SENSIBLE HOBBY.

Well Known People Devote Spare Time to Upbuilding Health.

There is no excuse today for any person, unless afflicted with an incurable disease, to remain sickly with the great advance in medical discoveries.

Stomach troubles are scarcely known to those who have physical culture as their hobby.

To those suffering with indigestion and stomach troubles, the discovery of Mi-o-na stomach tablets is a blessing. This treatment strengthens the muscles of the stomach and bowels and cures the worst cases of indigestion and stomach weakness.

Hood & Curlin show their faith in the curative powers of Mi-o-na by giving a guarantee with every 50 cent box to refund the money unless the remedy does all that is claimed for it. They take the whole risk and Mi-o-na will not cost you a penny unless it cures. 252

Death of Mrs. Reubell.

THE SHAKESPEARE CLUB.

Second Meeting of New Year Held Tuesday Afternoon.

The second meeting of the Shakespeare club for the year 1908 was held in the club rooms at the Sims Library Tuesday afternoon with the president, Mrs. J. Lea Gammon, in the chair and Miss Mable Smith, the new recording secretary, presiding over the minutes.

At the meeting two weeks ago Miss Smith was unanimously elected to fill out the unexpired term of Mrs. Clyde Winn, who will be out of town for the rest of the winter.

It was the pleasure of the club to have with it on this occasion Miss Edna Cunningham, the gifted young singer, on whom the club has had the pleasure of bestowing a musical scholarship in Trinity University.

A lengthy business meeting was had, some of the chief transactions being as follows:

A motion by Mrs. Peters, as in keeping with the movements of other federated clubs, to hold the annual election of officers at the first meeting in March of each year, instead of near the end of the term as heretofore. Motion carried. Motion to pay, at least, the transportation expenses of the delegate, representing the club at the yearly meeting of the federated clubs, tabled, until a further meeting.

Mrs. J. E. Leigh very graciously dropped a kind word for the humane movement now underfoot. This humane movement department is to receive further consideration at future meetings, it is said. It is hoped also, that the public schools will help a long this line.

Five new members were gladly received. Mrs. Geo. T. Wilson, who, because of her acceptance of a position in the public schools, sent in her resignation as teacher for the next term, which was very regretfully accepted. Mrs. J. E. Leigh was unanimously elected to fill her place for teacher for "As You Like It."

Mrs. Cleveland, Mrs. F. Brady, Mrs. Peters and Miss Smith gave interesting papers and readings.

Mrs. Watson being out of town, her appointee, Mrs. J. S. Herring, heard the lesson in an interesting manner, the lesson being Act 5 of Julius Caesar, and the last lesson of that play.

A rising vote of thanks was given Mrs. Watson for her untiring efforts and her faithfulness and her great interest in the club for the past term.

The story telling for the children will be resumed at an early date, four ladies of the club who will be appointed later, to have charge of this work.

A Pleasant Affair.

John V. Singleton, the retiring president of the Adelphi club, was host with a most delightful six-course dinner recently at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Singleton, on West Main street, in honor of the old officers of 1907, and the new officers for 1908 of that club.

Pretty decorations of red carnations added to the beauty of the long table, which was further enhanced by snowy linen, shining silver, cut glass and china.

This stag dinner was a most delightful affair, as was evinced by the twelve guests present, who partook heartily of each course, from the large turkey and stuffed crabs on shell, on down to the delicious dessert and relishes.

Plates were laid for the following guests:

Messrs. Jam s Redman, Marcellus

Middleton, J. M. Eskridge, George Mizell, Burton Prince, Oscar Dunlap, Erling Helland, Ralph Getzen-daner, Robert Watson, Elmo Mosley, Mack Lamberth and Geo. Griffin.

The Sewing Circle.

A pleasant meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Sewing Circle was held at the accustomed time, with Mrs. Cole Bailey as the charming hostess, at her cottage home on Marvin avenue. The customary past-times were indulged in, and at the close of the afternoon, a delightful course of refreshments, as follows, was served: Sandwiches, pickles, olives, fruit gelatine and cake.

The next meeting of the circle will be held Tuesday afternoon, January 28, with Mrs. S. W. Durham on North Rogers street.

For City Attorney.

J. M. Eskridge, who is serving his first term as city attorney, announces as a candidate for re-election. His name will be found in the regular announcement column, being placed there subject to the action of the white man's primary election. Mr. Eskridge is one of Waxahachie's most popular young lawyers. He is a graduate from the department of law in the University of Texas, and has been quite successful in the practice of his chosen profession. As legal adviser to the city council and as prosecutor in the recorder's court he has discharged his duties in a creditable manner.

Funeral of Rev. Johnson

Besides Rev. Dr. Robt. Hill of the Westminster Presbyterian church of Dallas, who officiated at the funeral of Rev. Angus Johnson, on Monday, other ministers who assisted were Rev. W. F. Galbraith, Oak Cliff church, Dallas; Rev. J. A. Creighton and Rev. W. A. McCloud, of Ennis. Among the other out of town people were Mr. Clark, Ennis, Mrs. George, Milford, Miss Clara Slay and Miss Arthea Dilworth, Italy; Dr. and Mrs. O. C. Grant, Mr. Tom Smith and daughter, Miss Lorena; Misses Gertrude and Sallie Henderson; Prof. Davis, Mr. Will McCluney and family, Messrs Jack Gladden, Will Snelder, T. F. Crayton, Jenkins and Mark Henderson of Avalon, and a number of others, whose names could not be learned.

Funeral of R. J. Poulter.

The remains of R. J. Poulter, the young man who died at Kirkville, Mo., Sunday, arrived in the city Wednesday on the southbound Katy. They were taken to the home of Mr. N. G. Gould on North Rogers street, whence the funeral took place in the afternoon. The burial exercises were conducted by the Masons of Waxahachie.

A Business Change.

A bill of sale was filed in the county clerk's office Wednesday by C. A. Velte conveying to Toney Rinnella the stock of confectioneries located on the east side of the square. The stock of goods in question was recently purchased by Mr. Velte from W. J. Hamilton, who was named as trustee in the chattel mortgage filed by Mr. Rinnella.

Report of a Robbery.

R. Robertson of Midlothian reported yesterday morning to the police that he had been robbed of $160 in a rooming house on East Main street. Two arrests were made.—Dallas News.

Licensed to Wed.

Noah Collins and Ethel Bryant; F. C. Thompson and Tressye Rape; John Mullins and Mary Williams.
