GEO. L. SHOUP.

SENATOR SHOUP DEAD

BOISE, Idaho, Dec. 21.—George L. Shoup, pioneer, territorial governor and former senator of the United States from Idaho, died here at 8 o'clock this morning. Flags are half-masted on the state buildings, and his relatives, responding to appeals of warm friends, have consented to a state funeral. Mr. Shoup had been ill for weeks, and it was known for several days that the time of dissolution was at hand.

It has been decided that the funeral services will be held in St. Michael's cathedral Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The service of the Episcopal church will be conducted by Bishop Funston, assisted by Dean Hinks. At the Masonic cemetery the Masonic grand lodge will supervise the ceremony. The Elks, members of the Loyal Legion and the Grand army will participate, and the state will be represented by the executive and judicial officers and the justices of the supreme court.

Although arrangements have not been fully completed, it is announced the casket will be taken to the capitol building at 10 o'clock on Friday morning. Surrounded by a guard of honor, the body will lie in state until the hour set for the funeral.

The body of former Senator Shoup will be moved from the residence to the capitol building at 10 o'clock Friday morning. A detail of Knights Templars will act as an escort. The casket will be placed in the main entrance of the building.

A detail from the Third cavalry will be stationed at the central south gate, at the main entrance of the building and the west side door. The pupils of the public schools will assemble in the school building Friday afternoon and march to the capitol grounds and through the building.

The death of Senator Shoup will cast a gloom over the entire state. He was one of the earliest of pioneers and his name was a household word in thousands of homes in the state. No man in Idaho had more sincere personal friends than the late Senator.

Senator Shoup has had a distinguished career. He enlisted as a private in the First Colorado Cavalry in the civil war and arose to the rank of Colonel, commanding the 3d cavalry at the close of the war.

He came to Idaho in 1866 and engaged in merchandizing at Salmon City, Idaho. He retained his interests there at the time of his death, it being the largest mercantile establishment in the state.

He served several terms in the territorial legislature and in 1889 was appointed territorial Governor by President Harrison. Idaho becoming a state the next year, he was elected the first governor of the state. The first legislature elected him U. S. Senator and he was reelected for a full term in 1894, and was the caucus nominee for a third term, being defeated by a Democrat.

Senator Shoup served nearly sixteen years as a member of the National Republican committee.

The Senator was always true to his friends who trusted implicitly in his honor. He was a forceful character, of strong ability, and had abundance of good, common sense.

The whole state will mourn his loss. Mr. Shoup leaves a wife and six children—three boys, Walter, George and William, and three daughters, Lena, Laura and Margaret; also a brother, James M. Shoup, United States marshal of Alaska, and a sister.

W. A. ALEXANDER

A CORRECTION.

In the Northern Idaho News of last week there appeared the following editorial comment:

"Word was received this week from Senator W. B. Heyburn that the appointment of Thomas A. Murray of this city as Supervisor of the Priest River Forest Reserve to succeed Robert Bragaw had been turned down on account of an affidavit having been filed at the Department by C. L. Heitman of Rathdrum, in which it is affirmed that Murray was not an able bodied man."

It seems that the News was misinformed on the subject as the following telegrams would seem to indicate. The attention of Mr. Heitman having been called to the matter he wired Senator Heyburn as follows:

Rathdrum, Idaho, Dec. 21, 1904.
Hon. W. B. Heyburn, United States Senate,
Washington, D. C.

The Sandpoint News publishes editorially the following: "Word was received this week from Senator W. B. Heyburn that the appointment of Thomas A. Murray of this city as Supervisor of the Priest River Forest Reserve to succeed Robert Bragaw had been turned down on account of an affidavit having been filed at the Department by C. L. Heitman of Rathdrum, in which it is affirmed that Murray was not an able bodied man." Please advise me by wire about this matter. I made no affidavit against Murray.

CHAS. L. HEITMAN.

Senator Heyburn replied as follows:

Washington, D. C., Dec. 22, 1904.
Chas. L. Heitman,
Rathdrum, Idaho.

Absolutely no truth in editorial referred to in your telegram. Never heard of your filing or making affidavit or any statement in regard to Murray and have made no statement myself on the subject. No one has been turned down in the matter. President has placed forest reserves in classified service and vacancies will be filled by promotion. It is merely change in policy of government of general application.

W. B. HEYBURN.

The Northern Idaho News was misinformed and we have no doubt but that it will take the first opportunity to make a suitable correction and set Chairman Heitman right before its readers.

BONNINGTON--MCGREEVEY.

The marriage of James McGreevey and Lizzie Bonnington was solemnized on Tuesday, at the home of the bride's brother, Jesse Howe, in this city, Rev. Father Kelley officiating. The ceremony was private, only relatives of the bride being present.

Mr. McGreevey occupies a prominent position with the Bonners Ferry Lumber Co. Mrs. McGreevey's home was in Washington. She is a most charming lady, and the many friends of Mr. McGreevey, including the HERALD, extend him their congratulations and wish both every joy.

They left on the afternoon train on a short wedding tour. On their return they will reside in the new residence erected by Mr. McGreevey during the summer.

They were accompanied to the train by many of their intimate friends who showered them with rice and other tokens of good luck, and of course some practical jokes had to be perpetrated. One of these was for some of Mr. McGreevey's friends to strike off a lot of circulars like the following on a typewriter and distribute them on the train:

"This is a newly married couple. Don't mind if they do act a little queer. Please turn your head the other way so as not to bother them, as the groom, Mr. McGreevey, is a very bashful young man and his friends at Bonners Ferry would dislike very much to have him annoyed or troubled on his wedding trip. You will know him by his blue overcoat and stiff hat. Please be very kind to them, for Jim is very bashful."

HIL FRIENDS AT BONNERS FERRY.

It was rather a trying experience but they say the groom acquitted himself very gracefully.
