Does Prohibition Prohibit?

The following communication recently appeared in the Baltimore Sun. It is from the pen of J. Bibb Mills, attorney for the Anti-Saloon League of Maryland, and effectually meets a very current false charge concerning liquor in prohibition territory:

"A short time ago I noticed in your news columns the statement that a report of the Inter State Commerce Commission showed that approximately 20,000,000 gallons of liquor are shipped annually into the prohibition States, and I have repeatedly been asked what is our answer to this; so I am taking the liberty of sending to you for publication an answer which was prepared by Miss Mary F. Balcomb, the secretary of the Young People's Civic League of Chicago, and which appeared in the columns of the Chicago Daily News:

"The 'enormous' shipment of liquor into 'dry' territory, as revealed by the Inter-State Commerce Commission in its inquiry into proposed changes in express classification, has aroused comment. It was discovered that approximately 20,000,000 gallons are shipped annually into the nine prohibition States.

"The quantity really is enormous, and it seems appalling; but, compared with the total consumption of intoxicating liquor in the United States, it becomes insignificant.

"Approximately 1,900,000,000 gallons—to be exact 1,935,544,112—according to the United States statistical abstract for 1909, latest report from the abstract at hand, of all kinds of intoxicating liquors were consumed in the United States during the year 1909. Twenty million gallons is less than a ninety-fifth of the total consumption. The nine prohibition states have almost one-sixth the total population of the United States, according to the report of superintendents of the census: Alabama, 2,138,093; Georgia, 2,609,121; Kansas, 1,690,949; Maine, 742,371; Mississippi, 1,797,114; North Carolina, 2,206,287; North Dakota, 577,056; Oklahoma, 1,657,153; Tennessee, 2,184,789; total, 15,602,935.

"The total population of the United States, including all territories, is 93,346,543.

"In other words, the people living in 'wet' territory drink, per capita, more than fifteen times as much as those living in 'dry' territory.

"This is a very good showing for prohibition, we believe. It shows that prohibition 'regulates' about fifteen times better than all the 'regulative' measures thus far attempted.

"The press reported 3,000,000 gallons of beer drunk in Chicago during the three excessively hot days of last May; that is, nearly one sixth as much of beer alone in but three days was consumed by less than one-sixth as many people under high license regulation as was consumed of all kinds of intoxicating liquors by six times as many people during a period 121 times as long.

"Evidently prohibition prohibits."

"I trust that you will be able to find space for this strong reply to the old cry that 'prohibition' does not prohibit."—Pittsburg Christian Advocate.

Ends Hunt for Rich Girl

Often the hunt for a rich wife ends when the man meets a woman that uses Electric Bitters. Her strong nerves tell in a bright brain and even temper. Her peach-bloom complexion and ruby lips result from her pure blood; her bright eyes from restful sleep; her elastic step from firm, free muscles, all telling of the health and strength Electric Bitters give a woman, and the freedom from indigestion, backache, headache, fainting and dizzy spells they promote. Everywhere they are woman's favorite remedy. If weak or ailing try them. 50c at all druggists.

The Fly Catechism.

1. Where is the fly born? In manure and filth.
2. Where does the fly live? In every kind of filth.
3. Is anything too filthy for the fly to eat? No.
4. (a) Where does he go when he leaves the vault and the manure pile and the spittoon? Into the kitchen and dining-room. (b) What does he do there? He walks on the bread, fruit and vegetables; he wipes his feet on the butter and bathes in the buttermilk.

5. Does the fly visit the patient sick with consumption, typhoid fever, and cholera infantum? He does—and may call on you next.

6. Is the fly dangerous? He is man's worst pest and more dangerous than wild beasts or rattlesnakes.

7. What diseases does the fly carry? He carries typhoid fever, tuberculosis and summer complaint. How? On his wings and hairy feet. What is his correct name? Typhoid fly.

8. How shall we kill the fly? (a) Destroy all the filth about the house and yard; (b) pour lime into the vault; (c) kill the fly with wire-screen paddle, or sticky paper, or kerosene oil.

9. Kill the fly in any way, but KILL THE FLY.

MAN COUGHS AND BREAKS RIB.

After a frightful coughing spell a man in Neenah, Wis., felt terrible pains in his side and his doctor found two ribs had been broken. What agony Dr. King's New Discovery would have saved him. A few teaspoonful ends a late cough, while persistent use routs obstinate coughs, expels stubborn colds or heals weak, sore lungs. "I feel sure it's a God-send to humanity," writes Mrs. Effie Morton, Columbia, Mo., "for I believe I would have consumed to day if I had not used this great remedy." It's guaranteed to satisfy, and you can get a free trial bottle or 50 cent or $1.00 size at all druggists.

Will W. A. Dickson Quit?

Congressman W. A. Dickson, of the seventh district, is the only member of the state delegation in the lower house who has not announced for re-election, and much speculation is rife in political circles as to whether he intends to do so.

Thus far Mr. Dickson has given no intimation on the subject, not even to his closest friends. Up to this time they have taken it for granted that he desires to serve another term, but in view of the fact that it is but little more than sixty days until the congressional primary, and no word has been forthcoming, his friends and supporters are beginning to ask questions on the subject.

The only avowed candidate in the field in the seventh district is Hon. Clay B. Quin, of McComb, who made a fairly good run in the campaign two years ago, and it would be rather unprecedented if Mr. Dickson should now step out of the way and allow his former antagonist to take the place without a contest.—Jackson News.

HOW DO YOU FEEL?

Do you experience a sense of weariness in excess of the natural tiredness justified by your labor? Do you lack natural ambition and have spells of despondency, with dark foreboding of the future? Do you worry about really unimportant matters, and feel cross and fretful at times? St. Joseph's Liver Regulator is what you need; either liquid or powders, as you prefer. It will better your condition. The liquid sells at 50 cents a bottle, powders 25 cents a box, by druggists and general merchants.

We are prepared to purchase Clay, Whippoorwill, Blackeye and all other variety of Peas; no quantity too large or too small for us to handle. Highest cash market price guaranteed on day of purchase.

The Praise That Comes From Thankful Port Gibson People

One kidney remedy has known merit.

Port Gibson people rely upon it. That remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills.

Port Gibson testimony proves it reliable.

D. L. Turner, Main St., Port Gibson, Miss., says: "I am convinced that if Doan's Kidney Pills are given a fair trial, they will relieve kidney trouble. Off and on for eleven years, I was annoyed by attacks of kidney complaint. There were pains across the small of my back and I was often obliged to press my hands to my sides for relief. I could hardly stoop or lift and when I did manage to do so, sharp twinges radiated throughout my body. The kidney secretions passed too frequently and caused me no end of trouble. Being advised to take Doan's Kidney Pills, I obtained a box from the Pope Drug Co. and in a few weeks they corrected every symptom of my complaint. I have since been in good health."

WILSON STRONG, SAYS O'GORMAN

Senator Sure He Can Carry
State of New York.

COULD WIN IN NEW ENGLAND.

Senator Gardner of Maine Indorses New York Colleague's View That New Jersey Governor Is Strong In Sections Where Foes Say He Is Weak.

[Atlanta (Ga.) Journal.]

Senator O'Gorman of New York declares that Woodrow Wilson if chosen the Democratic nominee can carry that state against any Republican.

A weightier comment on present day politics has not been made. It crushes the flimsy pretension that Woodrow Wilson's candidacy would lose or imperil the party's chance in New York state and indicates his strength in the strategic center of the east as well as in the west and the south.

Coming from a leader of Senator O'Gorman's prestige and far-sightedness, this estimate is particularly significant. He is the titular head of the Democracy of New York, a state that has ninety votes in the nominating convention and forty-five votes in the electoral college, the state for which both parties strive most vigorously in presidential years as the key to national success. He has the support of Tammany Hall, but he is immeasurably beyond and above the system with which Tammany is identified in the public mind. He is versed in practical politics, but he is also a statesman of spotless record and of rare ability, so much so indeed that when he was called to the senate the people as a whole, regardless of party connections, rejoiced that the duties of the office had fallen upon a man so eminently fitted to bear them.

Of all the Democratic nominees yet suggested Woodrow Wilson would not only stand the largest chance to carry New York, but, according to the recent testimony of Senator Gardner of Maine, he is the only Democrat who could win portions of New England.

From the clear headed testimony of these two eminent Democrats, Senator O'Gorman of New York and Senator Gardner of Maine, it is evident that Governor Wilson is particularly strong in the very places wherein his foes would have us believe he is fatally weak.

When to this fact is added the confidence and the following he has won over the country as a whole there can be no fair minded doubt that of all the aspirants in the field he is by far the best fitted both as a statesman and a candidate.

GOVERNOR WILSON'S CHANCES.

[New York World.]

The World is unable to agree with its friend Colonel Watter-son that "the Woodrow Wilson presidential boom has started on the down grade."

Viewing the situation without prejudice, we should say that the governor of New Jersey is still the leading Democratic candidate for the nomination and that he is still the only candidate who has shown strength in all sections of the country.

GOV. WILSON'S CANDIDACY.

Harrisburg (Pa.) Patriot: "Hon. James O'Gorman, who left the bench of the supreme court of New York to become a senator of the United States, shows political acumen when he expresses the opinion that Woodrow Wilson could carry New York and by a larger majority than any other man who has been mentioned for the Democratic nomination for president."

Corsicana (Tex.) Sun: "Looks as though the more fight made against Governor Wilson the stronger his support grows. Governor Wilson knows the political game as well as those who are in it with him."

Bradentown (Fla.) Herald: "United States Senator N. P. Bryan has declared for Woodrow Wilson for president. Senator Bryan doesn't make any grand stand plays, but his sympathies are with his constituents."

Montrose (Colo.) Enterprise: "The Democratic party will make a grave mistake if it fails to place Woodrow Wilson at the head of its national ticket—a mistake which will more than likely cost it the presidency."

Rockford (Ill.) Star: "It is Woodrow Wilson against the field and against Wall street too."

Gaffney (S. C.) Ledger: "It's precious little comfort the boomers of Messrs. Harmon, Clark and Underwood are receiving in this state. To be perfectly frank about it, Governor Wilson seems to have the goat tied out."

Hartford (Conn.) Post: "Governor Wilson of New Jersey says that our tariff is a misfit—that it's a child's garment. Perhaps that's so. Somehow it does pinch terribly, and it's getting worse all the time."
