WASHINGTON LETTER.

Matters of Moment In Politics and Predictions of Results.

Regular Correspondence of THE HERALD

Washington, Sept. 7th., 1896. -Not satisfied that himself and every member of his cabinet county, which is a splendid RELEASE OF THE would oppose the regular democratic ticket, President is strong for free coinage, and Cleveland wants all of the other democratic officials to do likewise. It has been semi-official ly stated that he intends to ask for the resignation of every government official who public ly supports Bryan and Sewall. It is not likely, however, that this will prevent any official who wishes to support Bryan and Sewall from doing to. There are few democrats who will allow a few months office hold ing to stand in the way of their exercising the right of every American, to talk and vote for the principles he believes in, and already several peominent officials, among them Hon. Scott Wike, Assistant the 19th inst. one of the biggest Secretary of the Treasury; Deputy Pension Commissioner Bell, and Auditor Baldwin are

The interstate democratic Association, of Washington, held a rousing Bryan and Sewall mass meeting, their second, Sat urday night, which was presid tlett, department commander of the G. A. R. of New York, a Bryan and silver.

Representative Sulzer, of New York, says in a letter to the democratic congressional com mittee. The campaign in the state is progressing quietly but energetical by. It is being made by the clubs and by labor or ganizations, and the friends of the plain people generally, re gardless of the attitude of prominent state leaders. I have made several trips through the state, and have had long talks with prominent democrats in all parts, and I believe that with the proper efforts; the state of New York can be carried this fall. After the state convention (to be held Sept. 17th) no doubt the campaign will assume a more enthusiastic aspect, and many who are now silent will then come to the agricultural region, the feeling it is by no means confined to says in an editorial on the subthe democrats. Any number of silver clubs have been formed and every one has in its membership, a goodly per cent of men who have invariably voted the republican ticket. This is not hearsay, for I know personally scores of such men. In addition to this, republican prators are taking the stump "to deal with dynamiters as if for Bryan and are doing excellent missionary work. Bolting sound money democrats are extremely rare the with us."

The democrats of Washington intend making the Bryan and Sewall ratification meeting to be held on the afternoon of ity." affairs of the kind ever held at the National capital.
