Wholesome foods make healthy people. Adulterated foods bring sickness, big doctor's bills and death. Be sure you get the wholesome kind. They cost no more than the adulterated stuff, and extra values make them cheapest.

DAN PARKER, SR.

Died.

On Tuesday, Dec. 22, at 2 o'clock, Jessie Carlton Pickle, aged 3 years, 7 months and 20 days. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Pickle, living about 3 miles west of the city. Was laid to rest in Liberty cemetery at 2 o'clock, December 23.

Little Carlton was taken sick Monday evening with membranous croup, and suffered twenty hours before he was taken from those who loved him so well on earth, to the protecting care of Jesus. Little Carlton was a beautiful child, in face, form and disposition. He was intelligent, gentle in manner, and affectionate by nature. His winning ways in his short life won for him a host of friends, who mourn his death with reluctant sadness and feel profound sympathy for bereaved father and mother, who are destined to go through life devoid of a great blessing that was bestowed upon them; who will always feel a vacancy where there was once sunshine. A FRIEND.

Married.

Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Geo. Broyles, Mr. Turner Moore and Miss Mary Broyles were united in the holy bonds of matrimony; Rev. H. C. Willis officiating.

This was a lovely home wedding, the guests being exclusively relatives. The bride wore a lovely tailor made traveling dress of brown broad-cloth and lingerie, hat and gloves to match. They were the recipients of many valuable and handsome presents, too numerous to mention.

The happy couple left on the west train for a bridal tour to Waco and Hubbard City, returning by the way of Dallas.

They will be at home at 710 Mallard street after January 5. They have a host of friends who extend them best wishes.

A Good Show.

The Albert Taylor company presented "The Girl From Frisco" at the Temple last evening to a large and delighted audience. The Herald considers it by long odds the best show, at any price, seen at the local theatre this season.

This is a gratuitous compliment to Mr. Taylor and his company, but since he has the show and is presenting the bills artistically, it is a pleasure to say so.

The specialty work is also above par. Tonight they present "The Siege of the Alamo."

PALESTINE.

Special Correspondence.

PALESTINE, TEXAS, Dec. 23.

Dear Editors:

I accompanied Rev. D. D. Funderburk to the home of Mr. Howell, near Bethel, where he had been engaged to join in marriage, Mr. L. A. Rampey and Miss Annie Howell.

The spacious rooms and hall were crowded with the numerous friends of both bride and groom, and although I was almost a total stranger, I soon made the acquaintance of several of the young people and they made me feel at home.

The bride was lovely. The rooms were very beautifully decorated with evergreen. They were also made more beautiful with Japanese lanterns, hung here and there and everywhere.

About 8 o'clock Mrs. Dr. Gee struck up Mendelssohn's wedding march, and the happy couple came in, preceded by the attendants, whose names I did not learn.

After the ceremony Mrs. Gee entertained the crowd with music, then the young folks had quite an enjoyable time in pleasant conversation.

I had the pleasure of meeting with one of my old time school-mates, who I must not forget to mention. It was Miss Etta Terrentine, who is at present teaching the Bethel school. Miss Etta is quite an accomplished young lady and a successful teacher.

I find that Bethel is quite a pleasant neighborhood and lots of nice pleasant christian people reside at that place.

Hoping to again visit them in the near future,

I am respectfully,
L. J. LUNSFORD.
