

Brief News of Faulkner

SOME OF THE HAPPENINGS DURING THE PAST WEEK IN THIS COUNTY.

GUY.

We received a good rain Friday night and Saturday, which every one was proud to see. Crops are looking much better.

We failed to get our letter off last week in time for print.

School began here Monday, July 7, with Prof. D. A. McKnight as principal, Mrs. Florie Ritchie, first assistant, and Miss Ruth Glover, second assistant. There was a good enrollment.

Miss Belle Montgomery returned home Sunday from a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Wes McNutt, at Springfield.

Poley Henry began his school at Chiquapin Monday of last week. School also started at Rowlett Schoolhouse, with J. C. Gray as teacher.

The Guy Telephone Company has bought the Columbus Hagar house here and the switchboard will be moved back to it this week. Some work was done Monday on moving the lines. Jacob Hartwick and Miss Ovie Presley surprised their many friends by getting married on Saturday, July 5th.

Grandma Vann of near Greenbrier is visiting in the home of W. L. Lieb-long this week.

Mrs. Mollie Vann of Little Rock is visiting relatives and friends here this week.

Miss Myrtle Horton is staying with her uncle, Will Horton, at this place, so she can attend school.

Rev. Megee failed to fill his appointment at the Baptist church Saturday and Sunday.

The meeting will begin at the Christian church next Friday night.

Rev. Mr. Roberts has been conducting a meeting near J. A. Dodd's residence, the past week. It closed Sunday night.

Quite a crowd contemplates being at Pinnacle Springs Sunday evening.

Wesley Montgomery has had quite a lot of work done on his house, which adds much to its appearance. Mr. Kelso of Greenbrier has been doing the work.

July 16.

LINDER.

The drouth was broken here Saturday by a steady five-hour rain.

Jim Chaney went to Conway Monday.

Bill Day went to Conway Saturday.

Basil Tucker of Greenbrier visited in our community Sunday.

George Cato caught a buffalo fish day.

We notice that J. W. Rhea will be in the race for tax assessor.

We were grieved to learn of the death of Elmer Strickland of Greenbrier, who was killed last week at Van Buren.

George Cato caught a Buffalo fish Monday that weighed 20 pounds.

Mrs. John Lowry has about 80 jars of blackberries canned.

Will Cato went to Conway Monday.

July 16.

GREENBRIER.

C. E. Moore visited homefolks Saturday night and Sunday.

Cecil McCaul visited his sisters, Mrs. Jones and Miss Laura McCaul, in Little Rock the past week.

The drouth was broken here last Saturday by a rainfall of seven hours.

Everybody rejoiced over the rain, and crops are looking fine, except old corn, which is badly injured.

C. H. Cheek visited the Sunday school at Cash Springs Sunday.

He reports a prosperous Sunday school and everything in good working order.

Brother Cheek is a great worker in Sunday school.

Waddle & Kelso are having an addition built to their shop and mill house.

They are fine workmen and are a great help to the community at large.

H. Hankins and wife of Shults, Okla., arrived here last Friday and will visit his father and mother, G. W. Hankins and wife, and other relatives and friends for a while. This was his former home.

Emory Hankins of Vilonia visited his parents Saturday and Sunday.

R. L. Lieblong and wife are visiting relatives at Eudora, Ark., this week.

E. P. Lieblong is serving the route this week.

Quite a crowd attended the district singing convention here Saturday and Sunday.

There was some fine singing and several classes represented.

Among the noted singers of Faulkner county present were R. E. Perry and T. E. Herring of Enders, W. D. Bryant and J. W. Matthews of Enola, George Jolly and Joe Hankins of Pleasant Hill, H. L. Tyler, W. E. McCollum, Z. T. and J. F. Kennamer of Greenbrier and R. M. Browning of Shady Grove.

W. D. Bryant was elected president and T. E. Herring secretary for the ensuing year.

Everybody remembers the singing school will commence here August 11, and will be taught by Prof. R. E. Perry of Enders.

He is one of the best teachers in central Arkansas, and those wishing to learn vocal music should not miss the opportunity.

He left here Sunday and opened a normal musical institute at Republican Monday morning, with 51 pupils.

July 16.

GLENTOWN.

Sam and Arthur Glover visited relatives at Beryl a few days last week.

Our school opened this morning, with Prof. Howard as teacher.

Henry Thomas and Miss Ezzie Be-lotte were happily married last Thursday night. The writer joins with their many friends in wishing them a happy voyage through life.

Mrs. Bettie Weatherly has been very low, but is improving slowly.

July 16.

KENDALL.

We had a fine rain Saturday that did the crops a great deal of good.

Dr. and Mrs. Hutto's twin babies, who have been very sick for a week, are better.

Uncle Green McMillen, who has been sick for quite a while, is sinking very rapidly.

Mrs. Hurst of near Greenbrier is visiting her grand-daughter, Mrs. Henry Howell.

Lincoln Smith went to Republican Saturday.

W. A. Russell made a trip to Conway Friday.

July 16.

CATO.

We had a fine rain last Wednesday and a good deal of hail with it.

The Sunday school rally was rained out last Saturday.

Wayne Farris and family of Little Rock spent the day Sunday here with Mr. Farris' mother.

Tont Diffie is working for H. B. Harrell.

Wesley Clements, Fred Hogan and Carl Clements went to Little Rock Monday.

Grover Pairt visited relatives : Beryl one day last week.

Mrs. Ada Harrison of across the hill died Sunday of meningitis. She was buried Monday by the Woodmet Circle.

Mrs. Harrison leaves a husband, mother and six little children several brothers and a host of friends to mourn her death.

We extend our deepest sympathy to the loved ones.

Miss Fay Maitland returned to her home in Little Rock last Friday after visiting relatives and friends here few days.

Mrs. Ed Skinner and children of Texas are here visiting Mrs. Skinner's parents and other relatives for a short time.

We want everybody to remember our school rally and road picnic here July 24.

Miss Annie and Mrs. Clemie Farris left this morning to visit relatives and friends in South Carolina two or three months.

Alvie Pairt is working for H. B. Harrell.

July 15.

WOOSTER.

The drouth was broken by a six-hour rain through this section Saturday.

Kelly Clements returned to his home in Texas Friday, after a few days' visit here with his parents.

Several from here attended singing at Greenbrier Sunday.

Allen Clements and family of Texas are visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Thomas returned home Monday, after a few days' visit in Texas.

L. T. Patton is building an addition to his tenant house, now occupied by L. M. Clements.

J. L. Patton and family are camping at Pinnacle Springs.

A. E. Pearson of Conway was here last week visiting his parents.

H. Robinson went to Conway Monday.

L. T. Patton shipped a carload of cattle last week.

R. O. Robinson was in Perry county last week buying cattle.

George Mobbs went to Conway last Tuesday.

Crops are wonderfully improved since the rain.

W. W. Steele and family of Houston were here last week visiting relatives.

H. L. Tyler of Greenbrier was here Tuesday to begin work on J. H. Wofford's residence.

We have learned that while undergoing an operation for appendicitis, G. H. Downing died at Sherman, Tex., Saturday night. Mr. Downing was a son of the late B. M. Downing. He was reared here and has many friends and one brother, J. M. Downing of Conway, who has the sympathy of the entire community.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Langston returned home Tuesday, after a few days' visit in Texas.

J. A. Batson and family were at Pinnacle Springs last week.

Esquire J. H. Wofford went to Little Rock Tuesday after his daughter, Miss Edna, who has been treated for appendicitis.

July 16.

HAMLET.

Give us woman suffrage and we will give you cleaner politics and do away with so much fuss among the parties.

It is not a gift woman is craving, but a right, and that right will triumph.

Buford McCord and Miss Mittie Paul were quietly married at the home of the bride last Sunday morning.

E. V. Johnston officiating.

We have just received word that Mrs. James Teagle died at Conway at 12 o'clock today.

She was one of our oldest and most respectable ladies, and has lived here for many years.

She has many friends and relatives here to mourn her death.

E. V. Johnston went to Conway on business yesterday.

Some of our young folks tried to run away and get married yesterday, but their parents were too sharp for them.

There is quite a lot of sickness in our community.

There will be a Farmers' Union picnic at Brown's Schoolhouse next Thursday and Friday, July 17 and 18.

Everybody is invited to come out Friday and bring their dinner and hear some good speaking.

July 16.

MALLET TOWN.

We were visited by a nice rain Saturday,

which was much needed.

Quite a crowd from here attended singing at Republican Sunday.

Luther Faulk from Kendall was at this place Friday and Sunday.

Among those from here who attended church at Springfield Sunday night were Ben Mallett, Sr., and wife, Lewis Whorton and wife, Charlie Cunningham, Ben Van Cleve, Montie and Marvin Mallett, Esrom Mallett and wife.

Esrom Mallett and Luther Faulk made a trip to Morrilton Friday.

James Whorton has gone to Higdon, where he will make his home for a while.

Edna Mallett visited at Kendall Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Everybody remember the singing convention here the second Friday, Saturday and Sunday in August.

July 16.

CENTER POINT.

The long drouth was broken here last Saturday by a rain that continued to fall for five hours.

The cotton crop looks very promising just now, though early corn will be cut short.

There is lots of sickness reported in our neighborhood.

W. B. Thornton was called to Little Rock last Friday on account of the death of his nephew, Hon. Jas. H. Harrod.

Will Montgomery of El Paso spent last Saturday night with Colie Diffie.

School opened here yesterday morning, with Raymond Moore as teacher.

We are sorry to report the death of D. M. Doyle of El Paso, who got killed last Friday in an automobile accident near Des Arc.

John Morris and John Burns also received injuries in the wreck.

July 16.

VILONIA.

Farmers are looking pleasant over the fine rain which fell Saturday morning.

The Baptist meeting will begin at this place next Sunday, with Rev. Waters of Dardanelle to conduct the services.

Prof. Beattie, principal of Vilonia Training School, will be leader of the song service.

Miss Elvadyne Quinn is visiting her sister, Mrs. Casey, in Little Rock this week.

The Methodist people have organized a prayer meeting, to be held at the M. E. church every Wednesday night.

Quite a number of people from here attended the burial of Dave Doyle at El Paso Sunday afternoon.

H. E. Vaughn and family have moved to El Paso. He will teach the summer school at Smith Schoolhouse, near El Paso.

Misses Pearl and Jessie Waller are at home, after having attended the Normal at Conway the past few weeks.

Charley Rogers of Little Rock is visiting his mother here.

Mrs. S. Watkins of Ashdown visited her sister, Mrs. J. H. Downs, the past week.

Henry Yancey of Ward was a visitor here Sunday.

Prof. C. L. Hawkins and family left last week to visit his parents in Kentucky.

W. L. Young and family of Little Rock spent a few days with friends and relatives here the past week.

July 16.

UNION GROVE.

We have had a fine rain and crops are looking better.

W. R. Blythe is on the sick list.

The picnic here was rained out Saturday, but we will have one July 24.

There was an ice cream supper at L. L. Johnson's Saturday night, which was well attended and everybody had a good time.

Virgil Harkey of Pope county is visiting his sister, Mrs. Frank Gideon.

Mrs. Will McNew is reported sick this week.

July 16.

DAMASCUS.

This community has been visited by some fine rains since the last writing.

Rev. H. Y. Morris of Beebe is conducting a revival meeting here.

The baseball teams of Damascus and Martinville crossed bats on the latter's ground last Saturday evening.

Score, 6 to 7, in favor of Damascus.

A son was born Sunday night to Mr. and Mrs. William Brown.

After continuing for over a week, the meeting closed at the Christian church last Saturday, without an addition to the church.

There was a large congregation at the Baptist church last night, and much interest prevailed.

The faces of our farmers have changed to almost normal since the recent rains.

Miss Elsie Lee is attending the Morris protracted meeting here this week, and is the guest of Miss Floy Hutto.

J. P. Walton went to Conway last Friday and purchased a new buggy for his better-half.

July 16.

NUTTER SCHOOLHOUSE.

Crops are suffering badly, although we had a very good season for cotton, but old corn is gone.

Young corn will do very well if it rains again soon.

Brother Guatney filled his regular appointment Saturday night and Sunday.

The infant of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Long was laid to rest at the Hartje graveyard Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

We extend our sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mrs. Long, who has been very sick, is able to be out again.

School will open up Monday morning at 8 o'clock; Miss Marcelle Phillips, teacher.

A protracted meeting will start here the first Saturday night in August.

We have just organized a Sunday school with an attendance of 25.

Mr. Nutter, who has been very sick, is reported better at this time.

Lee Belk spent Sunday in Little Rock.

SPRINGFIELD.

A much-needed rain fell here last Saturday.

Edgar Combs and wife of Hskell, Okla., are visiting relatives here this week.

J. M. Berry made a trip to Conway last Friday.

Miss Willie Chamness of Russellville is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. C. Moore.

Miss Bertha Moore of Pine Bluff is visiting her mother.

Miss Lollie Loyd of Morrilton is the guest of Miss Cleo Moses.

Rev. Wallace of Plumerville is assisting Rev. Howard in conducting a series of meetings at the Methodist church.

Mrs. Will A. Berry and children of Conway are visiting relatives here this week.

Mrs. Will Bearden of Little Rock visited her sister, Mrs. Will Smith, the past week.

Jim Wilson is on the sick list at present.

Miss Ola Walker of Ozark is the guest of Mrs. Howard this week.

Miss Alice Berry has returned home from Conway, where she has been attending the State Normal.

B. L. Dawson and son, Willie, visited relatives here the past week.

July 16.

UNION VALLEY.

Sunday school at the valley in the morning and singing in the evening.

There was preaching at Marcus at 11 o'clock and singing in the evening.

The people had such long faces on them on account of the drouth that the barbers at Enola went up on their shaving, but the drouth is broken now and they will go back to their regular price.

We have had plenty of rain at last.

Cotton and late corn are doing well now, but the early corn can't make much.

July 16.

EBENEZER.

The drouth was broken here Saturday with a good rain.

Crops are looking fine.

John Wright, who got hurt the Fourth of July, is better. His mare ran away with his buggy and threw him and his girl out and turned the buggy over, throwing his shoulder out of place and bruising his arm considerably.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. John Witcher, Sr., a fine boy, July 11.

C. M. Sanders, Sr., is sick with slow fever. He is at his daughter's, Mrs. Charley Witcher.

Most of our people have laid by crops.

The people of School District No. 79 met Thursday and chopped off the school ground and started to dig the well. They intend to build this summer and be ready for school in the winter.

Bill Witcher and Lon and Marquis Whorton carried a load of potatoes and apples to Little Rock last week.

They report apples a good price, but potatoes not more than 75 cents per bushel.

July 16.

WOODROW SCHOOLHOUSE.

The drouth was broken here Saturday by a good rain, and the farmers are in good spirits, as it means both bread and beans for them.

Arthur Wilson has moved to his school. He went Sunday and his wife followed Monday with the household furniture. He is teaching in Pulaski county at the Justice Schoolhouse.

The Baptist protracted meeting is going on here at the Ballard church this week.

Our teacher, Other Wilkerson, is boarding at Colie Snow's.

Clem Poole and Burnice Hogan, two prominent young men of the Section, paid our Sunday school a visit last Sunday. Come again, boys.

Joe White, the secretary of our Sunday school, says he has got 72 names enrolled. He hustles for members.

Jerry Snow and family of Mt. Olive visited at O. G. Moore's last Sunday, and his family attended Sunday school.

Other Wilkerson commenced his school here Monday, with 46 enrolled and prospects for a good school.

July 16.

MAYFLOWER.

Miss Essie Taylor went to Tank Lake Friday.

Mrs. A. E. Atwater is visiting her mother here.

We were sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Jas. Harrison of Chadwick.

Mrs. Fanny Naylor is still on the sick list.

Mrs. Borg and grand-daughter went to Argenta Tuesday.