PRESIDENT HAS ANOTHER SCARE

One More Harmless Crank Gets The Police Into Spasms.

New York, Nov. 27.—This morning while President Roosevelt was in attendance upon the funeral of his uncle, just as the services were concluded a man who attempted to force his way to the president to hand him a letter was arrested. He gave the name of Arthur Deming, 65 years of age, and lived in Jersey City. He said he was born in the United States and was the manufacturer of a medicine to cure every disease. When the president was leaving the church he departed at the side entrance leading into Twentieth street. Deming had in some way been allowed to gain access to a small ante-room and in that manner was directly in the president's pathway. Deming said later: "I handed the president a letter and said: 'Please read this on your way out.'" This was denied by the police who say that a "dummy" took the letter. Deming, when taken to the police headquarters, told a rambling story. He said he had tried before to interview the president to request him to accept some panacea similar to that sent to Emperor William of Germany to try for throat trouble. He failed at these earlier attempts, however, he said, to see the president. The officials of the detective bureau said the man appeared to be perfectly harmless and rational on every subject except that of his remedy.

Austin, Texas, Nov. 27.—Health Officer Tabor telegraphed the governor from Laredo at 8 o'clock this morning that there was no fever in that city and the quarantine would be raised in a few days.

STOLE LOTS OF FINE JEWELRY

Some $25,000 Worth is Reported Missing.

Philadelphia, Nov. 27.—The police officials were notified today by William Welsh Harrison, that his country home, "The Towers," at Glenside suburb, was robbed yesterday of jewelry valued at $25,000. The thief is believed to be a servant, who was employed by Mr. Harrison about two weeks ago. The man disappeared yesterday and the loss of the jewelry discovered a short time later.

ILLINOIS GETS ANOTHER SHAKE

The Earthquake Shock There Yesterday Was Very Pronounced.

Cairo, Ill., Nov. 27.—A severe earthquake was felt here at 3:20 this morning. It continued for several minutes and was more pronounced than either of the shocks that were felt on the 4th of this month.

Men vs. Dudes.

A large crowd witnessed the Palestine football team make a foot ball of the Tyler team yesterday. The Palestine boys, having larger and heavier feet walked all over our light-footed Tyler players. The score stood ten to two in favor of Palestine. Several players were bruised and mashed and needed restoratives (?). Our Tyler boys' feet are made for dancing—not for pile drivers. Hence they were outclassed by the Palestine kickers.—Tyler Democrat-Reporter.

The Show.

This Store

IS becoming a popular resort for all classes of people who are fond of courteous treatment and square dealing. Our Store methods are popular. Everybody likes our straightforward way of one price. This is especially true when the price is so often a little less than elsewhere, as is the case on so many things in our house; and then again our prices do not fluctuate. They are not high one week and if you do not "come quick" a little higher the next, but they are right always; and every day and every week the same.
