

American Girl's Husband Is Pretender to Portugal's Throne

The Duke of Vizeu evidently has visions of occupying the throne of Portugal with his wife, who was Anita Stewart of New York, sitting beside him as queen. Vizeu—perhaps better known as Prince Miguel of Braganza—is the eldest son and heir of the Duke of Braganza, the pretender to the Portuguese throne. The reign of the Braganza family in Portugal began in 1641, when the Duke of Braganza, after leading a successful revolution against the rule of Spain, became King John IV. The dynasty continued until 1807, when Napoleon invaded Portugal, declared that the Braganza family no longer existed and annexed the country to France. Since that time the head of the Braganza family has been called the pretender and of late years has been cared for by Austria. Prince Miguel and Miss Stewart were married in Scotland on Sept. 15, 1900. She is the daughter and one of two children of William Rhinelander Stewart, a wealthy and public spirited citizen of New York, and Mrs. James Henry Smith. She made her social debut during the winter of 1904-5, and James Henry Smith, better known as "Silent Smith," the multimillionaire bachelor, gave her a grand ball at his Fifth avenue home, formerly the residence of William C. Whitney. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart separated about that time, and two years later the wife secured a South Dakota divorce. She went abroad immediately and there married James Henry Smith. On March 28, 1907, Mr. Smith died in Japan while he was en route to New York with Mrs. Smith and Miss Stewart. Mr. Smith's fortune was estimated at nearly $1,000,000. Of this amount his widow inherited under the will only about $3,000,000, while Miss Stewart received only the life interest at 4 per cent on bonds valued at $402,904.

NEWS FORECAST OF THE INCOMING WEEK

(Herald Special)
Washington, D. C., Oct. 29.—The week will see the virtual close of the political campaigns in the different states. The uncertainty with which the results of the approaching election are viewed, with regards to the state and congressional contests alike, will undoubtedly lead to a whirlwind finish of the campaign in many states where campaigns of a comparatively tame variety have been the rule for many years.

From the first to the last day of the week a flood of political oratory will surge over New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Massachusetts, Missouri, Iowa, California, Wisconsin and numerous other states where the closeness of the contests or issues of more than ordinary importance has

TERRIBLE STRAIN RESULTED NOT AMISS

A Lenoir Lady, After Two Weeks Grinding Labor, Feels Better Than Ever.

Lenoir, N. C.—"I am not tired at all, and am stouter than I have ever been," writes Mrs. Kate Waters, of Lenoir, N. C., "although I have just finished a two weeks' wash. I lay my strength to Cardui, the woman's tonic. I have taken a lot of it and I can never praise it enough for what it has done for me. I can never thank you enough for the advice you gave me, to take Cardui, for since taking it I look so well and am stout as a mule."

You are urged to take Cardui, that gentle, vegetable tonic, for weak women. Its use will strengthen and build up your system, relieve or prevent headache, backache and the ailments of weak women.

It will surely help you, as it has helped thousands of others, in the past 50 years.

created intense interest in the campaigns.

Colonel Roosevelt has a strenuous week ahead of him if he carries out the schedule now arranged. New York City will hear him for the last time during the campaign on Monday night. The following night he will speak in Brooklyn and immediately after he will leave for the west to fill an engagement to speak in behalf of some of the republican candidates for congress in Iowa. The western trip will consume three days. He will return east in time to close the New York campaign with a speech in Buffalo Saturday night.

Tuesday will be election day in Cuba, when half the members of the senate and of the lower house of the national legislature are to be chosen, together with many local officers. The result of this first election under the administration of President Gomez, and the second to be held by a Cuban government without the influence of American control, naturally will attract a good deal of attention from the outside world. There has been a great deal of political excitement in the island for some months, and in Havana five parties have put candidates in the field.

The week will see some notable events in far-off South Africa, centering around the opening of the first parliament of the South African Union, which was formed last year by the federation of Cape Colony, Natal, the Transvaal and Orange River Colony. The parliament will be opened by the Duke of Connaught, the uncle of King George V, who is due to arrive at Cape Town Monday. Accompanied by the Duchess of Connaught and Princess Patricia, his royal highness will make an extensive tour of the four states of the union following the opening of the parliament, which will take place Friday.

The feeling of political unrest and uncertainty which has existed in Spain for some months, and which has been intensified by the recent course of events in Portugal, will cause much attention to center in the proceedings of the Cortes, which has been called to convene Monday.

According to the latest reports from Madrid, Premier Canalejas will exert all his power and influence to push his program of liberal measures through parliament.

Two of the world's most celebrated actresses are scheduled to begin American tours during the week. In Chicago Monday night Mme. Sarah Bernhardt, the great French tragic actress, will begin a tour that will embrace many of the principal cities of the United States and Canada. In New York later in the week Ellen Terry, the English Shakespearian actress who was for many years associated with Sir Henry Irving, will make her American debut as a lecturer.

An inquiry is to begin in Newark Wednesday into the mental condition of Mrs. Caroline B. Martin, one of the Wardlaw sisters accused of murdering Ocee Snead, the East Orange, N. J., bathtub victim.

Other events of the week of more or less interest and importance will include the opening of the first Canadian National Apple Show in Vancouver, the three days' automobile race meeting in Atlanta, the annual meeting of the Association of Military Surgeons of the United States in Richmond, Va., and the opening of the International Fair at San Antonio, Texas.

Who Are "They?"
(By a Staff Correspondent.)
We all have a way of saying "they say" this or that of some person or some thing and accepting it ourselves as authentic when some one says "they say" to us.

But if we stopped to inquire into the exact source of the information, either we would be unable to trace it back to any one other than the elusive individual, "They Say," or we will find back of it the unkind gossip of some enemy.

And just because "they say" falls to put the blame of a falsehood on any one person's shoulders it really is the most dangerous of statements and one of the hardest to refute.

So let us beware of believing "they say" stories. Let us treat lightly all gossip introduced by the words "they say." Or if this gossip makes us suspicious of its object—and it is natural and human that it should at times—let us suspend judgment until we KNOW. In other words, let us do the object of "they say" the justice to investigate until we find some one who is in a position from actual knowledge and whom we can trust, to make a positive statement over his own name as to the truth or falsity of the "they say" story.

The writer has been led to pen this little lesson in practical fairness by reading a little book issued by the Coca-Cola Company of Atlanta, Ga., entitled "The Truth About Coca-Cola." That truly delicious and wholesome beverage has for so long been the subject of "they say" stories in which all manner of untrue and detrimental things about Coca-Cola have been circulated that the manufacturers have been forced to issue their book giving authentic information about this beverage. And the information therein contained does not rest its case on any "they say" statements, but bases its arguments on analysis and statements of chemists and scientists occupying the highest positions in America.

This is a most interesting book—a fine study in dignity in refuting falsehoods—and a book of information that all should read. You will find it well worth your while to write and ask the Coca-Cola Company, Atlanta, Ga., to send you a free copy.

Roosevelt's Day of Rest.
(Herald Special.)
New York, Oct. 29.—Following a strenuous week of campaigning up state, Colonel Roosevelt returned to his home in Oyster Bay this morning for a two days' rest. Monday night he is to deliver a speech in Manhattan and the following night in Brooklyn. Then he will start on a flying trip to Iowa to make several speeches for the republican candidates there, returning in time to close the campaign in Buffalo a week from tonight.

DANDRUFF CAUSED BY A GERM.
A New Discovery That Kills the Germ and Prevents Baldness.

Pretty nearly all the hair preparations for dandruff have some merit in allaying itching of the scalp, and in being a fairly good dressing for the hair, but there is only one that recognizes what causes dandruff, and that destroys the cause, a little germ—and that is Newbro's Herpicide. This germ eats its way into the scalp, it digs up the scalp into little white scales. Unless it is destroyed there's no permanent stopping of falling hair and cure of dandruff and baldness. Newbro's Herpicide kills the germ. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

CITATION.
The State of Texas.

To the Sheriff or Any Constable of Anderson County—Greeting:

Oath having been made as required by law, you are hereby commanded to summon the heirs of H. D. Taylor, deceased, by making publication of this citation once in each week for eight successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Anderson county, to be held at the court house thereof, in Palestine, on the fourth Monday in November, 1910, the same being the 28th day of November, 1910, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 1st day of October, 1910, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. 8332, wherein A. D. Evans is plaintiff, and the heirs of H. D. Taylor, deceased, are defendants, and said petition alleging that heretofore, to-wit: on the 1st day of September, 1910, plaintiff was in the lawful possession as the owner in fee simple, of the south half of Lot Four, in block H, of Jackson's Addition to the City of Palestine, Anderson county, Texas; that afterwards, on the 1st day of September, 1910, the defendants entered upon and dispossessed plaintiff of the above described land, and withhold from him the possession thereof, and that the nature of the claim of the defendants, the heirs of H. D. Taylor, deceased, in and to said land is as follows: The defendants claim that said H. D. Taylor acquired the title to said land prior to his death by warranty deed of J. E. Davis and wife, of date July 25th, 1883, recorded in Vol. 33, page 474, of Anderson County Deed Records, as well as by release subsequently executed by Royall, Coleman & Co. unto the said H. D. Taylor of the vendor's lien which was retained in said deed, and plaintiff admits that said H. D. Taylor did become the owner of said land by virtue of the aforesaid deed and release, but plaintiff avers that the title so acquired by the said H. D. Taylor, as well as any title or claim which passed to his heirs, upon his death, in and to said land, have been long ago lost and barred under the operation of the statutes of limitations of five and ten years, and plaintiff has acquired a superior title to said land under said statutes as specially plead in said petition.

Herein fail not, but have before said court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness, Jno. R. Moore, Clerk of the District Court of Anderson County.

Cole's Original Hot Blast Heater

The cleanest, the easiest to care for. Users of coal must remember that the ordinary heater is a big care to operate. That its smoke and ashes entail dusting, curtain washing and carpet sweeping. Think then of the easy operation and the cleanliness of Cole's Hot Blast. This heater has a guaranteed smoke-proof feed door through which a current of air draws the smoke directly across the top of the stove to the stove pipe—away from the opening. Contrast this simple, cleanly feed with the side door in an ordinary heater. Side doors used on other stoves permit the escape of dirty smoke, unpleasant gases and accumulated soot drops from it. If you over-fill a side door stove, coal falls to the floor. The air-tight feature embodied in Cole's Hot Blast Heater is an everlasting advantage in its favor. Allow us to show you this perfect heater before you buy. (5-17)
