

MUCH LAND IN DISPUTE

LAND SUIT RESULTS FROM TRICK PRACTICED UPON THE GOVERNMENT MANY YEARS AGO BY A WEALTHY SAN FRANCISCAN.

(Herald Special.)

Los Angeles, Cal., June 2.—A big land dispute resulting from a trick practised upon the government thirty-five years ago by a wealthy San Franciscan now dead came up for hearing today before United States Surveyor General Archer. Palo Verde Valley lands valued at $2,500,000 are involved in the controversy, which, it is believed, jeopardizes the rights of many settlers. Suit has been brought attacking the validity of the title to the lands acquired by the San Franciscan thirty-five years ago. It is charged that this man had a boat loaded on a wagon, and after it had been hauled over a prescribed area claimed 44,000 acres of rich land, under the Swamp and Overflow act following his attesting to the fact that he had made the trip by boat.

GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.

Frederick Manuell, Maryland block, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 6, '99, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in 20 days he had hair all over his head. On July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and a new growth starts. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10 cents in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

American affairs of the past and present were united here today through the marriage of Miss Page Aylett Royall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Laurence Royall of this city, and Mr. Barker G. Hamill of Trenton, N. J. The bride is a great-granddaughter of Patrick Henry and a great-niece of Chief Justice Marshall, while the bridegroom is a nephew of Chief Justice Gummere of the supreme court of New Jersey, and of Samuel Gummere, United States minister to Morocco. The wedding was celebrated in St. Paul's Cathedral in the presence of a large and fashionable assemblage.

BIRTHDAY OF THE POPE

No Formal Celebration of the Seventy-Fifth Birthday Anniversary of Pope Pius X.

(Herald Special.)

Rome, June 2.—There was no formal celebration of the seventy-fifth birthday anniversary of the pope today, as it is customary among Italians to celebrate the name day rather than the birthday anniversary. Nevertheless many of the cardinals, Vatican officials and other churchmen called upon the Pontiff and offered their congratulations. The two sisters of his Holiness passed the greater part of the day with him.

Pius X has now occupied the chair of St. Peter for nearly seven years, having been elected to succeed the late Pope Leo XIII on August 4, 1903. In origin Pius X is in many respects the opposite of his predecessor, who was of aristocratic birth and a deep scholar. The parents of the present

DEDICATE CAPITOL

TWENTY THOUSAND VISITORS GATHER IN FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY, TODAY—MILITARY AND CIVIC PARADE A FEATURE.

(Herald Special.)

Frankfort, Ky., June 2.—The new capitol of Kentucky was dedicated at noon today with imposing ceremonies. This quaint old city was thronged with twenty thousand visitors from all parts of the state, including large delegations who came by special trains from Louisville, Lexington and other leading cities. The capitol was elaborately decorated with flags and bunting.

A military and civic parade, reviewed by Governor Willson and other dignitaries of state, preceded the dedication ceremonies. The formal exercises were held on the terrace in front of the main entrance to the capitol. The program began with the firing of the governor's salute and the raising of a monster flag on the capitol dome. Governor Willson made the introductory address and Senator W. O. Bradley delivered the oration of the day. On the speakers' stand were Lieutenant Governor Cox, former Governor Beckman and many wedding of Miss Elizabeth Maris Black and Lieut. Earl James Atkinson, U. S. A. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's aunt. The best man and ushers were all brother officers of the bridegroom.

Henry Clews the Speaker.

(Herald Special.)

Lexington, Ky., June 2.—Commencement week at the State University of Kentucky was brought to a close today with the graduation exercises. The address to the graduates was delivered by Henry Clews, the noted New York financier.

OFF FOR A SHORT TRIP

President Leaves Washington For a Railroad Trip Covering Fifteen Hundred Miles.

(Herald Special.)

Washington, D. C., June 2.—President Taft, accompanied by his military aide, secretary, stenographer and four secret service officers, left the capital today to fulfill several out of town engagements he entered into several months ago. His trip will occupy three days, during which time he will travel approximately fifteen hundred miles. His first stopping point is Bryn Mawr, Pa., where he is to attend the commencement exercises this afternoon at Bryn Mawr College, where Miss Helen Taft is a student. From Bryn Mawr the president will proceed to Ada, Ohio, to attend another college commencement, that of the Northern Ohio University. Tomorrow evening will find Mr. Taft in Detroit to deliver an evening address,

Colonel Roosevelt Leaving the Home of William the Silent

One of the points of interest visited by Colonel Roosevelt during his tour of Europe he expressed himself as being interested in was the palace of William the Silent. He visited the palace of the famous king and inspected the rooms, some of which are filled with bullet holes.

Mahogany

We have recently added a complete line of Mahogany bed room furniture to our stock and would be glad if you would visit our store and see how the prices will surprise you. No higher in price than Oak. The stock is complete from the dainty little Princess Dressers to the Massive Dresser with a 40x40 glass.

Ladies Handkerchiefs

Embroidered, Colored Bordered,
Plain Hemstitched; value up to