Great Plans for Corn Show.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 19.—All ar Stylish rangements are practically complete for the great corn show to be held in this city during the coming week. The exhibition will occupy three buildings and is designed to be the largest affair of its kind ever given in this country. The chief purpose of the promoters of the show is to interest the corn growers throughout the country in the modern, scientific shapes and tints In boxes or ways of raising corn so that the yield and the quality may be increased and improved.

Besides the corn itself, there will be exhibits of kindred cereals and grasses, feed and farm machinery and displays of most of the 107 by-products, showing the process from the raw material to the market article. The corn kitchen will show the many ways corn is used as a food, and there will be a course of lectures by men high in the agricultural world on the scientific raising of corn. The agricultural department of the University | These are quarter-acre lots. of Illinois will have charge of the educational features of the exhibition.
