

First National Bank Of Montpelier, Idaho

BETTER START
THE
NEW YEAR

By opening an account with us. It don't require much money to begin with.

TIM KINNEY, President
E. A. BURRELL, Vice-Pres and Cashier
GEO. E. MARKS, Asst. Cashier

Local News

Montpelier, Idaho, Feb. 21, 1908.

Chas. E. Harris, Notary Public.
Lent begins on Wednesday, March 4.
Thos. Douglas is on the sick list this week.

New line of spring shirts, hats, etc., at H. B. Whitman's. 51
Judge Gough went to Boise Sunday for a week's sojourn.

The Thatcher Co. carries everything in the musical line. 50
A four-room furnished house for rent; call on Mrs. S. H. Hammond.

All kinds of new embroideries just opened at H. B. Whitman's. 51
Mr. and Mrs. Eph Hull, of Boise, were visitors here the first of the week.

Geo. E. Marks, notary public and fire insurance. 38
There were 44 calls for books at the public library last Tuesday afternoon.

Here with the goods—Stewart, the grocer.
Audy Jensen will go to Malad tomorrow to visit several weeks with his brother.

Pianos, organs and phonographs sold on easy payments at Nielsen's Music & Jewelry Store. 40
The first consignment of spring styles in millinery has arrived at Mrs. Whinnies' store.

For a good bath, shave or hair cut go to Phelps' barber shop.
Ithel Thomas is acting as cashier at the depot during the absence of Harry Hull.

We are still cleaning and repairing clothes at reasonable rates. Chas. Schmid, the tailor. 48
Fred Humerick returned Monday from a month's visit at his old home in Atlantic, Iowa.

See the beautiful new line of spring gingham at 12 1/2 cents per yard, new patterns at H. B. Whitman's. 51
Martin Dean of Cokeville has gone to Bancroft to accept a position in the store of Dolbeer Bros.

If you want something nice in new spring dress goods, wool or cotton, call and see the new goods at H. B. Whitman's. 51
A son was born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. O. Kelley of Ogden. Mrs. Kelley was formerly Miss Jessie McIntosh.

Special low prices on the stock of doors and windows bought by the C. W. & M. Co.—D. McLennan, Montpelier.
The ladies average about $150 at the bazaar and festival held at the L. D. S. meeting house last Wednesday and Thursday.

Good supply of the hot Springs coal a ways on hand. Grove livery stable. Orders promptly filled.
There will be a number of new and interesting features in the entertainment to be given at Strong's hall next week under the auspices of the Catholic ladies.

Three hundred yards of remnants of gingham, all good size pieces; these are some snags; Whitman's Livery Stable. 51
The Village Improvement Society cleared about $20 at the rummage sale last week. Most of this sum will be used in buying books for the free public library.

A brother of Dr. Haywood, of Paris, was operated upon Monday for an abscess of the lung. The operation was performed by Drs. Haywood, Poynter and Croft.

Butter, cheese, and signature stamps made to order by M. J. Floyd, Paris, Idaho. 41
Harry Hull, cashier at the depot, went to Boise yesterday for a two week's visit with relatives.

"Dad" Bryan, veterinary surgeon, calls promptly attended to in any part of the county; phone No. 9. 39
Joe McCart, who has been ill for the past three months, is reported as being considerably improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Cozzens are entertaining a little daughter who arrived at their home on Feb. 13.

Mrs. J. K. Nelson has suffered severely the past week with a gathering in her head, but is now much better.

See our samples for spring and summer suits; the largest assortment ever shown in Montpelier. Chas. Schmid, the tailor. 48

Several people will go from here to Cokeville this afternoon to attend a big masquerade ball to be given there tonight.

Buy the kind of pianos that have proved by years of use to stand the test in our climate. Nielsen sells that kind on easy terms and no interest. 40

Joe Walton, Jr., of Auburn, Star valley, died Tuesday of blood poison, resulting from a broken leg. Deceased was 24 years old.

All suits from our fall and winter samples will be made at reduced prices during January and February. Chas. Schmid, the tailor. 48

Ex-County Auditor James E. Hart came in from Nampa yesterday for a short visit with old Bear Lake friends and relatives.

Apples, well, I guess and Payette apples, too. Ganos, Delaware Reds. Wine Saps, Jonathans, Roman Beauties and Black Twigs.—Stewart, the grocer.

The stork presented Mr. and Mrs. Jesse R. S. Budge, of Pocatello, with a fine valentine last Friday in the form of a ten pound son.

For a limited time only we will sell Star A Star shingles for $3.75 for spot cash. We buy when prices are right and our customers get the benefit.—D. McLennan, Montpelier. 52

Engineer Fred Vogel, who was transferred to the First district last week, will remove his family here from Pocatello in a few days.

Attend the dance at the pavilion tomorrow night. Tickets only 50 cents.

Mrs. O. B. Cayou and daughter came in from Pocatello Tuesday to join Mr. Cayou, he having been transferred from the Second to the First district.

Superintendent and Mrs. G. H. Olmstead and Division Engineer and Mrs. W. S. Harer of Pocatello, attended the K of P. ball Wednesday night.

There will be a wrestling match and boxing contest at Strong's hall next Friday night. General Admission 50c, reserved seats 75c, ring side $1.

Fifty or more people will take part in the entertainment to be given by the Catholic ladies at Strong's hall next Wednesday and Thursday nights.

All members of the Woodmen of the World are requested to attend the meeting next Monday night, as there is business of importance to be considered.

J. Christofferson, of Kemmerer, was shaking hands with Montpelier friends Monday. While here he had his subscription peg on the Examiner moved up three notches.

Rev. Botts, who resigned as pastor of the Presbyterian church here about two years ago to accept a call at Stirling, Cal., has recently removed to Myrtle Point, Oregon.

Wanted, washing or work by the day; washing and ironing 60c a dozen, by the day 15c an hour. Inquire at old Beckman house, opposite residence of G. C. Gray.

Mrs. A. J. Kelly entertained a small company of friends last Friday evening. The guests had a jolly time playing 63 and 500 until a late hour, when refreshments were served.

"Dad" Bryan slipped on an icy sidewalk last Saturday evening and fell in such a manner as to break three ribs on his left side. He is able to be around, but is feeling much sorer.

In a letter in which three "cart wheels" were enclosed, one subscriber says: "I am very well pleased with the Examiner and don't know how I could get along without it."

Makes the Biscuit and Cake lighter, finer flavored, more nutritious and wholesome

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

Made from pure Grape Cream of Tartar
No alum—No lime phosphate

Mrs. Miller returned Monday from a visit of several months at the home of her son Al at Ontario, Ore. She left Wednesday for Belt, Montana, to visit a month or more with another son.

Alf Hoover went to Salt Lake last week to take treatment under a specialist for ear trouble. He writes that he is obtaining relief and will be under the physician's care for about a week longer.

It has been decided to call the republican county central committee together on Saturday, March 7, to fix the time and place for holding a convention to select 14 delegates to attend the state convention at Wallace on May 12. The official call will be published next week.

"Dad" Bryan has the agency for Idaho, Wyoming and Utah of the Veterinary Science Association of London, Canada. See him for particulars regarding membership. All members are furnished with a standard work on veterinary science, a book every farmer should have.

Charlie Schmid says that his home has been converted into a small hospital for the past two weeks, and he has been filling the roles of nurse, cook, dishwasher, etc. Mrs. Schmid has been laid up with the grippe and their daughter Frieda has inflammatory rheumatism.

Judge Budge came in Sunday from Boise, where he had been looking after his case which is now in the supreme court. The case will be argued before that tribunal next Wednesday. His friends throughout Southeastern Idaho are united in the hope that the court will render a decision in his favor.

Forest Ranger Johnson informs us that applications have been filed with the forest supervisor for grazing of about 650,000 head of sheep on the Caribou reserve during the coming season. This is about $50,000 in excess of the number that will be permitted to graze on the reserve. Mr. Johnson did not know the number of head of cattle and horses for which applications had been made.

Mrs. Miller returned Monday from a visit of several months at the home of her son Al at Ontario, Ore. She left Wednesday for Belt, Montana, to visit a month or more with another son.

Alf Hoover went to Salt Lake last week to take treatment under a specialist for ear trouble. He writes that he is obtaining relief and will be under the physician's care for about a week longer.

It has been decided to call the republican county central committee together on Saturday, March 7, to fix the time and place for holding a convention to select 14 delegates to attend the state convention at Wallace on May 12. The official call will be published next week.

"Dad" Bryan has the agency for Idaho, Wyoming and Utah of the Veterinary Science Association of London, Canada. See him for particulars regarding membership. All members are furnished with a standard work on veterinary science, a book every farmer should have.

Charlie Schmid says that his home has been converted into a small hospital for the past two weeks, and he has been filling the roles of nurse, cook, dishwasher, etc. Mrs. Schmid has been laid up with the grippe and their daughter Frieda has inflammatory rheumatism.

Judge Budge came in Sunday from Boise, where he had been looking after his case which is now in the supreme court. The case will be argued before that tribunal next Wednesday. His friends throughout Southeastern Idaho are united in the hope that the court will render a decision in his favor.

Forest Ranger Johnson informs us that applications have been filed with the forest supervisor for grazing of about 650,000 head of sheep on the Caribou reserve during the coming season. This is about $50,000 in excess of the number that will be permitted to graze on the reserve. Mr. Johnson did not know the number of head of cattle and horses for which applications had been made.

Mrs. Miller returned Monday from a visit of several months at the home of her son Al at Ontario, Ore. She left Wednesday for Belt, Montana, to visit a month or more with another son.

Alf Hoover went to Salt Lake last week to take treatment under a specialist for ear trouble. He writes that he is obtaining relief and will be under the physician's care for about a week longer.

It has been decided to call the republican county central committee together on Saturday, March 7, to fix the time and place for holding a convention to select 14 delegates to attend the state convention at Wallace on May 12. The official call will be published next week.

"Dad" Bryan has the agency for Idaho, Wyoming and Utah of the Veterinary Science Association of London, Canada. See him for particulars regarding membership. All members are furnished with a standard work on veterinary science, a book every farmer should have.

Charlie Schmid says that his home has been converted into a small hospital for the past two weeks, and he has been filling the roles of nurse, cook, dishwasher, etc. Mrs. Schmid has been laid up with the grippe and their daughter Frieda has inflammatory rheumatism.

Judge Budge came in Sunday from Boise, where he had been looking after his case which is now in the supreme court. The case will be argued before that tribunal next Wednesday. His friends throughout Southeastern Idaho are united in the hope that the court will render a decision in his favor.

Forest Ranger Johnson informs us that applications have been filed with the forest supervisor for grazing of about 650,000 head of sheep on the Caribou reserve during the coming season. This is about $50,000 in excess of the number that will be permitted to graze on the reserve. Mr. Johnson did not know the number of head of cattle and horses for which applications had been made.

Mrs. Miller returned Monday from a visit of several months at the home of her son Al at Ontario, Ore. She left Wednesday for Belt, Montana, to visit a month or more with another son.

Alf Hoover went to Salt Lake last week to take treatment under a specialist for ear trouble. He writes that he is obtaining relief and will be under the physician's care for about a week longer.

It has been decided to call the republican county central committee together on Saturday, March 7, to fix the time and place for holding a convention to select 14 delegates to attend the state convention at Wallace on May 12. The official call will be published next week.

"Dad" Bryan has the agency for Idaho, Wyoming and Utah of the Veterinary Science Association of London, Canada. See him for particulars regarding membership. All members are furnished with a standard work on veterinary science, a book every farmer should have.

Charlie Schmid says that his home has been converted into a small hospital for the past two weeks, and he has been filling the roles of nurse, cook, dishwasher, etc. Mrs. Schmid has been laid up with the grippe and their daughter Frieda has inflammatory rheumatism.

Judge Budge came in Sunday from Boise, where he had been looking after his case which is now in the supreme court. The case will be argued before that tribunal next Wednesday. His friends throughout Southeastern Idaho are united in the hope that the court will render a decision in his favor.

Forest Ranger Johnson informs us that applications have been filed with the forest supervisor for grazing of about 650,000 head of sheep on the Caribou reserve during the coming season. This is about $50,000 in excess of the number that will be permitted to graze on the reserve. Mr. Johnson did not know the number of head of cattle and horses for which applications had been made.

Mrs. Miller returned Monday from a visit of several months at the home of her son Al at Ontario, Ore. She left Wednesday for Belt, Montana, to visit a month or more with another son.

Alf Hoover went to Salt Lake last week to take treatment under a specialist for ear trouble. He writes that he is obtaining relief and will be under the physician's care for about a week longer.

The Best Nurse

and the best doctor will fall short of their ambition to cure sick folk if the physician's prescriptions are inaccurately or imperfectly compounded. We aid, rather than hinder, the best doctors by putting in bottles or boxes just what they order for their patients.

Riter Bros. Drug Co.

Montpelier, Franklin and Preston, Idaho. Logan and Garland, Utah.

M. L. deJulien came in Saturday from California and left Tuesday morning for the east. He will visit New York, Washington and other points in the interests of the Bonanza Mining Co.

The Knights of Pythias anniversary ball at the pavilion Wednesday night was a most delightful affair and the Knights sustained their record of being royal entertainers. The hall was artistically decorated with bunting and K. of P. emblems. Coffee and sandwiches were served during the evening. It was 3 o'clock in the morning when the last of the tired but happy dancers left the hall.

J. C. Nielsen and Thor Nielsen and wife returned last Friday from a month's sojourn in Southern California. Mrs. J. C. Nielsen and daughters, Iris and Selma, will remain another month or more at Los Angeles. "While I enjoyed my stay there and would have remained two or three weeks longer had not business called me home, yet I would not care to live in Southern California all the time," said Thor Nielsen in conversation with the Examiner scribe. "It is nice to go there," he said, "during our cold weather here, but I imagine that I would not enjoy the summers there. The summers in old Bear Lake are good enough for me." Mr. Nielsen thinks that Long Beach is the coming resort of Southern California. It is now a city of about 15,000 and is growing rapidly.

J. C. Nielsen and Thor Nielsen and wife returned last Friday from a month's sojourn in Southern California. Mrs. J. C. Nielsen and daughters, Iris and Selma, will remain another month or more at Los Angeles. "While I enjoyed my stay there and would have remained two or three weeks longer had not business called me home, yet I would not care to live in Southern California all the time," said Thor Nielsen in conversation with the Examiner scribe. "It is nice to go there," he said, "during our cold weather here, but I imagine that I would not enjoy the summers there. The summers in old Bear Lake are good enough for me." Mr. Nielsen thinks that Long Beach is the coming resort of Southern California. It is now a city of about 15,000 and is growing rapidly.

J. C. Nielsen and Thor Nielsen and wife returned last Friday from a month's sojourn in Southern California. Mrs. J. C. Nielsen and daughters, Iris and Selma, will remain another month or more at Los Angeles. "While I enjoyed my stay there and would have remained two or three weeks longer had not business called me home, yet I would not care to live in Southern California all the time," said Thor Nielsen in conversation with the Examiner scribe. "It is nice to go there," he said, "during our cold weather here, but I imagine that I would not enjoy the summers there. The summers in old Bear Lake are good enough for me." Mr. Nielsen thinks that Long Beach is the coming resort of Southern California. It is now a city of about 15,000 and is growing rapidly.

J. C. Nielsen and Thor Nielsen and wife returned last Friday from a month's sojourn in Southern California. Mrs. J. C. Nielsen and daughters, Iris and Selma, will remain another month or more at Los Angeles. "While I enjoyed my stay there and would have remained two or three weeks longer had not business called me home, yet I would not care to live in Southern California all the time," said Thor Nielsen in conversation with the Examiner scribe. "It is nice to go there," he said, "during our cold weather here, but I imagine that I would not enjoy the summers there. The summers in old Bear Lake are good enough for me." Mr. Nielsen thinks that Long Beach is the coming resort of Southern California. It is now a city of about 15,000 and is growing rapidly.

J. C. Nielsen and Thor Nielsen and wife returned last Friday from a month's sojourn in Southern California. Mrs. J. C. Nielsen and daughters, Iris and Selma, will remain another month or more at Los Angeles. "While I enjoyed my stay there and would have remained two or three weeks longer had not business called me home, yet I would not care to live in Southern California all the time," said Thor Nielsen in conversation with the Examiner scribe. "It is nice to go there," he said, "during our cold weather here, but I imagine that I would not enjoy the summers there. The summers in old Bear Lake are good enough for me." Mr. Nielsen thinks that Long Beach is the coming resort of Southern California. It is now a city of about 15,000 and is growing rapidly.

J. C. Nielsen and Thor Nielsen and wife returned last Friday from a month's sojourn in Southern California. Mrs. J. C. Nielsen and daughters, Iris and Selma, will remain another month or more at Los Angeles. "While I enjoyed my stay there and would have remained two or three weeks longer had not business called me home, yet I would not care to live in Southern California all the time," said Thor Nielsen in conversation with the Examiner scribe. "It is nice to go there," he said, "during our cold weather here, but I imagine that I would not enjoy the summers there. The summers in old Bear Lake are good enough for me." Mr. Nielsen thinks that Long Beach is the coming resort of Southern California. It is now a city of about 15,000 and is growing rapidly.

J. C. Nielsen and Thor Nielsen and wife returned last Friday from a month's sojourn in Southern California. Mrs. J. C. Nielsen and daughters, Iris and Selma, will remain another month or more at Los Angeles. "While I enjoyed my stay there and would have remained two or three weeks longer had not business called me home, yet I would not care to live in Southern California all the time," said Thor Nielsen in conversation with the Examiner scribe. "It is nice to go there," he said, "during our cold weather here, but I imagine that I would not enjoy the summers there. The summers in old Bear Lake are good enough for me." Mr. Nielsen thinks that Long Beach is the coming resort of Southern California. It is now a city of about 15,000 and is growing rapidly.

J. C. Nielsen and Thor Nielsen and wife returned last Friday from a month's sojourn in Southern California. Mrs. J. C. Nielsen and daughters, Iris and Selma, will remain another month or more at Los Angeles. "While I enjoyed my stay there and would have remained two or three weeks longer had not business called me home, yet I would not care to live in Southern California all the time," said Thor Nielsen in conversation with the Examiner scribe. "It is nice to go there," he said, "during our cold weather here, but I imagine that I would not enjoy the summers there. The summers in old Bear Lake are good enough for me." Mr. Nielsen thinks that Long Beach is the coming resort of Southern California. It is now a city of about 15,000 and is growing rapidly.

J. C. Nielsen and Thor Nielsen and wife returned last Friday from a month's sojourn in Southern California. Mrs. J. C. Nielsen and daughters, Iris and Selma, will remain another month or more at Los Angeles. "While I enjoyed my stay there and would have remained two or three weeks longer had not business called me home, yet I would not care to live in Southern California all the time," said Thor Nielsen in conversation with the Examiner scribe. "It is nice to go there," he said, "during our cold weather here, but I imagine that I would not enjoy the summers there. The summers in old Bear Lake are good enough for me." Mr. Nielsen thinks that Long Beach is the coming resort of Southern California. It is now a city of about 15,000 and is growing rapidly.

J. C. Nielsen and Thor Nielsen and wife returned last Friday from a month's sojourn in Southern California. Mrs. J. C. Nielsen and daughters, Iris and Selma, will remain another month or more at Los Angeles. "While I enjoyed my stay there and would have remained two or three weeks longer had not business called me home, yet I would not care to live in Southern California all the time," said Thor Nielsen in conversation with the Examiner scribe. "It is nice to go there," he said, "during our cold weather here, but I imagine that I would not enjoy the summers there. The summers in old Bear Lake are good enough for me." Mr. Nielsen thinks that Long Beach is the coming resort of Southern California. It is now a city of about 15,000 and is growing rapidly.

J. C. Nielsen and Thor Nielsen and wife returned last Friday from a month's sojourn in Southern California. Mrs. J. C. Nielsen and daughters, Iris and Selma, will remain another month or more at Los Angeles. "While I enjoyed my stay there and would have remained two or three weeks longer had not business called me home, yet I would not care to live in Southern California all the time," said Thor Nielsen in conversation with the Examiner scribe. "It is nice to go there," he said, "during our cold weather here, but I imagine that I would not enjoy the summers there. The summers in old Bear Lake are good enough for me." Mr. Nielsen thinks that Long Beach is the coming resort of Southern California. It is now a city of about 15,000 and is growing rapidly.

J. C. Nielsen and Thor Nielsen and wife returned last Friday from a month's sojourn in Southern California. Mrs. J. C. Nielsen and daughters, Iris and Selma, will remain another month or more at Los Angeles. "While I enjoyed my stay there and would have remained two or three weeks longer had not business called me home, yet I would not care to live in Southern California all the time," said Thor Nielsen in conversation with the Examiner scribe. "It is nice to go there," he said, "during our cold weather here, but I imagine that I would not enjoy the summers there. The summers in old Bear Lake are good enough for me." Mr. Nielsen thinks that Long Beach is the coming resort of Southern California. It is now a city of about 15,000 and is growing rapidly.

J. C. Nielsen and Thor Nielsen and wife returned last Friday from a month's sojourn in Southern California. Mrs. J. C. Nielsen and daughters, Iris and Selma, will remain another month or more at Los Angeles. "While I enjoyed my stay there and would have remained two or three weeks longer had not business called me home, yet I would not care to live in Southern California all the time," said Thor Nielsen in conversation with the Examiner scribe. "It is nice to go there," he said, "during our cold weather here, but I imagine that I would not enjoy the summers there. The summers in old Bear Lake are good enough for me." Mr. Nielsen thinks that Long Beach is the coming resort of Southern California. It is now a city of about 15,000 and is growing rapidly.

J. C. Nielsen and Thor Nielsen and wife returned last Friday from a month's sojourn in Southern California. Mrs. J. C. Nielsen and daughters, Iris and Selma, will remain another month or more at Los Angeles. "While I enjoyed my stay there and would have remained two or three weeks longer had not business called me home, yet I would not care to live in Southern California all the time," said Thor Nielsen in conversation with the Examiner scribe. "It is nice to go there," he said, "during our cold weather here, but I imagine that I would not enjoy the summers there. The summers in old Bear Lake are good enough for me." Mr. Nielsen thinks that Long Beach is the coming resort of Southern California. It is now a city of about 15,000 and is growing rapidly.

J. C. Nielsen and Thor Nielsen and wife returned last Friday from a month's sojourn in Southern California. Mrs. J. C. Nielsen and daughters, Iris and Selma, will remain another month or more at Los Angeles. "While I enjoyed my stay there and would have remained two or three weeks longer had not business called me home, yet I would not care to live in Southern California all the time," said Thor Nielsen in conversation with the Examiner scribe. "It is nice to go there," he said, "during our cold weather here, but I imagine that I would not enjoy the summers there. The summers in old Bear Lake are good enough for me." Mr. Nielsen thinks that Long Beach is the coming resort of Southern California. It is now a city of about 15,000 and is growing rapidly.

J. C. Nielsen and Thor Nielsen and wife returned last Friday from a month's sojourn in Southern California. Mrs. J. C. Nielsen and daughters, Iris and Selma, will remain another month or more at Los Angeles. "While I enjoyed my stay there and would have remained two or three weeks longer had not business called me home, yet I would not care to live in Southern California all the time," said Thor Nielsen in conversation with the Examiner scribe. "It is nice to go there," he said, "during our cold weather here, but I imagine that I would not enjoy the summers there. The summers in old Bear Lake are good enough for me." Mr. Nielsen thinks that Long Beach is the coming resort of Southern California. It is now a city of about 15,000 and is growing rapidly.

J. C. Nielsen and Thor Nielsen and wife returned last Friday from a month's sojourn in Southern California. Mrs. J. C. Nielsen and daughters, Iris and Selma, will remain another month or more at Los Angeles. "While I enjoyed my stay there and would have remained two or three weeks longer had not business called me home, yet I would not care to live in Southern California all the time," said Thor Nielsen in conversation with the Examiner scribe. "It is nice to go there," he said, "during our cold weather here, but I imagine that I would not enjoy the summers there. The summers in old Bear Lake are good enough for me." Mr. Nielsen thinks that Long Beach is the coming resort of Southern California. It is now a city of about 15,000 and is growing rapidly.

J. C. Nielsen and Thor Nielsen and wife returned last Friday from a month's sojourn in Southern California. Mrs. J. C. Nielsen and daughters, Iris and Selma, will remain another month or more at Los Angeles. "While I enjoyed my stay there and would have remained two or three weeks longer had not business called me home, yet I would not care to live in Southern California all the time," said Thor Nielsen in conversation with the Examiner scribe. "It is nice to go there," he said, "during our cold weather here, but I imagine that I would not enjoy the summers there. The summers in old Bear Lake are good enough for me." Mr. Nielsen thinks that Long Beach is the coming resort of Southern California. It is now a city of about 15,000 and is growing rapidly.

J. C. Nielsen and Thor Nielsen and wife returned last Friday from a month's sojourn in Southern California. Mrs. J. C. Nielsen and daughters, Iris and Selma, will remain another month or more at Los Angeles. "While I enjoyed my stay there and would have remained two or three weeks longer had not business called me home, yet I would not care to live in Southern California all the time," said Thor Nielsen in conversation with the Examiner scribe. "It is nice to go there," he said, "during our cold weather here, but I imagine that I would not enjoy the summers there. The summers in old Bear Lake are good enough for me." Mr. Nielsen thinks that Long Beach is the coming resort of Southern California. It is now a city of about 15,000 and is growing rapidly.

J. C. Nielsen and Thor Nielsen and wife returned last Friday from a month's sojourn in Southern California. Mrs. J. C. Nielsen and daughters, Iris and Selma, will remain another month or more at Los Angeles. "While I enjoyed my stay there and would have remained two or three weeks longer had not business called me home, yet I would not care to live in Southern California all the time," said Thor Nielsen in conversation with the Examiner scribe. "It is nice to go there," he said, "during our cold weather here, but I imagine that I would not enjoy the summers there. The summers in old Bear Lake are good enough for me." Mr. Nielsen thinks that Long Beach is the coming resort of Southern California. It is now a city of about 15,000 and is growing rapidly.

SADDLES

A New Line and a Big Assortment. Only the Best

Fine Line of Blankets, Quirts, Bridles, Spurs, Bits & Everything in the Harness Line.

Enos Hardware Co.

Resolved

That there is no better place to buy drugs, liquors and cigars than at the Old Reliable
MONTPELIER DRUG CO.

Prescriptions a Specialty

Complete Stock Lowest Prices

Our stock of finishing and rustic is always complete and prices the lowest. Doors in Oak and White Pine, Cottage and Plain Windows.

A Fine Assortment of

Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Picture Moulding and Wall Paper
Portland Cement and Hard Wall Plaster

D. McLENNAN, Montpelier, Depot St.

J. R. SHEPHERD, Pres. JOHN C. RICE, Vice-Pres.
WILLI H. YOUNG, Cashier

THE BEAR LAKE STATE BANK OF PARIS, IDAHO

TRANSACTS A GENERAL
BANKING BUSINESS

Accounts, whether small or large, given prompt and careful attention

Plenty of Lumber

I am prepared to fill all orders for first class Native White Pine Finishing, Rustic and Flooring. Red Pine Dimension Stuff and One Inch Boards. Also carry a Heavy Stock of DOORS and WINDOWS.

Paris Lumber Yard ROBT. PRICE, PROPRIETOR.

THE PALACE SALOON MONTPELIER, IDAHO

ANHEUSER BEER ON TAP

Rich Hill Bourbon Whiskey
Old Redding Penn. Rye Whiskey

Key West and Domestic Cigars, A Fine Line
J. F. O'CONNOR - Proprietor

READ THE EXAMINER. $1.50 Year