In "The King of Tramps," which comes to the opera house today, matinee and night, there is a young man, Mr. Clyde Long, whose stage porttrayal and character make-up of "The Scarecrow" is said to be a little short of marvelous. Critics pronounce it as being a stage creation, beyond comparison, one that must be seen to be appreciated.

A RUMORED CHANGE.

It is to the Effect That W. L. Holder Goes to San Antonio.

There is a well-defined rumor afloat today that Mr. W. L. Holder, local freight agent of the L. & G. N., will be transferred to San Antonio, to have charge of the local freight office there and that Mr. N. W. Grisamore, now local freight agent at San Antonio, will take charge of the Palestine office.

SAFE BLOWN OPEN AND ROBBERS FREE

STORE AT ARP, TEXAS. BROKEN OPEN AND SAFE CRACKED. OFFICERS IN PURSUIT.

Thursday night at Arp, a small station on the L. & G. N. railroad, about six miles above Troupe, an unknown burglar or burglars broke open the store of Pace & Allen and drilled a hole in the safe, by which they succeeded in blowing the door off and securing whatever valuables the safe contained.

Pace & Allen had only recently bought the store and stock of goods from Mr. Frederick, who is at present in Chicago. It is known that a few days prior to his leaving for Chicago Frederick placed $5000 in the safe and no one seems to know whether or not he had ever removed it. If he had not then the robbers made a very rich haul.

Officers from Smith county, in which Arp is situated, were notified and were early on the scene. Sheriff Stone of Rusk county was also sent for and went to Arp yesterday morning with his blood hounds, but was unable to pick up the track, and returned home yesterday afternoon. So far as could be learned no arrests have been made.

A Cautious Sentinel.

It was the small brother of pretty Margaret who opened the front door in response to Mr. Goodyear's ring, and his face took on a singularly alert expression as he surveyed the caller.
"No, she isn't in," said Margaret's brother. "Are—are you Mr. Hamlin?"
"No," said the young man; "I am Mr. Goodyear. Does that make any difference about her being at home?" And he looked searchingly at the boy.
"Course not," said Bobby indignant-ly. "I don't tell stories, nor Margaret doesn't. But if you'd been Mr. Hamlin I was to tell something about her coming home and get 10 cents if I did it right and didn't tell the wrong one. I need that money, and so you see, I didn't want to make any mistake. Goodyear."—Youth's Companion.

The Labor of Mountain Climbing.

Below is a curious calculation on the amount of energy expended by a person weighing 168 pounds in climbing a mountain peak 7,000 feet high, the time allowed for the ascent being five hours: By careful calculation it is found that the total amount of labor performed is equal to raising 1,380,000 pounds to a height of one foot or that of raising one pound to a height of 1,380,000 feet. Of this enormous amount of work 1,176,000 foot pounds are expended by the muscles of the legs in raising or lifting the body, 12,000 by the heart in circulating the blood, 30,000 by the chest in breathing and 54,000 in the various exertions of balancing the body, overcoming friction of the ground, etc.

Peril of Erring Soldiers.

"Strange as it may seem," said a former colonel of a Manhattan regiment, "members of state military organizations will continue to violate duty calls while knowing full well that by so doing in certain instances they render themselves marked men for life. The fact is probably not generally known among citizens that a dishonorably discharged militiaman is forever barred from holding public office, whether this applies to the municipality, the commonwealth or the federal government. I know of some cases where men with dishonorable discharges have fallen to speedy ruin upon full realization of the serious consequences attaching to conduct unbecoming a soldier."—New York Press.

to a brick wall opposite the Grand Leader, and tore the buggy up.

It is reported Mrs. Bohannon was thrown from the buggy and was very badly hurt.

Disgraceful Conduct.

It is reported some men or boys, too contemptible to be left at large, and who should no doubt be doing time for the state, sat in the gallery last night, and spit and threw tobacco on ladies who occupied the first floor at the opera house. The thing had better not be repeated, for a special policeman will be stationed in the gallery tonight; and if this does not stop somebody is going to get hurt. There were some men there last night mad enough to murder some one.
