PRACTICAL WORK IN UNIVERSITIES
PARIS PORTIA QUEEN OF BEAUTY

DEPARTMENT OF DOMESTIC SCIENCE AND ART HAS LARGE ATTENDANCE—TEAM PREPARING FOR DEBATE.

MOSCOW, Nov. 23.—One of the most thoroughly practical departments of university work is that of domestic science and art. There are 80 young women doing this work at present. And it means that together with a knowledge of mathematics and English they are being trained in the rational preparation of food and in the preservation of food stuffs; in hand and machine sewing, and in the designing and cutting of garments. In an age when the elimination of waste becomes ever more important, nothing could be better economic policy for the state than instructing in just these lines the wives and mothers of this coming generation.

A rapidly-approaching event of interest in the intercollegiate world is the Idaho-W. S. C. debate on the first of December. Gwin of Lewiston, Jones of Wardner and Mathews of Moscow are the University team. They will meet experienced men at public debate in Price and Chapman of the Pullman team. Idaho will support the negative on the question, "Resolved that the United States senate should adopt a closure rule." These debaters are chosen by competitive examination, and are training carefully. There has been no debate with the W. S. C. during the two years past, and unusual interest centers in this next meet.

SUPREME COURT
GIVES DECISIONS

HANDED DOWN TWO IN CASES HEARD AT LEWISTON FROM LATAH AND KOOTENAI COUNTIES.

BOISE, Ida., Nov. 23.—The supreme court today handed down two more decisions. One was the case in which A. H. Squires applied to the court for a writ of habeas corpus asking his release from a charge of manslaughter after having been bound over to the district court of Latah county for trial by the probate judge of that county. The writ was denied. The decision is by Judge Sullivan, Judge Ailshie concurring.

The syllabus is in part as follows: Held, that there was sufficient evidence in this case to warrant the committing magistrate to hold the petitioner for trial in the district court. Held, that it appears from the evidence that a public offense has been committed and that there was sufficient cause to believe the petitioner guilty thereof. That being true, the committing magistrate did not abuse his discretion in holding the petitioner to appear for trial.

The second case is that of Neustadter Bros. vs. Edwin Doust, sheriff of Kootenai county, the lower court being affirmed.

This case was an action filed by Neustadter Bros. to restrain the sheriff from selling certain personal property under affidavit and notice of the sale of such property on chattel mortgage. Demurrer to the complaint was sustained by the lower court, and judgment of dismissal entered.

This judgment the supreme court sustains.

To Observe Temperance Sunday.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 23.—Tomorrow has been selected by Prohibitionists as world's temperance Sunday, and it is expected that in their pulpits tomorrow morning hundreds of ministers will take up the subject, "The Saloon a Stumbling Block." In Chicago the ministers are to join in a united effort to arouse public sentiment on the question of closing all saloons on Sunday.

More than 1,000 pastors and many church, temperance, law and order and improvement associations have joined in the movement.

A fully equipped fire department and a model emergency hospital will be installed on the grounds of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition for use during the construction period.

NEWEST, YOUNGEST AND PRETTIEST WOMAN BARRISTER STIRS HEARTS OF MEMBERS OF THE BAR.

PARIS, Nov. 23.—The Paris bar now has one more lady barrister. Mile Helene Miropolsky, the daughter of a Polish physician residing here, but herself born in Paris, is not only the newest of the lady barristers; she is also the youngest, for she is only 20 years old, and in addition to being the youngest, she is also the most beautiful.

Even before she was brought into prominence on the occasion of taking her oath of office she was celebrated for her beauty, grace and elegance. Her large dark eyes, fresh complexion, tall well-shaped figure and exquisite chic in the barrister's toga, with her masses of black hair surmounted by the biretta, created a sensation in the court and it was speedily filled by a large crowd of pleaders and lawyers, who were drawn to witness this unaccustomed sight—a beautiful girl of 20 deliberately entering the lists against men learned in the intricacies of the law.

When Mile. Miropolsky raised a graceful hand and said in answer to the usual formula, "I swear," the members of the bar present declared that she had an intensely melodious voice and all the grace and seductiveness that accompany oratory.

The young lady advocate's success was so great that two other notable figures among her young colleagues, who were taking the oath almost escaped notice. These were M. Gounod, grandson of the composer of "Faust," and M. Marcel Cruppi, son of the famous Maitre Cruppi, who has played such a leading part in many a cause celebre of recent years, including the Castellane divorce case.

GOOD ROADS
ACROSS ROCKIES

AN ENTHUSIAST TRAVELS 8500 MILES ALONG A ROUTE HE WILL URGE GOVERNMENT TO BUILD ROAD FOR AUTOS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—C. W. Thatcher, a "good roads" enthusiast who reached Chicago after an overland journey from San Francisco in a miniature prairie schooner hauled by a pair of mules, today continues to lecture on his ideas for a national highway from New York to San Francisco.

He exploited to street crowds the details of his extraordinary trip, begun partly from health motives but more from a desire to promote the good roads movement.

When the diminutive prairie prairie schooner reached Chicago from Milwaukee, by way of Sheridan road, and bearing a faded sign: "I read the Hearst papers; they favor good roads," it attracted great attention.

When he reached Chicago he announced the loss of his dog, his sole companion for two years. The animal disappeared two days ago from Thatcher's camp, after having traveled thousands of miles across the Sierras, through Death Valley and over the Rockies. Thatcher has asked the police to assist in the recovery of the animal.

When he reached Chicago Thatcher had traveled 8,500 miles, often being several days without seeing a human being in his passage over the Rockies or through the plains of Mexico. The traveler is a civil engineer, which is regarded as lending a special value to his plan for good roads.

"The fact is that if we were to build the road through the Rockies, which can be done easily," said Mr. Thatcher, "we could keep in the United States many thousands of dollars that annually go to Europe because they have good wheeling roads on the other side of the Atlantic."

"I know what I am talking about when I say that an automobile route from coast to coast through the Rocky mountains would be the most traveled route in the world."

HOTEL WATCHMAN
FROM MISSOURI

HAD TO BE SHOWN THAT ACTRESS HAD MARRIAGE CERTIFICATE BEFORE HE REFRAINED FROM FIRING HER FROM ROOMS.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 23.—A hysterical episode at the Hotel Havlin early last Sunday morning which threatened to involve Miss Jessie Busley, the actress, was turned into a romance when Miss Busley produced a certificate showing that she was married on November 8 to Ernest Joy, the stage director of the company in which she is starring.

After last Saturday night's performance Miss Busley attended a reception tendered her by a fashionable hostess and returned to the Hotel Havlin at about 2 o'clock Sunday morning. Shortly after the watchman knocked at Miss Busley's door and ordered her from the house. "You have a man in your room," cried Patrick Henry Megghan, the watchman, "and that is something no decent hotel will stand for. Out you go, both of you."

This was the cue for Miss Busley's new husband to severely chastise the watchman, who summoned the hotel office staff.

Miss Busley then gave documentary proof of her marriage and the story came out. Miss Busley is the star in "The Bishop's Carriage" company, which recently played in San Francisco, Los Angeles and Seattle.
