MINISTERS SUMMONED

Special Ministers of Costa Rico and Panama En Route Washington to Confer With Sec. Knox.

(Herald Special.)
New Orleans, La., Jan. 12.—Special Minister Luis Anderson of Costa Rica and Special Minister Belisario Parros of Panama arrived in this city today en route to Washington, in reply to a summons from Secretary of State Knox. They admit that both are journeying to Washington on the same mission, but positively refuse to say what that mission is or to discuss their business in any way. Central Americans here believe it is the beginning of a plan to settle the Central American difficulties, and think an American protectorate may be the outcome of the visit of these ministers.

THEY ARE CONFIDENT BACK TO PHILADELPHIA

Of the Complete Overthrow of the Madriz Forces—Decisive Battle Is Imminent.

(Herald Special.)
Bluefields, Nicaragua, Jan. 12.— The revolutionists are confident of the complete overthrow of the Madriz forces. General Chemorro with three thousand men is within two weeks' march of Managua, and Mena, with five thousand men, is near Acopyapa.
A decisive battle is believed to be imminent. The government troops were driven back in a small engagement near Acopyapa yesterday.

Big Shortage Discovered.

(Herald Special.)
New Orleans, La., Jan. 12.—A Managua dispatch received here today says a gigantic shortage has been discovered in the telegraph and postal funds of Nicaragua. Joaquin Pazos, the son-in-law of ex-President Zelaya, and Col. Santos Ramirez, ex-director of posts and telegraph, have been arrested, and will be tried after a full investigation has been completed. The shortage so far as discovered is said to amount to more than five millions in American money.

Roberta de Janon and Frederick Cohen Accompany Detectives From Chicago.

(Herald Special.)
Chicago, Jan. 12.—Detectives at noon today started for Philadelphia with Roberta de Janon and Frederick Cohen, the latter having waived the rights to resist extradition. The couple are forbidden to converse during the journey. The father and grandfather of the girl will meet the party en route. Cohen is confident that he will not be prosecuted, but the detectives say the grandfather is very bitter and determined to prosecute him to the limit of the law.

Later.—Being Held Over.

(Herald Special.)
Chicago, Jan. 12.—Roberta de Janon today declared positively that she will not surrender to the wishes of her relatives until they positively agree not to prosecute Cohen. She reiterated that Cohen acted as a protector and did not influence her in running away. Everything was ready for the start for Philadelphia at noon, but the detectives were instructed by the father of the girl to make further investigations at this end of the line.
The party will remain here for another day.

SAN DIEGO AVIATION DAY

Thousands Go to Los Angeles By Special Trains to Witness the Airship Flights.

(Herald Special.)
Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 12.—This is San Diego day at the aviation meet, and thousands of citizens of San Diego arrived here today by special trains. The French aviator Paulhan is jealous of the performances of Curtiss yesterday and will try his best to beat his records. The speed races in the aeroplanes this afternoon promise to be thrillers. The real reason of Paulhan's failure to make a determined effort for the height record yesterday was, as he says, his wife is afraid of the monoplane and was afraid for him to make the flight.

LYNCHING THREATENED

At Vienna, Ill.—Three Negroes Being Guarded By Militia—Charged With Murder.

(Herald Special.)
Vienna, Ill., Jan. 12.—A special force of deputies and four companies of militia are guarding the jail here today, fearing a lynching. Three negroes, Harry Taborn, Hosea Taborn and Alexander Jenkins are the culprits being guarded, and are charged with the murder of Rural Mail Carrier Allan Clark, who was shot last Saturday and who died last night.
Mobs at Harrisburg and Eldorado last night threatened to come here and lynch the prisoners, but disbanded when the trains refused to haul them.
The railroads stopped the freights to prevent the mobs from riding them.

TWO WERE KILLED

And a Third Man Injured in a Four Cornered Duel.

Greenville, Miss., Jan. 12.—Louis Conti and John McBryer are dead and John Conti is fatally wounded as the result of a four cornered duel fought here today over a woman's reputation.

VESSEL LOST AT SEA.

Unknown Boat Sank Between Sheep Island and the Irish Coast.

(Herald Special.)
Bally Castel, Ireland, Jan. 12.—An unknown vessel was sunk yesterday between Sheep Island and the Irish coast. It is believed that all on board were lost. Searchers are out looking for any possible survivors.

HELMAN WAS A SUICIDE

Wrote New Orleans Officers, Before Taking His Life, That Woman Was White Slave Agent.

(Herald Special.)
New Orleans, La., Jan. 12.—The police of New Orleans have received a remarkable letter written by Wm.
Helman, the Terre Haute jeweler, before his death from poison Monday.
The letter intimated that Effie Sallsbury, arrested here yesterday, was a white slave agent, and asked that she be arrested on her arrival. The girl was arrested, but the police say the letter shows beyond doubt that Helman committed suicide and then attempted to throw suspicion on the girl. They think it is a case of jealousy. On his death bed Helman made a statement charging the woman with giving him poison.

ALMOST A RIOT TODAY

In the Illinois Legislature Over Introduction of Important Bill.

(Herald Special.)
Springfield, Ill., Jan. 12.—There came near being a riot in the house today when Browne, the democratic leader, moved that Staymate's primary bill be reported for passage. The republicans opposed the motion and a great uproar followed. Solitt of Chicago, chairman of the committee of the whole, put the motion presented by the republicans for two committee reports, one to report the direct bill and the other to report a delegate bill, and this motion carried amid a great republican hurrah.
