DOUBTLESS some day, somebody some where, will make a better piano 1894, nobody has done so. THE EMERSON PIANO makes no false pretenses, claims no intangible merit.

The things everybody wants in a piano are an artistic case, a full, rich tone, responsive action and a guarantee of

A DECREE of divorce was this forenoon granted by Judge Revel from her husband, Albert Revel, by Judge King. Both parties are of Provo. Mrs.
Revel's grounds were failure to provide and cruel treatment. Albert Revel will be remembered as the Frenchman whom Marshal Knight arrested recently for disturbing the peace of James Bonnet, and who was once tried for sanity upon complaint of Mrs. Wm.
D. Alexander. Mrs. Revel's name, it will be remembered, figured conspicuously not long ago with that of Frank Mastino of Tucker, in a criminal charge which the grand jury investigated and ignored.

A YOUNG man named Jay C. Watson was killed the other evening in a saloon brawl in Park City and the Salt Lake papers in speaking of the affair, referred to the deceased as J. C. Watson.

This has led many here to think that the man killed was "Johnny" Watson of Provo, the druggist, who is now employed in a drug store at Park City.
Johnny Watson was J. M. and the man killed was a railroad man and an A. O. U. W. member, all of which the Provo Watson is not. Our Johnny is all o. k. and behaving himself as he ought—his friends here need fear no more that he has joined the great majority. The Watson who was killed was the aggressor in the row and the man Collier, who is now in the penitentiary awaiting the grand jury, struck Watson over the head with a billiard cue, purely in self-defense.

The Sable Singers are running against hard luck. Some ten or a dozen people, other than those having complimentary tickets, came out to hear them at the Methodist church last night. Not enough money to pay license was taken in. The Marshal Knight demanded the license before the performance was allowed to go on and the management was compelled to resort to the expedient of giving back the money to those of the audience who paid, give a free show and depend upon the charity of the audience at the close by passing the hat. The company contains some good singers, but of course, under the circumstances last night, their spirits were not sufficiently light to enable them to do their best work. They go to Springfield tonight and to the other towns in the south part of the county afterwards. Perhaps they'll get more liberal support in those towns than they got in Provo.

DEPUTY MARSHAL BEAN of Richfield last evening brought up Richard M.
Palmer of Chester, on a warrant issued out of the First District court on an indictment charging grand larceny.

The marshal learned this morning in court that he had made a mistake; it was one Daniel Palmer for whom the warrant was issued. Daniel Palmer is in Castle Valley somewhere. Both Palmers are indicted and both for grand larceny.
R. M. Palmer, however, is under bonds to appear when wanted and in fact has been before the court three different times ready to plead, but for some reason his case has never been tried; he has not yet been arraigned. The prospects are that the case will be dismissed at the next setting of criminal cases. He was accused of butchering a steer not his own, some time early in the year 1893.

to Hans Christensen, aged 25, and Sarah E. Sprattley, aged 23, both of American Fork.

TWO or three tramps have been observed today entering to sell coats, boots, etc., to different citizens.

MARSHAL KNIGHT and Policeman McEwan ran in a bevy of five tramps, four for vagrancy and one for complicity with the man Williams in "lifting".
Rob Bee's store, last evening. Three others applied for a bed. These and one of the tramps were allowed to depart in peace this morning. The others will have their trial tomorrow. Four of the tramps when in jail pitched onto one of the others and a lively "scrap" ensued for a short time. The poor fellow who got the worst of it was taken into the county jail.

DR. T. C. LUFF, superintendent of the Utah M. E. mission, will lecture in the M. E. church before the Sophocles society tomorrow (Friday) evening, beginning at 7:30. His subject will be "From New York to the Nile." All are cordially invited.

THE Provo Co-op. buys all the produce of the farmers, giving the best prices for which they can be sold in this community. A fair barter is guaran-

MARSHAL KNIGHT last evening received a telegram from the marshal of Fruita, Colorado, to arrest a Miss Chamberlain a young girl nineteen years of age, who was on the R. G. W.
No. 3 going west. The marshal arrested the girl and today on No. 1 her mother reached the city. The girl was placed in her mother's charge. The two went on north.

On Tuesday night last in the Odd Fellows' hall about fifty members of the I. O. F. and Bebeah lodges enjoyed a most pleasant social. Progressive high life was indulged in and a program of songs, recitations and short speeches was rendered, and the whole closed with a grand lunch which had been spread by the ladies.

THE Modern Mother
Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant laxative, Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy than by any other, and that it is more acceptable to them. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

Probably the meanest thief ever caught is Louis Bourgaard of Paris, who recently, while riding in a cab, ripped open the cushions, tied the horsehair into a parcel, sold it while the cab waited for him and with the money proceeded from selling his "plunder" paid the cabman his fare.
