FOR PRESIDENT W. J. BRYAN. FOR VICE PRESIDENT ARTHUR SEWELL.

FREE COINAGE 16 TO 1. The proper caper now is to notice and then telegraph for your valise.

The man who can name the winners at the next election in this county would have to be a prophet indeed. We imagine it cannot be done till after the ballots are counted.

There are some good men on the McKinley republican county ticket and under other circumstances they would at least stand a good chance of election. But McKinleyism will not command support in this county this year so these worthy men will fall.

The county campaign now has three tickets injected into it and the populists promise, so rumor says to put up another one yet, which will make four. With so many candidates it ought not be hard to find good officers for the coming two years.

We want everyone to witness the painful silence the Post will observe in the future concerning Recorder Sponburg. That sheet jumped on the wrong persimmon when it tackled Gus, and if it don't already know it, it may learn the same from no uncertain quarter if these personal attacks are continued

The democratic ticket as regards geographical location is made up as follows: St Charles, state senator, representative and commissioner; Bloomington, probate judge; Paris, representative, sheriff, treasurer; Montpelier, assessor, commissioner; Dingle, commissioner; Bennington, surveyor and Georgetown, coronor.

The silver republican ticket is as follows: St. Charles, commissioner; Bloomington, probate judge; Paris, two representatives, treasurer; Liberty, commissioner; Montpelier, senator, assessor, surveyor; Ovid, coronor; Bennington, commissioner; Dingle sheriff.

In a letter to the EXAMINER this week, E. K. Robinett says he is getting along fine studying law at the Kansas university. He says the "bleeding" state will go strong for Bryan and silver by a big majority.

During October the EXAMINER will go into the home of every resident in Bear Lake county in consequence of this its columns will be especially valuable in advertising fall and winter stock of goods. The rates will be the same as usual. Give this scheme for advertising a trial.

Fuller's bus will be at all passenger trains. It will also call at any house in town for the purpose of taking passengers and trunks to the depot. Charges reasonable. Leave orders at stable office. 32

Agent Murnane's office has been undergoing a general change this week. J. E. Green has been transferred to Market Lake, E. M. Stewart taking his place. Night operator W. J. D. H. Bates, an individual of many aliases, was arrested this week for obtaining money under false pretenses. The judge fined him $52 which he paid and went his way. The scheme he worked was to sell an inhaler and agree to deliver a $2.50 dress pattern all for one dollar. Many about Bloomington were taken in and the crook was making a harvest when the officers heard of his work. He skipped, but was caught at Soda Springs. The EXAMINER warns residents along the line of the road to lookout for him.
