GRAND JURY ROOSEVELT IS ACTIVE ADVISES

SPECIAL CHICAGO GRAND JURY IS INVESTIGATING THE CHARGE THAT WITNESSES IN BROWNE CASE PERJURED THEMSELVES.

(Herald Special.)
Chicago, Aug. 30.—A special grand jury was assembled today to investigate the charges that witnesses in the trial of Lee O'Neil Browne had perjured themselves. The first witness called by the grand jury was Patrick Kieley, city detective formerly assigned to the state's attorney office, who testified that he was ordered to take witnesses out and make them drunk in order to get evidence. The alleged jury tampering will also be investigated, as a result of jurors admitting that attempts were made to sound them as to their views on Browne. The Pullman company officials who refused to show the car passes given to legislators today submitted the information to Wayman. Additional certificates show that the legislators accepted the passes.

ARIZONA AND NEW MEXICO TO BE CAREFUL IN THE MAKING OF THEIR CONSTITUTIONS—AT PUEBLO, COLO., TODAY.

(Herald Special.)
Pueblo, Colo., Aug. 30.—The constitution makers of Arizona and New Mexico, and inferentially the chauffeurs of Taft's political machine, were given a jolt by Roosevelt here today. The colonel declared against the Hitchcock plan of building iron-bound and practically unamendable constitutions for the new states. He said: "My friends here have requested my advice regarding the Arizona constitution. I would advise them to leave the constitution easy of amendment at any time the people feel an amendment is necessary. My experience shows that corporation attorneys put into constitutions matters that are not generally understood by the people." Roosevelt also lauded the forestry bureau for its efforts in combating the recent forest fires.

SHOT HIS ASSAILANT

CHARLES WELCH WAS KILLED BY CHIEF SPECIAL AGENT RAY OF GREAT NORTHERN RAILROAD IN LATTER'S OFFICE TODAY.

(Herald Special.)
St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 30.—Charles Welch, a discharged traveling watchman of the Great Northern railroad, attempted to assassinate Al Ray, the company's chief special agent, in Ray's office in the Great Northern building today, and was himself killed by Ray. Welch fired five wild bullets. Ray was sitting at his desk and drew his revolver and shot Welch in the head. Before falling to the floor Welch dashed a bottle of nitroglycerine wrapped in a newspaper to the floor, but the wrapper on the bottle prevented an explosion. Ray is held by the police, but it is conceded that he acted in self-defense.

WOMAN WOULD SUICIDE

Identity of Stylish Woman is Baffling New York Police—Shot Herself Last Evening.

(Herald Special.)
New York, Aug. 30.—Tossing on a hospital cot, her identity unknown and policemen waiting nearby to arrest her as soon as she can be moved, a young woman is today the subject of a baffling mystery following her attempt at suicide in the Hotel Astor last night. The mysterious woman, garbed in expensive and fashionable clothing, late last night entered the woman's retiring room of the hotel, and drew a revolver and shot herself in the breast. The bullet was deflected from the heart by striking a rib. When help arrived the woman assured them that she fired the shot herself and wanted to die. There were no cards or other papers or marks to identify her. In a note to her mother the woman told of her plans to take her life. She is apparently twenty-five years of age and a decided blonde.

Woman's Death a Mystery.

(Herald Special.)
Glasgow, Aug. 30.—Society today connects the death of Lady Margery Gladys Stuart Erskine, whose decomposed body was found in the Scottish Moors, with her broken engagement with Hon. Arthur Broderick in a suicide theory. Friends assert that Lady Margery died of exposure, as an ankle was found broken. She was missed on the 31st of July.

Roosevelt Lays Corner Stone.

(Herald Special.)
Pueblo, Colo., Aug. 30.—The Roosevelt special reached Pueblo over the Denver and Rio Grande promptly at noon today. A multitude thronged the vicinity of the Eighth street depot and rent the air with cheers. As the ex-president emerged from the canopy of flags at the station and entered the carriage, accompanied by the mayor and chairman of the reception committee, the crowd broke into a cheer which he promptly acknowledged, while an escort of Rough Riders and cowboys formed a guard. The procession moved through the decorated streets to the site of the new Y. M. C. A. building, where Colonel Roosevelt laid the corner stone and delivered a brief address. The distinguished guest was then driven direct to the union depot, where his special car was attached to the Missouri Pacific train. He is due at Osawatimie, Kas., shortly after 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

HARMONY IS ASSURED

Kansas Insurgents Will Make Platform and Otherwise Control State Organization.

(Herald Special.)
Topeka, Kas., Aug. 30.—Harmony among the Kansas insurgents today dispels the threatened split in the ranks of the progressive faction, and with Governor Stubbs as chairman of the republican council a progressive and conservative platform will be adopted. Indications are that the initiative, referendum and an indorsement of Taft will form the only subjects of contest.

Dollery Re-Elected.

(Herald Special.)
Topeka, Kas., Aug. 30.—State Bank Commissioner J. N. Dollery was unanimously re-elected chairman of the republican state central committee today. Dollery is regarded as an insurgent.

Insurgents Claim Credit.

(Herald Special.)
McCook, Neb., Aug. 30.—Insurgent achievements made possible President Taft's campaign letter addressed to Congressman McKinley, according to Congressman George W. Norris, the leader of the insurgents in Nebraska. Congressman Norris said today: "The president's statement is an able document, but it should be remembered, however, that to the despised insurgents is due the progressive legislation of the last congress. It should also be remembered that the Cannon-Aldrich machine is secretly plotting to defeat the men who made possible most of the president's claims."
