An Exclusive Church.

An old darkey wanted to join a fashionable city church and the minister, knowing it was hardly the thing to do and not wanting to hurt his feelings, told him to go home and pray over it. In a few days the darkey came back. "Well what do you think about it by this time?" asked the preacher.

"Well sah" replied the colored man, "Ah prayed and de good Lawd, He says to me, 'Rastus Ah would bodder mah haid about dat no mo; Ah've been trying to get into dat ch'ch mahse'f fo' las' twenty yeas and Ah done had no luck.'—National Monthly.

Failed in Health

"My mother died six years ago," writes Miss Ruth Ward, of Jerseyville, Ill., "and left me to care for six children. I had never been strong; and this, with the shock of her death, was too much for me. I failed in health. I was in bed all the time and did not want to go anywhere, nor care for company. I had the headache all the time and such bearing-down pains. A very dear friend advised me to take Cardui, as it had done her so much good, so I commenced to use it and now I am in good health."

The Honey Bee

The honey bee is nature's factory and this family of insects is the only one which completely manufactures and stores a product ready for the market without the aid of man and the ingenuity of the human race has never been able to imitate its products. It completely does it in all probability it operates in direct violation of our anti-trust laws.

Like the human race, there are many drones in the colony, but as a whole the bee is the highest type of energy, thrift, and enterprise in the animal kingdom and it leads to intelligence, foresight and business persistency.

They are the most orderly and best governed of any class of animals, not excepting the human race. Their methods of government form the basis of the constitution of every civilized nation on the globe, and so perfect is this primitive system of government that no changes in or additions to their laws have been necessary since the beginning of creation and they have fewer and better laws than any other organized form of animal society. The "spirit of the hive" is oftentimes more conducive to peace and industrial activity than public sentiment of civic communities.

The Texas Almanac of 1910 estimates that we have 400,000 swarms valued at $9.17 each, making a total value of $3,668,000, and last year the output of honey and wax sold for $3,500,000. This is a return of 55 per cent on the investment. No banker or broker will undertake to compete with them in dividends and money invested in an apiary is as safe as in a bank vault. No domestic animal or insect has been able to approach the honey bee as a revenue producer and none can compare with it in popularity of product.

The climate of Texas permits the bee to work 365 days in the year and the soil produces blossoms, buds and flowers for these little harvesters to reap the entire year. The natural vegetable growth of Texas is rich in honey products and no country on the globe is better adapted by nature to apiculture than Texas.

Pro Election Ruling Made.

Austin, Texas.—The attorney general's department has furnished an opinion to R. E. Bratton county judge of Tarrant county, wherein it is held that regular election judges appointed by county commissioners for regular elections cannot serve on the statewide prohibition election to be held next July; that such judges are eligible, but they must be appointed for that special purpose.

It is also held that under the amendment to the Terrell election law passed by the last legislature, the county judge must also appoint judges and two clerks and two supervisors. Under the general election there are four judges and four clerks, but under today's ruling there can be only two judges and two clerks named. This ruling reduces the number of judges.

Foley's Kidney Remedy Acted Quickly. M. N. George, Ironville, Ala., was bothered with kidney trouble for many years. "I was persuaded to try Foley Kidney Remedy, and before taking it three days I could feel its beneficial effects. The pain left my back, my kidney action cleared up, and I am so much better, I do not hesitate to recommend Foley Kidney Remedy." Allen Urquhart.

Linden News.

Two of our reliable citizen, Messrs. G. T. Bartlett and I. N. Marett, went out to Jim's Bayou Sunday and finding a wet, marshy place near the bank they stuck down a stick some three or four feet in the mud, and on withdrawing the stick and applying a lighted match to the place a blue flame would shoot up in the air from a foot to two feet high. Of course the hole would fill up immediately with mud and water causing the flame to go out. They say it had the scent of gas alright. Whether this means there is plenty of gas deeper down or not, we are not able to say, but take it to be a pretty good indication.

We have been of the impression for several years that oil or gas could be found in this section and are more convinced now than ever that it was given a thorough test, that it would be found in abundance.

It is said that the head of a big American trust made a proposition to Gen. Madero to finance his campaign for the presidency of Mexico and guarantee his election provided he would grant them certain concessions in Mexico. Madero promptly told the trust magnate to go to a place hotter than Mexican chili and said he was not hankering after the presidency of Mexico, and if he did he wasn't for sale.

This action marks Madero a true patriot more than any other act of his life. How many American statesmen would have withstood such a temptation?—Ex.

Denial of Claims to the Estate of G. M. Griggsby.

Dallas, June 26.—The court of civil appeals this morning handed down a decision denying the claim of Jesse Stalcup Griggsby to the property of G. D. M. Griggsby, a prominent railway contractor here, who formerly made his headquarters in Marshall, that she was his common law wife. The court held that it was impossible for men of Griggsby's social and financial position to have lived in the relation of man and wife with the plaintiff. The property is worth half a million.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS

The Preacher Who Prayed for Antis.

The antis, strange to say, shipped a preacher from a small interior town to read a prayer at the rally in Fort Worth. The prayer was published in the anti papers as a rare piece of sacred literature. Immediately after the irreverent performance the leading ministers in the church to which the said anti-prayer-reader belongs, came out in the daily press and exonerated that church of all responsibility for him, and gave the public to understand that their records and directories gave no account of such a minister in their organization. Now comes the climax: On last Sunday night a distinguished minister in the Baptist church in Fort Worth made a public address to a large audience exposing said preacher and gave some incidents in connection with him that are racy and odoriferous. Whether the Baptist minister knew of the truthfulness of his statements is not for us to say, but he made them boldly, openly and with every effort a wide publicity. We do not assume their truthfulness, but if half what was said is true, we are not surprised that he was about the only and last chance that the antis had to find somebody to pray for them at the big coliseum.—Home and State.

How you may profit by it. Take Foley Kidney Pills. Mrs. E. G. The pain and dizzy headaches left me, my eye-sight became clear and to-day I can say I am a well woman, thanks to Foley Kidney Pills." Allen Urquhart.

The University of Texas is preparing to issue, for the inspiration and encouragement of Texas boys and girls who wish to get a University education, a bulletin containing the stories of boys and girls who have worked their way through college. These stories are written by the students themselves. Some of them are from men and women who graduated years and years ago, and are now in the world enjoying the success they so well deserve; some are from younger men and women who are just entering upon the field of business; and some are from boys and girls who are still students in the University. All are interesting, and every one will, doubtless prove an incentive to some boy or girl, who perhaps before, had but little real hope of ever being able to attend a University.

The bulletin is to be published some time during the summer and will soon be ready for distribution to all who may be interested. This little pamphlet will be sent free to any one sending a request, with his name and address, to the Department of Extension, University of Texas Austin, Texas.
