.

The club then went into permanent organization and the following officers were elected:

J R Downs, president; Bruce Gerald, secretary; Thomas P Stone, assistant secretary; Pat Massey, treasurer.

A motion was made by Mr. R H Kingsbury that one vice-president from each ward in the city be elected, but as a precautionary measure it was suggested by Mr. J. E. Boynton, that action thereon be deferred till the next meeting of the club.

The following call signed by all the members was authorized to be published in all the papers:

The undersigned, who have organized for the purposes indicated in the above resolution, earnestly request all citizens interested in reforms in the city government and in the economical distribution and application of the proceeds of taxation are earnestly requested to meet with and aid us with their presence, countenance and support at the city hall next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The meeting then adjourned.

Texas History Getting Nixed.

Editor Evening News:

I have read Wm. B. Slosson's Georgia letter with great interest, but regret to see he gets the history of Miss Troutman's Lone Star Flag and Santa Anna silver plate, somewhat confused.

He says in 1833 Capt. Mirobeau B. Lamar afterward President Lamar raised a company of Georgians to aid Texas in her revolution and that Miss Troutman gave Capt. Lamar's Company the "Lone Star Flag" and that Capt. Lamar and Company fought so bravely, they received as a premium a part of Santa Anna's silver plate and that they returned the "Lone Star Flag" to the fair donor with a part of Santa Anna's plate.

The facts of history are these: 1st. The Texas Revolution did not occur in 1833 but in 1836.

2nd. Gen. Lamar never raised a company of Georgians but came to Texas alone and landed at Velasco in March 1836 and set out alone and a foot and joined Houston's army on the Brazos near where Hempstead now stands. Gen. Lamar commanded the whole Texas cavalry force and fought heroically at San Jacinto.

3rd. Capt. J. W. Fannin did raise a Georgia Company which increased to a regiment of which he became Colonel and Miss Troutman, a lady of great beauty and talent and they say an early sweet heart of Gen. Thos. J. Rustin, did present Capt. Fannin's Company a Lone Star Flag from which the Lone Star Republic and Lone Star State took their glorious symbol.

4th. The beautiful flag was riddled with bullets and was captured at Colita and its brave defenders marched back to Goliad and shot on March 27th by order of Santa Anna.

5. That flag and all Santa Anna's other trophies, captured at the Alamo were recaptured with all Mrs. _____ silver plate and $12,000 in silver at San Jacinto, April 21, 1826.

6. The Texas government, by special vote, ordered Gen. Rusk, secretary of war, to return that battle torn flag to its fair maker and donor and also present her Santa Anna's splended silver service. The name and history of Miss Joana Troutman, who afterwards married Col Pope, should ever be cherished by every true Texan. One of our fair seniors will read at our next monthly review an essay or poem on "Miss Troutman and her Lone Star flag"; and should her son, Col. H. B. Pope, of Rome, Ga., or any of her family ever visit Waco I suggest we give them a banquet.

An Incendiary Fire.

About 12 o'clock last night, when all the family of Maj. Charles B. Pearre were "wrapt in the arms of Morpheus," they were aroused by the screams of the servant who had just returned to her room and found her clothing on fire. The alarm of fire was immediately sounded and Waco's efficient fire department hastened to the scene, but not until the flames had gained such headway that the servant's room and kitchen, with all their furniture, was entirely consumed.

Maj. Pearre is lavish in his praise of the firemen and their prompt appearance, and stated to a News reporter, this morning, that in two minutes after their arrival they had the fire under control, and ascribed to them the credit of saving the main part of his residence.

One feature of the incident, which disturbed the minds of the friends of the family, was the serious illness of Mrs. Pearre at the time, and it is a matter of congratulation that the excitement of the occasion did not maerially affect her, detrimentally, in her already precarious condition. The praise, in this particular, is ascribed to the careful attention of her physician, Dr. J. H. Sears, who attended her bedside immediately after the first alarm was sounded.

The fire originated in the servant's wardrobe in her room and the theory is, that it was the work of an incendiary who entertained some grudge against her.

The loss is fully covered by insurance in the Aetna Insurance company, Mr. R. B. Killough, agent.

WORLD'S FAIR SUBSCRIPTION.

A Plan posed for Raising the Money for the Texas Building.

It will require $100,000 in the aggregate to construct the Texas exhibit building on the World's Fair grounds at Chicago, the plan for which, as now adopted, will give Texas one of the handsomest buildings on the grounds.

A great many who are able and willing to subscribe toward the construction of this building are simply holding back their contributions until success is assured.

If 500 citizens of Texas can be secured who will contribute $200 each to the enterprise the amount necessary for the construction of the building can thus be raised and the success of the movement will be assured.

The Texas World's Fair association pledges that this money will not be called for until the entire amount is raised, and it shall become necessary to be used in the construction of the Texas building.

Who will subscribe $200? Or who will raise $200 to be added to this conditional fund? This list is not confined to business men or capitalists alone, but is open to all who wish to add their names to the roll of honor FOR THE BUILDING FUND.

We, who subscribe our names hereto, agree to contribute $200 to be used in construction of the Texas exhibit building at the World's Fair, provided that 500 citizens can be secured, each of whom will subscribe $200, which will be the means of raising the necessary $100,000, and thus insure the success of the enterprise. This subscription is intended exclusively for the building fund and is subscribed with the further condition that no part of it is to be drawn until the 500 names shall be secured and the full amount be raised.

NOTE—Similar lists are being published in other Texas papers and the aggregate result will, from time to time, be reported from Waco by the secretary of the Texas World's Fair association.

THAT GREAT BEAST.

It Comes Near Town and Defies the Mighty Hunters.

That great beast which has been puzzling the hunters of Waco while roaming the Bosque brakes, made its appearance near college heights last night. It howled, it yowled, it yawned and cut up didos generally in the cedar brakes while consternation was spread among the inhabitants thereof. A gentleman who resides on College heights says he believes the great beast was looking for certain hunters who have been chasing it with hounds for the past several weeks. If this is true, then these mighty hunters will not have to travel but two miles in the hereafter to strike a trail that will make all the fun they want. Certain doubting Thomases will never be satisfied until that mighty beast is captured. Now is the time to catch it.

Had not Slept for Years.

Mr. A. Jackson, an old resident of Rusk, Texas, and manager of the magnificent new hotel at Rusk, informs us he had not slept at night for years except in short naps, owing to incessant coughing. He was advised when very much run down to try Ballard's Horehound Syrup; he was immediately relieved of his cough and his rest improved to such a degree that he could sleep soundly all night; Mr. Jackson states: "I regard Ballard's Horehound Syrup superior to any Cough Syrup on the market, and its freedom from opium and morphine leave no constipation after using it. For this reason alone I consider it the best cough syrup in the world for children. My lungs are now stronger than they have been for years. This syrup is very soothing to the throat and lungs."
