WILL ADDRESS LAWYERS

"The Lawyer and the Community" Will Be Discussed By President of Princeton.

(Herald Special.)

Chattanooga, Tenn., Aug. 30.—Following a series of important conferences held here the past few days by the several sections of the American Bar Association the general sessions of the thirty-first annual convention of the association were begun this morning with a record-breaking attendance of the distinguished legal lights of the country. President C. F. Libby of Portland, Me., called the gathering to order in the aldermanic chamber of the city hall and delivered his annual address. The remainder of the session was occupied chiefly with the reports of officers and committees.

Tomorrow night the annual address will be delivered before the association by Woodrow Wilson, president of Princeton University, who will speak on the subject of "The Lawyer and the Community." Another eminent speaker to be heard at the convention is Baron Uchida, the Japanese ambassador to the United States, who will explain to the association the methods of legal education in Japan.

OLD AGE

Comes to Every One, But Its Visits May Be Postponed.

Old age is not a question of years. Some men are old at forty, others are young at sixty.

It's a mighty hard proposition to look young, no matter how young you feel, if your hair is falling out and your head becoming bald.

Perhaps you are tired trying ineffectual remedies for this evil.

We don't blame you if you are.

Why not try an effective one for a change.

How to Stop Drinking.

It was formerly customary for the habitual drinker to take the pledge regularly, sometimes once a year, and sometimes in every fit of remorse that followed his debauches, and then—break it.

But now it is gradually dawning on the world that pledges do not stop drunkenness. The nervous system of the habitual drinker is diseased and he must have treatment that will cure this condition. Orrine is sold under a positive guarantee to cure the drink habit or the money will be refunded. Can be given secretly.
